A Window for Murder

By Nathan Coey

Show Synopsis

You'll love the touch of British flavor in this entertaining Sherlock Holmes spoof. The world-famous private detective, Burton Everhart III, has been summoned to the Straitford Estate in London to investigate the death of Colonel Straitford. The night has not come to a close before a blood-curdling scream shakes the estate. Burton discovers that the widow, Julia Straitford, has had an unfortunate run in with her bedroom window...or should we say run out? From the disgruntled staff to Mrs. Straitford's own family, everyone appears to have a motive for helping Julia to her abrupt end. With a colorful cast including a bunny slipper wearing butler and a nephew with multiple personalities, the laughs never stop!

Big Bad

By Alec Strum

Show Synopsis

Big Bad is a smart and wickedly funny play that lets the audience determine the outcome of the play! The most notorious criminal in the fairy-tale world, Big Bad Wolf, is being slapped with a class-action lawsuit by the countless quirky characters he has wronged. Now, the two greatest legal minds in the Enchanted Forest — the Evil Stepmother and the Fairy Godmother — will clash (on live Court TV, no less, with Sydney Grimm as commentator!) in a trial that will be remembered forever after. But can Mr. Wolf make a good case for himself? Was he born a criminal, or made one? Perhaps he does deserve compassion instead of condemnation! What will the verdict be? Only the jury — our audience — can decide the outcome of the trial... and the play!

Big Bad is produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Denver, Colorado.

There will just be short 10-minute intermissions between each show to organize students and reset the stage.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Videotaping and still photography are permitted for all productions, however, please ensure your camera's flash is TURNED OFF and your screen brightness has been TURNED DOWN.
