APPROVALS

- The new supervisor and co-supervisor must have the appropriate accreditation.
- Funding issues must be clarified. For example, it may be acknowledged that funding through the previous supervisor is no longer available, and what funding, if any, will be provided by the new supervisor.
- Intellectual property issue must be clarified. Information about your rights are here:
<https://www.uregina.ca/gradstudies/current-students/Rights%20/intellectual-property.html>.
- The department and FGSR have no responsibility to agree to a change in supervisory arrangements if they cannot be reasonably accommodated. In this regard, the department should consult with FGSR and then inform the student about what supervisory arrangements will or will not be provided.
