University should be a time of hope, excitement and dreams for the future, but unfortunately this is not the reality for many students.

Everyone deserves a fair chance at an education, despite any unforeseen circumstances that may arise. That’s why the University of Regina’s Student Emergency Fund is a vital resource to support students who face an unexpected financial crisis, threatening their continued education.

The Student Emergency Fund relies on the generous contributions from friends like you. By donating to this fund, you’ll be making a difference in the life of a student when it’s needed most.

Please help one more student have the opportunity to achieve their dreams of graduation by making a gift to the University of Regina Student Emergency Fund today.

Make a secure gift online by visiting www.bit.do/ur-emergencyfund or contact us at 306-585-4024 or toll free at 1-877-779-4723.

TODAY’S HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

ROBERTA MAY MCKAY AND ELMER EDWARD BRENNER

Roberta McKay and Elmer Brenner are well-known in Regina and throughout the province for their philanthropic activities, particularly in support of the arts and health care. They have also become synonymous with the revitalization of the University of Regina’s College Avenue campus. The couple served in an advisory capacity to help create plans for the campaign to rejuvenate the campus, Building Knowledge, and in 2012 donated $250,000 towards it. Now they are able to watch the refurbishing of Darke Hall and the College Building, just a short walk from where they live and work. In 2014, they donated a Faziloli piano for use in Darke Hall, stipulating that students have access to the world-class instrument. The piano is temporarily located on the main campus while construction continues, but the couple is looking forward to its return, and the restoration of Darke Hall to its historic place as a community performance centre.

McKay, a dermatologist, and Brenner, a visual artist, sponsor free Regina Symphony Orchestra programs at local library branches, the Regina Music Festival Association, and the annual Saskatchewan Fashion Forward Designer Award. The couple also founded and supported the Saskatchewan Health Care Excellence Awards, which for ten years recognized the achievements of outstanding health care workers. Both have received a number of individual awards over the years: the City of Regina named Brenner volunteer of the year in 1978-79, and CTV Regina honoured McKay as Citizen of the Year in 2007.

STUDENT AWARDS

GOVERNOR GENERAL’S ACADEMIC GOLD MEDAL
The Governor General’s Academic Gold Medal recognizes the outstanding academic performance of a graduate student. The decision of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research Scholarship and Awards Committee was based on the quality of the thesis or exhibition, external examiner’s report, quality of the defense, course work, cumulative grade point average, publications and presentations deriving directly from the research done for the thesis or exhibition, and on awards achieved.

This year, Dr. Thuntida Ngamkham is the recipient of this most distinguished prize. Dr. Ngamkham graduates with a Doctor of Philosophy in Statistics.

Dr. Ngamkham graduated with an average of 95.0%. Her supervisor, Dr. Andrei Volodin says that “Dr. Ngamkham’s main achievement that makes her dissertation exceptional, is her research connected with two main strategic goals of our University of Regina. Namely, Indigenization and research on Water Quality. Chapter 5 of her thesis, entitled “Modeling of Water Quality Dynamics Using Indigenous Knowledge” is devoted to developing a model to use the aboriginal peoples environment evaluation skills for describing water quality dynamics in the aboriginal communities. This has never been done before.”

Dr. Ngamkham is also heavily involved in her academic community. She routinely participates in educational activities at the University of Regina. She runs sessions for students of all ages at the Math Circle and Math Camp. She also works in the University of Regina Statistical Consulting Service. Each year, this office receives serious requests for statistical consulting form business managers, medical doctors, veterinarians, engineers, sociologists and others.

From her research, Dr. Ngamkham has published five papers in high level statistical journals, two international conference proceedings, and has visited Fu Gen Catholic University, in Taiwan; the University of Pisa, in Italy; and the University of Western Australia for seminar talk presentations. One of Thuntida’s papers is published in one of the most top rated journals in this research area “Statistics and Probability Letters”. There are several papers currently submitted for publication and more than six projects currently being worked on now.

The Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research congratulates Dr. Thuntida Ngamkham.

GOVERNOR GENERAL’S ACADEMIC SILVER MEDAL
The Governor-General’s Academic Silver Medal recognizes the outstanding academic performance of the most distinguished graduate receiving a first degree. Belma Kamencic, with a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 96.30%, is this year’s recipient. She graduates with a Bachelor of Science Honours degree in Biology, with a concentration in Cellular and Molecular Biology, achieving High Honours.

Since beginning her journey at the University of Regina in 2014, Belma has received many prestigious awards in recognition of her academic achievements including the University Medal in 2016.

During her academic career, Belma also worked in the research laboratories of both Dr. Dahms (Biochemistry) and Dr. Buttigieg (Biology) as either an NSERC USRA student or as a senior thesis research student. Her latest research focuses on the identification of stroke risk biomarkers. Her diligent work as a research student has generated data that has been published as research abstracts at several conferences as well as a manuscript under consideration by the The Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology Journal.

Outside of her academics, Belma has served as a dedicated volunteer in several local organizations. Since 2015, Belma has volunteered with Diabetes Canada, and is now the primary speaker for presentations in the Regina area. On a monthly basis, she delivers the Let’s Talk Diabetes material. As a result of her outstanding work with Diabetes Canada, she was awarded their 2018 Regional Volunteer of the Year Award. Since 2016, Belma has been a member of the World University Service of Canada (WUSC) Local Committee at the University of Regina. Through her work with WUSC, she facilitated various aspects of settlements and support for new and long-term refugees to Regina. She has also participated in a Blanket Exercise to explore our relationships with Indigenous youth. Her reflections on the Blanket Exercise can be found on the WUSC website. Since 2017, Belma is an active volunteer for the SEARCH (Student Energy in Action for Regina Community Health Inc.) initiative. SEARCH is a student-run, interdisciplinary, primary health care initiative situated in the North Central community of Regina. Within this organization, Belma’s primary duties are cooking, childcare, and facilitating women’s groups with members of the community.

Belma is not only an outstanding academic, but also a compassionate person that’s led her to become a strong leader both on and off campus. The Faculty of Science congratulates Belma on her accomplishments and wishes her the best of luck with her future endeavours.
Belma Kamencic is also the recipient of the University Prize in Science which is awarded at convocation to the most distinguished student graduating with a first degree from the Faculty of Science.

UNIVERSITY MEDAL

The University Medal is presented annually at Spring Convocation to the most distinguished student – one who has achieved academic excellence in all courses completed during the previous twelve months with a minimum of 30 credit hours in two terms. This year’s recipient is Andie Quinn Chernoff.

Andie is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Science Honours through Luther College, majoring in Psychology, and has a cumulative grade point average of 97.12%. In the Winter 2018 term, Andie achieved a term grade point average of 99.40%, which marks the sixth time in her academic career that she has qualified for the Dean’s Honour Roll.

Following the completion of her degree next year, Andie plans to apply to medical school.

FACULTY OF ARTS DEAN’S MEDAL

The Faculty of Arts Dean’s Medal is presented to a graduating student who is receiving a first degree and has demonstrated academic excellence and leadership.

The Faculty of Arts is pleased to award the Faculty of Arts Dean’s Medal to Kiera Paulette Mitchell. Ms. Mitchell is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts Honours in Women’s and Gender Studies with High Honours in a first major, and a minor in History through Luther College.

As a research and teaching assistant for multiple Arts departments, Ms. Mitchell was an active participant in her studies and in the Faculty. She presented several papers over the course of her degree and co-published a journal article for the Canadian Historical Review.

The Faculty of Arts congratulates Ms. Mitchell and wishes her success in her future studies.

S. E. STEWART AWARD IN ARTS

Each year at Spring Convocation, the Faculty of Arts awards the S.E. Steward Award in Arts to its most distinguished graduate receiving a first degree. This distinction is based exclusively on academic standing. This year’s recipient is Shelby Marie Shivak who is graduating through Campion College with a BA Honours in Psychology with High Honours in a first major and a program grade point average of 90.89%.

Shelby began her undergraduate studies through Campion College at the University of Regina in Fall 2014 with her sights set on a doctorate in clinical psychology. From the moment she joined the University, Shelby has been unwavering on her academic path, achieving Dean’s Honours List status in every fall and winter term as well as receiving numerous scholarships over the years. Her passion to research mood disorders in young children led her to volunteer in the Early Cognitive Development Laboratory at the U of R as well as the Behavioural Neuroscience Research Laboratory and Saliva and Psychology Investigative Team (SPIT) Laboratory. With her undergraduate degree now complete, Shelby has been accepted to the U of R’s Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research to pursue a Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology.

Campion College joins the Faculty of Arts in congratulating Shelby on her accomplishments and wishing her continued success as she takes the next step toward her ultimate goal.

ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS AND GEOSCIENTISTS OF SASKATCHEWAN GOLD MEDAL IN ENGINEERING

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science APEGs Gold Medal is presented to Jason William Garvey. The APEGs Gold Medal is awarded each spring to a graduating student who portrays leadership qualities in university and other activities and academic achievement throughout their program. The award decision is based on academic standing and on leadership qualities.

Jason’s academic career in the Industrial Systems Engineering (ISE) program has been extremely successful with a final undergraduate grade point average (UGPA) of over 93%. He has achieved a term grade point average (TGPA) of over 85% every term in his academic studies; many classes receiving high 90’s and even 100% as a final grade and has received numerous scholarships and awards. Jason has also earned a Bachelor of Commerce with Distinction from the University of Alberta where he was also awarded many awards and scholarships.

Jason is an exceptional student and has portrayed leadership as a Teaching Assistant in four different ISE labs throughout his studies. He taught in-class lectures, assigned and graded lab work, and provided feedback on written and practical work. A referee of Jason’s says that “Jason is one of the top four students I have taught in the thirty years I have been at the university.”

Jason’s final project entitled, “Hydraulic Cylinder Workbench Redesign” focused on redesigning the workbench to improve workplace ergonomics, reducing transportation time and eliminating oil spills.

Jason is currently employed with Adecco and is contracted to TransGas to provide engineering services within the Pipeline Engineering Department.

We are very proud of your accomplishments, Jason. All the very best to you!
FACULTY OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE DEAN’S MEDAL

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science Dean’s Medal is presented to Jonathan Kapui Tontiwachwuthikul Chan. The Dean’s Medal is awarded to the student who was nominated by the faculty for the President’s Medal. Jonathan’s academic career has been extremely successful and he has achieved a final undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of over 84%. He has been on the Dean’s Honour List four times and has achieved a term grade point average (TGPA) of over 80% every term as a full time student. Jonathan was also in the Co-op Program, and he received the Donald O. Wells Medal, which is awarded to the Environmental Systems Engineering (EVSE) graduating student with the highest average. Throughout his studies, Jonathan has been the recipient of many prestigious scholarships and awards.

Jonathan has demonstrated a keen interest in our environment, particularly in greywater research. His fourth year project, entitled “Evaluation of Decentralized Greywater Reclamation for a University Residence Tower”, focused on treatment of campus wastewater using membrane bioreactor technology. Jonathan’s Fourth Year Project supervisor and referee says, “…he is the brightest and best student I have had in the past 15 years.”

In addition to academics, Jonathan has been involved with extra-curricular activities both on and off campus. He has served on the Regina Engineering Student’s Society (RESS) board, Engineers Without Borders, and he has been a key organizer of the Campus Beautification Day and the Sustainability and Community Engagement Fund. Jonathan has also been involved in the local creative community through the Trifecta Music Festival. He has volunteered with everything from photographing live performances to organizing entire events.

After five years in the EVSE program, Jonathan is looking forward to working on the non-technical side of his life. He plans to remain active with the creative community in Regina, assisting with event organization and digital strategies for local artists. Additionally, Jonathan aims to further develop his creative interests such as writing and photography. Finally, he will research graduate programs related to his diverse interests that range from environmental policy to artificial intelligence.

We are very proud of Jonathan and wish him all the very best in his future endeavors.

As a result of her outstanding academic record, Charlayna received numerous scholarships and awards.

Throughout her academic career, Charlayna also devoted many hours to tutoring other students in various math courses, as a Supplemental Instructor, as a Global Learning Centre tutor, and as a private tutor. In 2014 and 2015, she held NSERC grants as a student researcher in the Department of Mathematics and Statistics. During these summers, she performed research on algebraic free groups, quantum information and quantum states. She also presented two research papers at the Canadian Undergraduate Mathematics Conference.

Outside of her academics, Charlayna is the VP of the Mathematics, Actuarial Science, & Statistics Student (MASS) Society. She is also the Captain of the Women’s Ultimate (Frisbee) Varsity Club where she teaches new players, coaches the junior program, and dedicates four months of the year to practice and traveling to various competitions.

Charlayna has shown herself to not only be an outstanding academic, but also a natural leader through her volunteer work, both off and on campus. Following graduation, Charlayna will be returning to the firm at which she completed her Actuarial Science Internship.

The Faculty of Science congratulates Charlayna and wishes her the best of luck with her future endeavours.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic regalia worn by the graduates and the members of the platform procession may consist of a gown, a hood or stole (worn over the shoulders), and a hat or mortarboard. All universities have distinctive academic dress for each degree conferred and, at times, for the disciplines in which the degree is awarded. Hence, the colourful variety of academic dress worn by members of the platform procession, who have graduated from dozens of Canadian and international universities, and represent particular groups.

With the exception of students graduating with a PhD and federated college students, graduates wear black gowns. PhD graduates’ gowns are scarlet with royal blue around the collar, down the front and around the sleeves. Students graduating from the University of Regina who have been registered through a federated college wear the following: red gowns for Campion College students, sky blue gowns for First Nations University students, and royal blue gowns for Luther College students. Students are welcome to wear their Indigenous ceremonial dress, other cultural ceremonial dress, or their military or law enforcement dress uniform with, or instead of the gown at the Convocation ceremonies. In these instances, graduands must still be hooded and wear the University of Regina hood. At today’s ceremony, the dean of their respective faculty formally hoods students. The University of Regina also permits members of the Platform Party to hood graduates of their immediate family.

HONORARY DEGREE REGALIA

Honorary degree recipients wear a scarlet wool gown trimmed with gold silk around the collar and down the front. The honorary degree hood, which is presented to the honorary degree recipient at the ceremony, has a shell of scarlet wool lined with gold silk chevron and colors distinctive to the degree. The University of Regina awards four honourary degrees: Doctor of Laws, honoris causa (LLD): red with gold lining and a green chevron in the lining; Doctor of Letters, honoris causa (DLitt): red with gold lining and white and green chevrons in the lining; Doctor of Science, honoris causa (DSc): red with gold lining and mint green, emerald green and green chevrons in the lining; Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa (DFA): red with gold lining and white, pink, and green chevrons in the lining, with an inverted green silk.

CEREMONIAL FURNITURE

The three ceremonial chairs were a gift to the University of Regina from Dr. Terence R. McKague, Chancellor Emeritus, whose term as Chancellor ran from 1989-95. The chairs were acquired from Carmichael United Church, Dr. McKague’s boyhood place of worship. This ceremonial furniture is incorporated into all official ceremonial functions.
HONORARY DEGREES REGISTER

On June 6, 2004, at a Special Convocation ceremony held to confer an honorary degree on Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal, the University of Regina began the tradition of having the honorary degree recipients sign an Honorary Degrees Register. Made of dark green leather embossed in gold with the University of Regina crest and lettering, the book was designed by Brenda Righetti and Bev Liski, and was handcrafted by J.L. Perkins Bookbinder Ltd.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Regina is situated on Treaty 4 lands with a presence in Treaty 6 territory. These are the territories of the nêhiyawak (Cree), Anihšinapek (Saulteaux), and Dakota, Lakota, and Nakoda, and the homeland of the Métis. Today, these lands continue to be the shared territory of many diverse peoples from near and far.

The University of Regina operates under the terms of The University of Regina Act. Convocation is composed of the Chancellor, the Senate, all graduates of the University of Regina, all graduates of the University of Saskatchewan at Regina Campus, and such other classes of persons as the Senate may from time to time determine. Graduates of the University of Saskatchewan, as defined by The University Act, 1968, may become members of Convocation of the University of Regina by notifying the Secretary in writing. Convocation meets twice annually, in June and October, unless there are extraordinary circumstances.

The Chancellor is elected by the members of Senate, holds office for three years, presides over Convocation, confers degrees and is ex officio Chair of the Senate and a member of the Board of Governors.

Senate is the University’s “window on the world.” It is concerned with the academic welfare of the institution and has a variety of duties and powers. Most of the broader issues of academic policy within the University are reserved for Senate’s approval. In another role, it acts as an ultimate court in academic affairs. The membership of Senate includes persons, ex officio, by virtue of their offices. Convocation elects another fourteen members of Convocation to the Senate. Students registered in the University elect six students of the University to Senate. In addition, any professional society, group or organization in the province that Senate believes contributes in a significant way to the social, economic and cultural welfare of the province may be represented on Senate.

The Board of Governors consists of eleven members and is responsible for overseeing the administrative and business affairs of the University. It ultimately has authority in matters related to the raising and spending of University funds, and the acquisition and management of University property.

Council is the senior legislative body on academic matters. Its membership includes administrative officers, all Deans and directors of academic programs, all members of the teaching staff except sessional lecturers, and a number of student representatives. All matters of substance related to the academic affairs of the University must be considered and approved by the Council, as well as matters of academic discipline.

The Executive of the University of Regina Council (Executive of Council) has been empowered by Council to act on its behalf in all matters with the provision that requesting a special meeting of Council may challenge a decision of the Executive. Executive of Council membership is devised as a proportional basis of the academic composition of this University.

Disciplines that are related to one another in the broader areas of teaching are, for purposes of administrative and academic planning, brought together into faculties, of which there are currently ten. Each faculty is headed by a dean; formal membership includes the dean and the teaching members of the various associated disciplines. The deans are recognized by The University of Regina Act as being the chief executive officers of their respective faculties and are directly responsible to the President, through the Provost and Vice-President (Academic). Subject to the statutes of the Senate and the University of Regina Council, each faculty has charge of all matters of scholarship in its disciplines and programs.

SHARKONED SCOTT KENNEDY
Presented on Wednesday, June 6

Sheldon Kennedy is one of Canada’s most forceful advocates for the prevention of abuse and bullying, stemming from his own experience of being sexually abused by his coach while playing for the Swift Current Broncos of the Western Hockey League. Kennedy captained the team to a Memorial Cup win in 1989, and then played professional hockey for ten seasons. He went public about the abuse he suffered in 1996 and began campaigning to educate people about what action to take if they suspect that abuse might be taking place. In 1998 he roller-bladed across Canada to highlight the issue, raising $1.2 million to support the bullying and abuse prevention programming delivered by the Canadian Red Cross. He and business partner Wayne McNeil later founded Respect Group, which delivers online training programs aimed at preventing bullying, abuse and harassment in sports, education and workplace settings. More than one million individuals have completed one of the three programs, and are Respect Certified.

Kennedy’s story and his advocacy work have attracted recognition in the form of a television movie and a video documentary about his life. In 2013, the Child Advocacy Centre in Calgary - where he is the lead director - was renamed in his honour. Kennedy has received several leadership awards and two honorary degrees. He was named to the Order of Canada in 2015 for his commitment to abuse prevention and support for young victims of abuse.

BRADLEY JOHN HORNUNG
Presented on Friday, June 8

Bradley John Hornung was born in Regina in February 1969, and was an 18 year-old player with his hometown Regina Pats of the Western Hockey League (WHL) when he experienced an unimaginable setback. His dream of a professional hockey career ended during a game in March 1987, when he suffered a severe spinal cord injury after an awkward body check by an opposing player. He humbly denies it, but he was considered one of the most talented players in the WHL, a likely pick in the National Hockey League’s entry draft.

His life changed completely that night, but Hornung bore no anger toward the player involved, instead he faced his future with courage and perseverance. He completed high school at Archbishop O’Neil High School, and then continued his education at the University of Regina. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History from Campion College and later took several classes through the Faculty of Business Administration. He worked for many years as a scout for the National Hockey League’s Chicago Black Hawks and now assesses junior hockey players for the NHL’s central scouting bureau. In this capacity he attends every Regina Pats home game from his familiar vantage point in the Brandt Centre.

The Regina Pats have honoured Hornung by retiring his number eight jersey, and the WHL annually awards the Brad Hornung trophy to the player who best exemplifies talent, determination, and sportsmanship.
