

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

CASPR LAB

- Developing educational social media content on childhood deception to share with the public
- Creating visual materials, graphics, and written content for the lab's social media platforms and website
- Reviewing and summarizing recent research on childhood deception for community engagement
- Assisting in the preparation of study materials for data collection
- Supporting knowledge dissemination and research tasks such as:
 - transcribing interviews
 - coding qualitative data
 - conducting literature reviews
 - preparing data collection materials
 - editing manuscripts for peer-reviewed publication

For more info, please email community.engagement@uregina.ca

University of Regina

Faculty of Arts