

Information for Newcomer Students

University of Regina

OUR COMMITMENT

The University of Regina welcomes students who are new to Canada to study with us. Whether you are an adult learner or still in high school, you will earn a quality education and receive individualized attention to help you achieve academic success. If you are looking for flexibility, we offer plenty of evening, weekend, and online courses, along with personalized support services.

If you are a Canadian citizen, Permanent Resident of Canada, or refugee who has previously studied outside of Canada, the information in this document applies to you. You are a domestic student and will pay domestic student tuition and fee rates.

If you plan to study on a student visa, you are an international student and should apply for admission through the UR International Office. For more information, please visit <https://www.uregina.ca/international/>

FUNDING YOUR EDUCATION

When it comes to funding your university education, we advise you to start planning as early as possible and explore all the available options. Some of the avenues you may consider include:

Scholarships, Awards, and Bursaries: There are numerous opportunities available for undergraduate studies in every program and year of study! We can assist you with the application process.

Government Financial Assistance (Student Loans): Saskatchewan residents can apply for federal and provincial student loans and grants.

Co-operative Education and Internships: Many programs offer career-related, paid work term options, allowing you to gain valuable work experience and help finance your education.

As a newcomer myself, I highly recommend the University of Regina. The welcoming environment made for a smooth transition to university life. My journey at U of R is not just about academics - by becoming a U of R Ambassador and being a part of various clubs and societies, I have met lifelong friends, and experienced growth and diverse experiences. Just as I found my place, you can also flourish at the University of Regina.

APPLYING FOR ADMISSION

Explore a wide variety of options with over 150 Undergraduate Programs available at the U of R. You can start in the fall, winter, or spring/summer terms for most programs. To see all the programs we have, visit <https://www.uregina.ca/academics/index.html>.

1 APPLY FOR ADMISSION & PAY APP FEE

If you are 21 or older and did not complete high school: Apply as a Mature Applicant.

High school completed: Apply as a Final High School Applicant.

Some post-secondary education elsewhere: Apply as a Post-Secondary Applicant.

Previous U of R study, no other institutions: Apply for Readmission.

The application fee is $100 for most application types, except for post-secondary applicants, who are required to pay $200 in order to have their transcripts assessed for transfer credit.

2 SUBMIT TRANSCRIPTS

Official transcripts are required from the institutions you attended previously. If these documents are not in English, you will need to provide an official or certified translation. Translations must be performed by a certified translator.

If your previous institution or issuing authority cannot provide your transcripts, please contact our office for assistance. We also accept official WES ICAP evaluations as a substitute for official transcripts.

3 SUBMIT ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Applicants must exhibit a suitable level of English language proficiency. During the processing of your application and documents, we will evaluate whether there is a necessity for evidence of English language proficiency or results from an English Proficiency Test. If such evidence is required, we will notify you. Learn more at <https://www.uregina.ca/admissions/undergraduate/elp.html>

4 ACCEPT THE OFFER OF ADMISSION

Upon fulfilling the Admission requirements, you can expect to receive an email offer within one to three weeks. Upon receiving an offer of admission, we request that you accept the offer to inform us of your intention to enrol. This can be conveniently completed through an online process, which will be indicated in your offer letter.
