The University of Regina has many strengths. Study in an academic environment that encourages creativity, innovation, and new experiences. Open yourself to exciting new personal development. Meet interesting people from diverse backgrounds and cultures. Make friendships that last a lifetime. Experience alternative ways of thinking and learn from others as they learn from you. We believe that many perspectives fosters a well-rounded education and produces invaluable citizens of the world. At the U of R, we embrace diversity because we know that we are stronger together.
Canadians are known across the world as friendly, welcoming people who love to learn about different cultures. There were 500,000 international students that studied in Canada in 2020! Students choose Canada for the high quality education system and standard of living. Our multicultural heritage means life here is diverse and exciting.

With its growing population, strong economy, and exciting future, Saskatchewan is a place where you can enjoy life and succeed. Located in the center of Canada, Saskatchewan is a great starting point to explore the whole country. Direct flights from Regina International Airport can take you to most major Canadian cities.

Experience the natural beauty of Saskatchewan by taking a road trip to discover the majestic lakes in the plains of the south and the deep forests of the north. Take a break from your studies to enjoy camping, fishing, hunting, swimming, canoeing, and hiking at pristine provincial parks just outside of Regina. In the winter season, enjoy snowboarding, skiing, skating, and hockey as the snow falls around you. Friendly people, endless horizons, and living skies — that is Saskatchewan, and it is the perfect place to start your next adventure.
In 2021, Macleans magazine ranked Regina as one of the top 20 best communities to live in Canada. Enjoy discovering the sights, sounds, and activities that this city has to offer.

ABOUT THE CITY OF REGINA
Regina is the capital city of Saskatchewan and is commonly referred to as the Queen City. With its diverse and growing population of over 240,000 people, Regina blends the cultural amenities and employment opportunities of a large city with the friendly, community feel of a smaller urban centre. We welcome you with our renowned prairie hospitality to discover Regina, a city that celebrates life.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF REGINA’S SITE
The University of Regina is nestled in Wascana Park, one of the largest and most picturesque urban parks in North America. Imagine attending a university surrounded by natural beauty, a lake, and kilometres of pathways to explore. Nearby, you will find coffee shops, restaurants, and grocery stores where you can enjoy products from many different cultures. Downtown Regina is a short bus ride away and offers exceptional culinary and shopping experiences. In the summer, you will find the Regina Folk Festival, outdoor movies, the farmers market, and other exciting events. Regina is a city where newcomers find a real sense of home.
