

- Build professional communication and networking abilities through outreach to campus and community stakeholders
- Gain experience in content promotion, public relations, and strategic audience engagement
- Understand the role of media in community building and social change

Develop project planning and execution skills through event support and recruitment initiatives

- Learn the editorial and organizational work flows of a student-run newspaper
 - Gain insights into potential career paths in communications, project management, and public relations

For more info, please email community.engagement@uregina.ca

Faculty of Arts