ED GOULD

By ELIZABETH SEITZ

JANUARY 2009

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Ed Gould was born in Alberta in 1936 and educated at the University of British Columbia and University of Victoria. Gould began writing as a reporter and editor for various newspapers, the Canadian Press and the CBC before establishing himself as a freelance writer. He also worked as a freelance broadcaster and publisher and co-founded his own publishing company, Cappis Press. Goulds' writing has appeared in numerous periodicals and newspapers and in 1973 he was awarded the Media Club of Canada award. Between 1975 and 1988, twelve books written by Gould were published, many of which focus specifically on Canadian subjects. In addition, Gould has written book reviews, pieces of fiction and humour, and articles that reflect his interest in travel, film, the arts and Canadian personalities.
