

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Regina Food for Learning

- Research leadership policies and develop a policy strategy
- Learn about the realities of food security in Regina
- Develop your research, writing, and analytical skills while gaining valuable inside into organizational governance
- Understand how a non-profit organization is run, while contributing to meaningful community initiatives
- Communicate and collaborate with other team members
- Gain insights into potential career paths in research and policy development

➔ For more info, please email community.engagement@uregina.ca

University of Regina

Faculty of Arts