Social Work Program and Policies

Student Performance of Professional Responsibilities

Social Work is a professional degree. Therefore, all Social Work students are expected to demonstrate professional attitude and behaviours, both inside and outside the classroom. This expectation adheres to standards set out in the Canadian Association of Social Work Education’s Code of Ethics, which undergirds the Faculty of Social Work’s Policy and Procedures Regarding Student Professional Suitability. Failure to conduct oneself in a professional manner may result in discontinuation from the Social Work program. For access to the full policy, as well as our Ethical Use of Social Media Policy, go to: https://www.uregina.ca/socialwork/assets/docs/pdf/Student%20Responsibilities.pdf
