2.25 m of textual records

310 photographs

13 slides

Arrangement: The records were created and collected by the Susan Whitney Gallery. Original order was maintained with some exceptions, as noted in the Finding aid.

Restrictions: Access to these records is with prior consent of the donor only.

Scope and content: The Susan Whitney Gallery Fonds consists of three series of files: administration files, dating predominantly from 1991-92 to 1993-95; art fairs, dating predominantly from 1990-94; and artist files, dating predominantly from 1990-92 to 1993-94.

Administrative history: The Susan Whitney Gallery Fonds was founded in 1978 in Regina, Saskatchewan, by Susan Whitney. At the time of the founding there were four other shareholders in the venture: Victor Cicansky, Joe Fafard, Jill Rawlinson, and Richard Spafford. Whitney's mother, June Whitney, was also a shareholder at one time. Susan Whitney became the sole shareholder sometime in the late 1980s. The mandate of this commercial art gallery is to exhibit and sell contemporary art, including painting, sculpture, tapestry, photography, and furniture, as well as Canadian folk art. The Gallery has participated in a number of international art fairs.

Notes: See also Accessions nos. 85-85, 87-45, 91-14, 94-23, 97-21.

Custodial history: The records comprising the Susan Whitney Gallery Fonds were created, collected and held by the Susan Whitney Gallery before they came to the University of Regina Archives.
