

North West College to the Hill School

Transfer Credit for North West College Business Management Diploma

The University of Regina's Hill School of Business will grant transfer credit to North West College students who have completed the Business Management Diploma or Certificate.

A NW College program GPA of at least 65% is required for admission to the Paul J. Hill School of Business.

Transfer credit is subject to change, and evaluation is completed on a course-by-course basis after admission.

How it Works

North West College graduates will receive University of Regina transfer credit in the BBA program for up to 60 credit hours for the Business Management Diploma and up to 30 credit hours for a completed Business Management Certificate for completed courses from the following list.

A transferable course will be eligible for transfer credit in the BBA program when a grade of 60% or higher has been achieved in the course.
