Hi [[Contact.FirstName]],

We hope you've had a great start to March and had a great weekend! Thank you to those of you who joined us for the Counsellor Update on Friday! We hope all of your questions were answered and you found the information provided helpful.

We were glad to hear that some of you have gotten a chance to view the new website and made use of the helpful resources like the new program index and an application guide (including admission requirements, deadlines, and the process) for students.

If you find any issues, please send your feedback directly to enrolment.services@uregina.ca. You can include the URL or section of the website that you are finding problems with and we will help troubleshoot to the best of our ability! Thank you for your patience and valuable feedback!

We have a few upcoming events we would like to draw your attention to and a final reminder to please encourage students to apply before March 15, 2022 in order to be eligible for automatic entrance awards!

Summer Bridge Program

Are your students looking to enhance their academic skills before they start their Fall 2022 semester at the University of Regina? Would they like to gain exposure to what life on campus is like? Then, the University of Regina Summer Bridge Program is for them! This program will give new students a chance to experience studying at the University of Regina before their fall semester begins. The Summer Bridge Program incorporates academic skill development, university preparedness, and social activities to assist students in being successful at the University of Regina. The program will be delivered from July 4th to August 25th.
