

HILL AND LEVENE STUDENT CODE OF PROFESSIONAL & ETHICAL CONDUCT

The purpose of this code is to promote the development of responsible leaders by adhering to the highest standards of professionalism and academic integrity, conduct and trust.

As a student of the Paul J. Hill School of Business or Kenneth Levene Graduate School of Business, I will comply with the Code of Professional and Ethical Conduct outlined below and all other University of Regina policies covering matters of student conduct (e.g., UofR Student Code of Conduct and Academic Integrity).

As a student of Hill and Levene Schools of Business,

- I will respect our Indigenous heritage.
- I understand that academic integrity is expected at all times of every student of the Hill and Levene Schools of Business and the University of Regina.
- I accept that it is my responsibility to review and comply with the University's Student Code of Conduct and expectations of Academic Integrity.
- I will always engage in respectful communication with staff, faculty and student-peers in and outside of the classroom.
- I will foster a positive learning environment for all individuals, respect the view of others during class discussions and abide by University of Regina's Respectful University policy against all forms of harassment and discrimination.
- I will always conduct myself professionally when participating in any of the student associations' activities or while representing the University at outside events and during work placements.
- I will always conduct myself in an ethical manner and commit that:
  - Every assignment that I submit for University of Regina classes will be my own work, or in the case of group submissions, the work of my group members.
  - Every paper, report, reflection, journal, or other similar work that I submit will properly acknowledge the source of ideas contained therein.
  - Every exam or quiz that I write will be done with honesty and integrity, following all University and instructor requirements.
- I will represent myself honestly in all communications with staff, faculty, students, as well in my correspondence external to the University, including interviews and resumes.
- I accept responsibility for my actions and will be held accountable for any of my actions which violate this code of conduct.
