

University of Regina

Faculty of Social Work

Bachelor of Social Work Application Information & Steps

Applications open October 1st & the deadline to submit is January 15th. There is one admission intake per year!

Apply to our Direct Entry BSW Program!

Under the new Direct Entry BSW admission pathway, students may apply:

- directly from high school,
- at any point during their university studies

provided they meet the academic requirements. Applicants are no longer required to have all Pre-SW courses completed or in progress prior to applying into the BSW.

Admission Requirements

Academic Requirements

- 70% average for high school applicants or,
- 70% AGPA calculated from most recent 30 credit hours or,
- mature admission requirements

Supplementary Essay

- Responses demonstrate your understanding of the profession and readiness for the program
- Critical thinking and academic writing should be demonstrated

START

Start a New Undergraduate Application Online

- Add your personal information
- Add your previous education (if applicable)
 - If you are a current a U of R student (including Pre-SW), select "I am a current U of R student and want to transfer to a different faculty."
- Confirm Admit type
- Select Bachelor's Degree and "Social Work (Bachelor)"
- Read and acknowledge AI statement
- Select one study location

COMPLETE

Complete the Additional Information

- Complete the Supplementary Essay (750 word maximum)
- Complete the Equity/Diversity Section (if applicable)
- Complete the Proxy Information (if applicable)

SUBMIT

Review your Application in Detail

- Sign your application and confirm
- Review your application and submit when ready!

Congratulations on applying to the BSW!

Your decision letter will be sent late February/ early March. If you are admitted, your BSW studies will start in the Fall.