ABOUT THE VISITING GRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENT PROGRAM

The Visiting Graduate Research Student Program is designed to provide an avenue for graduate students enrolled in a degree program at an accredited institution to gain valuable experience, specialized training, and research collaboration. This category of Visiting Graduate Research Student is not intended to replace any existing arrangement(s) between institutions.

Students who are successfully admitted to the program must register in GRST 995 AG each semester they are on campus.

Visiting Graduate Research Students are not permitted to undertake any courses for credit towards a degree program at their home institution. Students who wish to partake in credit courses must submit a Letter of Permission from their home institution with this application. Proof of English Language Proficiency will be required for students who choose to enroll in credit courses.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Students must meet the following criteria to be eligible to submit an application:
- Enrolled in a degree program at an accredited post-secondary institution
- In good academic standing at the home institution
- Identify an accredited faculty member at the University of Regina who agrees to host the student during his/her stay
- Length of initial proposed visit must not be longer than one (1) year. Visits may be eligible for extension.

DOMESTIC APPLICANTS

No fees apply, with the exception of incidental costs. Fees must be paid by the student directly through Financial Services once they are on campus.

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

A program fee of $400 CAD ($100 Application Fee; $300 Program Service Fee) will be charged for the first semester. If a student remains at the University of Regina for more than one semester, a continuing program fee of $200 CAD per semester will apply. Visiting Graduate Research Students are responsible for the full payment of University of Regina Students’ Union fees and Recreation and Athletics fees. These fees must be paid each semester and are subject to change.

The program fee is to be paid online using Flywire – University of Regina. Alternative payment methods may be coordinated with the supervisor at the host institution.

Successful applicants will receive a notification via email of how to proceed with paying the program fee. Once the program fee is received from the successful applicant, UR International Study Abroad & Mobility will provide an official invitation letter and a receipt for the Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) Compliance Fee. Unsuccessful applicants will not be instructed to pay the program fee.

HEALTH, BENEFITS AND ACCESSES

Successful Visiting Graduate Research Student applicants will be afforded access to basic research services and to basic student services. Access to health and other benefit plans, transit passes, etc. may need to be arranged separately. It is recommended for applicants to discuss this with their host supervisor.

It is the responsibility of the Visiting Undergraduate Research Student to ensure that individual travel and health insurance/coverage is obtained either through a private company or through the Saskatchewan Health Care system.
