One week prior to the scheduled hearings, the two parties are expected to provide a written submission making their respective cases.

STATEMENT OF CASE (All parties are asked to present their case concisely in writing and verbally during the hearing. Each party is asked to keep questioning of the witnesses to relevant facts; the Chair may set a time limit for testimony if already stated facts are being repeated).

- State the alleged misconduct against you.
- State the decision you are appealing.
- State the grounds of your appeal as based on one or more of the following (as per the CDC Terms of Reference)
  - There is additional relevant information which was not considered by the Investigating Dean.
  - There was a problem in procedure during the investigation.
  - The substance of the case was not considered correctly by the Investigating Dean. For example, relevant rules and regulations were applied incorrectly.
  - Even if relevant rules and regulations were applied correctly the resulting decision is unfair or unreasonable in the circumstances.
• Explain in detail the basis of your appeal (i.e. why you are appealing).

• Please list any supporting documents you have provided for your submission. (you may wish to include any correspondence between the University of Regina and yourself, course assignments, course syllabus, essays, exams, a timeline of events...if these documents relate specifically to your appeal.)

REPRESENTATION/SUPPORT PERSON (The professor/instructor of the class in question may be attending as the representative for the Investigating Dean).

• Name of representative or support person who will accompany you at the hearing.

• Will your representative make your presentation on your behalf?

WITNESS (ES) (although witnesses are not necessary at most hearings, each party may choose to call witnesses. Following the review of the witness statements, the Chair may state that the evidence of a witness if not relevant to the hearing, giving his or her reason, and decline to have the witness called.)

• Names and phone numbers of witnesses, if any.

• Relationship of witnesses to you – e.g. fellow student, friend, relative, professor, etc.

• Will the witnesses be able to attend the hearing to answer questions if the committee has any? (If so, please arrange for witnesses to be on call.)

• Brief statement from the witnesses, if any, to help answer some of the questions the committee may have (can be typed on a separate page).

HEARING OUTCOME (The Investigating Dean will present their defence and you and the committee members will have an opportunity to ask questions of the Investigating Dean. Following the questioning of the Investigating Dean, you will present your case, and the committee members and the Investigating Dean may ask questions of you and your witnesses. Each party may summarize their case at the conclusion of testimony, as the student will speak last).

• What outcome(s) would you like to suggest to the Committee.

• Briefly state why you think these are justified outcomes.

• What impact does the decision have you and your studies.

• Any final points you wish to add.
