Congress:
• The University of Regina received the successful bid for Congress 2018. This is great news for our campus and the city. There will be a cost associated with hosting, but it is anticipated it will be recouped by residences, food services and in the bookstore. It is also estimated it will bring $10 million in economic benefit to the city. A planning committee will be developed in the next few months and more details about Congress will be available this summer. Some of the focus will be to attract graduate students and bring in high profile speakers. Faculty members are asked to encourage their associations to take part and attend. Congratulations to the hard work of Rebecca Berthiaume and Emily McNair in preparing the proposal and the Provost for overseeing the process. It is believed that Congress will be the largest conference event held in Regina.

• The Board Chair received a letter asking the University to consider all of its expenses, including an expenditure constraint program for travel, staff hiring and discretionary funds until the end of April.
• Guidelines for the deans and directors in an expenditure constraint program have been developed.
• Travel related to research work will be maintained. There will be delays in replacing positions and certain expenses at this time.

Academic Matters:
• The Strategic Plan was launched on campus with the theme ‘We are Stronger Together’ as well as ‘One with Mother Earth’. The three pillars of the plan are student success, research impact and community commitment with a strong commitment to indigenization and sustainability. Thank you to everyone for their contributions and especially to Joe Piwowar and the facilitation team.
• Enrolment is up 1.4% overall compared to this time last year.

Faculty and Staff Successes:

A revised rationale was provided by the Dean of Arts for Motions 6 and 7:

Rationale: There is a requirement in the general BJ degree that students must take at least two 400-level courses.
