

This information is intended to give both students and other institutions an approximate outline of how our current undergraduate grading system relates to the Alpha and 4-point grading scales.

The University of Regina has used a percentage grading system since 1993.

University of Regina Numeric – Per cent Grading System	Approximate Numeric Equivalents	Approximate Alpha 0.0-4.0 Equivalents
94-100	A ⁺	4.0
87-93	A	4.0
80-86	A ⁻	3.7
76-79	B ⁺	3.3
73-75	B	3.0
70-72	B ⁻	2.7
66-69	C ⁺	2.3
63-65	C	2.0
60-62	C ⁻	1.7
56-59	D ⁺	1.3
53-55	D	1.0
50-52	D ⁻	0.7
0-49	F	0.0

- University grade point average (UGPA) required for “Good Standing” once 24 credit hours have been attempted at the undergraduate level is 60.0%.
- Graduating with Distinction requires a program average (PGPA) of 80.00-84.99%.
- Graduating with Great Distinction requires a PGPA of 85.00% or higher.
- The Dean’s List term grade point average (TGPA) is 85.00% or higher (number of credit hours required varies).

Grading Descriptions are outlined in the Academic Regulations section of the Undergraduate Calendar and are summarized as:

Grade	Description
90-100	Outstanding performance
80-89	Very good performance
70-79	Above average performance
60-69	Satisfactory and intellectually adequate performance
50-59	Barely acceptable performance
0-49	Unacceptable performance

The letter grades of F, N, NP, and XF are failing grades.

This information is intended for reference purposes only. The University understands that other institutions and organizations will make independent evaluations of our transcripts and the grades earned by our students.