Distinguished Alumni Award
Nomination Package
Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies

Section One: Eligibility Criteria

a) A nominee must be an alumnus of the University of Regina and a graduate of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies;
b) A nominee’s year of graduation must be a minimum of 10 years previous to the year of nomination;
c) A nominee must be currently working or have worked in a related field including human kinetics, health promotion, gerontology, adapted movement science, sport recreation, therapeutic recreation, and/or health studies.

The following alumni are NOT eligible to receive the award:

a) Elected federal, provincial or municipal officials during the time they hold office;
b) Serving members of the University of Regina Senate or Board of Governors;
c) University of Regina honorary degree recipients, as this represents the highest honour bestowed by the University of Regina;
d) Current members of faculty or staff of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies.

Section Two: Nomination Process

Nominations are welcomed from the public, faculty, staff of the University of Regina, from the Kinesiology and Health Studies Nominations subcommittee and will include:

a) The Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Award nomination form fully completed and submitted to khs.alumni.dinner@uregina.ca, by March 15, 2019
b) A statement of 300 words or less that indicates why the nominee deserves to be the award recipient;
c) Award nominees must agree to have their name put forward for the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Award;
d) A list in point form that support this nomination that may include:
   i. formal and informal awards, achievements
   ii. contributions to society, community
   iii. examples of leadership (e.g. entrepreneurial, inspirational)
   iv. examples of how the nominee’s service has made a difference to others

Nomination packages must be submitted to either the KHS General Office or electronically to the designate on the KHS Alumni Dinner committee by March 15, 2019. If submitting electronically, please send to khs.alumni.dinner@uregina.ca with ‘Award Nominee’ in the subject heading.
Section Three: Selection Criteria

The following criteria, in whole or in part, will be used to determine the successful recipient:

a) Award recipient must agree to be awarded the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Award;
b) Achieving professional excellence and distinction within his/her career;
c) Giving back to society on a regional, national or international level;
d) Inspiring others by demonstrating leadership in pursuit of excellence;
e) Contributing remarkable community or humanitarian service that has made a difference to the well-being of others;
f) Participating in activities that have enhanced the reputation and overall strength of the recipient’s current or former profession;
g) Representing the University’s motto, “As one who serves”.

The award recipient is encouraged to be available to attend the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner. They may also be asked to speak to their academic and professional career.

Section Four: Nominee Contact Information

First and Last Name: ______________________________________________________

Business Address: ______________________________________________________

Business Phone: __________________________ Alternate Phone: __________________

Home Address: ______________________________________________________

Email: ________________________________________________________________

University of Regina Degree(s): __________________________________________

Other Degree(s): __________________________ Year(s): ______________________

Institution(s): ______________________________________________________

Section Five: Nominator’s Contact Information

First and Last Name: ______________________________________________________

Address: ______________________________________________________________

Business Phone: __________________________ Alternate Phone: __________________

Email: ________________________________________________________________

Relationship to Nominee: _______________________________________________

Are you a University of Regina Alumni? Yes: __________ No: ________

University of Regina
Section Six: Further Information

For further information about the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Award please contact khs.alumni.dinner@uregina.ca.

Section Seven: Nomination Statement (no more than 300 words)