ANNE CAMPBELL

SEPTEMBER 2019

BY KIEU MA, MICHELLE OLSON

AND

ELIZABETH SEITZ

Biographical Sketch: Anne Campbell's writing and community activities kept her in contact with many individuals and organizations, as evidenced in the correspondence files of her papers. The papers have been grouped according to the creator's diversity of interests. Of particular interest are: correspondence files with family, relatives, friends, writers, artists and colleagues; the personal files, professional organizations, and in particular, publications, writings and drafts. The collection provides insights both into Anne Campbell personally, and into the craft of writing and creating poetry in Saskatchewan, and a woman's involvement in the community.

Born in Saskatchewan, Anne Campbell studied at the Regina Conservatory, the University of Regina, and the Saskatchewan School of the Arts. Anne's publications include six books of poetry: No Memory of a Move, 1983, Longspoon; Death is an Anxious Mother, 1986, Thistledown; Red Earth, Yellow Stone, 1989, Thistledown; Angel Wings All Over, 1994, Thistledown; Soul to Touch, 2009, Hagios, and The Fabric of Day, new and selected poems, 2017, Thistledown. Anne's poetry has been included in numerous anthologies and journals; and she has conducted workshops, and readings across Canada, the USA, and UK. While a Research Fellow at the Canadian Plains Research Centre Anne co-edited the 2006/2008, award winning non-fiction book, Regina's Secret Spaces: Love and Lore of Local Geography; and from the UofR Press in 2017, the co-edited Biblio Files, a history of the Regina Public Library. For her writing and community work, Anne Campbell has received local and national awards; she has been active on Boards of professional organizations, including The Writers Union of Canada, the League of Canadian Poets, the Saskatchewan Writers' Guild, the Writers Trust, and the Wascana Centre Authority Heritage Advisory committee.

Anne Campbell was a long-time member of the management team at the Regina Public Library, initially as Head of Community/Public Relations, and after 1988, responsible for all RPL special community services, including a branch library serving a primarily aboriginal population; literacy services; services to those home-bound, and to visually impaired patrons; as well as adult community programming, and public relations. In Calgary she was Head of the Public Information Office for the Glenbow Museum, and Communications Co-coordinator for Heritage Park. Previously, in Regina, she was Public Relations Officer and public programmer for the MacKenzie Art Gallery. Earlier she did freelance writing and broadcasting on weekly current and social issues for CBC Radio; as a volunteer was co-organizer of the Three Day Equestrian event at the Western Canada Summer Games, and with the Saskatchewan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities assisted in workshops and lobbying for services.

Anne Campbell, June 2019
