LORNA CROZIER

AUGUST 2013

By ELIZABETH SEITZ

WITH ASSISTANCE FROM

MICHELLE K. OLSON

Biographical Sketch: Lorna Crozier was born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan in 1948. She graduated from W.A. Beatty Collegiate in Swift Current in 1966, she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1969 and a professional teaching certificate from the University of Saskatchewan. She received a Master of Arts degree in 1980 from the University of Alberta. In addition to her university education Crozier attended creative writing courses at the Saskatchewan Summer School of the Arts at Fort San from 1974 to 1977.

Crozier taught high school English in rural Saskatchewan from 1970 to 1973, in Swift Current from 1973 to 1978, at the University of Alberta from 1978 to 1979, and at the University of Saskatchewan from 1986 to 1991. Since 1991, she has been an associate professor in the Department of Writing at the University of Victoria, quickly becoming Associate, full Professor and then a Distinguished Professor. Crozier has also served as the Chair of the Department of Writing for six years.

Crozier has been writer-in-residence at the University of Toronto (1988, 1989 to 1990), Douglas College, British Columbia (1989), the University of Lethbridge (1987), and the Regina Public Library (1984 to 1985), her writing has been included in dozens of journals, magazines and anthologies, she has published numerous books of poetry, and has given many readings and lectures all over Canada and the United States, as well as England, the former Yugoslavia, France and Chile. Crozier has been heavily involved in the writing profession, and has served on various juries and judging panels throughout her career. Two of Crozier's publications have been translated into other languages, these are Apocryphe de la Lumiere by Les Editions du Vermillion in Ottawa, and La Perspectiva Del Gato, Tricle Ediciones, Mexico City.

Lorna's poetry and writing have resulted in her winning many prizes and awards, among them are First Prize in the CBC Radio National Poetry Competition (1987), the Western Magazine Award for Nonfiction (1989), the Governor General's Award for Poetry (1992), the National Magazine Gold Medal for Poetry (1995) and in 2009, Crozier's publication titled Small Beneath the Sky received the Hubert Evans Award for best book of nonfiction by a BC writer and in 2013 she received the BC Lieutenant Governor's Award for Lifetime Achievement. Lorna has also received Honorary Doctorates from the University of Regina and the University of Saskatchewan and Mount St. Vincent's University in Halifax also for her contributions to Canadian Literature. In 2009 Lorna was inducted into the Royal Society of Canada.

Crozier received Saskatchewan's Kloppenburg Award for Literary Excellence in 2011 and she was inducted as an Officer of the Order of Canada. In 2013 Crozier delivered the prestigious Margaret Lawrence Lecture at the Writers' Union of Canada General Meeting in Ottawa.

Crozier retired from teaching as Professor Emeritus and currently resides outside of Victoria with her husband, poet Patrick Lane.
