

“By open access, we mean its immediate, free availability on the public internet, permitting any users to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search or link to the full text of these articles, crawl them for indexing, pass them as data to software or use them for any other lawful purpose...”

- The Budapest Open Access Initiative

University of Regina Library's
Beyond the Book Lecture Series for 2012-2013 Presents

Alyssa Daku

Manager of Corporate Information Governance at the City of Regina

Open Government, Open Data, Open Dialogue, Open Information

To help celebrate Open Access Week, Donald Johnson presents an update about the online institutional repository, oURspace, at the University of Regina. Following this, Alyssa Daku discusses the benefits of open government as well as the various components frequently employed including open data, open information and open dialogue. She will draw on the City of Regina's experience in launching their Open Government program this year as well as discuss other leading practices in Canada and globally.

Wednesday, October 24, 2012

1:30 P.M. - 2:30 P.M.

University of Regina

Archives & Special Collections Reading Room (LY 107.4)

