VISUAL IDENTITY GUIDELINES

UPDATED JUNE 2024
1.0 VISUAL IDENTITY ELEMENTS
1.01
THE IMPORTANCE OF A VISUAL IDENTITY GUIDE

At the University of Regina, we are storytellers.

We tell stories about our students’ successes. We tell stories about our research that is positively affecting change at home and around the globe. We connect with our communities to find solutions to real-world issues (and, we tell stories about them).

By consistently adhering to visual identity standards, we build on our strong brand awareness and, together, tell even greater stories.

Though the visual identity guidelines include the University’s logo, it extends far beyond this single element. The visual identity is comprised of many elements, such as logos, fonts, artwork, photography, and colours. These elements come together to personify who we are as a university and help us tell our stories in a consistent way.

This document provides the foundation for consistent application of the University of Regina’s visual identity across all media, communications, and marketing materials.

University Communications & Marketing manages and supports the correct application of the University of Regina’s visual identity. Should you have any questions about the proper application of our visual identity guidelines, please do not hesitate to contact University Communications & Marketing.

Thank you for working with us to maintain our brand identity and keep our brand strong. And, thank you for telling our University of Regina stories.

Any questions regarding these guidelines should be directed to:

The brand statement serves to unify the University of Regina community. It draws on our vision, mission, and values, incorporates ideals that we — as a University community — hold dear, and illuminates our strengths. It helps us tell our University of Regina stories.

UNDERGRADUATE BRAND STATEMENT

The prairies are a special place. A place where you can grow. Explore. Uncover endless opportunities.

Situated in the heart of the Canadian prairies, the University of Regina and its federated colleges are on Treaty 4 and Treaty 6 territories — the homelands of the nēhiyawak, Anihšināpēk, Dakota, Lakota, Nakoda peoples, and Michif/Métis nation. The University of Regina is just as unique as its place. What makes us different? Our focus on you — our students.

The University of Regina is here for you through every step of your educational journey. From our excellent mental, academic, and physical wellness support systems to the way we’re actively working with Indigenous partners to reconcile our past, we are committed to you — and to building a better tomorrow.

We believe that learning is best accomplished hands-on. And that’s why we’ll help you find valuable work or volunteer experience in your area of study. We’re proud that our students graduate career ready and ready to make a real difference — to contribute to individual, social, economic and environmental well-being in their communities.

There are many places you can go in life. Though none as special as here.

At the University of Regina, we’ll go far, together.

GRADUATE BRAND STATEMENT

Why choose to pursue your post-secondary education with us?

It’s the way we wholly support our students through every step of their educational journey. It’s how we pioneered and continue to provide valuable experiential learning opportunities so that students can learn not just with their heads, but also with their hands. It’s how we demonstrate our commitment to mental health and well-being, whether through the world-class programs we teach, or the holistic wellness supports we offer our students.

It’s how we embrace diversity, foster inclusivity, and remain committed to reconciliation through teaching, research, and listening so that we may learn.

We are situated in the vast open plains of Treaty 4 and Treaty 6 territories — the homelands of the nēhiyawak, Anihšināpēk, Dakota, Lakota, Nakoda peoples, and Michif/Métis nation, where our views and opportunities abound in every direction.
The University of Regina logo is the primary element of our visual identity and should appear on all University of Regina communications.

The University of Regina logo is made up of two elements:

1. Crest graphic
2. University of Regina wordmark

Please ensure that the logo is reproduced at a legible size.

Do not attempt to reset the wordmark or build another configuration.

Always use digital files supplied by University Communications & Marketing or Printing Services.

The crest should not be used as a stand-alone mark except in specific circumstances, and only with prior approval from University Advancement & Communications.
1.04 LOGO COLOURS

Colour plays an important role in the portrayal and stature of the University of Regina brand, and promotes long-term brand recognition.

The logo should always be reproduced in its original form — meaning no tints or shades may be derived from it, nor may multiply or overlay effects be applied to it.

When possible, it should be printed using the Pantone Matching System value. If spot colours are not available, only the CMYK (Cyan, Magenta, Yellow, Black) values listed on this page should be used.

The official colours to be used for reproducing the University of Regina logo in Pantone, process (CMYK), RGB (Red, Green, Blue), and web-safe applications (HEX) are as shown.

Pantone 3435 C
- CMYK: C:95 / M:19 / Y:70 / K:72
- RGB: R:2 / G:71 / B:49
- HEX: #004f2e

Pantone 123 C
- CMYK: C:0 / M:21 / Y:88 / K:0
- RGB: R:253 / G:200 / B:49
- HEX: #ffca2e

Process Black
- CMYK: C:0 / M:0 / Y:0 / K:100
- RGB: R:0 / G:0 / B:0
- HEX: 000000

PRIMARY LOGO: CLEAR SPACE & MINIMUM SIZE

PROTECTED SPACE

The University of Regina signature has a unique configuration and orientation, which must never be altered in any way and must always maintain established proportions and spacing.

There should be a minimum clear space around the logo in which no other elements (eg: graphics, illustrations, photos) can appear.

Note how the height of the “U” in the “University of Regina” wordmark is the unit of measurement that dictates the correct logo configuration and safe area.

MINIMUM SIZE

A minimum allowable size has been established to ensure legibility of the logo in which the width of the logo is no less than 1.25 inches. Reproduction of the logo at a smaller size reduces the logo’s clarity and impact in general use.

Note: There may be rare occasions, such as placement on merchandise, that require the logo to be smaller. Please consult with the University Communications & Marketing Office in these instances.
1.06 PRIMARY LOGO: COLOUR VERSIONS

FULL-COLOUR VERSION
The full-colour logo is the preferred version and should be used whenever possible. There is a version specific to both spot colour printing (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C & Black) and four-colour process (CMYK) printing.

TWO-COLOUR VERSION
A two-colour version of the logo has been developed for occasions when the University needs to produce a two-colour print job. It uses Pantone 3435 C and Pantone 123 C.

ONE-COLOUR VERSION (GREEN)
A one-colour version of the logo has been developed for occasions when the University needs to produce a one-colour print job. It uses Pantone 3435 C.

BLACK VERSION
The black version is for use in black and white applications.

REVERSE VERSION
A reverse white version for use in black and white applications or on dark coloured backgrounds has also been created. The logo may be printed on any solid colour, texture or photographic background that provides sufficient contrast for clarity and legibility.

FULL-COLOUR VERSION
Available as:
• CMYK version
• Three-colour Pantone version (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C & Black)

TWO-COLOUR VERSION – GREEN & GOLD
(Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C)

ONE-COLOUR VERSION – GREEN
(Pantone 3435 C)

BLACK VERSION
(Black)

REVERSE VERSION

1.07 INCORRECT LOGO USAGE

The logo is uniquely rendered and should not be modified in any fashion. While computer technology allows for easy modification of graphics, any modifying should not be considered.

This page illustrates some of the ways the logo can be impaired by improper modifications. These modifications are not permitted under any circumstances.

- Do not change the typeface in the logo.
- Do not alter or scale logo elements.
- Do not use special effects (shadows, glows, bevels, etc).
- Do not use on a distracting background.
- Do not stretch or compress the logo.
- Do not display the wordmark without the crest.
- Do not screen or apply transparencies.
There are two secondary logo versions, including a vertical (stacked) version and a horizontal (one-line) version.

In instances where the space provided is too small for the primary logo to be legible, or in special situations when the use of the primary logo would be unsuitable, please use one of the secondary logos.

Whenever possible, the logo should appear in its full-colour version (as per the versions shown on the right). Never alter the proportions of the logos.

ACCEPTABLE COLOUR VERSIONS
Similar to the primary logo, the secondary logos are available in multiple acceptable colour versions, including:

- Full-colour version (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C & Black) or CMYK
- Two-colour version (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C)
- One-colour version (Pantone 3435 C)
- Black version
- Reverse version

U OF R LOGO WITH TAGLINE

These are the approved logo versions to be used when combining the official U of R logo with the “Go far, together” tagline.

ACCEPTABLE COLOUR VERSIONS
The logo with tagline are available in multiple colour versions, including:

- Full-colour version
  (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C & Black) or CMYK
- One-colour version – green
  (Pantone 3435 C) or CMYK
- Black version
- Reverse version
These are the approved full-colour tagline versions that can be used in materials where the tagline is used separately from the University of Regina logo (i.e. headline on ad, title on publication).

The University of Regina official logo should always appear on marketing materials in conjunction with the tagline, even when tagline (headline/title) is placed separately from the logo. Please refer to pages 41 and 44 in this Guide for more information on usage.

ACCEPTABLE COLOUR VERSIONS
The full-colour tagline is available in multiple acceptable colour versions, including:

- Full-colour version (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C) or CMYK
- Full-colour reverse version (Pantone 3435 C & Pantone 123 C) or CMYK

NOTE: The full-colour tagline versions use the font News Gothic Condensed Bold in the “Go far,” text, so the yellow text visually balances with the dark green/white “together” text.
These are the approved one-colour tagline versions that can be used in materials where the tagline is used separately from the University of Regina logo (i.e. headline on ad, title on publication).

The University of Regina official logo should always appear on marketing materials in conjunction with the tagline, even when tagline (headline/title) is placed separately from the logo. Please refer to pages 41 and 44 in this Guide for more information on usage.

ACCEPTABLE COLOUR VERSIONS
The one-colour tagline is available in multiple acceptable colour versions, including:

• Green version (Pantone 3435 C) or CMYK
• Black version
• Reverse version

NOTE: The one-colour tagline versions use the font News Gothic Condensed Regular in the “Go far,” text, so both parts of the tagline maintain a visual balance.
1.12

U OF R MONOGRAM

The monogram may be used in place of the logo on merchandise such as clothing, pens, and mugs where the item’s shape and size are considerations.

Position it in a location that is appropriate to the shape, size, and purpose of the merchandise. For large quantities of clothing production (>50), University Communications & Marketing should be consulted for suitability and price.

The monogram is not intended for use in print publications.

The crest is not to be used with the monogram, and is not part of the monogram.

ONE-COLOUR MONOGRAM – GREEN
(Pantone 3435 C)

ONE-COLOUR MONOGRAM – BLACK
(Black)

ONE-COLOUR MONOGRAM – YELLOW
(Pantone 123 C on a green background - Pantone 3435 C)

REVERSE MONOGRAM
(White on a black background)
The University’s corporate crest and/or corporate seal are used for official purposes such as diplomas, transcripts, and official non-administrative legal documents of the University. All other administrative forms and documents should use the University logo.

The institutional wordmark and crest should be displayed with appropriate size and prominence. The institutional crest should always appear with the institution’s name for association.

The full crest (bottom row) with top elements (above crest) is only used for official documents (eg: diplomas or legal documents).

On occasion, the primary logo and the crest or seal may be used on the same document. The Executive Director, University Governance, has oversight for the use of the corporate crest/seal and should be consulted on a case-by-case basis to determine correct use.

Special permission from the Executive Director, University Governance, must be obtained before creating official institutional items with the full crest.

POSITIONING OF UNIT NAMES WITH LOGO

When using the logo in conjunction with the name of a faculty, department, unit, or centre (thereby referred to as the ‘unit name’), the unit name should always appear TO THE RIGHT of the primary logo.

The logo should be placed preferably in the top right corner, lower right corner, or in the logo footer bar (see page 40).

In special instances, pending approval from University Communications & Marketing, the logo may be placed in the top left corner or bottom left corner of the publication. Please contact University Communications & Marketing for approval of alternate logo placement.

In the examples shown, the logo is approximately 2.375” (6.0325 cm) wide and the unit name text is 14 pt. News Gothic Standard Medium with 17 pt. leading.

For usage guidelines on unit names on stationery, see page 28.

All usage and print guidelines that apply to the basic logo also apply to unit identifiers.

* Pink notations indicate spacing requirements.

FORMAT FOR UNIT NAME OVER 3 LINES (LONGER NAMES)

To create a unit name logo version on three lines, place a 1 pt. vertical line 1/4” (.0635 cm) to the right of the logo, extending from the bottom of the logo to the TOP of the type in the top line of the logo. Add the unit name 1/8” (0.3175 cm) to the right of the vertical line. The unit name should be set in News Gothic Standard Medium in black. The type size and leading should always allow for the unit name to be the same height as the vertical line.

FORMAT FOR UNIT NAME OVER 2 LINES (SHORTER NAMES)

To create a unit name logo version on two lines, place a 1 pt. vertical line 1/4” (.0635 cm) to the right of the logo, extending from the bottom of the logo to the BOTTOM of the type in the top line of the logo. Add the unit name 1/8” (0.3175 cm) to the right of the vertical line. The unit name should be set in News Gothic Standard Medium in black. The type size and leading should always allow for the unit name to be the same height as the vertical line.
Faculties and units across campus are expected to adhere to the University’s visual identity guidelines. The University’s brand should be the primary brand represented on all pieces of communications and marketing produced by faculties and units.

In exceptional cases, faculties, schools or centres may be permitted to develop a unique brand. Permission must be granted by University Communications & Marketing, and the unit must work with the faculty, school or centre in the creation of the brand.

Development of faculty-specific brands are approved if the faculty becomes named, for example. In the case where a significant donation is made to the faculty, and, as a result, the official name of the faculty (and/or schools within the faculty) is changed, the faculty may work with University Communications & Marketing to create a faculty specific brand that uses University of Regina approved fonts, colours, and, as much as possible, adheres to the University’s visual identity guidelines while fulfilling the requirements of the gift agreement with the donor(s).
1.16 EXTERNAL ORGANIZATIONS: USING THE BRAND

External organizations, including organizations with whom the University of Regina has formal partnerships, sponsorships, or relationships, wishing to use the University of Regina brand, design elements, or logo/graphic elements must seek permission from University Communications & Marketing.

The University of Regina has the right to grant or revoke permissions to use the University’s brand in full or in part as it sees fit.
Whenever possible, use these three official University of Regina colours as foundational elements within your communications and promotional material.

It is acceptable to use tints (shades) of the primary colours to add variety and visual interest to the materials. It is recommended that the minimum tint value for each colour is 10%. This ensures that the colour tint will not appear too faint and will have sufficient visual presence.

Consistent use of our official colours helps us continue to build brand recognition.

VISUAL IDENTITY COLOURS: SECONDARY PALETTE

The secondary colour palette is designed to support and complement the primary colour palette. These colours enable flexibility and variety in design.

The colours in the secondary palette should be used as accent colours only. The majority of colour used in designed materials should consist of colours from the primary palette.

When using the secondary palette colours, please use combinations that correspond to the tonal categories shown on this page (i.e. dark/desaturated colour with other dark/desaturated colours).

Any questions regarding the appropriate application of the secondary colour palette should be directed to University Communications & Marketing.

The University of Regina’s typography communicates clearly and cleanly and is flexible in a wide range of situations. When used thoughtfully, typography becomes an effective tool that can add visual meaning to what is communicated.

The three font families used in the University’s visual identity are News Gothic, New Caledonia, and Just Lovely Slanted. The following guidelines describe how to use each for different purposes – as a headline, as a primary font, and as a secondary complementary font.

Font license inquiries should be directed to University Communications & Marketing by contacting University.Marketing@uregina.ca.

Please note that Printing Services manages requirements for the official University stationery (e.g., letterhead, envelopes, business cards) using the appropriate fonts and approved design.

For longer-running text in the body of standard administrative documents such as letters and memos, Times New Roman should be used. New Caledonia may be used for longer-running text in the body of designed marketing and promotional publications.

HEADLINE FONT

News Gothic Condensed
New Caledonia Regular

Headlines and some accents are set in News Gothic Condensed or Condensed Bold. You may also use News Gothic Extra Condensed if the application is appropriate.

PRIMARY FONT

News Gothic MT Standard Regular
News Gothic MT Standard Italic

The primary font for use on subheads, captions, and accents is News Gothic (not Condensed.) This may also be used for minimal amounts of body text if legibility is not compromised.

NOTE: In circumstances where the News Gothic font family is not available, you may substitute Arial in its place. Arial has a number of variations and is available on every computer.

SECONDARY COMPLEMENTARY FONT

New Caledonia Regular
New Caledonia Reg Italic

New Caledonia can be used for thematic text or for longer-running text in the main body of documents. As a serif font, New Caledonia makes dense text blocks easier to read, and it should be used when maximum legibility is a priority.

NOTE: In circumstances where the New Caledonia font family is not available, you may substitute Times New Roman in its place. Times New Roman has a number of variations and is available on every computer.

SECONDARY COMPLEMENTARY FONT

Just Lovely Slanted

Just Lovely Slanted is a contemporary, handwritten script that should be used as a secondary font only, in applications that require a more casual look and feel. This script font should be used sparingly in combination with News Gothic and New Caledonia.
Institutional brands use type effectively. Often seeing only the typography and brand elements is enough to successfully identify the organization or product being promoted.

By being consistent with the University of Regina typefaces, we communicate our brand more effectively and help it stand out in a competitive marketplace.

1. Do use only approved colours.

2. Do use only approved University of Regina typefaces.

3. Do have consistent letter spacing (i.e. the space between the letters) when setting headlines, subheads or body copy.

1. Don’t use effects, such as drop shadows that compromise legibility.

2. Don’t have inconsistent letter spacing (i.e. the space between the letters) in words when setting headlines, subheads or body copy.

3. Don’t distort the typefaces (i.e. expand, condense or modify the letterforms).

4. Don’t use non-approved University of Regina typefaces.
The University of Regina is home to a diverse community of faculty, staff, and students, and, as such, is strongly committed to fostering equity, diversity, and inclusion. It is important that the University’s brand reflects this commitment.

The language and imagery we use should be inclusive. It should help tell the University’s story in a way that celebrates the diversity of our campus.
1.22 PHOTOGRAPHY STYLE

All photography used for University of Regina marketing and communications should be professionally produced. In order to portray a sense of “togetherness” and community, avoid the use of single-person photos whenever possible and use photos that feature two or more people in promotional materials. Whether capturing exterior or interior shots, it is essential that all photography conveys a sense of authenticity and portrays a genuine University experience. Any posed photographs should feel relaxed and comfortable, never forced or stiff. Avoid the use of stock photography unless absolutely necessary.

In general, most University photography will fall into one of the following four categories. General art direction guidelines are as follows:

STUDENTS & FACULTY
Any photography depicting U of R students and faculty should capture an authentic sense of the diversity present on campus.

REAL MOMENTS
All photography capturing University events or activities should be candid in order to accurately portray the lively atmosphere on campus.

CAMPUS
Campus photography should include beauty shots depicting the campus as a vibrant, world-class facility.

CULTURE
Imagery depicting life on campus should capture authentic moments, and paint a realistic vision of what living and learning at the University of Regina is all about.
FILE FORMATS

Please refer to the “Visual Identity Elements” PDF to confirm filenames when sending logos to your suppliers.

For more information about selecting the correct file formats, please contact:

University Communications & Marketing
Email: University.Marketing@uregina.ca
Or visit us at 110 Paskwâw Tower

EPS FILES

EPS files are typically what suppliers use. They are vector graphics, meaning they can be resized to any size without distortion or loss of detail. These files are special files built from the original artwork in vector images, which can be enlarged to any size without pixelation or image loss.

Since you probably won’t be able to view EPS files on your computer, please refer to the JPG equivalents of the EPS files in order to choose the right file to send with your print job.

EPS files often appear to have jagged edges on screen, but produce absolutely crisp printouts. You can test this by placing your EPS file in a new document (it may appear black and jagged even if it is a colour logo) and printing a test page from your printer. To use an EPS file, you must have access to and training on the Adobe® Creative Suite of software.

PDF FILES

PDF files are similar to EPS files in that they are vector graphics which can be enlarged without losing sharpness and can be used for supplier-produced materials.

Users will be able to view PDF files on their computer since PDF file formats are universally viewable.

JPG, PNG, AND GIF FILES

These files are raster graphics, which means detail is composed with pixels. The image quality of raster graphics will degrade as you enlarge them or as you save them multiple times.

JPG files can be used across desktop publishing software, Word, and PowerPoint with one limitation; transparency. JPG files have been included for some logos, where other file types cannot be employed. JPGs are built in RGB colour space.

PNG is an alternative that supports transparent backgrounds and can be useful in many applications – especially for web design where white may not be the desired background colour.

GIF files are limited to 256 colours. It is an acceptable choice for the web but not print.

PUBLICATIONS:
U OF R LOGO ONLY

The University of Regina logo must appear prominently on all pieces that represent the University.

In any publication printed in full colour, the University of Regina logo should appear in full colour as well.

Respect must be given to the logo space, ensuring it remains highly visible.

The logo must appear on the front of all publications, preferably in the top right corner, lower right corner, or in the logo footer bar (as indicated in the following pages of this Guide).

In special instances, the logo may be placed in the top left corner of the page. Please contact University Communications & Marketing for approval of alternate logo placement.

Logo can be placed at the top of the publication when deemed appropriate, preferably in the top right corner of the page. In special instances, the logo can be placed in the top left corner of the page.

Logo can be placed at the bottom of the publication when deemed appropriate, preferably in the bottom right corner of the page.

A black version or a reverse (white) version of the logo can be used when deemed appropriate.
2.14

PUBLICATIONS: U OF R LOGO WITH TAGLINE

The University of Regina logo can appear with the “Go far, together” tagline on marketing materials when deemed appropriate.

In any publication printed in full colour, the University of Regina logo and tagline should appear in full colour as well.

Respect must be given to the logo and tagline space, ensuring it remains highly visible.

There are various acceptable placements for the logo and tagline on a publication cover — logo placed in the top left corner with tagline in bottom right corner; logo and tagline placed in bottom right corner; logo placed in bottom left corner with tagline in bottom right corner; or in the logo footer bar (as indicated in the following pages of this Guide).

In special instances, pending approval from University Communications & Marketing, the logo and tagline may be placed in the top left corner or bottom left corner of the publication. Please contact University Communications & Marketing for approval of alternate logo and tagline placement.

The minimum distance from the logo to the edges of the front cover should be no less than 0.5”.

Margins may be increased to suit the design.

FULL-COLOUR LOGO PLACEMENT ON PUBLICATIONS

Logo can be placed in the top left corner of the publication with tagline in the bottom right corner when deemed appropriate.

Logo with tagline (one-line or two-line version) can be placed in the bottom right corner of the publication when deemed appropriate.

“Go far, together” is the University of Regina’s unique brand positioning statement and can be used as a headline or title on a variety of marketing materials and advertising campaigns.

On all materials that feature “Go far, together” as a headline or title, the standalone U of R logo version should always be used. In instances where the standalone U of R logo is used in the footer bar, it should appear on the left side of the bar. The call to action statement should appear on the right side.

Please note that this alternate footer bar configuration should only be used in instances where “Go far, together” is used as a headline or title.

There are many places you can go in life, so why choose the University of Regina? The answer is simple. Because we choose you – every single day.

The U of R is here for you through every step of your educational journey. From our excellent mental, academic, and physical wellness support systems, to the way we’re actively working with Indigenous partners to reconcile our past, to our valuable hands-on work placements that will give you real-world experience, we are committed to helping you shape your ideal future. Let’s go far, together.
2.17 PRINT ADVERTISING: BASIC DESIGN

The use of consistent images, colour, and graphic elements creates a unified visual identity for the University of Regina and positions the institution as modern and progressive.

Maintaining a typographic hierarchy in University of Regina advertising helps communicate our message quickly and efficiently. Please follow the established hierarchy for all print pieces and utilize the logo footer bar correctly in all print advertising.

PRINT ADVERTISING: LOGO FOOTER BAR – ACCEPTABLE LOGO VERSIONS

The logo footer bar is used in a variety of University of Regina marketing materials and advertising and should always appear at the bottom of the design layout.

Depending on the intended audience, the footer bar can feature one of four logo configuration options:

- U of R logo with tagline (one-line version)
- U of R logo with tagline (two-line version)
- U of R standalone logo
- U of R logo with unit name

The examples on this page show acceptable logo versions that can be used in the logo footer bar.

Note: The logos should always appear on the right side of the footer bar, except in instances where the tagline “Go far, together” is used as a headline or title (see page 44 of this Guide for more information).
2.19 PRINT ADVERTISING: LOGO FOOTER BAR – CONFIGURATION & PLACEMENT

LOGO FOOTER BAR CONFIGURATION

The height of the bar should be sufficient enough to allow for the University of Regina logo and tagline to be legible. The width of the bar can be altered to fit the size of the ad by extending or shortening the left side of the bar.

The typeface used in the logo footer bar (left side of bar) should be News Gothic MT Std Regular (and News Gothic MT Std Bold).

News Gothic Condensed (and News Gothic Condensed Bold) may also be used when deemed appropriate.

LOGO FOOTER BAR PLACEMENT

The footer bar should always be placed one third of its height away from the bottom of the page regardless of the size of the ad.

In some instances (e.g. ads with no bleed), the bar can be placed directly at the bottom of the ad along the bottom edge.

The University of Regina logo and tagline should be positioned at least 0.5” away from the edge of the advertisement.

---

To learn more about the impactful research being done at the University of Regina, please visit uregina.ca

---

Call-to-action text should always be vertically centred within footer bar.

---

OPTION 1: Place the bar approx. one-third of its height up from the bottom of the layout.

---

OPTION 2: On ads that do not bleed, you may place the footer bar directly on the bottom of the ad.
2.20
PRINT ADVERTISING: LOGO FOOTER BAR – COLOUR VERSIONS

The logo footer bar can be used in a variety of advertising scenarios, ranging from full-colour outdoor ads, to black and white newspaper ads.

In full-colour advertisements, the logo bar can be reproduced in any colour combination using the four approved colours – University of Regina Green (Pantone 3435 C), University of Regina Yellow (Pantone 123 C), Black, and White – as long as the elements inside the bar maintain sufficient contrast to be legible.

The examples on this page show acceptable colour combinations that may be used in the logo footer bar when printing in full colour.

POWERPOINT PRESENTATIONS

There are two options for title pages and two options for secondary pages. Title and secondary pages are designed to be mixed and matched.

The font to be used in the PowerPoint pages is Arial (Regular and Bold). Arial is a universal system font that is compatible with both Mac and PC platforms.
2.25 ONLINE ADVERTISING

Use of consistent images, colour, and visual elements communicate the desired University of Regina brand when designing online ads.

Typical sizes for online ads are:
- Big Box (300x250px)
- Leaderboard (728x90px)
- Skyscraper (160x600px)

If the required ad is a different size, please attempt to keep the proportions similar to the examples shown on this page.

Note: If there are space limitations with online ad sizes, the U of R logo can be used alone without the tagline when deemed appropriate.
2.26 EMAIL SIGNATURES

University of Regina email signatures are designed to create and maintain a professional look in electronic communication.

Please refer to these specs when setting up official University of Regina email signatures.

Name is set in Arial Bold (12 pt).
Title is set in Arial Regular (10 pt).
Pronouns are set in Arial Italic (10 pt).
Faculty name/land acknowledgment/contact information is set in Arial Regular (10 pt).
All text is 100% black.

Note: Preferred pronouns will appear below the title of the individual. Pronouns are optional on email signatures/business cards.

Associate Professor
Pronouns: she, her, hers
Faculty Name Inserted Here
Treaty 4 and Métis Homeland
Phone: 306-123-1234
uregina.ca

Land acknowledgment (Treaty 4 and Métis Homeland) must always appear on email signatures after the faculty name. For those working on the Saskatoon or Prince Albert campus, please use Treaty 6 and Métis Homeland in the land acknowledgment.

Modern email signatures generally no longer include the institution’s mailing/civic address. However, you are welcome to include it below the land acknowledgment.
University of Regina signage helps users to navigate the campus and identify buildings, parking lots, and other destinations. The design, materials, and consistency of the signage speak to the integrity of the University and its commitment to higher learning.

All signage is coordinated by the University of Regina’s designated project manager in Facilities Management. The project manager is responsible for overseeing signage across all applications within the University of Regina campus.

The consistent use of graphic elements helps to establish the look and feel of the signage system and reinforces user confidence in signage content.

The University of Regina’s crest and logo is used on designated sign types throughout the signage system. A reverse, ghosted version of the crest is to be used on back sign faces where there is no content.
COLOURS
In order to create cohesive signage, it is imperative that the sign family’s colours remain consistent throughout all applications. Colours have been selected specifically for the University of Regina’s signage, and when used correctly, provide high legibility.

All painted applications, powder-coating, vinyl, and digital outputs for signage are to match the Pantone Matching System (PMS) numbers shown. Variations or substitutions are not permitted.

ARROWS
Directional arrows are the same shape and size. No variations or substitutions are permitted to these elements.

SYMBOLS
All pictograms have been selected to conform to international standards and to be consistent across the University of Regina’s signage.

All restricted symbols appear in red and black on a white background.

No variations or substitutions are permitted to these elements.

CAMPUS SIGNAGE: TYPOGRAPHY

TYPOGRAPHY
All signs are typeset in News Gothic (MT STD Regular, MT STD Bold or MT STD Italic) upper and lower case. News Gothic is the primary font of the University of Regina and is the official wayfinding font for the University’s signage.

All wayfinding signage is set in title case. In most cases, Letterspacing/Tracking is set to 20. Secondary body copy, that is in complete sentences, should be set in typical sentence case.

A period is not permitted except when it improves readability, for example, when there are two or more sentences following each other. No variations or substitutions are permitted to these elements.
2.30 CAMPUS SIGNAGE: SIGN TYPES

The list of sign types shown here represent the inventory of University of Regina signage.

Each sign type is designed to fulfill a unique function and utilize design elements in a specific manner. The system is built on the consistent use of typography, symbols, colour, shape, size, materials, and fabrication methods.

It is essential that key elements from the University of Regina branding guidelines are consistently adhered to when procuring or producing any form of merchandise.

It is acceptable to use the U of R logo with tagline versions as well as the standalone U of R logo versions, depending on the audience or merchandise item being produced.

It is advised that for most apparel applications, the standalone U of R logo versions (without tagline) be used.

To learn more about applying the brand, please reference the University’s Merchandising Guide.
Through consistent application of the standards in this Visual Identity Guide, the University of Regina can continue to effectively share our many stories of success.

Thank you for helping to keep the University of Regina strong.
