A. INTRODUCTION

The University of Regina (the "University") administers the Pension Plan for the Academic and Administrative Employees of the University of Regina (the "Plan").

Under the terms of the Plan:

- the Board of Governors of the University (the "Board") is the "Administrator" of the Plan for the purposes of applicable laws and regulations, including The Pension Benefits Act, 1992 and the Income Tax Act (Canada); and
- the University is the Plan's sponsor.

The Board has established the Academic and Administrative Benefits Committee (the "Committee") and has delegated to it, certain of the University's duties, responsibilities and powers, as described below.

B. APPOINTMENT AND COMPOSITION OF PENSION COMMITTEE

1. Members of the Committee are appointed by the Board. Members do not have to be employees of the University of Regina. The Committee shall be composed of no more than seven (7) members:

- (a) Three (3) members selected by the Board;
- (b) Three (3) Committee members recommended by the University of Regina Faculty Association ("URFA"), two (2) being Academic Staff and one being an Administrative, Professional and Technical employee; and
- (c) One (1) retiree Committee member, who is:

(ii) who is recommended by the University of Regina Academic and Administrative Pensioners Association (“URAAPA”).

2. If URFA or URAAPA do not recommend the appointment of their respective Committee members within a reasonable period of time after being requested in writing to do so, the Board may proceed, after having first consulted with the remaining members of the Committee, to appoint, or reappoint, Committee members to fill the vacancies without the required recommendation. The Term of any such Committee members will continue until URFA or URAAPA, as applicable, recommend a replacement Committee member.
3. Initial and successor members will confirm acceptance of their appointment to the Committee in writing. However, a person appointed to the Committee who does not so confirm is deemed to accept their appointment by attending any Committee meeting.
4. The Chair of the Committee, for so long as they remain a Committee member, shall continue as the Chair until they resign from that position or they are replaced by a new Chair by a majority vote of the Committee. If there is no Chair at any particular point in time, then the Meeting Procedures Policy will determine who the Chair is for that meeting or period.
5. The University, via its Human Resources Department, shall designate a Secretary of the Committee.
6. A Committee member may resign from the Committee by notifying the Chair in writing, with a copy of such notice provided to the Human Resources Department of the University. Such notice will state the date on which their resignation takes effect and their resignation shall be effective from that date, but no earlier than the date of receipt. A replacement Committee member shall be appointed for the remainder of that individual’s term in accordance with the appointment requirements set out in these Terms of Reference.
7. A person’s participation on the Committee cannot be exercised by a representative. Their participation will automatically terminate on:
 - (a) their replacement by another person in accordance with the appointment provisions in B.1;
 - (b) the death of the person or the legal inability to fulfill their duties. A Committee member who is on an authorized leave may maintain their participation on the Committee upon the mutual agreement of the University, URFA or URAAPA (as applicable), and the Committee member.
