

GRADUATE SEMINAR

Yun Peng

Double Robust Estimators in Missing Data Analysis

PhD Student supervised by Dr. Yang Zhao

April 3, 2019

3:30PM

Math lounge CW 307.20

Abstract

The estimation on mean response of incomplete data is a popular challenge in missing data analysis. Double Robustness provides an approach to keep this estimation consistency with the correction of either propensity score model or regression of outcomes. In this seminar we introduce the concept of double robustness and discuss two further studies on it.