WALTER STEWART

MARCH 2014 BY MICHELLE OLSON AND ELIZABETH SEITZ

REVISED JANUARY 2018 BY MICHELLE OLSON

Biographical Sketch

Walter Douglas Stewart was born in Toronto, Ontario on April 19, 1931. His father was James Miller Stewart and his mother was Dorothy Margaret (Peg) Stewart (nee McCall). Walter married Joan Grace Filey in September 1955, they had two children: Craig and Sandra.

Walter attended elementary and high schools in Montreal, London and Toronto and began his journalistic career as unpaid high school reporter for the London Echo community newspaper. In 1949 he began classes at the University of Toronto studying History but did not obtain a degree. He dropped out for employment at the Toronto Telegram as a General Reporter, Picture Editor and a Financial Feature Writer. In 1962 he began work at Star Weekly magazine as Assistant Picture Editor and as Ottawa Correspondent from 1963 to 1968, he also held several positions from the late 1960's to 1977 at Maclean's. He was also a Features Writer for the Toronto Star in 1972 and 1973 and a freelance writer into the 1980s submitting articles to various papers. In 1979 Walter Stewart worked as an Ottawa Correspondent and National Columnist for the Financial Post News Service, Ottawa; the Today magazine in Toronto, as Editor from 1981 to 1982 and from 1984 to 1986 he was a Professor and Director at King's College in Halifax at the School of Journalism.

Walter Stewart was the Max Bell Visiting Professor at the School of Journalism and Communications at the University of Regina for 1987 to 1988, he edited Policy Options magazine from 1988 to 1992 and continued writing for the Toronto Sun Columnist into the 1990s.

Stewart's first book, published in 1971, called Shrug: Trudeau in Power, remained on Canadian bestseller lists for more than a year and was released in the United States as Trudeau in Power. Stewart wrote about what the public had interest in; several books are about politics and political figures, racism, strikes and labor-management relations, the banking industry, charity, he also wrote two fictional novels in the 1990s.

Divide and Con: Canadian Politics at Work in 1973 and in 1974 he published Hard to Swallow: Why Food Prices Keep Rising and What Can Be Done About It; But Not in Canada! Smug Canadian Myths Shattered by Harsh Reality was published in 1976 and then revised in 1983. As They See Us in 1977 and Strike! were both published in 1977 and Paper Juggernaut: Big Government Gone Mad in 1979.

One of Stewart's books on banking, Towers of Gold, Feet of Clay: The Canadian Banks, 1982, was translated into French as Les géants de la finance: un dossier-choc sur l'entreprise bancaire canadienne (tr. by Jacques de Roussan; Inédi, 1982).

True Blue: The Loyalist Legend was published in 1985 and in 1987 he published Uneasy Lies the Head: The Truth About Canada's Crown Corporations.

In 1988 Stewart co-authored The Wrong End of the Rainbow: The Collapse of Free Enterprise in Canada with Eric Kierans, and published The Golden Fleece: Why the Stock Market Costs You Money in 1992, Too Big to Fail: Olympia and York: The Story Behind the Headlines was published in 1993 and Belly Up: The Spoils of Bankruptcy in 1995.

Stewart's 1996 book, The Charity Game: Greed, Waste and Fraud in Canada's $86-Billion-a-Year Compassion Industry was followed by Dismantling the State: Downsizing to Disaster in 1998 and then two works of fiction: Right Church, Wrong Pew in 1990 and Hole in One in 1992. Bank Heist: How our Financial Giants are Costing You Money in 1997.

M.J.: The Life and Times of M.J. Coldwell in 2000. My Cross-Country Checkup: Across Canada by Minivan, Through Space and Time 2000. Remembering (Eric Kierans) in 2001. Stewart's last book, The Life and Politics of Tommy Douglas was published in 2003 and as a paperback reissue in 2004, it was called The Life and Political Times of Tommy Douglas.

Stewart died in September 2004 in Ontario.

Scope and Content: This collection contains approximately 7 meters of text, 584 photographs, 328 negative strips, 1 contact print, 3 inkjet prints, 23 audio cassette tapes and 87 computer disks and 5 oversize items. It ranges in dates from 1962 to 2004, predominantly these papers are from the 1990 and many of the books researched and written by Walter Stewart are represented in this collection.

Custodial History: These papers were retained by the donors family until transferred to the University of Regina Archives in 2013.

Legal Agreement and Access Restrictions: A legal agreement is pending.

Future Accruals: Future accruals are not expected.

Access Restrictions: There are no restrictions to access for this collection although some files are closed.

Note on Arrangement: Newspaper clippings used by the author for research purposes were photocopied for preservation purposes, the originals were discarded; photographs were matched to negatives strips where possible; many of the computer disks containing drafts of the writing were printed out although some could not be. All of these computer disks remain with the collection. The audio cassette tapes also remain in the collection and oversize material was numbered and placed into a flat oversize box. Indices exist for the computer disks, audio cassette tapes, photographs, negative strips, inkjet prints and the contact print
