

Two Year Term Position: Painting and Drawing

The Department of Visual Arts at the University of Regina, a dynamic team of artists and scholars, invites applications for a two-year term appointment in Studio Art – Painting and Drawing at the rank of Assistant Professor. The Department seeks a contemporary visual artist with the ability to teach painting and/or drawing, and the potential to teach in one of the other studio or studies areas listed/noted below. The position commences on July 1, 2020.

The Department of Visual Arts at the University of Regina is a comprehensive program with majors specializing in ceramics, drawing, painting, photo-media, print-media, sculpture, art history and cultures of display. The Department is located within the Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance (MAP) where members engage in disciplinary, cross-disciplinary, and collaborative work within the Department, Faculty, and University. Visual Arts faculty include studio and performance artists, art historians, and curators who actively disseminate their work locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally. The Department offers BFA, BA, BA (Honours), MA and MFA degrees, special programs for Arts Education majors, and certificate programs. MAP also offers an interdisciplinary PhD in Media and Artistic Practices.

The University of Regina is located on Treaty Four and Treaty Six lands, and the traditional homelands of the Métis. In our most recent strategic plan, peyak aski kikawinaw: Together We are Stronger, the U of R includes a mandate to further Indigenize the campus. Visual Arts enjoys strong connections with our Federated Colleges: Campion College, First Nations University of Canada, and Luther College. We work closely with the MacKenzie Art Gallery, and other local arts organizations, such as Neutral Ground, Art Gallery of Regina, and Sâkêwêwak Artists' Collective among others. The Regina area supports a lively arts community with a number of significant public, commercial and artist-run galleries and festivals, and both the University of Regina and the City of Regina have a strong commitment to public art.

Requirements

Candidates must hold at minimum an MFA, have an active established professional practice, and have prior experience teaching visual arts at the post-secondary level. The successful applicant will be qualified to teach undergraduate courses in painting and drawing at all levels, from foundations to senior undergraduate and graduate courses. Preference will be given to candidates who have the ability to teach in an additional area as listed above. The successful candidate will also demonstrate their desire and willingness to make administrative contributions to the Department, Faculty, and University, attract graduate students, and be part of creating new initiatives and vision in a collaborative manner.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: November 1, 2019

For full position requirements and instructions on how to apply go to <http://www.uregina.ca/hr/careers>. ALL applications must be submitted using our electronic system at <http://www.uregina.ca/hr/careers>

For more information on the Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance visit:
<http://www.uregina.ca/mediaartperformance/>

The University of Regina is committed to an inclusive workplace that reflects the richness of the community that we serve. The University welcomes applications from all qualified individuals, including individuals within the University's employment equity categories of women, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities, aboriginal persons, individuals of diverse gender and sexual orientation and all groups protected by the Human Rights Code.

September 2019