

Allyship is building trust and relationships, and advocating for members outside your social group, particularly those that face discrimination and systemic oppression.

As Allies

- We actively acknowledge our privilege and power
- We practice active listening: listen more and speak less
- We educate ourselves
- We build capacity to have honest and open conversations
- Make the most of our sphere of influence to call out and/or call in

To learn more and for workshops or presentations on the topic, please reach out to:

Dr. Sujatha Ross

Advisor, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
Email: urincluded@uregina.ca
306 337 3313

Let's create a welcoming community

