Section One: Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for the award:

a) A nominee must be an alumnus of the University of Regina and a graduate of the Faculty of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies;
b) A nominee must have graduated within the last 10 years from the date of nomination;
c) A nominee must be currently working or have worked in a related field including human kinetics, health promotion, gerontology, adapted movement science, sport, recreation, therapeutic recreation, and/or health studies.
d) Award nominees must agree to have their name put forward for the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Award.

The following alumni are NOT eligible to receive the award:

a) Elected federal, provincial or municipal officials during the time they hold office;
b) Serving members of the University of Regina Senate or Board of Governors;
c) University of Regina honorary degree recipients, as this represents the highest honour bestowed by the University of Regina;
d) Current members of faculty or staff of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies.

Section Two: Nomination Process

Nominations are welcomed from the public, faculty and staff of the University of Regina and from the Kinesiology and Health Studies Nominations subcommittee and will include:

a) The Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Recent Alumni Award nomination form submitted by March 15, 2019;
b) A statement of 300 words or less that indicates why the Nominee deserves to be the award recipient;
c) A list in point form that support this nomination that may include:
   i. Formal and informal awards, achievements
   ii. Contributions to society, community
   iii. Examples of leadership (e.g., entrepreneurial, inspirational)
   iv. Examples of how the Nominee’s service has made a difference to others Nomination packages must be submitted to either the KHS General Office or electronically to the designate on the KHS Alumni Dinner committee by March 15, 2019. Please send to khs.alumni.dinner@uregina.ca with ‘Award Nominee’ in the subject heading.

Section Three: Selection Criteria

The following criteria, in whole or in part, will be used to determine the successful recipient:

a) Award recipients must agree to be awarded the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Recent Alumni Award;
b) Making significant achievements in his/her field of endeavor;
c) Being identifiable as an emerging leader through professional and/or voluntary accomplishments;
d) Giving back to society on a regional, national or international level;
e) Inspiring others by demonstrating community or humanitarian service that has made a difference to the well-being of others;
f) Participating in activities that have enhanced the reputation and overall strength of the recipient’s current or former profession;
g) Representing the University’s motto, “As one who serves”.

The award recipient is encouraged to be available to attend the Kinesiology and Health Studies Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner. They may also be asked to speak to their academic and professional career.

Section Four: Nominee’s Contact Information

First and Last Name: _________________________________________________

Business Address: _________________________________________________

Home Address: _________________________________________________

Business Phone: ______________________ Alternate Phone: _______________

E-mail Address: _________________________________________________

UofR Degree(s) Year(s) _________________________________________________

Other Degree(s): _________________________________________________

Institution(s): _________________________________________________

Year(s): _________________________________________________
Section Five: Nominator’s Contact Information

First and Last Name: ________________________________________________________________

Address: _______________________________________________________________________

Business Phone: ___________________ Alternate Phone: _____________________________

Email: _______________________________________________________________________

Relationship to Nominee: __________________________________________________________

Are you a University of Regina Alumni?  Yes: ______  No: ______

Section Six: Further Information

For further information about the Kinesiology and Health Studies Graduate Student Award, please contact khs.alumni.dinner@uregina.ca.

Section Seven: Nomination Statement (no more than 300 words)