JOE FAFARD

By ELIZABETH SEITZ

MAY 2008

Bibliographical Sketch:

Joe Fafard is a nationally and internationally acclaimed artist, born on September 2, 1942 into a large family in a small francophone farming community in Saskatchewan known as Ste. Marthe. From a young age, Joe was fascinated with art and later, through formal training, attained a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg in 1966 and a Master of Fine Arts degree from Pennsylvania State University College in 1968. After graduation, Joe became an instructor in sculpture at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus until 1974.

From ceramics in the early 1980s, laser-cut steel and innovative bronze casting techniques perfected at the foundry north of Regina and named after his mother (Julienne) Joe has become a recipient of notable awards such as the Order of Canada (officer) (1981) and the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada Allied Arts Award awarded in 1987, the Prix Montfort and closer to home, the Saskatchewan Arts Board Lieutenant Governor's Arts Award for Lifetime Achievement.

Mr. Fafard's work has been included in several major private and public collections across Canada, including the National Gallery of Canada and The Montreal Museum of Fine Arts.
