COLLECTION NUMBER 2017-43
UNIVERSITY OF REGINA FACULTY CLUB

SEPTEMBER 2017
BY KIEU MA
AND ELIZABETH SEITZ

Administrative Sketch: The Regina Campus Faculty Club was incorporated in 1965 as a non-profit private club and was originally located in the Conservatory Building on the University's College Avenue Campus. In 1975 the Club moved to the second floor of the College West Building on the University's main campus and in 1993 became known as the University Club. The Club was managed by a Board of Directors who are appointed for a two year term at the membership's annual general meeting. The Board of Directors includes a President, Past President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and the members at large. The Board of Directors appoints the University Club Manager to oversee daily operations of the Club.

The Club was a member based non-profit corporation that operated for over 50 years. Two types of memberships were available: U of R Regular (voting) and Associate (non-voting). In 2017 Regular memberships were available to any full time employee of the University of Regina, its affiliated colleges: Campion College, Luther College and the First Nations University of Canada. Associate memberships were available to anyone who did not qualifying for a Regular membership. Associate Memberships were divided into two types, these were a Corporate Membership which was available to corporations and businesses near the University and a Friend of The Club membership was available to retired employees, members of the near-by community who were not employed by the University or its associated colleges. Graduate and undergraduate students (in their 4th year or higher), sessional lecturers and other non-full time employees of the University could also take advantage of this type of membership.

At the time of its closing the main area of the University Club Dining Room had seating for between 60 to 80 people, 20 more seats were located in the Window Room, (which could double as a meeting space), and the Club's lounge could seat up to 40 people. Full-service catering was available for all manner of University-related events or general events held on campus. These services included food, bar service, staff, rentals and décor if needed.

Renovated in 2004 and again in 2010 resulted in additional office space and a new Club entrance where they were able to install coat racks and chairs. The Club ceased to operate in 2017.

Revised, Elizabeth Seitz, 2018

Scope and Content: This collection includes 17 floppy disks which were primarily minutes of meetings and related administrative matter, the disks were printed out and saved to the Universities servers for interim preservation. The collection also includes 2 compact disks, 9 artifacts, 27 photographs 6 negative strips and 7 slides as well as numerous reproduced images of the works owned or exhibited by the Club. Oversize renovation plans of the Club are included in the collection and where possible the original file titles remain.

The collection was donated to the Archives and Special Collections in July 2017 and is open to researchers.
