Re: 15 – 18 Month Academic Unit Review Follow-up

Dear Dr. Kuehling

Thank you for attending the November 8, 2022, Council Committee on Academic Mission (CCAM) meeting and providing us with an update on the academic unit review implementation progress.

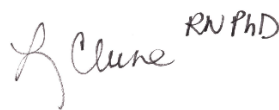

We recognize the challenges that COVID-19 has created in all academic departments. Your surveying of anthropology minor and major students to discover their interests demonstrated your commitment to providing a program that fits student needs. With in-person classes beginning this semester, we look forward to hearing about new trends in your enrollment. We encourage you to consider creative ways of delivering 100-level courses. A consultation with CTL on potential solutions may prove helpful. Creating partnerships and collaborations with other departments and faculties is essential. Given the limited resources available, we trust you will be strategic in your approach.

The Committee also recognizes and appreciates your critical work in enhancing the delivery of your programs for students. We look forward to hearing more about your progress in the future

Sincerely,

Dr. David Gregory,
Interim Provost and Vice-President (Academic)

Dr. Laurie Clune
Chair, Council Committee on Academic Mission
