

Canadian Doctoral Nursing Network Conference

June 10 & 11, 2019

University of Regina

Abstract Guidelines

Abstracts should be maximum of 300 words.

General Guidelines: clearly specify your research question or problem statement, explain the title, should mirror structure of thesis (5 chapters in thesis, abstract should summarize each chapter), how research was/is being undertaken, present results, interpretation of results, if using acronyms ensure you introduce them.

* Since students are at different stages of their doctoral journey, these guidelines are general and not all will apply.

Presentations

All presentations are podium delivered, with a maximum of 15 minutes to present and 5 minutes for questions. If you are using PowerPoint to assist in your presentation, please submit it to nursing.research@uregina.ca by June 6, 2019 at 9:00 am (CST). You will be notified one week in advance of the conference of your presentation date and time.

How to Submit

In a word document, please submit the following information: Title of abstract, your name, your academic institution affiliation (eg. PhD student at the University of Regina), stage in your doctoral program (eg. Student, doctoral candidate, active in data collection, defense date imminent, etc.), and 300 word (maximum) abstract. All abstracts must be submitted by April 21, 2019. Please submit to: nursing.research@uregina.ca.

Fees

All presenters must be registered for the conference. All conference attendees are expected to assume costs related to travel, accommodations and registration.
