Coca-Cola Bottling
Male and Female Intramural Participant of the Week

NOMINATION FORM

This award is presented weekly to a male and female University of Regina student who exemplifies the spirited philosophy of the Intramural Sports Program through their participation in the program. Recipients are selected from nominations brought forward by their peers and are based upon the following selection criteria:

➢ Demonstration of leadership
➢ Teamwork
➢ Respect for rules and program officials
➢ Fair play

Please Note: Consideration is not based solely on athleticism

Date: __________________

Name of Nominee: ________________________________   Phone #: __________________

E-mail of nominee: _______________________________________________________

Sport/Activity: ___________________________________________________________

Team Name: _____________________________________________________________

Please indicate why the above named individual should be considered for this award:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Nominated by: ________________________________   Phone #: __________________

E-mail: _____________________________________________

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY:

Date Received: ____________________________               Approved/Not Approved