BY CAITLIN MULLAN

SEPTEMEBER 2010

Biographical Sketch: Arthur B. Hillabold, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., was born on May 28, 1921. He received a Bachelor of Arts at the University of Oregon in 1944 and a Masters in Economics at Stanford University in 1950. Hillabold taught at Idaho State University beginning in 1955 and also served as Chairman of the Economics Department. In 1967 he moved to Regina to teach economics at the University of Regina and retired in 1986. Arthur Hillabold passed away on September 9, 2009.

Scope and Content: The material in this collection includes handwritten notes and graphs, typed reports, spreadsheets, photocopied documents and typed correspondence. The records have been organized into three series: Correspondence, Course Materials and the Flow of Funds Project. The date range is 1967 to 1986.

Custodial History: These papers were transferred to the University of Regina Archives and Special Collections by Peter Resch, Associate University Librarian – User Services and Collections.

Legal Agreement: The donor agreement is dated August 2010.

Future Accruals: Future accruals are not expected.

Access Restrictions: There are no access restrictions to the records, however there are two Restricted files in this collection (file 6 and file 10).

Note on Arrangement: Original file titles and original file order were maintained, however Restricted materials were consolidated and re-folded. The general condition of this collection is very good.
