

Students who are readmitted to the U of R and who have previously failed courses while attending the U of R will be notified that they are eligible to participate in the Fresh Start Program. If students choose to participate they will have all previously failed courses taken at the University of Regina excluded from the calculation of their Undergraduate Grade Point Average (UGPA) and Program Grade Point Average (PGPA) if they meet the following criteria:

- for six consecutive terms prior to (re)admission the student has not registered in any credit courses at the University of Regina.
- in the first 12 credit hours after (re)admission the student achieves a minimum average of 60.00% in those 12 credit hours with no failing grades.
- the student who has not previously been awarded a University of Regina credential.
- the student has not been previously been granted a Fresh Start.

More information is available in the Academic Regulations – Fresh Start Program section of the Academic Calendar.
