Michelle Brownridge in U R Here - Eight Artists in Regina, a film by 4th-year students that will be broadcast on City Saskatchewan in 2017.
Tansi, welcome, to the 2017/18 academic year in the Department of Film at the University of Regina. We’re looking at a great year ahead. Gerald Saul takes over as our Department Head; he’s the person to talk to if you have questions about the program or courses. This year, we will be presenting our fourth distinguished alumni award to Ian Toews. For more information on Ian, take a look at page 64.

U R Here, a broadcast documentary made by the 4th year students last year, will debut on City Saskatchewan. The Living Skies Student Film Festival will showcase some of the best student work from across Canada and around the world and celebrate the 30th anniversary of Film students at the University of Regina organising a film festival. We expect there will be a number of social activities presented by your own Film Students Association (FSA). We look forward to reading insightful, well-written essays competing for the Jean Oser Prize and watching the terrific films coming from our students.

In the community, we're looking forward to the Saskatchewan Independent Film Awards, and screenings from Independent Visions, Queer City Cinema, Mispon, Pile of Bones Underground Film Festival, Queen City Shorts, and the Regina International Film Festival and Awards, as well as the Independent, International and Canadian films that screen weekly at the RPL Film Theatre. We encourage students to get off campus and engage with Regina’s vibrant creative community.

A reminder that all official communication will be sent to your U of R email account so make sure you're monitoring it.

The Department’s Facebook page and Twitter and Instagram feeds, the FSA Facebook page and Twitter feed and the Department’s U of R website are also worth keeping an eye on for news and upcoming events.

The faculty and staff of the Department of Film look forward to working with you.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Throughout the year, all Film Students are welcome to contact the Department Head with questions they might have about the programs, courses and policies.

Gerald Saul: gerald.saul@uregina.ca  ED 239.11  306-585-4619

Throughout their degree, U of R students can also contact Janelle Bennett, the Academic Program Coordinator in MAP, for information and guidance: 306-585-5576; RC 267.2  Janelle.Bennett@uregina.ca

Students registered through Campion College, Luther College or First Nations University of Canada can also contact their academic counselors.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Film is dedicated to teaching film and digital media in an interdisciplinary environment that encourages growth in creative expression and critical reasoning. In our commitment to providing a quality education, we strive to engender creative and inquiring minds in our students by exposing them to a wide range of learning experiences and practices in production and studies. The department provides a well-rounded education, preparing students to realise their unique paths and become emerging film/media artists, craftspeople in the film, television and digital media industries, critics and scholars.

Film courses at the University of Regina began in the 1970s and the first BFA was granted in 1980. Situated on Treaty 4 territory, FILM at the University of Regina is the only university department between the Great Lakes and the Pacific Ocean to offer degree programs in both film production and film studies. At the undergraduate level we offer the BFA in Film Production and the BA / BA Honours in Film Studies. At the graduate level we offer the MA in Media Studies and the MFA in Media Production.

In the Department of Film, we address all aspects of moving images that have their roots in cinematic language: movies, television, YouTube, Netflix, web series and other streaming content, advertising, music videos, installations and gaming. We encourage students to develop their creative and critical skills by producing projects and writing essays across all genres and styles, from Hollywood blockbusters to the underground to new media.

Our Students’ Society, the Film Students Association (aka FSA) is an important partner, offering students opportunities to build their social and working networks, and to gain experience in leadership and collaboration. The student organised and run Living Skies Student Film Festival supports exceptional student work from across the country and around the world.

FILM has hosted several national and international conferences and workshops, including Making It Like a Man! Masculinities in Canadian Arts and Cultures (2004); The Art of Immersive Soundscapes (2004); AIS2: Creative Forum and Conference (2007); Spaces of Violence, Sites of Resistance: Music, Media and Performance, the annual conference of the International Association for the Study of Popular Music (2010); The Flatland Scratch Seminar / Workshop Series; Son Image: The Legacies of Jean-Luc Godard (2010), and the 2012 conference on French Science Fiction Film, PAN! Dans l’oeil de la lune! In 2015 FILM hosted the 17th Annual Film Studies Association of Canada Graduate Student Colloquium. In the Spring of 2018, the University of Regina will host The Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences, the largest academic gathering in the country; Film will be an active partner in Congress.
CAREER GOALS AND OPPORTUNITIES

A University degree in Film provides you with a well-rounded education, as well as flexible, transferable skills, which allow you to adapt more easily to the constantly evolving economic environment and ultimately make you a more creative and marketable person. Our programs will provide you with essential skills in critical reasoning and conceptual synthesis that can be applied to careers in a range of fields.

Production graduates from our BFA program work in every facet of the film and media industries. Our graduates have contributed to award-winning documentary, fiction, experimental, and animated films. Graduates have gone on to become award-winning producers, directors and screenwriters at the local, national and international levels and our graduates have pursued careers locally, nationally and internationally in editing, sound, camera, lighting, and other areas of filmmaking. Our graduates teach in all levels of the educational system in Canada and the United States.

There are also exciting career paths for people with a BA or Honours BA in Film Studies. Here are a few examples of what you can do:

- Teach the history and theory of film
- Research and development for documentary film productions
- Work in film archives in libraries, schools, government agencies and private companies
- Write critically about film for magazines, newspapers, websites, radio and television
- Organize and participate in film or cultural festivals by producing catalogues, doing public relations work, introducing filmmakers and special events, hosting workshops or chairing panels
- Curate for cinemathques, film festivals, museums and art galleries
- Research to produce reference works in print and online pertaining to the history of film and television
- Write or supervise scripts on a film production
- Edit a film magazine or journal
- Translate articles or entire books on film from a foreign language in which you may be fluent
- Work for agencies at various levels: civic, provincial and national funding agencies, regulatory bodies, trade commissions, and artist-run centres
- Work in distribution, exhibition, or the support aspects of production
OUR ALUMNI

Graduates from FILM have gone on to award-winning careers in Saskatchewan, across Canada and internationally. They work as independent filmmakers and producers; as directors, screenwriters, editors, animators, and cinematographers in series television and on national and international fiction, documentary and animation productions; as festival programmers, curators, archivists, educators and authors of critical and historical perspectives on film and media.

Here are what some of our alumni have been up to this past year:

Writer/Director Lowell Dean, and Producers Bernie Hernando & Hugh Patterson will unleash Another WolfCop this year. (A number of our alumni also worked on the film behind and in front of the camera). In the summer of 2017, they also shot a new feature film SuperGrid. http://wolfcop.com/ https://www.facebook.com/SuperGridMovie/

Dr. Jemma Gilboy is a Senior Lecturer in Animation Studies at Nottingham Trent University in England. https://www.ntu.ac.uk/staff-profiles/art-design/jemma-gilboy

Lucas Frison and Élise Beaudry-Ferland partnered on the feature film Talent, which debuts later this year. Shot in Regina, Talent received support from the Telefilm Canada’s Micro-Budget Feature Program & Creative Saskatchewan. https://www.facebook.com/prairiecatproductions/

Trudy Stewart in the Festival Director of mispon - a Celebration of Indigenous Filmmaking. This yearly festival highlights Indigenous filmmaking in Canada and around the world. Trudy is also a Producer and Director; she just wrapped a documentary with support from the National Screen Institute’s Aboriginal Documentary program. Jonathan Petrychyn is a PhD candidate and SSHRC Doctoral Fellow at York University in Toronto. http://jonpetrychyn.ca/

Alex Rogalski is the Executive Director of PAVED Arts in Saskatoon, and for the past decade has worked as a film programmer for festivals across Canada including TIFF, Hot Docs International Film Festival, and the Calgary International Film Festival. http://www.pavedarts.ca/about/

Amy Mantyka is on the Board of SMPIA, the Saskatchewan Media Production Industry Association, and a partner with two other alumni in the Regina production company Play Creative. http://www.smperia.sk.ca/ http://www.playcreative.ca/
FACULTY AND STAFF

Sarah Abbott holds a BA Honours in Film Studies and Drama from Queen's University, an MFA in Art Media Studies from Syracuse University and is currently pursuing a Doctorate of Social Sciences from Royal Roads University as a Vanier Scholar. Her work engages issues of being, human rights, ethics and the environment, across a variety of genres and mediums. Her films have received numerous grants, awards, television broadcasts and international festival selections. Sarah's feature-length documentary Tide Marks (2004), examines aspects of post-apartheid South Africa. Out In The Cold (2008) is a poignant short drama inspired by the freezing deaths of Indigenous men allegedly at the hands of police in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. This Time Last Winter (2010), a half-hour short, centers on violence in young relationships, interracial relationships and talking circles. For these dramatic works, Sarah developed a teaching model wherein her production students work alongside industry professionals in a rigorous, professional set environment. Sarah received the City of Regina's 2009 Mayor’s Arts and Business Award for Innovation in the Arts and 2012 Saskatchewan Lieutenant Governor’s Arts Award for Arts and Learning in recognition of her passion for the power of media to engage the public on social issues. Sarah was the driving force behind the founding of mispon – A Celebration of Indigenous Filmmaking, the Regina-based non-profit film festival and advocacy collective.

Ian Campbell is FILM’s Lab Instructor. Ian holds a BFA in Studio Arts from the University of Victoria and an MFA in Studio Arts Open Media from Concordia University. Ian is a filmmaker and media artist who works with traditional and digital film techniques. His areas of research are digital filmmaking and digital effects, live video mixing and VJ culture, and 3d media visualization and 3d printing. His practice encompasses theatrical screenings, single channel video and live media performances. He has shown new media art across Canada and Internationally including group exhibitions and performances at the Winnipeg Art Gallery, The Mendel Art Gallery, CCA (Glasgow), 300m3 (Gothenburg), EPCOR centre (Calgary) and the Parisian Laundry (Montreal). His short experimental digital films have screened at Festival Nouveau Cinema (Montreal), Antimatter (Victoria), and WNDX (Winnipeg). In 2015 his short film "The First Engine" was nominated for a Saskatchewan Independent Film Award. Contact: Ian.Campbell@uregina.ca ; ED 239.3; 306-585-5313; (On sabbatical 2017/18)

Dr. Philippe Mather has taught film and media studies for Campion College since 1996. He holds degrees from Concordia University, the University of Iowa and La Sorbonne Nouvelle (Paris III). His PhD dissertation is entitled "Cognitive Estrangement: Towards a Semiology of Science Fiction Film." He specializes in genre theory, authorship and film music. He recently published a monograph on the photojournalistic work of Stanley Kubrick, and co-edited a collection of essays on French science fiction. His current research focuses on orientalism, the cinema of Singapore, and Indigenous visual narration.
Dr. Sheila Petty teaches studies courses. She completed a ten-year stint as Dean of the Faculty of Fine Arts in 2014. She has written extensively on issues of cultural representation, identity and nation in African and African diasporic screen media, and has curated film, television and digital media exhibitions for galleries across Canada. She is the author of Contact Zones: Memory, Origin and Discourses in Black Diasporic Cinema (Wayne State University Press, 2008). She is co-editor of the Directory of World Cinema: Africa (Intellect Books, 2015). Her current research focuses on transvergent African cinemas, new Maghrebi cinemas and interpretive strategies for analyzing digital creative cultural practices. She is completing a book on travelling aesthetics in African cinema for University of Toronto Press. She was the recipient of the 2001 University of Regina Alumni Association Award for Excellence in Research and was a University of Regina President's Scholar (2002-2004).

Michael Rollo teaches production courses. Mike has a BFA from the University of Regina and an MFA from Concordia University. His work explores alternative approaches to documentary cinema — methods which thematize vanishing cultures and transitional spaces through references to memory, history, religion, and autobiography. A founding member of Montreal’s experimental film collective Double Negative, Mike has curated the work of prominent international and Canadian... experimental filmmakers. Currently, he is a member of Independent Visions, a curatorial incubator devoted to making independent and experimental media accessible to a diverse audience in Regina. Mike’s films have shown at festivals, galleries, and conferences across Canada and internationally. His film Ghosts and Gravel Roads (2008) was honoured as one of Canada’s Top Ten Shorts in 2008 by the Toronto International Film Group and received the Mikeldi Silver Documentary Award at the 50th Edition of the International Festival of Documentary and Short Film of Bilbao. Mike’s latest film Farewell Transmission will premiere in Fall 2017.

PROGRAM INFORMATION YOU NEED TO KNOW

The Department of Film is located on the first and second floors of the Education Building. The main office is on the second floor, ED 243, with Faculty and Sessional Lecturers’ offices ranging from ED 239.2 to 239.12. The production technicians, equipment cage, editing suites, production studio, and student lounge are on the first floor at various locations (149.1, 152, 175, 179).

Please keep in mind the following guidelines as you progress through the program in Film. It is your responsibility to read the University of Regina’s Academic Calendar and to understand all university regulations.

http://www.uregina.ca/student/registrar/calendars-schedule.html

The FILM Handbook is updated in the summer of every year and paper copies are distributed at the annual Student Orientation in September. Paper copies are also available in the Department office, ED 243, and a digital version can be downloaded from the Department website.

https://www.uregina.ca/mediaartperformance/areas-study/film/index.html

The Handbook includes helpful information on such things as the goals and mission of FILM; important dates; career goals; study tips; faculty expertise; the timetable of courses and suggested sequence of completion; equipment room guidelines; scholarships; and student success stories.

Degrees offered:
You can major in Film Production (i.e. producing, or making films), which leads to a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree (BFA); or you can major in Film Studies (i.e. critical writing about film and media), which leads to a Bachelor of Arts degree (BA) or an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree (Honours BA). Some students who complete their BFA return to complete their BA Honours in Film Studies.

It is important that you understand and follow the suggested sequencing of courses as you complete your degree. This sequencing is designed to enable you to complete the BFA and BA Honours degrees in 4 years. Of course, some students choose to complete their degree over a longer period of time.
ACCEPTANCE AND DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

The Department of Film offers programs leading to the degrees of BFA (Film Production), BA Honours (Film Studies concentration in Media, Art, and Performance), BA (Film Studies concentration in MAP), and a Minor in Film Studies. We have partnered with the Department of Visual Arts to deliver a Minor in Photography. Requirements for each program are outlined below and in the Academic Calendar under the separate heading for the specific area of study.

BFA in Film Production
Students wanting to apply to enter the BFA program must complete Film 100 and Film 200. Applicants apply at the end of Semester 2 and are evaluated on a portfolio of work created in Film 200, an interview, and their overall Grade Point Average (GPA).

BA and BA Honours in Media, Art, and Performance with a Concentration in Film Studies
Acceptance into the BA and BA Honours program is based on declaring a major (or minor) in Film Studies and having achieved the requisite GPA. Your courses are virtually the same as those for the BFA in Semesters 1 and 2. In Semesters 3 to 8 you will be sharing some Film Studies core courses and electives with your colleagues in the BFA, as well as pursuing the requisite MAP and University electives.

Students in BA and BA Honours and Minor degrees should follow as closely as possible the sequence of courses outlined in the Academic Calendar. Students pursuing the BA Honours, in which you write a thesis paper of 20-25 pages in Semester 8, should be thinking about their topic by Semester 5-6 and begin discussions with their Studies professors and the Department Head regarding supervision of their thesis (Film 490) at that time. Film Studies students have an opportunity to present their Honours research work in a seminar style setting to their professors and peers at the end of Semester 8.

Note: A minor in Film Studies is available only to students not registered in another FILM program.
Important Details about Your First Year in the BFA program:

Semester 1 (Fall)

You are required to take the non-credit MAP 001, Foundations of University Practices. Students will be introduced to the variety of resources and services available to them and their roles and responsibilities as members of the university and MAP communities. The seminar will also provide students with degree and career possibilities. This required course must be completed within the completion of 30 credit hours of study. Students who are placed on academic probation before completing 60 credit hours of study or who have received a “must withdraw” academic action on their transcript must repeat this course.

We recommend you take the following in Semester 1:

Film 100: The Art of Motion Pictures is the only Film course you can take in your first term. You can take either Film 100-011 (offered through the University of Regina) or Film 100-C11 (offered through Campion College). There is no substantial difference in content between these two sections of Film 100, so you are free to choose whichever best fits your schedule. Film 100 is an introductory studies course in which you are introduced to the culture of film, essential knowledge for both studying film and making films.

English 100 or ACAD 100: Academic Discourse as an elective early in your degree. These courses provide first-year students with tools for successful communication across the disciplines by emphasizing elements of effective writing and academic research, which are essential in a university environment.

A MAP (Media, Art, and Performance) course. Among the choices are Music, Theatre, Art; Art History and courses identified as MAP, or CTCH (Creative Technologies).

A course in the Social and Natural Sciences. (see page 18 for details)

A Research Methodology course. (see page 18 for details)

Note: A full load is 5 courses per term. Taking 3 courses per term is also considered full time by the University of Regina registrar’s office, but by taking less than 5 courses per term, you will not be able to complete the BFA or BA Honours degree in 4 years, unless you can pick up Spring and Summer courses. FILM is not able to offer many Spring or Summer courses and our core classes are only offered in the Fall and Winter semesters.
Semester 2: (Winter)

We recommend you take the following in Semester 2:

Film 200: Introduction to Film and Video. It is the first hands-on course you will take in film production. It is an introductory course in which you will create the portfolio of work that will be submitted for admission into the BFA program.

Film 253.

A course in the Natural and Social Sciences. (see page 18 for details)

A course in Communication and Writing. (see page 18 for details)

A MAP elective. (see page 18 for details)

Further Information for Film Production / BFA Students

Adjudication for entrance into the BFA program occurs at the end of your first year of study (i.e. end of Semester 2). Entrance into this program is competitive and is based on three components:

1) Portfolio of work created in Film 200
2) Academic achievement (GPA, or “Grade Point Average”) in all courses
3) Interview with department faculty

1) Portfolio: You will create a portfolio in Film 200, which is required to gain entry to the BFA program.

2) Academic Achievement: You are advised to maintain a high academic standing in all courses.

3) Interview: Interviews will be scheduled in late-April of Semester 2. The instructor in Film 200 will advise you to sign up for an interview in the main office, ED 243, in early April. The interview process is conducted by a team of faculty members (three professors per team). You will be interviewed on your ability to talk intelligently about: why you want to enter the BFA in Film Production; the aesthetic aspects and meaning of the work you have created in your portfolio; your artistic and cultural influences, etc.

Note: It is critical that, in Semester 2, ALL students who are finishing Film 100 and planning to enter the BFA program are enrolled in Film 200. Film 200 is only offered during the Winter semester and students cannot gain access to Film 201 without Film 200.
Important Details about Your First Year in the BA/BA Honours:

Film Studies students enter the program by declaring a concentration in Film Studies in MAP and having achieved the requisite GPA. Your courses are virtually the same as those for the BFA in Semesters 1 and 2. In Semesters 3 to 8 you will be sharing some Film Studies core courses and electives with your colleagues in the BFA program, as well as pursuing the requisite University electives.

Students in the BA and BA Honours and Minor should follow as closely as possible the sequence of courses outlined in the Academic Calendar. Students pursuing the BA Honours, in which you write a thesis paper in Semester 8, should be thinking about your topic by Semester 6 and begin discussions with your Studies professors and the Department Head regarding supervision of your thesis (Film 490). Film Studies students have an opportunity to present their Honours research work to their professors and peers at the end of Semester 8.

The University of Regina requires you to complete a series of courses called Critical Competency Requirements, as outlined in the Academic Calendar. These include courses in Communication in Writing, Analytical Thinking in the Social and Natural Sciences, Analytical Thinking in Culture and Society, and Research Skills and Methodologies.
Progress Through the Degrees:
The Academic Calendar and this Student Handbook, are to help you choose courses wisely. They contain a suggested sequence for completing courses, and descriptions of the various FILM courses offered.

Some Film studies courses are identified as Creative Technology courses and are considered part of the Film curriculum: CTCH 304, CTCH 305, CTCH 402

You should familiarize yourself with which courses are required and which are elective. FILM distributes course posters for both the production and studies courses offered each year, which are posted around the department and the campus, and on the department’s Facebook page and Twitter feed: ureginafilm.

Note: In the case of discrepancies between the printed Academic Calendar, the online version and this Handbook, the online version of the Academic Calendar will be considered to be the official version.

http://www.uregina.ca/gencal/ugcal/

Note: You are advised to register promptly for courses when your “time-ticket” becomes open. If you wait until August or early September to register in Fall courses, or until late December or early January to register in Winter courses, you may find them either full or cancelled. In the case of courses being taught by Sessional Lecturers, the University reserves the right to cancel any class with less than 8 students registered by the cut-off date of one month before the first day of class.

MAKE SURE YOU REGISTER PROMPTLY TO ENSURE THAT YOU WILL HAVE ACCESS TO THE COURSES YOU NEED TO COMPLETE YOUR DEGREE.

Grading Scheme:
The grading system can be found on page 40 of the Undergraduate Calendar:
Outstanding = 90-100 (A+)
Very good = 80-89 (A)
Average = 60-69 (C)
 Barely acceptable = 50-59 (D)
Unacceptable = 0-49 (F)
Courses outside of Film in the BFA/BA/BA(Hons) programs:

The Communication in Writing requirement means courses in subjects such as: Academic Discourse (ACAD 100), English 100, 110, 251 252, 351, 352, 353. Students working towards “mention bilingue” may meet this requirement through French language composition and creative writing courses.

The Research Skills and Methodologies requirement means any course in research methods, statistical analysis, logic, or computer science offered through the Faculties of Arts and Science, such as: PHIL 150, Computer Science (any course), INDG 280, 282, SOST 201, 203, 306, 307, PSYC 204, 305, WGST 220. STATS (any course), SOST 201, PSYC 305. Students may use statistics courses offered by Faculties outside of Arts and Science, with permission of the Dean or Designate.

The Culture and Society requirement means courses in subjects such as: PHIL 150 (Logic), English language expository or creative writing: ANTH, CLAS, ENGL above 100 level, HIST, HUM, INDG, IDS, JS, IS, Language other than English, Literature in translation, RLST, PHIL, WGST.

The Social and Natural Science requirement means courses in subjects such as: ECON, GEOG, PSCI, PSYC, STS, SOC, SOST, any Science courses (excluding Statistics and Computer Science).

The MAP requirement means courses in subject areas such as MAP, Art (Visual Arts), Art History, Indian Art, Indian Art History, Music, Theatre, CTCH.

PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY AND COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

In the production program, students are introduced to a range of cinematic and media arts approaches and work on collaborative and independent projects. The core production classes develop the students’ creative, technical and theoretical abilities in the key areas of writing, directing, camera, picture editing, sound recording and editing, and producing.

In FILM 201 and FILM 202, students produce dramatic films. In FILM 209 students focus on the technical aspects of filmmaking. In FILM 300 and 301 students concentrate on developing their personal voices and technical skills. In FILM 400, students produce group projects, in FILM 401 students produce individual or small group projects in the genre of their choice with the emphases on originality, creative expression and technical ability. Elective craft courses such as: Animation - FILM 203; Cinematography - FILM 305; Post-Production - FILM 306; Sound - FILM 307; Screenwriting - FILM 310; Directing - FILM 411, and Producing - FILM 403 augment the core production classes.

The Film Studies courses are an integral aspect of the production program. These courses develop the student’s analytical, theoretical and critical skills and provide a thorough grounding in historical and contemporary aspects of cinema and media arts.

In the Film Studies degree programs, students are introduced to the historical, aesthetic and formal concerns of the cinematic and media arts in FILM 100. The core studies classes develop analytical and critical thinking, and breadth and depth of knowledge in the key formal traditions of narrative, documentary, and the avant-garde, and provide a foundation on issues in Canadian cinema. Electives cover a wide range of issues in contemporary film and media studies, including directors, national cinemas, genre, gender, post-colonialism. Honours students complete an Honours Research Paper of 25-30 pages in their final semester and have an opportunity to present their work to other MAP students and faculty.

A common question from Film Production students is: "Why do we take film and media studies courses if we are training to be filmmakers?" The answer is in keeping with our Mission Statement, and with common sense: You need to know about art and culture in order to make art and culture. The best directors, screenwriters and producers are open-minded people with a deep appreciation and knowledge of the world around them that they want to represent. Here's how Tom Edgar and Karin Kelly, the authors of Film School Confidential explain it:

An academic degree will help you to make films. You need to know how to write a story before you can write a screenplay. You need to know about psychology and sociology, political science and economics if you want to create complete, realistic characters. You need to know about other cultures and ways of life if you want to put your own in perspective. Film is a language, and like all languages it's not much good if you don't have anything to say. A well-rounded education is the best source of things to say you can have. This is why it is strongly recommended that you study literature or history or political science, or an exact science, or just about anything academic as an undergraduate. It is also recommended that you see some of the world, whether by traveling through it or working in it, and experience some of what it has to offer, either before you go to film school or immediately after you graduate.

A broad-based education is also one of the major differences between what a technical trade school has to offer, and a University education.

According to Edgar and Kelly:

Writing is an indispensable skill in film school, and in the industry. Few people know how to write today; so few that literacy has become a rare and valuable skill. When you apply, if you can show the ability to write an original story you are miles ahead of most of the applicants you are competing with. In film school, if you can write good short screenplays then you are miles ahead of most of your classmates. After film school when you are out in the real world, if you can write good feature-length screenplays then you are miles ahead of everyone else in the industry.

Bill Nicholls, who teaches at San Francisco State University, argues in the AFI Guide to College Courses in Film and Television that:

The greatest advantage of an integrated program for those who aspire to make films is the opportunity to gain an awareness of the medium's traditions—the genres and conventions, the outstanding directors and exceptional works, the historical developments and significant turning points that set, and decorate, the stage. Like a humanities background in literature, this can have a broadening influence. It helps place recent tendencies and new trends in a larger perspective. The languages of Studies and Production often address similar problems from different perspectives. Some individuals will become conversant in one but not necessarily the other. An ability to speak both can be a valuable asset...Learning to read and interpret visual media, even learning to express oneself in moving images, has become a central criterion for citizenship in an image-saturated society.
FILM STUDIES COURSES

FILM 100: The Art of Motion Pictures
This course is an introduction to the art of motion pictures. The course will examine a representative selection of films covering the history of cinema, introducing students to basic concepts in film aesthetics. By examining narrative construction, theoretical concepts and visual aesthetics, students will develop the skills necessary to identify and interpret various aspects of film, including form, meaning and ideology. Typically offered: Fall term, Winter term, and occasionally in Spring term.

Note: All studies courses at the 200 level and higher have as a required text, Timothy Corrigan’s A Short Guide to Writing About Film.

FILM 253 - Narratives for the Digital Age
This course examines narrative structures and traditions and their relevance for film, TV serials, computer games, and new media data-based story-telling. Note: Students may not receive credit for both Film 251 and Film 253. Offered in the Winter semester.

FILM 254 - Documenting Reality
This course offers an overview of the documentary genre in film, television and journalistic contexts. It will investigate the genre in terms of subject matter and style, historical origins, forms and conventions, and relationships to cultural contexts. Note: Students may not receive credit for both Film 250 and Film 254. Offered in the Winter semester.

FILM 256 - Underground Film
This course will introduce the most important developments in the history of experimental and underground cinema. A discussion of international avant-garde films will be included, with a focus on the evolution of the avant-garde’s alternative techniques, themes modes of production and audiences. Note: Students may not receive credit for both Film 340 and Film 256. Offered in the Fall semester.

CTCH 303 - Technology and Culture
The aim of this course is to understand technology as a social practice. It will focus on issues concerning the intersections between technology and social life from a multidisciplinary perspective. Topics include: the nature of technology; history of technology; theories of technology; technological determinism and fetishism; technology and bodies; gender and media; digital and interactive media; technology and representation.
CTCH 304: Media Empires
This course offers an interdisciplinary approach to historical patterns of technological development, and the institutional, ideological, aesthetic and ethical changes they have prompted in the popular media of Film, TV and the Internet. This can be used as a Film 3xx elective course.

CTCH 305: Expanded Screens
This course looks at contemporary cinemas and the expanding and contracting screen. This can be used as a Film 3xx elective course.

FILM 345: Canadian Cinema
This course introduces key critical debates and theoretical issues in the history of Canadian cinema by concentrating on various movements and forms (feature fiction film, documentary, cinema direct, experimental film) as they evolved in the work of Canadian film, video and media artists. Topics discussed include American imperialism, nationalism and national identity, regionalism, and new voices in Canadian culture. Offered in the Fall semester.

FILM 348: Thinking About Film
The development of film theory and criticism from the silent period to the present. Major writings in silent film theory, montage theory, realism, auteurism, semiotics, psychoanalytic and spectatorship theories will be investigated. Offered in the Winter semester.

FILM 380AA-ZZ
The focus of elective third year studies courses changes from year to year and is based on the faculty member’s research expertise.

CTCH 402 - Media, Censorship, Propaganda
This advanced seminar course will introduce students to interdisciplinary critical approached to the study of (self) censorship, propaganda and persuasion in contemporary media on the basis of films, television shows and other artifacts.

FILM 480AA-ZZ
The focus of fourth year studies courses changes from year to year and is based on the faculty member's research expertise. Subject areas have included French New Wave, Horror and Mysticism, and in 2016/17 Arab Cinema and David Cronenberg.

FILM 490: Research Methods
Seminar open to students completing an Honours concentration in Film Studies. Students will be expected to present a clear timetable and discuss thesis work in seminars throughout the term. Assignments will include an honours research paper and a public presentation of the research. Prerequisite: Admission to Honours program.
FILM PRODUCTION COURSES

FILM 200: Introduction to Film and Video
The course explores the differences between the photographic, film, digital video and audio processes. Students will also study the characteristics of the media through assignments, exercises, and screenings. Prerequisite: FILM 100 and permission of Department Head. Materials Fee: $100.00 Offered in the Winter semester.

FILM 201: Production 1
The course focuses on the development of creativity in film production. Prerequisites: FILM 200 and permission of Department Head. Students must enroll in Film 209 in the same semester they are enrolled in Film 201. Materials Fee: $150.00 Offered in the Fall semester.

FILM 202: Production 2
A continuation of FILM 201. Prerequisite: A passing grade in FILM 201. Materials Fee: $100.00 Offered in the Winter semester.

MAP 499 AA-ZZ: Professional Placement
Students will be given the opportunity to apply their knowledge in a specific professional role related to their major. The work experience will be undertaken by the student under the supervision of a cooperating professional and a department coordinator.
Prerequisite: Third or Fourth year student. Permission of Department Head

Ella Mikkola and faculty member Mike Rollo at the 2016 Saskatchewan Independent Film Awards. Ella's film Saari took home the awards for Best Student Film and Technical Achievement. Saari was also selected by TIFF as one of Canada's Top Ten Student Films of 2016.
STUDY TIPS 101

- Attend classes. There is a temptation to pour all one’s energies into a favourite course, which for Film Production majors often means the semester’s main film project. Commitments are sometimes made with classmates to shoot on days when you should be attending your other courses. Unless you make time for your least favourite courses, you’ll be compromising your academic progress and wasting your money. Attending all your classes is the minimum requirement.

- Avoid Distractions. Beware of the distractions of your digital devices: the Internet, Text Messages, Games, and Social Media; save them for after you’ve completed your work. Find a quiet place to study and focus on your work.

- Study the more difficult subjects first. You might be inclined to put aside your weakest subject, but this will likely guarantee a weak performance. It is important to prioritize your courses in terms of the amount of work you devote to each of them. If you start with the hard courses, you’ll have more time to deal with problems as they arise.

- Study regularly. Using your time effectively is a key to success in most fields. You will be rewarded if you study briefly but often, rather than cramming the night before an exam. By dividing your work into manageable chunks, it won’t seem so overwhelming and you’ll reduce your stress level. Make sure you include study periods every day of the week, and vary your work to keep it fresh and interesting.

- Take regular breaks. Balancing work and rest is a way to both reward yourself for the good work you accomplish as well as maintain your effectiveness when you hit the books again. Studying long hours late at night can definitely be counterproductive.

- Manage your time. In order to avoid being unable to keep up with your master plan, make sure you set realistic goals for yourself, and spread the work out over the entire week. Don’t procrastinate and don’t try and “multi-task”: For example, make sure you do the assigned readings well in advance. If you need to read 20 pages or more per class per week, that might add up to 100 pages. If you read every day, you’ll only need to read 14 to 15 pages at a time.

- Set goals. By breaking down your project into intermediate tasks, you can more easily achieve each small step towards the project’s completion. List and prioritize the intermediate steps, assign a timeline for each step, determine the tasks required to complete each step, and schedule the individual steps in your personal calendar.

- Plan your day. Review the previous day for unfinished business, list your items for today and prioritize tasks. Reward yourself when you complete a task. In preparing for classes take a few minutes to review your notes from the previous class.
UR GUARANTEE PROGRAM
The UR Guarantee (URG) program will support you through every step of your University of Regina experience.

You will have an advisor to help with ALL aspects of University life. We provide you with access to academic supports, service and leadership opportunities, career development, and ways to get involved on campus and in the community.

Reasons to join:
To ensure you are making the most of your university experience
To gain valuable work experience, build your career portfolio and stand out from the competition
To strengthen your leadership skills and build your school spirit
To improve your study skills and academic performance
To meet new people and have fun!

For new students (have completed less than 30 credit hours): if you do not secure career-related employment within six months of graduation, you will be eligible to come back for another year of undergraduate classes free of charge (tuition and course fees).

Please Note: Students must register with UR Guarantee to qualify for its services.

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES

International Exchange Programs:
The University of Regina participates in international exchange programs for study abroad, which give you access to the resources of over 300 universities in Canada, the USA, Europe, Latin America, Asia and Australia. Students can participate for either one semester or up to one academic year. The benefits of international exchange include broadening your personal and educational experiences; exploring and appreciating new cultures; taking courses not offered at our campus; learning from different professors; learning a new language; expanding program and career options, etc. Many students in FILM have described their exchange as a life-changing experience, which has made them more independent, self confident and resourceful; expanded their risk-taking capabilities; and helped them better define their academic and career objectives.

For more information, contact UR INTERNATIONAL, CW 109.5, 306-585-5082.
http://www.uregina.ca/international/study-abroad/index.html

You are also encouraged to explore widely the course offerings across the university in all faculties and departments. The more open you are to the wider campus and the world, the more sophisticated your work, and the more well rounded your university experience, will be.

MEDIA, ART, AND PERFORMANCE MINOR IN ARTS ADMINISTRATION

The Minor in Arts Administration will introduce MAP students to basic concepts in business (budgeting, marketing, human resource management, organizational behaviour, accounting) and arts administration (grant writing, managing and marketing arts organizations, funding models, etc.). This minor will be valuable to Film students who wish to enhance their administrative skills, skills that are of obvious importance to emerging filmmakers in the production process as well as emerging film organization administrators.

Professional Placement:
The Faculty of MAP Professional Placement Program provides opportunities for senior students in all MAP degree programs to gain work experience with an arts organization (such as a local film production or media company). Students approved for the program gain work experience related to their major and have the opportunity to apply their knowledge in a specific professional role. The work experience is undertaken by the student under supervision of a participating professional and a department coordinator.

Please note: Placements depend on the suitability and availability of the positions, the qualifications of the student, and the availability of a department coordinator. This program is intended for senior students. Students need to meet certain criteria and be properly matched with an organization offering such opportunities. No student is guaranteed a placement. The number of credit hours allowed and the specific courses for which the Professional Placement Course is substituted in a student’s academic program is determined by the student’s department and outlined below. Organizations need to meet criteria determined by the student’s department and the Faculty of MAP and be properly matched with a student.

Eligibility: Must have completed 72 credit hours, be a full time student with a minimum GPA of 75%.

Department Head approval is required. Students interested in pursuing a Professional Placement should contact the Department Head, at least two months before the beginning of the semester the student wishes to do the Professional Placement.

Number of Credit Hours permitted: A maximum of 15 credit hours within a student’s program, usually taken as individual 3 credit hour courses, one per semester. (Normally a 3-credit course will require approximately 120 hours of on-site learning.)

How the placement can be used in the student’s program: A maximum of 3 credit hours to be used as 300 or 400 level production electives. Other credit hours will be taken as electives.
RESOURCES

Film Students’ Association (FSA):
The FSA is your opportunity to help create a vibrant film culture on campus and to gain experiences and acquaintances that will be beneficial in your post-university career. The FSA office is located in ED 156. Get involved! You’ll be glad you did. https://www.facebook.com/FSAREgina/ http://www2.uregina.ca/map/film-society/

Film Students’ Lounge:
The Film students’ lounge is located on the first floor of the Education Building, in ED 141. It’s a great place to relax with friends between classes or while working on projects. The lounge is usually open during regular hours, and is equipped with a fridge, microwave, and a DVD player for your viewing pleasure.

Living Skies Student Film Festival:
Film students at the University of Regina first organised a student film festival in 1988. Rebranded as the Living Skies Student Film Festival in 2012, the festival attracts student films from around the world, and offers free screenings, workshops and social events. The 2018 edition will celebrate the 30th anniversary of this student run film festival. http://www.livingskiesstudentfilmfest.com/

Library:
The Department’s collection of films on DVD and Blu-Ray is located in the Archer Library. Students have access to the film collection according to the rules and regulations established by the library. Borrowing regulations may differ from class to class depending on the wishes of the instructor. DVD collections can also be found in the Campion College Library (CM 206) and La Cité universitaire francophone in the Language Institute building.

Film Viewing Rooms:
Most films shown in Film Studies courses will be placed on reserve at the Archer Library or the Campion library (CM 206), in some cases only after they have been screened in class. Students may borrow and screen these films in AV rooms booked at the Archer Library and the Campion Library Study Room. Film on reserve cannot be taken off campus.

FILM Listserve, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram:
Students should regularly monitor their U of R email accounts for updates from the department on events, courses, and job opportunities, and for all course related communication from their faculty members. The FILM Facebook page and Twitter and Instagram feeds provide additional sources of information and interest. MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Saskatchewan Filmpool Cooperative
The Saskatchewan Filmpool Cooperative, Saskatchewan's premiere venue for independent filmmaking, celebrates its 40th anniversary in 2017. The Filmpool provides equipment, facilities and grants, sponsors the Saskatchewan Independent Film Awards (SIFAs) and numerous workshops, and partners with FILM and the Dunlop Art Gallery/RPL Film Theatre to present the Independent Visions screening series. Many of our students, graduates and faculty members are Filmpool members and have taken advantage of the resources of the cooperative.

Regina Public Library Film Theatre
For more than 40 years, the RPL Film Theatre has been Regina's home of international, independent and Canadian films, and the RPL Film Theatre is a frequent programming partner with the Department of Film on special screening series and events. Films screen Thursday through Sunday, with special prices for students.

Film Studies Association of Canada (FSAC)
FILM is a member of the Film Studies Association of Canada. FSAC fosters and advances scholarship in the history and art of film and related fields as well as to aid those teaching film and video production at Canadian colleges and universities. The Association invites applications from Honours and Graduate students (MA or PhD) undertaking innovative research in cinema studies that will contribute to the understanding of Canadian/Quebec cinema both within Canada and elsewhere.

Membership is open to any individual teaching at a post-secondary level or engaged in graduate study of research in film and related fields, to any private or public institution active in these areas, and to the interested public. FSAC publishes a quarterly newsletter, Continuity, and also supports the publication of a scholarly journal, The Canadian Journal of Film Studies, with contributions from film scholars across Canada and internationally. Film School Consortium FILM is a member of the Film School Consortium, Canada’s only collaborative network of Canadian film schools working together to support and advance the efforts of emerging filmmakers and educators. Schools work together not just to share information on educational aspects of filmmaking, but also to strengthen relationships with industry partners. The work and interests of the group have continued to grow and today there are seventeen schools that form the Consortium network across Canada.
SUPPORT SERVICES

The University of Regina offers a wide range of support programs for academic and personal issues. For full details, visit the website:

http://www.uregina.ca/currentstudents/support-services/index.html

The Centre for Student Accessibility

The University of Regina wishes to support all students in achieving academic success while enjoying a full and rewarding university experience.

The Centre for Student Accessibility upholds the university's commitment to a diverse and inclusive learning community by providing services and support to enable students with disabilities to approach their studies in an equal and effective manner.

The Centre aims to encourage independence, self-advocacy and equality for all students, while maintaining personal, confidential service.

Assistance can be arranged in such things as parking, lectures, reading assignments, examinations and technologies to assist students. Students who require assistance should discuss their needs when registering for classes. Students should then contact the advisor of Special Needs Services for additional information about appropriate accommodation(s) and to discuss the adaptive equipment that is available on campus. Services vary according to student abilities, needs, supporting documentation and requests. Early registration is advised, particularly for students who will need books taped or brailed. Since not all areas of the campus are accessible by wheelchair, students should inquire at the time of registration.

UNIVERSITY AND DEPARTMENT OF FILM POLICIES

Respectful University

Policy Statement

The University is committed to creating and maintaining an environment in which members of the University community can live, work and learn in a collegial climate of mutual respect, free of harassment and discrimination.

A discriminatory practice may not fall neatly into a single category, and is not required to do so. Under some circumstances, discrimination may give rise to a duty to accommodate.

Harassment and discrimination are, fundamentally, a selective denial of the basic human right to be treated with dignity and respect. The University will not tolerate or condone harassment or discrimination, and will take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure employees or students are not subjected to harassment and discrimination and will take all reasonable steps to prevent this type of behaviour and to stop it if it occurs.

In order to constitute harassment, conduct, comment, display, action or gesture does not need to be directed at a specific individual. For example, display of any inappropriate material such as a poster or screen-saver, or inappropriate comments, i.e. racial, religious, sexist or homophobic slurs overheard by another employee may also constitute harassment.

Third parties invited to the University could engage or participate in the harassment of an employee and/or student. The University may have limited ability to investigate or control their conduct. However, the University shall take reasonably practicable action to stop or reduce the risk to its employee/students of being harassed by third parties.

Allegations of harassment or discrimination arising during co-op placements, internships, or practica shall be dealt with cooperatively between the University and the on-site authorities according to University policy and procedures governing such placements.

PRODUCTION SHOOTING POLICY

Students are required to comply with the following guidelines during film production.

1. The University of Regina declares that it will not tolerate any inappropriate or irresponsible conduct, including any form of behaviour that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment for work or study through the harassment of an individual or group on the basis of sex, gender, sexual orientation, race or race-related grounds such as ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship and creed. All students are required to adhere to the University of Regina's Policy Statement on Sexual Harassment and Racial Harassment Policy Statement. Please note that complaints relating specifically to the contents of the above policies will be dealt with in accordance with University of Regina procedures.

2. Faculty and Students are required to be conversant with the Film and Video Classification Regulations of Saskatchewan and with the sections of the Criminal Code that deal with obscenity. http://www.fcaa.gov.sk.ca/CPD-SK-FCB

3. Students are required to adhere to the University of Regina's policy that the use of any live non-human animals for any or in any University-sanctioned activities cannot proceed without the approval of the protocol by the President's Committee on Animal Care. https://www.uregina.ca/research/for-faculty-staff/ethics-compliance/animal/membership.html

4. In the case of dramatic films, students are required to present full shooting scripts to Instructors prior to auditioning actors or other principals in the course of production.

5. If scenes of a sexual or violent nature are involved in a student project, the student is required to make clear to the actor(s) the exact nature of shots involved.

6. Students are required to obtain parental permission when using actors under 18 years of age.

7. Students are required to advise the appropriate law enforcement bodies when shooting in public areas, particularly when guns or other weapons are involved as props.

8. Student projects will be evaluated at the shooting script or treatment level by Instructors to ensure that content complies with obscenity laws as set out in the relevant sections of The Criminal Code. The Instructors reserve the right to demand that revisions be made to any such material should the material, in the Instructor's opinion, contravene the Code. If the student contests such an evaluation, she or he has the right to initiate the following appeals procedure:

i) The student will provide a full shooting script and/or detailed treatment for evaluation by three tenured, probationary or term appointment Department members. The selection of the evaluation committee will include, but not be limited to, the student's Instructor as well as one additional Production faculty member and one Film Studies faculty member as appointed by the Department Head, plus an elected student representative. The committee will be chaired by the Dean of MAP.

ii) The student will be permitted to give an oral presentation to the sitting committee. She/he will then leave the meeting. The Instructor will then give his/her presentation and leave the meeting. The sitting committee will then deliberate in camera and will apply the obscenity test, the internal necessities test as per the Criminal Code, as well as determine whether the project is acceptable within the following University policy statements: Policy Statement on Sexual Harassment, Racial Harassment Policy Statement, and any other University policies that may apply. The questionable content of the project will be examined within the total artistic scope of the project itself. A formal vote will be taken. The committee will then provide a written evaluation based on whether the project conforms to University and community standards, and will, if necessary, outline any revisions. The Department will then issue the ruling in writing to the student (copied to the Dean of MAP). If the student accepts this ruling, she/he will be bound to the stated revisions, if any. EXTERNAL INTERVENERS MAY DO SO ONLY IN WRITING AND WILL BE REGARDED AS ADVISORY; THEY WILL NOT BE GIVEN OFFICIAL STANDING AT THE MEETING.

iii) If the student does not accept the ruling, she/he will have an opportunity to state her/his objections in writing and will further have the opportunity to request that the project be reviewed by three outside adjudicators (from the community) with relevant artistic expertise, selected by the Department Head. These adjudicators will be required to apply the same criteria as outlined in ii) and will submit a written report.

iv) Once this process has been completed, the Department faculty will review all of the reports thus far compiled and will reach a determination. The Department faculty will provide the student with a final written decision.

v) Failure to comply with the Department decision will result in action taken by the Dean of MAP.

vi) In the case that a complaint concerning the content of a treatment or shooting script comes from a third party (i.e. a complaint from a source other than the Instructor and the filmmaker who, after having followed the usual procedures, have reached an agreement about the script), this third-party complaint will initiate evaluation procedures as outlined above.
POLICY ON FILMING ON CAMPUS
The decision to authorize filming on campus is based solely on External Relations’ responsibility to preserve the reputation, public image, and integrity of the University of Regina. Requests to film on campus should be directed to External Relations: Greg Campbell 306-585-5156; Greg.Campbell@uregina.ca

Students registered at the University of Regina are permitted to film on campus pursuant to the following guidelines:
● Projects must be bona fide student productions approved by an assigned instructor
● Access to University space must be booked through Conference Services
● Students will be billed for any costs incurred by the University
● Students must carry student identification with them at all times while filming

POLICY ON DRONE USE
Students are required to follow Transport Canada regulations on the proper use of drones.

Do not fly your drone:

• closer than nine km from the centre of an aerodrome (any airport, heliport, seaplane base or anywhere that aircraft take-off and land)
• higher than 90 m above the ground
• closer than 75 m from buildings, vehicles, vessels, animals, people/crowds
• within controlled or restricted airspace
• within nine km of a forest fire
• where it could interfere with police or first responders
• at night or in clouds
• if you can’t keep it in sight at all times
• if you are not within 500 m of your drone
• if your name, address, and telephone number are not clearly marked on your drone.

Please note, that the U of R campus, and city of Regina are within the radius of 9km from the Airport (and the heliport at the General Hospital), and therefore, it is illegal to fly a drone on campus, or in the city, without the proper license.

For full Transport Canada regulations, consult: https://www.tc.gc.ca/eng/civilaviation/opssvs/flying-drone-safely-legally.html
POLICY ON SHOOTING DAY LENGTH
FILM strongly encourages students to keep their production shooting days to a maximum of 12 hours. This duration is in line with film industry standards and is a precaution toward safe working practices as the likelihood of accidents both on and off set increase as fatigue levels increase. This limit also shows respect for all people involved in the production and encourages good organization in the planning stages of film projects.

POLICY ON USE OF WEAPONS IN FILMS
Any use of prop weapons in student projects must be approved by the course Instructor. Prop weapons on campus require prior written approval from Campus security. Prop weapons off campus, on private property, require approval from the property owner or primary tenant. In any instance where the presence of a prop weapon may be in view of the public, including near windows inside of private dwellings, outside yards and inside cars, other permission is required, as follows. Prop weapons used off campus on public property within Regina require a permit issued by the City of Regina Film Officer. http://www.regina.ca/business/filming/

Prop weapons used off campus require prior written approval from property owners, local municipalities and local law enforcement offices. A prop weapon is defined as any object that may be perceived as a weapon including toy guns or toy knives or an object used in a violent context (baseball bat, tire iron, etc.), i.e. used outside of its usual context (baseball games, car repairs, etc.). Situations which suggest dire circumstances must also follow this protocol such as performers appearing to be injured, performers screaming in terror or being threatening, or performers pretending to be in dangerous situations such as being on the edge of a bridge, rooftop, or windowsill.

POLICY ON INSURANCE
Students are responsible for the equipment or facilities they've booked. If equipment is stolen, or damaged, students are required to pay the replacement or repair costs, or $2500 to access the department's insurance deductible costs.

Equipment that is stolen must be reported to the Police, and a copy of the Police Report must be provided to the Department. Damage, or theft must be reported to the Department as soon as possible.

We encourage students to have their own insurance policies, or to check to see if they've covered by a family policy.

If you plan to take the equipment outside of Canada, Canada Customs requires serial numbers and model numbers on every piece of equipment. This all takes time to do, so prepare early. If you plan to take equipment outside of Canada or the U.S., students must fully insure all the equipment, and provide proof of insurance before the equipment can be booked.
FILM EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES GUIDELINES

FILM Production equipment and facilities are for use for the completion of work in Film courses during the academic semesters.

Equipment Bookings
a) Students may book equipment and facilities up to two weeks in advance from the beginning of the Fall Semester, to the last day of lectures, and the beginning of the Winter Semester, to the last day of lectures.

b) For students in Films 201 and above:

No equipment can be booked between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. No equipment can be booked after 3:00 p.m.

Equipment picked up Monday through Wednesday can be kept for two days: pick up Monday – return Wednesday; pick up Tuesday – return Thursday; pick up Wednesday – return Friday. Equipment booked on Thursday is returned Friday. Equipment booked on Fridays is returned Mondays.

c) For students in Film 200, equipment can be booked out for one day: (pick up Monday – return Tuesday, pick up Tuesday – return Wednesday, etc.) No equipment can be booked between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. No equipment can be booked after 3:00 p.m.

d) No equipment or facility can be booked without the course Instructor or Lab Instructor's signature on the request sheet. Phone authorization will not be allowed. Booking sheets will not be accepted in the Equipment Room while the door is shut or after hours of operation. This is to ensure the proper filing and recording of requests. Do not slip the sheets under the door - they will be ignored.

Faculty members are requested not to let students into the Equipment Room when it is closed to book equipment/facilities. Instructors must ensure classes have ample time to sort out bookings while the equipment room is open.

e) It is the student’s responsibility to check equipment and facility bookings for availability. Equipment and facilities are booked on a first come, first served basis.

f) It is the student’s responsibility to check equipment before it leaves the Equipment Room. Students are responsible for any equipment returned that is damaged.
g) In the case of a group booking, the members of the group should all sign the request sheet. Any student who signs the request sheet is responsible for the equipment.

h) All equipment and keys must be returned by or before 9:30 AM on the date due. Pickup of equipment and keys is after 1:00 PM on the day they have been booked.

i) Late returns of keys and equipment will result in a fine as outlined in the guidelines. Students who receive a third fine will face possible suspension from the use of facilities and equipment. All fines must be paid before the student will be allowed to book and receive equipment and keys.

Equipment
a) All equipment, cords, etc., must be returned in proper condition.
b) No equipment is to be given out or taken from the Equipment Room without the equipment/facility coordinator being notified.
c) Equipment must be returned to the Equipment Room by the student responsible for it. Equipment Room staff will not retrieve equipment from editing rooms or classrooms.
d) Equipment Room staff must indicate "time received" on submitted booking sheets in order to decide who has priority.
e) All equipment must be returned on the due date by 9:30 a.m.

Note: “All equipment” means exactly that. e.g. if a lens cap is missing when a camera is returned, the equipment is not deemed to be returned until the lens cap is also returned.

Fines
It is necessary that we have a system that requires everyone to return equipment and keys on time and to maintain facilities in proper condition. “Why?” you may ask. We have a large number of production students and a limited amount of equipment and facilities to draw from. A student who keeps equipment out longer than booked, will affect another student waiting for the same equipment. Obviously, this is unfair to the student waiting for the equipment who may have to cancel a planned shoot. Hence, we have instituted fines for the late return of equipment and keys or the improper use of equipment and facilities.

Fines will be levied on the following:
• Late return of equipment.
• Improperly returned equipment.
• Late return of keys.
• Studio left in a mess, lights not put away, etc.
• Facilities left open and doors not closed while unattended.
• Any facility left in a mess by a student.

Example 1: Equipment is due Wednesday – 9:30 a.m.
Student returns it Thursday – 9:00 a.m.
Student is fined $20.00

Example 2: Equipment is due Monday – 9:30 a.m.
Student returns it Thursday – 3:30 p.m.
Student is fined $75.00

Fines can be paid at the Department office, ED 243. Exact cash or cheque please, no debit or credit card.

Students with unpaid fines will not be able to book equipment or facilities until the fine is paid.

Outstanding unpaid fines will be passed on to Financial Services, which can affect a student's ability to register for classes or graduate.

It's easy to avoid fines: treat the equipment and facilities with proper care and return the equipment and keys on time.

Care and Maintenance of Equipment

- It is essential to fill out service reports for broken or malfunctioning equipment as this allows the Service Technician to repair broken equipment.
- If maintenance on equipment is required it is up to the discretion of the Equipment Coordinator as to its further use by students/staff. Cancellation of booking may be required.
- Students will undertake no repairs. Damage incurred due to repairs or cleaning done by unauthorized persons will result in fines and/or suspensions of privileges. The student may be responsible for the cost of proper repair or replacement.
- All lighting kits, cameras, etc., will be returned properly stored and in an orderly fashion. Messy packing must be redone before equipment will be checked in and late fines will be charged to the student responsible for improperly returned equipment.
Facilities and Access
a) Unless booked for use, facilities may be used during regular hours without booking or Instructor’s authorization. The Equipment Coordinator will let students into the room; no keys will be handed out.

b) A facility may be booked for a maximum of four hours in a day. The exception will be the Production Studio. This room can be booked for a total of eight hours in a given day.

c) All facility bookings must go through the Equipment Coordinator or one of the student assistants who will initial the facility booking sheets.

d) Students wanting to know who is booked in during an evening or weekend should consult the Facilities book and make note of it.

e) Cancellations should be made during regular hours as soon as possible.

f) Students who do not show up for facility bookings within the first fifteen minutes will forfeit their booking and the facility will be made available on a first come, first served basis.

g) Technical problems should be reported immediately to the Equipment Coordinator; students are required to fill out a service report.

h) The department is not responsible for any personal belongings left in the facilities. It is essential that doors to facilities be closed upon leaving, even for a few moments. Those who sign out keys are responsible for any damage to facilities or the theft of University property.

i) Do not store equipment in facility rooms.

j) No food or drink is allowed in dedicated post-production facilities and the darkroom. A first time offence will result in a written warning. A second offence will lead to a suspension for two weeks. A third offence will lead to a semester’s suspension from facility access.

k) Students may bring food and/or drinks into classrooms during class periods with the permission of the Instructor. Fried and/or aromatic baked foods (pizzas, subway sandwiches) are not permitted. All food and drink garbage must be taken out of the classroom and must not be placed in classroom wastepaper basket.

l) No smoking in facility rooms. Students will face permanent suspension if they do so.
m) No alcoholic beverages allowed in facility rooms. Students will face permanent suspension if they do so.

Computers and Editing Suites

• Students should adhere to editing suite etiquette as outlined by the Lab Instructor.

• No downloading or loading of software programs of any kind. A first time offence will lead to a two-week suspension. A second offence will lead to a semester suspension. A third offence will lead to a permanent suspension of access to facilities.

• Students must follow proper methods as outlined by the Lab Instructor of attaching external devices to edit station computers. If students are uncertain, they should contact the Lab Instructor. Students improperly attaching external devices will be held fully responsible for any damages and replacement costs and face suspension from access.

• Any material saved on the computer which is felt to be offensive to Faculty, staff or students, may be turned over to the proper authorities of the University for further investigation.

• Properly power up computers and power them down when finished.

• No food or drinking at all in these facilities. A first time offence will lead to a two-week suspension. A second offence will lead to a semester suspension. A third offence could lead to a permanent suspension of access to facilities.

Keys

• Late return of keys will result in a fine of $10.00 for each day the keys are late.
• Late return of keys for a third time will result in a suspension from facilities for the balance of the academic year.
• No keys will be signed out for use during regular working hours.
• Lost keys will result in students paying the full replacement costs of new locks and keys. This is because we have to change the locks and make new keys. The actual amount the department pays to change the locks and make new keys is at least $200.00.
• Students may not gain access to a room that they do not have keys to without permission from Faculty or staff.
• Students must be aware that they may be required to produce keys to campus Security Guards upon request, as proof of authorized access.
Production Studio Access

- If changes are made to studio area (i.e., lighting, etc.) it must be returned to its original state before leaving.
- There will be no changing or altering of equipment or its configuration except by use of patch bays. If it can’t do what you want, consult technical staff or the FILM Lab Instructor.
- Clean up the room before leaving. Put garbage in the proper receptacle. All food/drink garbage must be taken out of the studio.
- Two people are the required minimum when lighting in the studio.
- No studio lights are to leave the studio.

Darkroom Access

All students requesting darkroom access must be in, or have completed Film 205 and have signed a compliance agreement.

Students must supply all material they may need. No loans or borrowing of any material outside of student cabinet.

Students will be given a cabinet to store materials in. The department will not involve itself in the administration of the cabinet. Only standard chemistry for the development of Black and White film and prints is allowed. All chemistry must be inventoried and a list provided to the Equipment Coordinator. Any additional chemistry must be approved prior to it being added to the cabinet.

All students must sign in; a sign in sheet will be posted.

One student may sign out a key. The student with the key is responsible for condition of darkroom. If the keyholder is leaving they must pass on the key. There must be at all times a ‘keyholder’ in the darkroom. Passing of key and responsibility should be noted on sign in sheet.

No ‘guests’. Any student who has not signed a compliance agreement is a guest. Area must be left in clean condition. To avoid hassle students are advised to clean up any mess they come across.

Users must remove film, prints or personal belongings by 11:30 a.m. the following day. Key must be returned by 9:30 a.m.

Failure to comply with any of the procedures will result in access being rescinded.
SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

Every year, some scholarships and awards go unclaimed because no student applied for them. SAMS (Student Awards Management System) is the tool you can use to search for and apply for awards at the University of Regina. There are many scholarships and awards available, some which require an application and others that are automatic. You can use SAMS to identify these scholarships and awards. http://www.uregina.ca/safa/awards/SAMS/index.html

The following are the scholarships and awards specific to FILM. Students should also search for scholarships open to all University of Regina students.

EMPLOYMENT PROSPECTS

Jobs on campus
Every year, FILM hires students to work as assistants in the equipment room and as teaching assistants. FILM jobs are generally posted in the first few weeks of a semester on the bulletin board outside the department office, ED 243, and online, along with all other U of R student employment at: http://www.uregina.ca/hr/students/index.html

Students interested in working on campus should regularly consult the website listed above for positions across the campus.

Below is a list of web site links that will help graduating students refine their job search. Some of these are links to specialty web pages treating arts-related employment opportunities only. Others are more general, but may nonetheless contain information and links relevant to job seekers.

Culture Works http://cultureworks.ca/jobs/index.asp A virtual career resource centre offered by The Cultural Human Resource Council. CHRC’s mandate is to strengthen Canada’s cultural workforce through leadership, support, representation and involvement. CultureWorks represents our commitment to those of you working in Canada’s cultural community. If you are a Cultural Worker, you don’t need to register in order to search for opportunities.

Media Job Search Canada http://www.mediajobsearchcanada.com/browse.asp specifically on media-related professions. Lots of links. Appears to have good job listings.

REGINA’S CULTURAL COMMUNITY

Regina has a vibrant cultural community of filmmakers, visual artists, actors, musicians, writers, performers, and curators, supported by a number of galleries, artist-run organisations and cultural hubs, including the Regina Public Library Film Theatre – Regina’s home for screenings of Canadian, international and independent cinema for the past 40 years: https://www.reginalibrary.ca/film-theatre

Saskatchewan Filmpool Cooperative:
The Filmpool is Saskatchewan’s premiere venue for independent filmmaking. Many of our graduates and faculty members are Filmpool members and have taken advantage of the resources of the cooperative. The Filmpool also sponsors a one-year free membership for all students graduating from our degree programs in FILM. But why wait? Joining as a student will enable you to meet members of the Regina film community and you'll be eligible to apply for First Film Fund grants. In 2017, the Filmpool celebrates its 40th anniversary with a series of special events.

We Remember

Jean Oser

Jean Oser was a highly influential member of the Saskatchewan film community, an inspiration behind the formation of the Saskatchewan Filmpool Cooperative, former Professor of Film at the University of Regina, Professor Emeritus of the University of Regina, and recipient of the Lifetime Award for Excellence in the Arts from the Saskatchewan Arts Board (1991).

Born in 1908 in Strasbourg (Alsace), Jean Oser grew up in Berlin with a passion for the moving image that would eventually lead to his collaboration with many of the world's legendary filmmakers. He apprenticed with Hans Richter and Walter Ruttman in Germany in the 1920s and appeared in Richter's 1928 film Ghosts Before Breakfast. He built his reputation as an innovative editor for Austrian director G.W. Pabst and his cinema of social consciousness, working on such films as Westfront 1918 (1930), The Threepenny Opera (1931), and Kameradschaft (1931).

Leaving Germany in the early 1930s, he lived and worked in Paris, and served with the French Foreign Legion in Morocco. In 1942, Jean emigrated to the United States. During his time at 20th Century Fox he directed A Light in the Window (1953), a profile of 17th century Dutch painter Johannes Vermeer, which won the Oscar in the Dramatic Short Film category. For the next 30 years he made industrial films, television features and series, documentaries, and travel films.

In 1970 Oser emigrated to Canada, having been invited to Regina to help establish a film school at the university. Throughout the 1970s and again in the late-1980s, he taught film history and editing and inspired a generation of Saskatchewan filmmakers and cineastes. After retiring, Jean continued to be an inspirational and much beloved figure and he was a regular at the screenings at the Regina Public Library Film Theatre; a seat in the theatre commemorates Jean's role as a filmmaker, editor and mentor. Jean Oser passed away on February 20, 2002, in Regina, at the age of 94.

In commemoration of Jean Oser’s contribution to the Regina film scene, the Department of Film awards the Jean Oser Prize in Film Studies annually for the outstanding critical essay written in a Film Studies course.

We Remember

Bernard Lavigne

In May 1999, Bernard Lavigne, a valued friend and colleague in the Department of Film at the University of Regina, passed away. Professor Lavigne had been with the University of Regina since 1985. At the time of his death he was Associate Professor of Film and was serving as Head of the department. Professor Lavigne was a valued researcher and colleague whose interests were wide-ranging, both within the academic world and the community at large. His research areas included documentary filmmaking and multi-media design and applications. His television work included such documentaries as Who Sold the Farm?, a ten-part television documentary series on modern agriculture across Canada.

In addition, he was a prominent and well-respected member of the Fransaskois community. As a founding member of the Association des Artistes de la Saskatchewan, Professor Lavigne was an avid supporter and participant in raising the profile of francophone arts in Saskatchewan. His commitment to the enrichment of Fransaskois culture will be remembered.

In commemoration of Professor Lavigne's notable impact on the Regina film community, his family, friends and colleagues have joined together to establish the Bourse Bernard Lavigne Scholarship. This scholarship is intended to reward excellence in Film production and/or studies.
DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

We are proud of the accomplishments of our graduates, who work in many aspects of film, television and media. The Department of Film’s Distinguished Alumni Award is given out biennially to a graduate who has made substantial contributions to film/media making and film/media culture. Ian Toews will be the worthy recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award this academic year.

Ian received his BFA in Film Production in 1999. His films are primarily concerned with the natural environment and often, its degradation. He is the producer, director, and DOP of a number of short films, more than 60 television episodes, and 5 feature-length documentaries.

Ian’s films have been shown in over 50 countries, and broadcast on Canadian and international television including CBC Documentary, Bravo!, City Saskatchewan, APTN, Oasis HD, YLE (Finland), and TV5 (Spain). His films have been widely acclaimed and received numerous national and international awards, including the Grand Prix at the Tampere International Film Festival, the Jury Award at the New York Exposition of Short Film, Canadian Film & Television Producer’s Association Indie Award, 5 Gemini Award nominations, a Canadian Screen Award nomination, and a 2008 Gemini Award for Best Arts Documentary Program or Series. Ian’s 291 Film Company have produced a number of projects, including the TV series Landscape As Muse, and Untamed Gourmet, and the documentaries Bugs on the Menu, Grasslands, and Saskatchewan River Delta. 291 Film Company also employs a number of Film program alumni, and when the company was based in Saskatchewan, it regularly provided Film students with Professional Placement opportunities. Ian is a full member of the Canadian Society of Cinematographers, and was the DOP on the debut feature film of our alumni Daniel Redenbach & Janine Windolph, The Land of Rock and Gold. For his contributions as a filmmaker, and his support to emerging filmmakers, Ian is a very worthy recipient of the Department of Film’s Distinguished Alumni Award.

We will be presenting Ian with the award during the upcoming academic year.
