

SERVICES & FACILITIES

Libraries

The Dr. John Archer Library on the University of Regina main campus houses collections in a variety of formats. In print format, there are more than a million volumes of books, journals and government publications; in microform, there are approximately 1.2 million units. There are growing electronic collections as well: some 40,000 electronic journals are accessible, as well as more than 70,000 electronic books. Also accessible to all University of Regina students and faculty are three federated college libraries; those of Campion, Luther and the First Nations University of Canada. Library materials, including federated college library holdings, can be located through the University of Regina's WebVoyage public access catalogue. For more information go to www.uregina.ca/library

Information Technology

Three hundred computers are available on campus for general student use. For more information, visit www.uregina.ca/compserv/

Ask U of R

ASK U of R is an online FAQ for future and current university students who have questions about admission, tuition, transfers, registration, residences, student life, services and more. Visit www.uregina.ca/ask/

Student Affairs

Student Affairs offers a wide variety of services to enhance student life. The office also acts as an advocate for students. For more information, visit www.uregina.ca/studserv/

Centre for Continuing Education (CCE)

CCE links the University's resources to individual and group learning needs in the community. A wide selection of programs are offered: certificate programs (credit and non-credit); weekend & summer credit courses; off-campus credit courses offering televised, online, and face-to-face delivery at regional college and SIAST campus locations; English as a Second Language; Seniors Education Centre; Conservatory of Performing Arts programs for children and adults; and Business and Professional Development programs. For more information, visit www.uregina.ca/cce

Students' Union (URSU)

The Students' Union is an autonomous organization that represents students to the University and various levels of government. It offers services to improve the quality of life for students while attending University. Students with questions about programs and services can visit www.ursu.uregina.ca, or stop by the URSU office in the Dr. William Riddell Centre, or phone 306-586-8811.
