The Employment Files series contains information on employment.

The Exhibition Brochures/Invitations/Programs series ranges in date from 1987 to 1995.

The Interests series consists primarily of minutes and agendas for the Municipal Heritage Advisory Group of Heritage Regina with other related issues from Regina and Saskatchewan.

The Personal series consists of cards and correspondence from family along with personal items.

The Professional Organizations series represents the organizations that complement Anne Campbell's professional employment and writing.

The Prose series consists of a file on "The Sign".

The Publications series contains the various manuscripts developed for Angel Wings All Over, Red Earth, Yellow Stone, and The Soul All Around.

The Writings series consists of other writings by Anne Campbell.

Biographical Sketch:

Anne Campbell was born in Saskatchewan. She attended Hanley High School, the Regina Conservatory, the University of Regina and the Saskatchewan School of the Arts. She continued to study writing and religion.

Occupation, life, and activities:

Anne Campbell has been Head of Community/Public Relations for the Regina Public Library since February 1981 and from 1988 responsible for all Regina Public Library Special Community Services. She was Community Co-ordinator at Heritage Park in Calgary and Head of the Public Information Office at the Glenbow Museum. Previously, she worked at the MacKenzie Art Gallery as a Public Relations Officer and programmer, and as freelance field person for the Calgary firm involved in the Regina Rail Relocation Project. Earlier she worked at CBC Radio in Regina as a freelance writer and broadcaster on weekly current and social affairs issue. She was co-organizer of the Three Day Equestrian event at the Western Canada Summer Games and a volunteer with the Saskatchewan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities as a workshop coordinator and committee member.

Anne Campbell has published four books of poetry: No Memory of a Move, 1983; Death is an Anxious Mother, 1986; Red Earth, Yellow Stone, 1989; and Angel Wings All Over, 1994. Her poetry has been included in the following anthologies: Writing Right: Poetry by Canadian Women, 1982; Glass Canyons, 1985; Dancing Visions, 1985; A Sudden Radiance, 1987; Out of Place, 1991; and What is Already Known, 1995. She has had poetry published in Grain, Dandelion, NeWest Review, Descent, Quarry, Poetry Canada Review, Prairie Fire and other journals. Her poetry has also been broadcast on CBC Radio in Regina and published in the Globe and Mail in 1994. Her prose has been included in several anthologies and magazines: Friction II, 1993; The Old Dance: Love Stories of One Kind or Another, 1986; Sundogs: an Anthology of Saskatchewan Stories, 1982; Canadian Heritage, 1989; NeWest Review, 1986 and 1980; Horizons, 1986; Room of One's Own, 1984; Leader-Post, 1983; and Globe and Mail, 1993.

Amended with information from
Anne Campbell, April 2015.
