Chancellor's Community Mother's Day concert with Malcolm Lowe at Darke Hall

Celebrate spring with us at the Chancellor's Community Mother's Day Concert with Malcolm Lowe BFA'14 Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts honoris causa, and former concertmaster for the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Join us at the beautifully restored Darke Hall on Sunday, May 14 for this afternoon program including a selection of some of the music Malcolm first learned to play while studying at Regina's Conservatory of Performing Arts, including compositions by Mozart, Debussy, Dvořák, and others. Joined by special guest, internationally renowned accompanist Rachel Andrist BMus'82, this promises to be an afternoon to remember, and a wonderful way to celebrate Mother's Day – or just the arrival of spring!

University of Regina Chancellor's Community Mother's Day Concert with Malcolm Lowe
Sunday, May 14 at 2 p.m.
Darke Hall | 2285 College Ave.
Single tickets are $45 for adults, $35 for seniors, and $20 for those 12 years of age and under, plus taxes.

Alumni Spotlight: Justin Fernandez (Cert.) Inclusive Post-Secondary Education'21

Justin Fernandez (Cert.) Inclusive Post-Secondary Education'21 immigrated to Canada with his family from the Philippines in 2010. Despite the bullying he was the target of in high school, Fernandez focused on his studies and his goal of becoming a contributing member of the community. In June 2021, after four years of study, Fernandez earned a Certificate in Inclusive Post-Secondary Education. The certificate is part of the U of R's Campus for All program.

Research news from the U of R

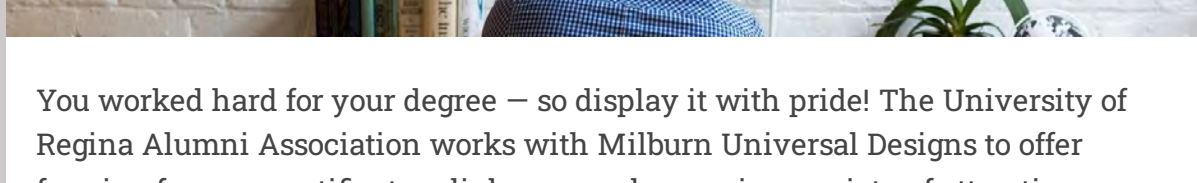

Organic matter found in fossilized 44-million-year-old beetle

A team of researchers from U of R, Royal Saskatchewan Museum, and Institute of Life Sciences and Technologies at Daugavpils University in Latvia, have now identified what appears to be organic matter in a 44-million-year-old beetle fossilized in amber.

This remarkable finding, and the methodology used in making it, has been published in Nature's Scientific Reports, the fifth most-cited journal in the world.
