UNIVERSITY OF REGINA FACULTY WOMEN

NOVEMBER 2011

By CHELSEA SCHESKE

and

ELIZABETH SEITZ

Administrative Sketch: The Regina Campus Faculty Wives Club was founded in 1963, it became the University of Regina Faculty Wives' Club, and is known now as the University of Regina Women. In 2004 the association amended its bylaws to welcome all women employed at the University as well as those with spouses employed on either the College Avenue Campus or the Main Campus. Its purpose was mainly to offer support and assistance to new teaching staff, and their wives, and to enable them to get to know one another.

An annual fee is paid by the members which allows them to participate in a number of activities such as antiques appraisals by experts or visits to interesting places in the province. The group also brings in guest speakers who are renowned in their specialized field: artists, musicians, community leaders. There are many specialized interest groups within the University of Regina Women's Club as well. They have organized groups such as Book Clubs, Bridge and Mixed Bridge for card players, Culinary Explorers, Couples Gourmet and International Cooking, Eclectic Events, Curling, a Parent and Child Group and a Handicraft Interests Group.

Some women from this group also volunteer to serve tea at the annual convocation or provide services for other University related events. For this group the academic year begins with a Welcome Back Evening for returning members and new ones. Through voluntary donations this group also provides an annual bursary to a University of Regina student. The $1,000.00 bursary is awarded to a female student from the Department of English who has a special interest in Creative Writing.
