As ACAD 100 is designed to support first-year success, students are encouraged to register in these courses. Some faculties may not accept ACAD 100 for credit towards a degree program. These courses are used in the total number of attempted hours and in the evaluation of your academic record with the University. Please consult your academic advisor.

ACSC | Actuarial Science
---|---
ACSC 041 | 1:0-0 | Actuarial Science Internship Term 1
First four month term of Actuarial Science Internship Program.

ACSC 042 | 1:0-0 | Actuarial Science Internship Term 2
Second Term of Actuarial Science Internship Program.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 041

ACSC 043 | 1:0-0 | Actuarial Science Internship Term 3
Third term of Actuarial Science Internship Program.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 042 ***

ACSC 044 | 1:0-0 | Actuarial Science Internship Term 4
Fourth term of Actuarial Science Internship Program.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 043 ***

ACSC 116 | 3:3-0 | Mathematics of Finance I
This course provides a basis of financial mathematics. Topics include measurement of interest, basic and general annuities, yield rates, amortization schedules, and sinking funds.
- Prerequisite: MATH 103 or 110
- Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 116 and ACSC 116*

ACSC 216 | 3:3-0 | Mathematics of Finance II
This course is a continuation of Mathematics of Finance I and covers more advanced topics ranging from the theory of interest to principles of corporate finance. Specific topics include bonds, securities, analysis of risk and basic principles of pricing theory.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 116 or MATH 116
- Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 216 and ACSC 216*

ACSC 217 | 3:3-3 | Introduction to Actuarial Mathematics
Topics include: economics of insurance, applications of probability to problems of life insurance, life annuities, and life tables.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 116 or MATH 116, and STAT 251
- Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 217 or STAT 217*

ACSC 300 | 3:3-1 | Statistical Learning and Predictive Modeling
Selected topics and techniques in statistical learning and predictive modeling, including linear models, logistic regression models, regression trees, classification models and statistical software.
- Prerequisite: MATH 122, STAT 252, and CS 110
- Note: Students can receive credit for only one of ACSC 300 and STAT 300*

ACSC 316 | 3:3-0 | Mathematics of Finance III
This course covers the theory and pricing of financial derivatives such as Puts and Calls, with particular emphasis on the Black-Scholes model.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 216 or MATH 216, and STAT 251
- Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 316, STAT 316, and ACSC 316.*

ACSC 317 | 3:3-1 | Actuarial Models I
Probabilistic and deterministic contingency mathematics in life insurance and pensions. Topics include: benefit premiums, benefit reserves, multiple life functions, and multiple decrement models.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 217 or STAT 217
- Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 317 or STAT 317*

ACSC 318 | 3:3-0 | Actuarial Models II
This course introduces collective risk models over an extended period. Stochastic processes are introduced, followed by definition and application of Markov chains. Introductory loss model material is also presented.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 317 or STAT 317
- Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 318 or STAT 318*

ACSC 390 | 3:3-0 | Directed Reading in Actuarial Science - an AA-ZZ series.
Prior to registration of the student(s) the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery and the method of evaluation.

ACSC 390AA | 3:3-0 | Canadian Pension Plan Review
A review of Canadian Pension Plans with an emphasis on actuarial mathematics.

ACSC 390AB | 3:3-0 | Intro. Stoch. Actuarial Models
An introduction to the use of Stochastic Models to solving actuarial problems.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 317 and STAT 351

ACSC 390AC | 3:3-0 | Mathematics of Finance III - Derivative Pricing
Covers the pricing of European and American style options on investment vehicles including stocks, currencies, commodities and indices. Methods used include the Black-Scholes and binomial tree and other models. Interest rate models will also be covered.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 216 and STAT 251
- Corequisite: ACSC 318

ACSC 390AD | 3:3-0 | Topics in Property & Casualty Insurance
This class is intended to give students an introduction to Property and Casualty insurance and actuarial applications with respect to P&C insurers in Canada. Topics will be selected from the following: Products and Marketplace, Regulatory and Legal Environments, Underwriting, Actuarial Pricing models, Actuarial Valuation models, and Financial Reporting.

An introduction to property/casualty loss reserving techniques. Topics include: reserves in casualty insurance, ratemaking process, credibility and ruin theory.
- Prerequisite: ACSC 317.

ACSC 418 | 3:3-1 | Time Series Analysis and Forecasting
This course aims to introduce various statistical models for time series and cover the main methods for analysis and forecasting. Topics include: Deterministic time series: Trends and Seasonality; Random walk models; Stationary time series: White noise processes, Autoregressive (AR), Moving Average (MA), Autoregressive Moving Average (ARMA) models; Estimation, Diagnosis and Forecasting with various time series models; computer programming for Time Series Analysis.
- Prerequisite: STAT 354
- Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 418 or STAT 418*

ACSC 419 | 3:3-0 | Estimation and Selection of Actuarial Models
Course Catalogue

Topics will include: individual risk models for a short term, collective risk models for a single period, and extended period, application of risk theory.

Prerequisite: ADMN 100.

ACSC 456

Applied Stochastic Processes

An introduction to stochastic processes; Markov chains; Poisson processes; renewal processes; Brownian motion; simulation.

Prerequisite: ADMN 265.

Note: Credit can be earned for only one of STAT 456 and ACSC 456.

Pre-requisite: ART 356 or permission of Department Head

ART 361
Contemporary Ceramic Processes
Students will further develop some of the making skills and knowledge of contemporary ceramics practices introduced in ART 260. Through making ceramic works there will be an emphasis on learning to glaze, fire various kilns, and make your own clay. Relationships between ceramics processes and creative content will be investigated.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of Department Head

ART 362
Contemporary Ceramic Multiples
Students will undertake research, invention, and innovation in relation to both conventional and unconventional contexts and techniques of contemporary ceramics.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of Department Head

ART 363
Kiln Firing and Surfaces
Students will learn how to fire kilns, test and make glazes, produce other surface treatments, and make work that deepens skills and knowledge introduced in ART 260. Relationships between creative content, surface treatment, and firing processes will be investigated.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of the Department Head

ART 364
Experimental Ceramics
Students will explore ceramic-based experimental and multimedia practices. Building on skills and knowledge introduced in ART 260, students will undertake research, invention, and innovation in relation to both conventional and unconventional contexts and techniques of contemporary ceramics.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of the Department Head

ART 365
Ceramics: Size Matters
Students will deepen skills and knowledge of ceramics practices introduced in ART 260 with an emphasis on considerations of scale, including the miniature and gigantic.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of the Department Head

ART 366
Ceramics: The Wheel
Students will develop the skill of throwing on the potter’s wheel and will consider its uses as a tool for making within a range of ceramics contexts - from the traditional through the experimental. Relationships between technique, design, aesthetics, and creative content will be investigated.
Pre-requisite: ART 260 or permission of the Department Head

ART 371
Silkscreen and Stone
Drawing from opposite ends of the technological and historical spectrum, this intermediate level course introduces UV Silkscreen and Stone Lithography as means to develop and refine critical and aesthetic approaches to studio printmaking.
Pre-requisite: ART 270 or permission of Department Head

  Emphasis is placed on the role of observation in the evolution of our theories about the origins of the solar system, and of the size and structure of the universe.

- ASTR 201 3:3-1.5
  Solar System Astronomy
  This course is concerned with the description of the fundamental properties of our solar system. Topics will include: planetary interiors, surface structures and atmospheres, asteroids, comets and meteorites, and the formation of planetary systems.
  Prerequisite: ASTR 101

- ASTR 202 3:3-1.5
  Stars and Galaxies
  This course is concerned with the properties of the stars and galaxies. Topics will include: observational methods, stellar populations, stellar evolution, galactic structure, and the large-scale structure of the universe.
  Prerequisite: ASTR 101

- ASTR 290 3:3-0
  Special Topics in Astronomy/Astrophysics
  Various topics from Astrobiology, Planetary Science and Cosmology will be presented and explored.
  Prerequisite MATH 103 or MATH 110 and ASTR 101 or PHYS 109 or 111

- ASTR 290AA 3:3-0
  Astrobiology
  Various topics from Astrobiology, Planetary Science and Cosmology will be presented and explored.

BIOC 200
Medicinal Plants and Culture
The course will introduce students to key indigenous bioactive (medicinal) plants, their biologically active compounds, and their importance in Indigenous culture. The class will use multidisciplinary and cross-cultural approaches to understanding plants and their medicinal properties.

Prerequisite: 30 credit hours and one of the following courses at the 100 level: Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, English, Indigenous Studies, or Psychology.

* Note: Biochemistry, Biology and Chemistry students can use this course in their program as an elective only.

BIOC 220
Biochemistry I - Biomolecules
This course is intended to offer an introduction to the world of Biochemistry. The course deals with the structure, properties, and significance of the major groups of biochemical compounds (amino acids, proteins, carbohydrates, nucleic acids, lipids, and vitamins). Related areas such as pH and buffers will also be discussed and typical procedures for investigation of these materials will be performed in the laboratory.

Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and CHEM 105

Course Catalogue

BIOC 428AG
Systems Biology and Network Medicine
The course will focus on interactive lectures and open classroom discussions on understanding how complex systems as networks can be useful in understanding protein function and disease mechanisms, as well as will cover the principles of systems and network biology. During this course, students will develop practical skills in writing and evaluating research papers as part of the course curriculum.
Prerequisite: BIOC 321

BIOC 428AH
Chemical Basis of Biological Systems
The course will address contemporary topics of chemical biology demonstrating the integration of chemical, biochemical and biological approaches to problems of relevance to medicine, the environment and drug design.
Prerequisite: BIOC 221

BIOC 428AI
Selected Topics in Chemical Biology and Nanotheranostics
Selected topics in the development of theranostic nanoparticle systems will be discussed in terms of their structure, stability, and dynamics. In addition, recent developments in protein engineering, chemical genetics, ribozymes and nucleic acid aptamers will be introduced.
Prerequisite: BIOC 330

BIOC 428AJ
Uncovering Disease Biomarkers by Proteomics and Microscopy
This team taught class will cover the theoretical aspects of proteomics and confocal microscopy, used to discover and validate, respectively, disease biomarkers for diagnosing clinical conditions. Learning to conduct a critical analysis of research articles, based on the scientific method and our knowledge of the techniques, will be an overarching goal the class. For each of the two major topics, we will start from first principles, examine the key facets of the method, tackle sample problems, and then dive into the current literature for examples of how the two methods are used to establish and validate key biomarkers.
Prerequisite: BIOC 321

3:3-0
Selected Topics in Biochemistry - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the needs of groups of senior undergraduate students.

Chemical Biology
Chemical biology can be defined as an interdisciplinary science where chemistry is applied to problems in biology. Topics include protein engineering/directed enzyme evolution, chemical genetics, unnatural amino acids, genomics/proteomics, catalytic antibody, ribozyme/riboswitch, combinatorial biosynthesis, metabolic engineering, DNA nanotechnology, chemical ecology/antibiotics, biosensors, etc.
Prerequisite: BIOC 330

BIOC 440
3:3-0
Advanced Microscopy
This advanced biophysics course examines the theoretical concepts and instrumentation associated with scanning probe microscopy techniques, such as atomic force- and near-field scanning optical microscopies, that are used to address biochemical/biological questions. There will be a special focus on lipid systems, but applications to proteins, carbohydrates and whole cells will also be discussed.
 Prerequisite: BIOC 340 ***

BIOI

BIOI 053
3:3-1.5
Biology I - From Cells to Organisms
An examination of biological molecules, cell structure and fundamental cellular processes, bioenergetics, genetics, evolution, and animal and plant physiology.
Prerequisite: Biology 30 and Chemistry 30 are strongly recommended
Note: This course is designed for biology majors, pre-professional students, secondary education science students, and those wanting two semesters of biology. Students seeking a single semester introductory course are advised to take Biology 140 or 150

3:3-3
Biology II - Organisms in their Environment
A comparative approach to the three Domains of life, including structure, diversity, physiology, and ecology.
Notes: BIOL 100 is a recommended pre-requisite. This course is designed for biology majors, pre-professional students, secondary education science students, and those wanting two semesters of biology. Students seeking a single semester introductory course are advised to take BIOL 140 or 150

Human Anatomy & Physiology I
An introduction to the anatomy and normal functioning of the human body. The course takes a holistic approach to understanding and integrating anatomy and physiology in both lecture and laboratory components.
Note: Restricted to Nursing students only
Note: Students will not receive credit for both KIN 261 and BIOI 110; Further, students who have credit for KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOI 110 and BIOI 111, cannot take for credit KIN 260, KIN 267, or KIN 268.
BIOL 111 Human Anatomy & Physiology II
A continuation of BIOL 110. Further study of the anatomy and normal functioning of the human body, integrating anatomy and physiology in both lecture and laboratory components.
Prerequisite: BIOL 110
Note: Restricted to Nursing students only
Note: Students will not receive credit for both KIN 261 and BIOL 110; Further, students who have credit for KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOL 110 and BIOL 111, cannot take for credit KIN 260, KIN 267, or KIN 268.

BIOL 140 Human Biology for Non-majors
An introductory level course covering the principles of biology with examples taken from humans.
* Note: This course is designed to apply the study of biological principles to humans. Biology majors cannot take this course for credit. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 140 and 150. Students who have credit for either BIOL 103 or BIOL 101 cannot subsequently receive credit for either of BIOL 140 or BIOL 150. *

BIOL 150 Biological Principles for Non-majors
This course is a survey of basic modern biological principles. Topics will include: origin of life, basic cell structure and function, evolution, an outline of organism diversity, ecological principles, and selected functions of multicellular organisms.
Note: Designed for students who do not intend to be biology majors and who are not in pre-professional programs. Students cannot receive credit for both BIOL 140 and 150. Students who have credit for BIOL 100 or BIOL 101 cannot subsequently receive credit for either of BIOL 140 or BIOL 150.

BIOL 201 Evolutionary Biology of Sex
This lecture based course will help students understand sexual reproduction in animals (including humans) in an evolutionary context. Specifically the course will deal with issues about the potential conflicts between males and females and their offspring. Topics will include evolution and natural selection in the context of the function of sex, sexual selection, mating systems, mate selection and parental investment, social behaviour, male-female and parent-offspring conflict.
 Prerequisite: 24 credit hours ***
* Note: Any students who have taken BIOL 275 are precluded from taking this course. *

BIOL 205 Introductory Genetics
This course covers chromosome theory of inheritance/eukaryotic transmission genetics. Topics will include: nature of genetic material, DNA replication, mechanism of mutation, natural recombination, artificial recombination, recombinant DNA technology/genetic engineering, and population genetics.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101, CHEM 104 ***
* Note: CHEM 104 can be taken concurrently *

BIOL 222 Microbiology for Health Professionals
This course introduces fundamental concepts of microbiology with specific emphasis on clinically relevant microbes and their impact on human health.
Note: Restricted to Nursing students.
Note: Students in a Biology program can use this course in their program as an elective only.

BIOL 223 Microbes and Society: Can microbes save humanity?
Microbes play a critically important role in the environment and human society. Microbiology will be used to introduce students to relevant environmental issues. Students will develop critical thinking skills for evaluating these environmental issues.
Prerequisite: Completion of 24 credit hours

BIOL 224 Introductory Medical Microbiology
The intent of this course is to provide a basic introduction to pathogens and the concept of diseases. This course covers bacteria, viruses and eukaryotes, with emphasis on emergent diseases and urgent challenges for public health. Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101

BIOL 266 Plant Physiology
This course covers the functioning of plants and their interaction with the environment. Topics will include: photosynthesis, water relations, transport processes, mineral nutrition and assimilation, hormones, and development.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101, CHEM 104 ***
* Note: CHEM 104 can be taken concurrently *

BIOL 275 Ecology
This is an introductory course that covers plant, animal, and microbial ecology. Field work will be required.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101, CHEM 104 ***
* Note: CHEM 104 can be taken concurrently *

BIOL 276 Environmental Biology
This course discusses the biological basis for environmental change and its impacts on human society and will review the patterns, causes and consequences of human-induced and natural environmental change. Topics will include: global warming, acid rain, ozone depletion, fisheries collapse, sustainable forestry, agriculture, biodiversity, and conservation. For Biology, Environmental Science and Environmental Studies Majors.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101, or BIOL 150 and ENST 200 ***

BIOL 288 Cell Biology
This is an introductory course in cell biology covering the structure and function of cells and their organelles.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 100 and 101, CHEM 104 ***
* Note: CHEM 104 can be taken concurrently *

BIOL 302 Food Microbiology
Students will be introduced to the importance of microbes in foods. Topics will include: microbial ecology in food environments, survey of microbes important in food spoilage and food borne illness, food fermentations, and control and detection of detrimental microbes with special emphasis on novel or emerging techniques. Prerequisite: BIOL 310

BIOL 303 Medical Microbiology
Aetiology, pathogenesis, diagnosis, treatment and epidemiology of infectious diseases of humans, caused by bacterial, viral, fungal and parasitic organisms.
Prerequisites: BIOL 205 and 288

BIOL 305 Genetics
This course covers the evolution of concepts of the gene. Topics will include: bacterial and viral genetics, genetic code and translation, transcription, processing of RNA and protein molecules, structural organization of prokaryotic and eukaryotic genes, and regulation of gene expression.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 205 and CHEM 140, and one of BIOL 289 or BIOL 220

BIOL 310 Microbial Diversity and Cell Function
Students will be introduced to the tremendous diversity in microbial cell structure, function, and the environments they influence. Specific topics include: Microbial physiology, microbial symbionts, extremophiles, microbial cell sensing and adaptive responses, and viral diversity.
Prerequisite: BIOL 288 or BIOL 220
Note: Credit cannot be received for both BIOL 220 and BIOL 310.

BIOL 316 Conservation Biology
This course will examine processes that affect biodiversity. The goal of the course is to apply principles of ecology and evolution to understand the importance of biodiversity and the significance of recent human-induced changes. Prerequisites: BIOL 100 and 101, BIOL 275, STAT 100

| BIOL 376   | 3:3     | Population and Community Ecology                                                              | Explores the major processes governing population dynamics, species interactions, and community structure. Emphasizes a quantitative framework for understanding populations and communities using mathematical models and graphical analysis. Prerequisite: BIOL 275, CS 110, and one of MATH 111 or MATH 112. |
| BIOL 378   | 3:3     | Animal Physiology                                                                            | This course covers the general principles of animal physiology and includes discussion of the major physiological systems, including nervous, sensory, muscular, circulatory, respiratory, digestive, and reproductive systems. Prerequisite: BIOL 288 or BIOL 220.
Note: Credit cannot be held for both BIOL 265 and BIOL 378. |
| BIOL 380   | 3:3     | Animal Behaviour                                                                             | An evolutionary approach to the study of the behaviour and ecology of individual animals. Compulsory field work for one week before lectures begin. Prerequisite: BIOL 275 and STAT 200. |
| BIOL 385   | 3:3     | Vertebrate Animal Biology                                                                     | The anatomy, evolution, taxonomy, distribution, phylogeny and fossil history of vertebrate animals. Laboratories will involve dissections to illustrate diversity of body form and function. Prerequisite: BIOL 275 |
| BIOL 390   | 3:0     | General and Comparative Endocrinology                                                        | Principles and concepts of mammalian endocrine systems. Emphasis will be placed on the regulators of hormone synthesis and secretion, the cellular and molecular mechanisms of hormone action and their role in regulating cell and organismal physiology. Examples of human endocrine disorders will be considered. Prerequisite: BIOL 288 |
| BIOL 395   | 3:0     | Animal Developmental Biology                                                                 | Will provide an overview of the major cellular and molecular events during early embryonic development in animals. Followed discussion from fertilization to an outline of the body plan, the development of selected organ systems will be studied in greater depth. The role of gene activity in development will be considered. Prerequisite: BIOL 288 |
| BIOL 396   | 3:1     | Independent Research in Biology                                                               | This course is intended as an introduction to independent research. Under the direct supervision of a Biology faculty member, students will undertake a well-defined research project suitable for completion in one semester. A written report with structure similar to a journal article within the discipline will be produced. Prerequisite: 60 credit hours and permission of course instructor.
Note: the written report cannot incorporate material or data derived from paid employment. |
| BIOL 399   | 0-3:3   | Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series                                            | Courses used to offer topical material.                                                                                                  |

The course will introduce several topics in entomology, including the evolutionary origins and relationships and their relatives, including morphology, life history strategies and an introduction to insect diversity, taxonomy and ecology. Prerequisite: BIOL 275 or BIOL 276, or permission of the Dept. Head |
| BIOL 399AC | 0-3:3   | Terrestrial Ecosystems                                                                        | This course will examine factors regulating distribution and functioning of major temperate terrestrial ecosystems, and some tropical ecosystems, as well as their ecosystem processes. Factors: climate, geography, surficial deposits, soils, microorganisms, flora, fauna. Processes: disturbances (fire, wind, anthropic), succession, productivity and biomass, carbon capture and sequestration. Field trip (2 days) on 2nd weekend of semester. Laboratories. Prerequisite: BIOL 275 or permission of the dept. head |
| BIOL 402   | 3:0     | Evolution                                                                                    | This course explores the evidence supporting evolution as a scientific theory, its role as the main unifying theory of biology, and how biologists use evolution to guide research. Topics covered include molecular evolution, phylogeny, the history of life, natural selection and adaptation, the evolution of life histories, speciation, and macroevolution. Prerequisite: BIOL 205 |
| BIOL 405   | 3:0     | Molecular Genetics                                                                            | Anatomy of the genome in prokaryotes and eukaryotes, evolution of genomes, molecular phylogenies, gene expression and its regulation in pro- and eukaryotes, recombination, and modern molecular methods. Prerequisite: BIOL 305  |

BIOL 490BF
Environmental Microbiology
This course covers the study of microorganisms in natural environments. We will examine the ecology and diversity of microbial communities in water, soil, and air, as well as in extreme and unusual environments.
Prerequisite: BIOL 220 and 275

BIOL 490BJ
Bacterial Cell Envelope
This course will be an advanced research focused course with a directed readings component. The subject matter will be on studying genes involved in cell envelope formation in the bacterium Rhizobium leguminosarum.
Prerequisite: BIOL 220

BIOL 490BL
Advanced Topics in Bacterial Gene Regulation
This course will be a research focused course with a directed readings component. The subject matter will be on studying genetic regulatory pathways in bacteria.
Prerequisite: BIOL 220

BIOL 490BM
Independent Research Project - Microbial Genetics and Genomics I
This research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to learn basic laboratory and/or computational techniques, and develop the necessary scientific skills that will allow them to initiate their own unique research project.
Prerequisite: BIOL 220
Permission of the instructor is required to register.

BIOL 490BN
Ecology Concepts and Techniques: Independent Study
Students will study a particular area of ecology in detail through an independent study project conducted in close consultation with the instructor. The course requires in-depth learning and assessment of current techniques in ecology, followed by an original independent study using data collected by the student.
Permission of the Instructor is required to register

BIOL 490BO
Independent Research Project - Microbial Genetics and Genomics II
This advanced research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to conduct their own independent research. Topics include, but are not limited to, microbial pathogenicity, disease determinants, host-microbe interactions, and antibiotic production and resistance. Students may also choose to explore unique research questions in genetics or evolutionary, comparative, and functional genomics using only bioinformatic and computational approaches.
Prerequisite: BIOL 490BM
Permission of the Instructor is required to register.

BIOL 490BP
Independent Research Project - Limnology
This research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to learn basic laboratory and/or computational techniques, and develop the necessary scientific skills that will allow them to initiate their own unique research project.
Prerequisite: BIOL 275
Permission of the Instructor is required to register.

BIOL 490BQ
Independent Research Project - Neurobiology
This research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to learn basic laboratory and/or computational techniques, and develop the necessary scientific skills that will allow them to initiate their own unique research project.
Prerequisite: BIOL 220
Permission of the Instructor is required to register.

BIOL 490BR
Evolution
This course explores the evidence supporting evolution as a scientific theory, its role as the main unifying theory of biology, and how biological evolution guides research. Topics covered include molecular evolution, phylogeny, the history of life, natural selection and adaptation, the evolution of life histories, speciation, and macroevolution.
Prerequisite: BIOL 205

BIOL 490BT
Neurophysiology
This course provides an in-depth introduction to the organization of the nervous system, in both health and disease. Here electrical and chemical properties of neurons and supportive glial cells will be studied. Other aspects that will be covered are the physiology and functional anatomy of sensory systems, memory, and movement. Comparison between different species and analytic scientific techniques will be used to construct/deconstruct the nervous system.

BIOL 490BU
Entomology
An introduction to insects. The course will introduce several topics in Entomology, including the evolutionary origins and relationships of the insects and their relatives, morphology, life history strategies, and an introduction to insect diversity, taxonomy and ecology.
Prerequisite: One of BIOL 265, BIOL 275, BIOL 276 or permission of the department head

BIOL 490BV
Photosynthesis and Photoinhibition
A review of photosynthesis and the light-dependent inhibition of photosynthesis, a process known as photoinhibition. The interactions between light and environmental stresses, especially low temperature, and the induction of photoinhibition.

BIOL 490BX
Independent Research Project - Biogeochemistry
This research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to do guided study in an area of biogeochemistry.
Permission of the instructor is required to register

BIOL 490BY
Independent studies in Limnology
This research-based course provides undergraduate students with the opportunity to do guided study in an area of Limnology.

BIOL 490BZ
Directed Studies in Bacterial Genetics
This directed studies course is a continuation of BIOL 396 directed studies into bacterial genetics. The student will conduct a literature review for a deeper understanding of the scientific results generated in BIOL 396. Experiments will test hypotheses arising from the literature review, and a final paper will conclude the project.
Prerequisite: BIOL 396

BIOL 490CA
Selected Topics in Plant Biology
A course that covers topical subjects in modern plant and algal biology. Potential topics include: metabolism, biochemistry, physiology and physiological ecology.
Prerequisite: BIOL 266

BIOL 491
Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses used to offer topical material.

BIOL 492
Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses used to offer topical material.

BIOL 493
Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses used to offer topical material.

BIOL 494
Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses used to offer topical material.

BIOL 495
Selected Topics/Reading Courses - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses used to offer topical material.

BIOL 498
Thesis Research I
Individual student research conducted under the direction of a Biology faculty member. Students enrolling in BIOL 498 must also complete BIOL 499 which entails a continuation of the independent research, and the preparation and defense of a written thesis.
Prerequisites: Approval by Department Head.
BUS 205
Management Communication
This course is designed to assist students to improve their skills and confidence as effective communicators in an organizational context. Students will explore the issues faced by organizations in communicating internally with employees and externally with diverse publics. The course will focus on both oral and written communication.

Prerequisite: ACAD 100 or ENGL 100 or EPS 116
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 205, ADMN 205, and ADMN 265.

BUS 210
Introduction to Marketing
This course presents the fundamentals of marketing theory and application. Starting at a societal level, it works through environmental scanning, explores the differences between consumer and business customer groups, followed with a strategic focus on segmentation, targeting and positioning. Tactical applications of the marketing mix are then addressed – product, price, place and promotion. Attention is also directed to ethical and legal considerations.

Prerequisite: BUS 100 (or ADMN 100) and BUS 260 (or ADMN 260).
Concurrent enrolment is allowed in BUS 260.

Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 210 and ADMN 210.

BUS 235
Selected Topics in Business I
Courses are designed at the 200-level as required for individuals or groups of undergraduates.

Prerequisite: Independent on each class offering. (Please see Faculty of Business Administration General Office)

BUS 250
Introduction to Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations
This introductory course addresses basic concepts and processes of the field of human resource management. Topics include: human resource planning, job analysis, recruitment, selection, orientation, training and development, performance management, compensation management, workplace health and safety, and employee and labour relations.

Prerequisite: BUS 100 (or ADMN 100) and BUS 260 (or ADMN 260).

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 250, ADMN 250, or NSLI 310.

BUS 260
Introduction to Organizational Behaviour
This introductory course addresses the basic concepts and processes of organizational behaviour. Topics will include: individual level variables, such as perception, personality, attitudes, and motivation; interpersonal and group processes, such as communication, teams, leadership, and power; and, organizational level factors such as organizational design, culture, and change.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100, or ACAD 100, or KIN 101.

Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 260 and ADMN 260.

BUS 270
Introduction to Quantitative Analysis
This course is an introduction to the use of quantitative techniques as an aid to organizational decision making. Emphasis will be on the formulation and solution of resource allocation, inventory scheduling, and decision making and on the suitability of such methods.

Prerequisite: BUS 100 (or ADMN 100), MATH 103, and STAT 100.

Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 270 and ADMN 270.

BUS 275
Operations Management
An introduction to the management of the operations function in organizations. Topics will include: forecasting, planning, scheduling, layout, control over quality, and quantity of output. Problems of production of goods and services will be considered. The course will also include an introduction to the use of quantitative techniques as an aid to organizational decision making.

Prerequisite: BUS 100 (or ADMN 100), MATH 103, and STAT 100.

Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 275 and ADMN 275.

BUS 314
Entrepreneurial Marketing
This course presents the core concepts of entrepreneurship and marketing with a strong emphasis on the marketing of new, innovative, high technology products and services where no market previously existed or where the underlying product concepts may be unfamiliar to existing customers. Marketing techniques particularly useful for entrepreneurial settings are emphasized, including marketing with limited resources.
 Prerequisite: BUS 210 (or ADMN 210) ***

BUS 317
Digital Marketing
This course examines leading trends in digital media and the evolving impact on marketing. Focus will be placed on increasing competitiveness through optimal usage of digital media tools and platforms to increase both effectiveness and efficiency. All "4 P's" of on-line products, pricing models, distribution methods, and use in promotional strategy will be examined. Customer relationships, engagement, and empowerment are also considered.
Prerequisite: BUS 210 (or ADMN 210)
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 317, BUS 417, ADMN 417, and ADMN 435AC. *

BUS 335
Selected Topics in Business II
Courses are designed at the 300-level as required for individuals or groups of undergraduates.
Prerequisite: Dependent on each class offering. (Please see Faculty of Business Administration General Office)

BUS 335AC
Business Analytics
This course focuses on teaching students different methods for data driven decision making. Students will learn to apply basic business analytics principles, and effectively use and interpret analytic models to make better business decisions. Topics may include: Descriptive statistical measures, statistical inference, regression analysis, linear and integer optimization, data mining, and simulation. Different application areas will be studied in the areas of finance, marketing and operations.
Prerequisite: STAT 100 ***

BUS 340
Government Finance
This course examines the basic principles and practices of government finance in Canada. Topics will include: the role of government expenditures, basic principles and structure of taxation, and inter-governmental transfers.
 Prerequisite: ECON 201 and ECON 202 ***
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 340, ADMN 340, and ECON 232. *

BUS 354
Occupational Health and Safety
This course focuses on the effective management of occupational health and safety (OHS). Beginning with a survey of the history of OHS, current statistics, and the legal environment for OHS, the course turns to the role of leadership, culture, and a safety management system in enhancing the physical and mental wellbeing of employees.
Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250)
Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 354 and BUS 473AC

BUS 355
Introduction to Industrial Relations
This course concerns the employment relationship and, in particular, the union management relationship. The economic, social and political context of collective bargaining is examined as well as the processes used by the parties. While the primary focus is on Canadian public and private organizations, comparisons with some other nations will be made.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) ***
* Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 355 and ADMN 355. *

BUS 356
Staffing Organizations
This course takes the perspective of human resources professionals and is concerned with recruitment, selection, placement in the workplace, and career patterns within the organization. The focus is on the design, implementation, and operation of staffing systems.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) ***
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 356, ADMN 356, and ADMN 435AA. *

BUS 357
Compensation
This course takes the perspective of human resources professionals and is concerned with the policies, objectives and techniques of designing, and implementing compensation systems. Topics will include: providing for internal and external equity, performance pay, indirect pay systems, and international compensation considerations.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 357 and ADMN 357.

BUS 358
Training and Development
This course takes the perspective of human resources professionals and is concerned with the design, implementation, and evaluation of training and development programs. Topics will include: performing needs analysis, applying learning models in designing and implementing programs, and evaluating the costs and benefits of training and development. The course also considers career development issues and practices.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250). **
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 358, ADMN 358, and ADMN 435AL. *

BUS 361
Management of Performance
This course takes the perspective of human resources professionals and is concerned with the design, development, implementation, and evaluation of systems that measure, support, review and appraise individual performance. These systems can help managers improve workforce effectiveness and address performance problems.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 361 and ADMN 361.

BUS 362
Leadership
This course is designed to introduce students to popular leadership theories and enable students to self-assess and develop their own leadership skills. Topics include leadership styles, gender, and leadership, communication skills for leading productive teams, personal leadership development, mentorship, leadership ethics, and influence tactics. The course will emphasize practical application of leadership in organizational settings.
Prerequisite: BUS 250 or ADMN 250
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 362, ADMN 362, and ADMN 462.

BUS 363
Organizational Analysis
This course concerns the structures and processes of organizations and their sub-units as they influence and are influenced by their technology and environment. Topics will include: organizational structure and strategy, organizational decision-making, conflict, life cycles, innovation, and emerging forms.
 Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) ***
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 363, ADMN 363, and ADMN 463. *

BUS 364
Managing a Diverse Workforce
This course concentrates on the increasing diversity of the work force and the major challenges and opportunities faced by organizations and their managers. Topics will include: maintaining fairness and justice, making effective decisions for performance improvement, allowing flexibility, and managing in the global environment. The course also examines the legal frameworks in place that value and protect employee and employer rights related to gender, race, age, religion, sexual orientation, ability, etc.
Prerequisite: BUS 250 (or ADMN 250) or NSLI 310 ***
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of BUS 364, ADMN 364, ADMN 435AP, and NSLI 390AA.
BUS 374
Selected Topics in Marketing – an AA-ZZ series
Coursers in selected topics in marketing are designed at the 300-level.
Prerequisite: Dependent on each course offering. (Please see Faculty of Business Administration General Office)
Note: Students may not receive credit for both BUS 374AA-ZZ and an equivalent BUS 474AA-ZZ or ADMN 474AA-ZZ course covering the same topic

BUS 375
Managing Information Systems
An overview of management and organizational issues surrounding the Information Systems/Information Technology function (IS/IT) and its interaction with business functions within and between organizations. Topics will include: the evolution of the IS/IT functions, functional area systems, current trends, strategy, managing and acquiring IS resources and ethical issues surrounding IS/IT.

Academic Integrity and Strategies for Success
The purpose of this course is to ensure students understand and can apply concepts relating to academic integrity. By the end of this course, students will know how to avoid academic misconduct in order to be successful in undergraduate-level study in any discipline.
Note: This course must be completed by the end of the first semester of study in any CCE undergraduate certificate program. Students must pass the course to register in a subsequent term.

CHEM
Chemistry

CHEM 051
Chemistry Co-op Work Term
0:0-0
Four-month co-op work term #1 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.

CHEM 052
Chemistry Co-op Work Term #2
0:0-0
Four-month Co-op work term #2 approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.

CHEM 100
Introductory Chemistry
3:3-0
An introduction to the basic principles of chemistry. This course serves as an equivalent to high school chemistry and is intended primarily for students who require it as a prerequisite for CHEM 104.

CHEM 101
Chemistry of Food and Cooking
3:3-3
An introductory science course connecting chemical and biochemical principles with food and its preparation. Major components of food (lipids, proteins, carbohydrates, water) will be discussed alongside chemical foundations (atomic structure, acids and bases, enthalpy, reactivity). Traditional Knowledge of food preparation by First Nations will also be explored. Lab component: A kitchen-based food lab will highlight the scientific method.
Prerequisites: CHEM 30 or CHEM 100 (minimum 65%), BIOL 30 (minimum 65%)
Note: Biochemistry and Chemistry majors can use this course in their program as an open elective only.

CHEM 104
General Chemistry I
3:3-2
An introduction to the fundamental principles of chemistry. Topics discussed will include atomic structure, bonding, stoichiometry, enthalpy, solutions, organic compounds. Lab component: Introduction to standard chemistry laboratory techniques.
Prerequisite: CHEM 30 or CHEM 100 (minimum 65%); and Precalculus 30 or Mathematics C30 with a grade of at least 65%, or AMTH 092 with a grade of at least 80%, or MATH 102.
Note: Students cannot receive credit for both CHEM 102 and CHEM 104
CHEM 105
General Chemistry II
A continuation of CHEM 104. Topics discussed will include kinetics, equilibrium, acids and bases, buffers, plastics, entropy and free energy, electrochemistry, nuclear chemistry. Lab component: Basic experiments demonstrating principles of equilibrium, thermodynamics, electrochemistry, and acids and bases.
Prerequisite: CHEM 104

CHEM 140
Organic Chemistry I
Prerequisite: CHEM 104

CHEM 210
Analytical Chemistry I
An introduction to theoretical and practical aspects of quantitative analysis. Primary analyses, error analysis, data handling; solution equilibria and acid base titrations; spectrophotometry. Lab component: An introduction to analytical laboratory techniques.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 and 140, and PHYS 30 or PHYS 109

CHEM 215
Analytical Chemistry II - Spectrochemical Analysis
Spectroscopic methods for structural characterization of organic and inorganic compounds: symmetry, infrared spectroscopy, mass spectrometry, nuclear magnetic resonance, and ultraviolet-visible spectroscopy. This course will emphasize practical aspects of spectroscopic methods. Lab component: Experimental spectroscopic techniques, spectral interpretation, and compound characterization.
Prerequisite: CHEM 210

CHEM 230
Inorganic Chemistry I
Properties of the elements; structure and bonding in inorganic molecules and materials; periodic trends. Descriptive chemistry of main group elements. Lab component: Synthesis and characterization of inorganic compounds.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105

CHEM 241
Organic Chemistry II
Organic functional groups, reactions and mechanisms. Carbonyl compounds, aromatic compounds, heterocyclic compounds. Lab component: Synthesis and characterization of organic compounds; aromatic, heterocyclic, and carbonyl compounds.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 and 140

CHEM 250
Physical Chemistry I
Equilibrium and chemical thermodynamics. Lab component: Experiments in equilibria and thermodynamics.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 and MATH 110

CHEM 251
Physical Chemistry II
Chemical kinetics and an introduction to molecular electronic spectroscopy. Lab component: Experiments in chemical kinetics and techniques in absorption and fluorescence.
Prerequisite: CHEM 250 and MATH 111

CHEM 312
Analytical Chemistry III - Instrumental Analysis
Introduction to instrumental chemical analysis techniques including: GC, HPLC, ion chromatography, flame AAS and OES, GFAAS, capillary electrophoresis, size exclusion chromatography. Lab component: Experiments in instrumental analysis.
Prerequisite: CHEM 210 and 215
Note: Students can only receive credit for one of CHEM 312 and BIOC 312

CHEM 330
Inorganic Chemistry II
Chemistry of the transition metals. Coordination chemistry: structure and bonding, reactions, mechanisms, and spectroscopic properties. Organometallic chemistry. Lab component: Synthesis and characterization of coordination compounds.
Prerequisite: CHEM 215 and 230

CHEM 340
Organic Chemistry III
Stereochemistry and chemical reactivity of organic compounds. Lab component: Advanced organic lab techniques.
Prerequisite: CHEM 241

CHEM 360
Quantum Chemistry
Fundamental principles of quantum mechanics. Application of quantum mechanics to chemical and spectroscopic problems. Introduction to computational chemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 230, MATH 111, and PHYS 119 or 112

CHEM 390
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Selected topics in Chemistry as defined by the individual instructor for courses at the intermediate level.

Honours Research
Honours chemistry students will carry out independent research under the supervision of a Chemistry/Biochemistry faculty member or a Chemistry professor at a Federated College. Students will carry out an independent research project, and will have an opportunity to develop an appreciation for experimental preparation, methods, analysis, and scientific report writing.
Prerequisite: Permission of the Chemistry/Biochemistry Department Head and the faculty member
Note: Research positions are limited. Students with a strong background in courses in the subsidiole of research interest will be given preference
Note: Students can only receive credit for one of CHEM 391 and BIOC 391
Note: Students can use this course in their program as an elective only

CHEM 401
Honours Thesis
A continuation of the research project started in CHEM 401. Students will complete their research projects, submit a written research thesis and give an oral presentation and defence of the thesis.
Note: Students can only receive credit for one of CHEM 402 and BIOC 402.

CHEM 402
Research Experience
An examination of analytical techniques applicable to analysis of organic compounds. Mainly focusing on principles of mass spectroscopy detection coupled to GC and LC chromatography techniques. Interpretation of mass spectra fragmentation patterns.
Prerequisite: CHEM 312

CHEM 411
Organic Chemical Analysis
An examination of analytical techniques applicable to analysis of organic compounds. Mainly focusing on principles of mass spectroscopy detection coupled to GC and LC chromatography techniques. Interpretation of mass spectra fragmentation patterns.
Prerequisite: CHEM 312

CHEM 430
Magnetic Resonance Spectroscopy in Inorganic Chemistry
Application of EPR and multinuclear NMR to the characterization of inorganic compounds and materials.
Prerequisite: CHEM 330

CHEM 433
Organometallic Chemistry of the Transition Metals
Basic principles of organometallic chemistry; synthesis, structure, bonding, and reactivity of organometallic compounds of the transition metals; reaction mechanisms; catalysis and metal mediated organic synthesis.
Prerequisite: CHEM 241 and 330
CHEM 440 3:3-3
Stereocontrol in Organic Synthesis
This course will emphasize the fundamentals and applications of key concepts in stereocontrolled organic reactions. Lab component: Synthesis of compounds that are either naturally occurring or structurally interesting.
Prerequisite: CHEM 215 and 340

CHEM 441 3:3-3
Modern Organic Synthesis
This course will discuss the concepts and strategies in synthesis of organic molecules. Lab component: Synthesis of compounds that are either naturally occurring or structurally interesting.
Prerequisite: CHEM 215 and 340

CHEM 444 3:3-0
Photochemistry
This course will be an introduction to molecular photochemistry. The primary photophysical and photochemical processes that occur in molecular systems will be discussed. Applications of photochemistry in synthesis, sensors, biomedicine, photovoltaics, photosynthesis, and vision will be examined.
Prerequisite: CHEM 241 and 251

CHEM 445 3:3-0
Supramolecular Chemistry
This course will be an introduction to supramolecular chemistry. The structure, stability, and dynamics of supramolecular complexes and assemblies will be discussed. Applications of supramolecular systems in biomolecular recognition, soft materials, and stimuli-responsive materials will be examined.
Prerequisite: CHEM 241 and 250

CHEM 461 3:3-3
Computational Chemistry
Electronic structure of molecules, molecular orbital theory, semi-empirical methods, ab initio methods, molecular mechanisms, use of computer programs.
Prerequisite: CHEM 251 and CHEM 360

CHEM 490 1:3:3-0
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of groups of senior undergraduate students.

CHEM 490AF 3:3-0
Physical Methods and their Chemical Applications
This course will be an introduction to the principles of physical methods. Practical aspects of these methods will be examined.

CHEM 490AG 3:3-0
Group Theory and Electrochemical Methods
This course covers the principles of symmetry, group theory, and electrochemical methods used by chemists. Applications in chemical bonding, vibrational and electronic spectroscopy, electroanalytical chemistry, spectroelectrochemistry, electrocatalysis, energy systems, and environment and water analysis will be discussed.
Prerequisite: CHEM 250 and CHEM 312

CHEM 490AH 3:3-0
Electrochemistry and Photochemistry
This course will be an introduction to molecular photochemistry and electrochemistry. Photophysical, photochemical and electrochemical processes and their theories will be discussed. Applications of electrochemistry and photochemistry in biomedicine, catalysts, energy systems, photosynthesis, photovoltaics, sensors, synthesis, and vision will be examined.
Prerequisite: CHEM 251

CHEM 490AI 3:3-0
Selected Topics in Pure and Applied Inorganic Chemistry
Selected advanced topics in inorganic chemistry will be discussed, including spectroscopy, solid state chemistry, magnetic materials and catalysis.
Prerequisite: CHEM 330

CHEM 490AJ 3:3-0
Industrial Chemistry
Overview of industrial chemistry including business considerations and chemical evaluations, patents, and process chemistry. Agrichemicals, blends and additives, basic inorganic chemicals, oil extraction, emulsions, petrochemicals, pharmaceuticals, polymer, water issues, and Saskatchewan chemical industries will be covered.
Prerequisite: CHEM 230, 241, and 251 (CHEM 251 may be taken concurrently)

CHEM 491 1:3:3-0
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of groups of senior undergraduate students.

CHEM 491AB 3:3-0
Advanced Analytical Chemistry
The course involves a detailed study of inductively coupled plasma-mass spectrometry (ICP-MS) for detection and quantification of inorganic compounds. The course will emphasize mass spectrometer instrument design including sample introduction and sample preparation particularly for industrial and environmental applications for quantitative analysis. Prerequisite: CHEM 312 or BIOC 312 ***

CHEM 491AF 3:3-0
Main Group Chemistry
Structure, bonding and applications of compounds of the main group elements. Topics discussed will include atomic structure and periodic trends of the main group elements, noble gas chemistry, solid state chemistry, and atmospheric chemistry.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 330

CHEM 491AG 3:3-0
Mass Spectrometry in Chromatography
The course involves a detailed study of mass spectrometric (MS) detection in chromatography for confirmation of organic compound identity and quantitative analysis. The lectures will emphasize mass spectrometer instrument design and applications including gas and liquid chromatography coupled with MS and MS/MS for environmental, pharmaceutical and biochemical applications.
Prerequisite: CHEM 312 or BIOC 312.

CHEM 492 1:3:3-0
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of groups of senior undergraduate students.

CHEM 492AB 3:3-0
Advanced Topics in Supramolecular Organic Photochemistry
This course will be a research focused course with a directed reading component. This course will emphasize practical aspects of methods used in supramolecular chemistry and organic photochemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 241.

CHEM 493 1:3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to honours students.

CHEM 494 1:3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to honours students.

CHEM 495 1:3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to honours students.

| CHIN 111 3:3-1 | Introductory Mandarin Chinese I
This course will focus on introducing modern standard Chinese (Mandarin) language and culture, including the Chinese pronunciation system, essential vocabulary and grammar, reading and writing Chinese characters. Communicative competence and cross-cultural awareness are emphasized.
 Prerequisite: No previous background in Mandarin Chinese or other Chinese dialect. Refer to the Department of International Languages section (How to choose a language) in the Undergraduate Calendar for details. ***
* Note: Students may not receive credit for CHIN 110 and 111.*
* Note: Formerly numbered CHIN 100. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 100 or 111.* |
| CHIN 112 3:3-1 | Introductory Mandarin Chinese II
This course is a continuation of CHIN 111, including review of the pronunciation system, building on vocabulary, structure, grammar and more characters with further emphasis on communicative competence and cross-cultural understanding.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 111 or Grade 12 Mandarin or permission of the Department. ***
* Note: Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 112 and 110. Refer to the Department of International Languages section (How to choose a language) for details. *
* Note: Formerly numbered CHIN 101. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 101 or 112.* |
| CHIN 211 3:3-1 | Intermediate Chinese I
This course is designed to reinforce and further develop the material covered in introductory courses. Everyday speech patterns are stressed in order to strengthen communicative competence. Simplified short stories, poems, and idioms are introduced to further develop students’ ability to read and write in both Chinese Pinyin and characters.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 112 or 110 or permission of department
* Note: Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 211 and CHIN 210*
* Note: Formerly numbered CHIN 102. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 102 or 211* |
| CHIN 212 3:3-1 | Intermediate Chinese II
A continuation of CHIN 211, this course will further the development of communicative skills using more complex structures in a culturally appropriate manner. Students are expected to write paragraphs in Chinese characters.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 211 or permission of the department. ***
* Note: Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 212 and CHIN 210. *
* Note: Formerly numbered CHIN 200. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 200 or CHIN 212.* |
| CHIN 290 1:3-3-0 | Tutorials and Directed Readings in Mandarin Chinese  - an AA-ZZ series.
These courses are designed to increase students’ skills in reading, writing, comprehension and communication.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. ** |
| CHIN 290AA 3:3-0 | Chinese Idioms and Short Stories
A study of Chinese language and culture through Chinese idioms and related short stories.
Prerequisite: CHIN 211 |
| CHIN 290AC 3:3-0 | Kaleidoscope of Chinese Culture and Civilization
Highlights in the development of Chinese culture and civilizations in the Chinese history. Readings and discussions of events, development in various fields, and legends and formation of unique customs among 56 nationalities in China. Topics may include the arts, literature, society and politics.
Prerequisite: Completion of 9 credit hours, or permission of the Department
* Note: Taught in English. Open to students with non-Chinese background*
* Note: CHIN 290AC can not be used towards satisfying the Faculty of Arts second language requirement* |
| CHIN 311 3:3-1 | Intermediate Mandarin Chinese II
A continuation of CHIN 212, this course will further enhance the student’s ability to comprehend and produce more complicated speech patterns. Edited Chinese classic works and modern literature are introduced to enhance students’ cultural appreciation and reading comprehension. Students will recite short texts and produce letters and biographical information in Chinese characters.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 311 or permission of the department. ***
* Formerly numbered CHIN 300. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 301 or 312.* |
| CHIN 312 3:3-1 | Advanced Mandarin Chinese I
This course involves the comprehension of more complex topics that are closer to normal native speed and require extended vocabulary and knowledge of structure, grammar and culture. Reading and writing skills are further developed. Students are expected to use more sophisticated structures in their speaking and writing.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 311 or permission of the department. ***
* Formerly numbered CHIN 300. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 301 or 312.* |
| CHIN 361 3:3-0 | Translation I
This course focuses on the theories and skills of translation from English to Chinese and from Chinese to English. Authentic texts of various genres will be included. A further focus is the comparison of the two languages and cultures including the vocabulary, grammar, and correct idiomatic usage, etc.
* Note: This class is for Chinese dialect speakers and those with advanced Mandarin. *
* Note: Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 390AB or CHIN 361. * |
| CHIN 390 3:3-0 | Tutorials and Directed Readings in Mandarin Chinese  - an AA-ZZ series.
These courses are designed to increase student’s skills in reading, writing, comprehension and communication.
 Permission of the Department may be required to register in some offerings. ** |
| CHIN 390AB 3:3-0 | Translation I
This course focuses on the theories and skills of translation in Chinese-English and English-Chinese. Authentic texts of various genres will be included. A further focus is the comparison of the two languages and cultures including the vocabulary, grammar, and correct idiomatic usage, etc.
 Prerequisite: Chinese dialect speakers and those with advanced Mandarin. *** |
| CHIN 390AD 3:3-0 | Advanced Study in Chinese Idioms
A continue study of Chinese language and culture through Chinese idioms and its origins in the form of stories. This course is a continuation of CHIN 290AA.
 Prerequisite: CHIN 290AA *** |
CHIN 390AE
A Survey of Chinese Literature (for advanced CHIN students)

This course aims to provide students with a survey of Chinese literature along with the literary masters, works, genres, and schools from the pre-Qin era till today. Important literary texts will be studied, through which students will learn to appreciate and use the Chinese language in literature and communication.

Prerequisite: CHIN 312 or permission of Department Head.

Note: For non-native language learners.

CHIN 390AF

This course aims to provide students with a survey of Chinese literature along with the literary masters, works, genres, and schools from the pre-Qin era till today. Important literary texts will be studied, through which students will learn to appreciate and use the Chinese language in literature and communication.

Note: For Chinese (Mandarin) speakers.

CHIN 390AG
Interpretation I

This course explores oral/aural interpretation as an academic discipline and professional skill. The focus will be on the theory and practice of Chinese-English and English-Chinese interpretation including techniques in aural comprehension and oral expression. Fundamental concepts of cross-cultural communication, ethics, and professional conduct will also be introduced.

CHIN 411
Advanced Mandarin Chinese II

This course will strengthen students overall language and cultural proficiency. Authentic materials such as newspapers, magazines, news broadcasts, movies, TV shows and Chinese computer software will be used to improve communicative competence. Selected authentic Chinese classic works and examples of modern literature will be introduced and discussed to deepen students' appreciation of the Chinese literature and culture and to develop a high level of sophistication in the use of the language.

Prerequisite: CHIN 312 or permission of the department.

Note: Formerly numbered CHIN 301. Students may receive credit for only one of CHIN 301 or 411.

CLAS 160
Introduction to Ancient Greek I

An introduction to the Latin and Greek roots of scientific terminology. The course examines many of the major myth cycles through a study of their evolution, and how the works operated within their respective cultural contexts.

Prerequisite: either CLAS 150 or permission of the instructor.

CLAS 200
Classical Mythology

A survey of the main myths and legends of ancient Greece and Rome. The course examines many of the major myth cycles through a study of their expression in literature and the visual arts, the cultural context in which they were produced and transmitted, and some of the main theoretical approaches critics have adopted to interpret them.

Prerequisite: either CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor.

CLAS 210
Greek and Roman Epic

An introduction to epic poetry in the Greek and Roman literary traditions. Through study of such authors as Homer, Apollonius, and Virgil, students will learn about the main features and conventions of the genre, its history and evolution, and how the works operated within their respective cultural contexts.

Prerequisite: either CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor.
Course Catalogue

CLAS 211 3:3:0
Greek and Roman Drama
An introduction to the dramatic texts and performances of Greek and Rome. The course prioritizes close readings of representative playwrights such as Euripides, Aristophanes, and Plautus. But there is also discussion of such topics as the conventions of performance and the social contexts of production.
Prerequisite: either CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor.
* Note: This course is cross-listed with THEA 350. Students may receive credit for one of CLAS 211 or THEA 350. *

CLAS 220 3:3:0
Women in Greece and Rome
A survey of the different lives, roles and representations of women in Greece and Rome within the context of changing historical circumstances. The course examines the subject through such categories as myth, class and sexuality and draws on evidence from a wide range of cultural production.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 15 credit hours ***

CLAS 230 3:3:0
Ancient Sport and Spectacle
Explore the sport, physical training, athletic competitions, and spectacles of the Classical world. Topics include the ancient Olympics, gymnasiaums, athletic festivals, chariot races, gladiators, staged hunts & arena games in the Roman empire, sport & spectacle venues.
Prerequisite: either CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor ***

CLAS 260 3:3:0
Greek Language and Literature I
Continuation of the Greek language. Selected readings from the New Testament.
 Prerequisite: CLAS 161 ***

CLAS 261 3:3:0
Greek Language and Literature II
Continuation of classical Greek.
 Prerequisite: CLAS 161 ***

CLAS 280 3:3:0
Cities of Rome and Pompeii
This course examines the cities of Rome and Pompeii as they existed and flourished in the Late Republic and Early Principate. Through lectures, assigned readings, and visits to various sites it aims to explore the topography and architecture of the cities and to analyze their infrastructure and relationships with their environs.
Prerequisite: either CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor ***

CLAS 290 3:3:0
Selected Topics in Classical Studies
A critical examination of some selected topics in Classical Studies.
 Prerequisite: CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of instructor ***

CLAS 290AA 3:3:0
Cities of Rome and Pompeii
This course examines the cities of Rome and Pompeii as they existed and flourished in the Late Republic and Early Principate. Through lectures, assigned readings, and visits to various sites in both cities CLAS 290 aims to provide students with both a thorough knowledge of the topography and architecture of these two important urban centres, and also an understanding of their infrastructure and relationships with their environs.  Prerequisite: CLAS 100, 15 credit hours, or permission of instructor

CLAS 290AB 3:3:0
Ancient & Early Christian Art
This course begins with a review of Greek and Roman art, with a focus on key works and their principles and ideals. It then examines early Christian artistic production, with an emphasis on how craftsmen adopted and transformed the practices of their Classical predecessors.
Prerequisite: CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours or permission of instructor

CLAS 290AC 3:3:0
Ancient Sport & Spectacle
An exploration of sport, physical training, athletic competition, and spectacles in the Classical world. Topics include the ancient Olympics, gymnasiaums, athletic festivals, chariot races, gladiators, staged hunts & arena games in the Roman empire, sport & spectacle venues.
Prerequisite: CLAS 100, or completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of instructor
* Note: CLAS 100 is recommended.*

CLAS 291 3:3:0
Introduction to Classical Archeology
An exploration of the material cultures of pre-classical and classical civilizations of Greece and Rome. Particular attention will be paid to the ways in which archaeological methods contribute to our understanding of the history and culture of these civilizations.
Prerequisite: CLAS 100 or CLAS 200 or permission of Department Head

CLAS 290AA 3:3:0
Honours Paper in Classical Studies
Completion of an honours paper in Classical Studies under the supervision of an appropriate faculty member and approved by the coordinator of the program.

CLAS 290AB 3:3:0
Adv Studies - Class. Archaeology
An advanced exploration of the material cultures of pre-classical and classical civilizations of Greece and Rome. Particular attention will be paid to the ways in which archaeological methods contribute to our understanding of the history and culture of these civilizations.
Prerequisite: Four 200-level courses in classical studies, or permission of Department Head or instructor.

CNUR 100 3:2:4
Practice Education: Community Partnerships
This course will begin the focus on professionalism in a community service learning environment. Learners will have the opportunity to develop beginning skills to participate in, support, and advocate for resident-directed care.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 and CNUR 100, CNUR 102, CNUR 103, CNUR 106, and CNUR 107
* Note: BIOL 111 or KIN 262, CNUR 103, CNUR 106 and CNUR 107 can be taken concurrently*

CNUR 101 3:0:7
Practice Education: Stable Populations
This course will focus on holistic care in long term care setting. Learners will have the opportunity to develop beginning skills to participate in, support, and advocate for resident-directed care.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 and CNUR 100, CNUR 102, CNUR 103, CNUR 106, and CNUR 107
* Note: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 can be taken concurrently.

CNUR 102 3:2:3
Foundations of Care I: A Developing Professional
This course introduces the concepts of safety, health, primary health care, population health and health care systems as the basis for understanding the profession of nursing. Learners will focus on understanding of self, foundations for therapeutic relationships and communication in the context of caring environments and according to professional standards.

CNUR 103 3:3:5
Foundations of Care II: Professional Nursing
This course continues the fundamentals of professional nursing practice. Learners will have the opportunity to acquire knowledge, skills, attitudes and judgment necessary to practice in an interprofessional direct care environment.
Prerequisites: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 and CNUR 102
* Note: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 can be taken concurrently*
CNUR 106
Health and Education Across the Lifespan
This course will focus on concepts of growth and development that pertain to holistic nursing care of individuals throughout the lifespan, with emphasis on the teaching and learning principles applicable to each developmental stage. Learners will have the opportunity to critically examine the learning needs of individuals at varying life stages.

CNUR 107
Introduction to Health Assessment
This course will focus on basic health assessment of healthy individuals. Learners will have the opportunity to develop skills required to perform and document holistic and systematic assessments required for nursing practice.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 with a minimum grade of 60%
Note: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 201
Counselling and Therapeutic Use of Groups
This course will focus on the counselling role of nurses within the therapeutic relationship, individually and in groups. Learners will have the opportunity to develop competencies in promoting self-determination of individuals and groups toward optimum health and well-being.
Prerequisite: CNUR 102

CNUR 202
Pharmacology
This course will focus on the basic concepts related to pharmacology and responsibilities of health care professionals in safe administration of medications. The learners will have the opportunity to develop critical decision making competencies related to pharmacotherapeutics.
Prerequisite: BIOL 111 or KIN 262 with a minimum grade of 60%

CNUR 203
Alterations in Health and Advanced Assessment 1
This course will focus on alterations in health of adults, and the associated nursing care, using selected scenarios. Learners will integrate nursing knowledge and critical thinking and principles of holistic assessment, pathophysiology, pharmacology, microbiology, nutrition and health education.
Prerequisite: CNUR 101, CNUR 107 and BIOL 222
Note: BIOL 222 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 204
Alterations in Health and Advanced Assessment 2
This course will continue the focus on alterations in health of adults, and the associated nursing care, using selected scenarios and research. Learners will integrate nursing knowledge, critical inquiry and principles of holistic assessment, pathophysiology, pharmacology, microbiology, nutrition, and health education.
Prerequisite: CNUR 203

CNUR 205
Practice Education: Acute Care Partnerships 1
This course will focus on holistic care of adults in a variety of acute care settings. Learners will have the opportunity to apply nursing knowledge, informatics, and critical inquiry to inform clinical decision-making.
Prerequisite: CNUR 101, CNUR 202 and CNUR 203
Note: CNUR 202 and CNUR 203 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 206
Practice Education: Acute Care Partnerships 2
This course will continue the focus on holistic care of adults in a variety of acute care settings. Learners will have the opportunity to apply nursing knowledge, informatics, research, and critical inquiry to inform clinical decision-making.
Prerequisite: CNUR 201, CNUR 204 and CNUR 205
Note: CNUR 204 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 207
Integrative Health Care
Learners will explore the variety of healing systems that inform and comprise client care in an interprofessional context. They will critically analyze current complementary and alternative health care options and explore their relationship with conventional therapies in the prevention and treatment of illness and disease and the promotion of health. Methods of coordination of multi-disciplinary and culturally specific health practices in an integrative health care system will be discussed.

CNUR 208
Spirituality and Health
Learners will explore interdisciplinary literature validating the role of spirituality in health promotion. Learners will also explore challenges, opportunities and best practices for offering culturally-safe spiritual care in an ethno-culturally diverse health care environment.

CNUR 209
Nursing Research Methods
This course will focus on foundational substantive knowledge about research, knowledge uptake and utilization of both quantitative and qualitative research. A variety of research methodologies will be discussed. The emphasis will be on research literacy; reading and understanding research based literature and the implications for nursing practice.
Note: Reserved for nursing students

CNUR 210
Selected Topics in Nursing - an AA-ZZ series
A critical examination of selected topics in nursing.

CNUR 210AA
International Nursing Study Tour (Malawi)
This elective course will provide nursing students with the opportunity to learn about the context of nursing from an international perspective. The course involves a study tour of Malawi, to support the development of members' understanding of cross-cultural health and nursing care. Students will participate in a pre-evaluation and post-evaluation activity and an observational experience during the study tour.
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, a minimum UGPA of 75% and permission of the Faculty of Nursing

CNUR 210B
Transitions to Practice I
This course will provide the learner with additional opportunities to integrate theory and practice in an acute care setting in preparation for the role of a beginning registered nurse. The course is taken in a 3 week block.

CNUR 211
Alterations in Health & Assessment 1
This course will introduce holistic assessment and nursing care associated with alterations of health of adults. Learners will take a critical inquiry approach to decisions about practice, integrating learning from other courses.
Prerequisite: BIOL 222
Note: BIOL 222 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 212
Theory & Practice Education: Foundations of Care
This course introduces the provision of holistic care of adults as the basis for understanding the profession of nursing. Learners will develop fundamental nursing skills required to practice in an interprofessional care environment. The practice education component of the course will provide an opportunity for students to demonstrate application of nursing knowledge, informatics, and critical inquiry to inform clinical judgment and decision making in an acute care setting.
Prerequisite: CNUR 202 and CNUR 211
Note: CNUR 202 and CNUR 211 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 300
Family Health
This course will focus on nursing care of families within the context of culture, community and society, utilizing a patient-and family-centered care approach. Learners will have opportunities to explore family diversity, to holistically assess diverse families, and to integrate health promotion and interventions in caring for families in practice settings.
Prerequisite: CNUR 204 and CNUR 206

CNUR 301
Leadership and Influencing Change
This course will focus on the study and application of leadership theory pertaining to accomplishing goals and attaining greater levels of achievement in all domains of nursing practice. Learners will have the opportunity to explore principles of effective nursing leadership and management in formal and informal nursing roles. Consists of mixed delivery format, including online.
Prerequisite: CNUR 204 and CNUR 206
Course Catalogue

CNUR 302 6:4-16
Theory & Practice Education: Child and Adolescent Partnerships
This course will focus on alterations in the health of children and adolescents within the context of family. Learners will have the opportunity to explore and apply theory of developmental stages, primary health care principles, advanced assessment skills, and provide holistic care to children in the varying levels of intervention (health promotion, restoration, rehabilitation and support), while integrating nursing knowledge and critical thinking, pathophysiology, pharmacology, microbiology, nutrition, counselling and health education. This course is taken in a six week block.
Note: CNUR 300 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 303 6:4-16
Theory & Practice Education: Family and Newborn Partnerships
This course will focus on the health of child-bearing mothers and infants within diverse family contexts. Learners will have the opportunity to explore and apply primary health care principles, advanced assessment skills, and provide holistic care to infants, mothers and family members in the phases of pregnancy, birth, postpartum, and post partum experiences. There will be opportunities to collaborate within multidisciplinary and interprofessional teams in a variety of settings using the varying levels of intervention (health promotion, restoration, rehabilitation and support) while integrating nursing knowledge and critical thinking, pathophysiology, pharmacology, microbiology, nutrition, counselling and health education. This course is taken in a six week block.
Note: CNUR 300 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 304 6:4-21
Theory & Practice Education: Mental Health and Addictions Partnerships
This course will focus on complex alterations in mental health and addictions across the lifespan. Learners will have the opportunity to explore and apply primary health care principles, advanced assessment skills, and provide holistic care across the lifespan in the varying levels of intervention (health promotion, restoration, rehabilitation and support) while integrating nursing knowledge and critical thinking, pathophysiology, pharmacology, microbiology, nutrition, counselling and health education. This course is taken in a six week block.
Prerequisite: CNUR 206 and CNUR 300
Note: CNUR 300 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 400 3:3-0
Social, Political and Economic Perspectives in Nursing
This course will focus on the roles, competencies and issues within the nursing profession within the context of the health care system and the larger society as they relate to national, provincial, and global health. Learners will have the opportunity to further explore the social determinants of health and the legal, ethical and political issues and policies that impact health.
Prerequisite: INHS 100, CNUR 204 and CNUR 206
Note: INHS 100 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 401 6:2-14
Theory & Practice Education: Population Health & Community Partnerships
This course will focus on community and population health. Learners will have the opportunity to explore nursing roles, nursing theory and develop competencies required for community health nursing practice.
Prerequisites: CNUR 302, CNUR 303, CNUR 304 and CNUR 305

Health Promotion with Older Adults and Rural & Remote Populations
This course will continue to focus on alterations in health of older adults, and examine health promotion and nursing roles in rural and remote communities. Learners will have the opportunity to develop a deeper understanding of gerontology, and the key issues related to applying the principles of primary health care and interprofessional practice in rural and remote populations.
Prerequisite: CNUR 300 and CNUR 401
Note: CNUR 401 can be taken concurrently

CNUR 403 6:0-36
Focused Practice
This course will provide opportunities for the learners to integrate theory and practice in a focused practice setting with an emphasis on evidence-informed practice and leadership, in preparation for assuming the role of a registered nurse. This course is taken in a six week block.
Prerequisite: Must have completed 108 credit hours of the nursing program with a minimum 65% average in required CNUR courses and a minimum 65% PGPA

CNUR 404 6:0-36
Transition to Practice
This course will provide opportunities for learners to integrate theory and practice in an acute care setting with an emphasis on evidence-informed practice and leadership, in preparation for assuming the role of a registered nurse. This course is taken in a six week block.
Prerequisite: Must have completed 108 credit hours of the nursing program with a minimum 65% average in required CNUR courses and a minimum 65% PGPA to register

CREE

CREE 100 3:3-0
Elementary Cree I
Introduction to Cree: basic oral expression, grammar, and practice with electronic learning materials. No prior knowledge of Cree is assumed.
NOTE: Students with standing in CREE 100 will not receive credit for CREE 104.

CREE 101 3:3-0
Elementary Cree II
A continuation of CREE 100. Further grammar and oral practice in Cree. This course completes preparation for CREE 202.
Prerequisite: CREE 100

CREE 104 3:3-0
Cree Grammar and Orthography I
This course is designed for students who seek grammatical and literary knowledge of Cree. Emphasis is on writing in the standard Roman orthography and on grammatical structures.
Note: Students with standing in CREE 100 will not receive credit for CREE 104.

CREE 105 3:3-0
Cree Grammar and Orthography II
A continuation of CREE 104. Further writing practice, grammar, and an introduction to short compositions.
Prerequisite: CREE 104
Note: Students with standing in CREE 101 will not receive credit for CREE 105.

CREE 150 6:9-3
Cree Immersion I
This course will focus on listening and speaking skills by integrating linguistic functions with cultural knowledge. Students will acquire the level of competence needed to be functional within a relatively narrow range of frequent topic areas.
Note: Students may receive credit for either CREE 150 or CREE 100 and/or CREE 101.

CREE 202 3:3-0
Intermediate Cree I
This course is a continuation and integration of the Cree oral and literacy skills introduced at the 100-level. Intermediate grammatical structures are introduced through oral practice and the study of oral and written literature.
Prerequisite: CREE 101 or CREE 105
CREE 203  3:3-0
Intermediate Cree II
A continuation of CREE 202. Further oral and written practice in Cree. This course completes preparation for all senior CREE courses.
 Prerequisite: CREE 202 ***

CREE 206  3:3-0
Cree Linguistics
Linguistic concepts for the scientific analysis of Cree, with comparison to the closely related Algonquian language Saulteaux. Application to language teaching.
 Prerequisite: CREE 101 or CREE 105 or permission of the Department Head ***

CREE 225  3:3-0
Cree Transcription
This course will reinforce the standard roman orthography for Cree and present ample opportunity to increase one's ability at transcribing spoken Cree from both oral and audio-taped sources.
 Prerequisite: CREE 203 ***

CREE 230  3:0-0
Cree Syllabics
Introduction to the Cree syllabics writing system. Reading and writing in syllabics.
 Prerequisite: CREE 101 or permission of the Department Head ***

CREE 250  6:9-3
Cree Immersion II
This course will bring participants to an intermediate level of proficiency. It will be complemented by examination and usage of grammatical structures, cultural elements, and the study of oral and written literature.
 Prerequisites: CREE 150 or CREE 100 and CREE 101 ***
* Note: This course can be counted as an elective but cannot be used toward the main requirements of degree programs.
* Note: This course will also be available as a non-credit option for those outside the university community.

CREE 305  3:3-0
Expository Writing in Cree
Study and analysis of non-fiction literature in Cree, such as biography, history, politics, news stories, narratives, and technical writing; practice in writing and revision.
 Prerequisite: CREE 203 ***

CREE 325  3:3-0
Translation I: Cree-English
A comparison of Cree and English stylistics with practical exercises in written translation, primarily from Cree to English.
 Prerequisite: CREE 225 ***

CREE 340  3:3-0
Oral Tradition of Cree
Stories and legends on audio and video cassettes will be analyzed and transcribed by students. Storytelling sessions by students and elders. Visiting lecturers will also be included in the course.
 Prerequisite: CREE 203 or permission of the Department Head ***

CREE 390  3:3-0
Selected Topics in Cree
Courses designed as required for senior undergraduate.
 Prerequisite: One 300-level Cree course or permission of the head of the Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Cultures. ***

CREE 405  3:3-0
Creative Writing in Cree
Students will continue to practice writing techniques, compose original material in Cree, and critique published materials as well as each other’s work.
 Prerequisite: CREE 305. ***

CREE 425  3:3-0
Translation II: English-Cree
A comparison of Cree and English stylistics with practical exercises in written translation, primarily from Cree to English.
 Prerequisite: CREE 325 ***

CREE 490  1:3-3-0
Directed Research in Cree - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for senior undergraduates.
 Prerequisite: Three 300-level Cree courses ***
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **

CREE 490AA  3:3-0
Second Language Acquisition: Theory and Application
Language acquisition: theory and practice examines the various theories on language acquisition and asks the students to evaluate the theories based on their, and others’, learning of a second language.
 Prerequisite: Three 300 Level Cree courses & permission of department head ***

CREE 490AB  3:3-0
Advanced Cree Transcription
This course discusses advanced techniques in Cree language transcription and the formatting of text for publication, as well as providing additional transcription practice in both writing systems, SRO and Syllabics.

Computer Science Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.

CS 052  0:0-0
Computer Science Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term #2 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.
 Prerequisite: CS 051 ***

Computer Science Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term #3 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.
 Prerequisite: CS 052 ***

Computer Science Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term #4 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.
 Prerequisite: CS 053 ***

Computer Science Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term #5 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op co-ordinator.
 Prerequisite: CS 054 ***

CS 100  3:3-2
Introduction to Computers
Introduction to the development of computers and computer applications. Topics will include: impact of computers on society, computer organization and operation, construction and representation of algorithms, and applications of computers in the problem-solving process.
Note: This class may not be taken for credit if credit has been received for any course numbered above CS 100

CS 110  3:3-2
Programming and Problem Solving
An introduction to problem-solving techniques, the fundamental concepts of programming, and the software design process. Topics will include: data types, control structures, scope rules, functions, files, and the mechanics of running, testing and debugging. Problems will be drawn from various science disciplines.  Prerequisite: Precalculus 30, Calculus 30, or Math 102 ***
Note: CS majors who have mastered the course material in CS 110 through other means are eligible to write the CS 110 bypass exam.
CS 115  Object-Oriented Design
This course focuses on the concepts of object-oriented programming. Topics include data abstraction, classes, composition and inheritance, subtyping, dynamic binding, polymorphism and dynamic memory management. Other topics include type systems, two-dimensional arrays, records, references, searching and sorting algorithms, language translation. Software engineering: comprehensibility, correctness, efficiency, refactoring. Prerequisite: MATH 110 (may be taken concurrently) plus CS 110 with a minimum grade of 65%

CS 201  Introduction to Digital Systems
Hardware paradigms, logic minimization, sequential and combinational circuits, register transfer notation. Numerical data representation, number bases, floating-point and two-complement representation, representation of non-numeric data, records and arrays. Von Neumann architecture, control units, instruction sets, assembly language programming, addressing modes, subroutines, basic building blocks, computer components. Prerequisite: CS 110

CS 203  Java Programming and Applications
Learn to program in the Java programming language. Topics will include the basic building blocks of procedural programming, object-oriented programming, event-oriented programming, graphical user interfaces, simple data structures including arrays and linked lists, and advanced topic including recursion and threads. Problems will be drawn from various science and engineering disciplines. Prerequisite: CS 115

CS 205  Introduction to Multimedia Systems
Multimedia is the use of computers to integrate texts, graphics, video, animation, and sound in an interactive experience. The course introduces these elements of multimedia and their associated technologies. Students will gain an appreciation of each element and be able to combine them into a finished work. Prerequisite: CS 110
Note: Students may not receive credit for more than one of CS 205, CS 325, CS 390AI, CS 490BM, and FILM 385AB

CS 207  Building Interactive Gadgets
An introduction to building and controlling interactive devices for multimedia art and DIY projects. Build robots, new musical instruments, wearable computers and more. Learn about sensors and actuators: WiFi, Bluetooth, GPS, hardware platforms such as the Arduino; and software platforms such as Processing and MaxMSP. Prerequisite: CS 100 or CS 110 or completion of 30 credit hours.

CS 210  Data Structures and Abstractions
This course introduces data abstraction, data structures and their implementations, the basics of algorithmic analysis, and the fundamental computing algorithms. Topics include stacks, queues, heaps, recursion, Master Theorem, asymptotic notation, computational complexity, empirical performance measurement, recursion based sorting algorithms, hashing, and trees (including binary trees, B-trees, and AVL trees). Prerequisite: CS 115 and MATH 110

CS 215  Web and Database Programming
This course shows how interactive database-driven web applications are designed and implemented. Appropriate protocols and languages for web and database programming will be discussed, with a focus on client-server architectures, interface design, graphics and visualization, event-driven programming, information management, data modeling, and database systems. Prerequisite: CS 210

CS 261  Methods in Numerical Analysis
Topics will include number systems and errors, solutions of polynomial and other nonlinear equations, interpolation, numerical differentiation and integration, and the cubic spline. Prerequisite: CS 110 or 115, MATH 111 and 122
Note: Students will receive credit for only one of CS 261 or MATH 261

CS 270  Management Information Systems
Types, sources and uses of data in organizations. The steps required and the types of equipment available to store and recover data. Analysis of the steps required in the development of a data processing system. Feasibility studies and system analysis techniques. Introduction to data base systems. Management of data processing systems. Prerequisite: CS 100 or 110, and ENGL 100

CS 271  Programming for Business Applications
An introduction to the basic elements of file processing and structured COBOL programming. Modular design of programs and documentation techniques are presented. The student will become familiar with the syntax and logic-structure of COBOL by applying it to a sequence of increasingly complex business applications programs. Prerequisite: CS 110 and 270

CS 280  Risk and Reward in the Information Society

CS 290  Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
Selected topics courses are used to offer courses in topical material. No more than a total of 6 credit hours of CS 290-295 may be credited towards a major in Computer Science.

CS 290AE  Intro to Digital Multimedia
This course will focus on digital graphic and website design students will learn industry standard and motion graphic software packages: Adobe Photoshop & Premiere, Flash MX, Dreamweaver MX. Students will participate in projects using timelines. Projects will require good design concepts and an understanding of multimedia software packages. Prerequisite: CS 100

CS 290AF  Java Programming Language
Introduction to Java (based on an instructor-led Sun course offered in industry). The course covers topics such as arrays, exceptions, GUI interfaces, GUI event handling, Threads, I/O streams and Networking. Prerequisite: CS 210 with a minimum grade of 65%

CS 290AG  Topics in Societal and Ethical Considerations
This course will involve exploration of various considerations of computerized society and what it means to be a professional therein. The student will examine the history of computing, the history of the computing profession, Ethics of professional conduct, intellectual property, and computer crime, among other topics of interest.  Written permission from the Instructor is required to register.

CS 290AH  Online Lab Design and Development
The student will make an independent study of Web-based delivery of labs and tutorials. Project work will be required. The student and supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration.  NOTE: Written permission of instructor required.

CS 290AI  Computer Technology for Live Performance
Exploration of the way computer technology can impact various aspects of the performing arts (specifically live theatre, dance, and concert environments for the performing arts (specifically live theatre, dance, and concert environments) including lighting, sound, props and set design as well as projection mapping, virtual/augmented reality, and interactive performance.
Course Catalogue

CS 290AJ
Interactive Simulation Methods
3:3:0
In this course students will use the Blender 3D modelling suite to develop visually stimulating - yet physically accurate - models in domains such as classical mechanics, chaos theory, and complex systems and bring learning to life in interactive 3D simulations.

Prerequisite: CS 100 or CS 110 or completion of 30 credit hours

CS 290AK
Topics in Data Acquisition and Analysis
3:0:0
Introduce data collection techniques by developing their own sensor modules, running experiments and verifying the results. Students will learn microcontroller programming for data collection as well as regression techniques and error analysis for calibration and verification. Potential modules developed range from simple light sensors to fully functioning geiger counters.

Prerequisite: CS 100 or CS 110 or completion of 30 credit hours

CS 290AL
Introductory Topics in Artificial Intelligence
3:3:0
A course in special topics in which the student makes an independent study in Artificial Intelligence at the second-year level under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.

Permission of the Instructor is required to register

CS 291
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
1-3:3-0
Selected topics courses are used to offer courses in topical material. No more than a total of 6 credit hours of CS 290-295 may be credited towards a major in Computer Science.

CS 292
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
1-3:3-0

Selected topics courses are used to offer courses in topical material. No more than a total of 6 credit hours of CS 290-295 may be credited towards a major in Computer Science.

CS 301
Digital Systems Architecture
3:3:2
Latency and bandwidth, cache memory, virtual memory, data compression, fault handling. Fundamentals of I/O, interrupts, external storage, buses, networks, multimedia support. Multiprocessor and parallel architectures, parallel decomposition, pipelining, shared memory systems, interconnection networks, cache consistency, memory consistency, Computational paradigms, performance evaluation, and effect of proximity.

 Prerequisite: CS 201 ***

CS 310
Discrete Computational Structures
3:3:0
Finite and discrete algebraic structures relating to computers; sets, functions, relations. Machine-oriented logic. Combinatorial problems and algorithms. Finite automata and formal language theory.

 Prerequisite: MATH 110 or 105, 122, 221, and CS 210 ***

"Note: It is recommended that students take STAT 160 or STAT 200 in addition to the prerequisite before attempting CS 310."

CS 315
Introduction to Computer Graphics
3:3:3
Introduction to graphics hardware and software. Two-dimensional graphics rendering algorithms. Basic three-dimensional modeling, transformations, viewing geometry, lighting and shading, hidden surface removal, and texture mapping.

 Prerequisite: CS210 and MATH 122 ***

CS 320
Introduction to Artificial Intelligence
3:3-0

Prerequisite: CS 210, STAT 160 or 200, and MATH 221

"Students cannot receive credit for both CS 320 and ENSE 496AC.*

CS 335
Computer Networks
3:3-0
Network architectures and protocols, networked applications, reliable data delivery, routing and forwarding, local area networks, resource allocation, mobility, reliability through redundancy. Security: secure design, defensive programming, threats and attacks, network security, crypography.

 Prerequisite: CS 210, and STAT 160 or 200 ***

CS 340
Advanced Data Structures and Algorithm Design
3:3-0

CS 372
Software Engineering Methodology
3:3-0
Fundamental principles of designing programs and developing large software systems that meet specifications and that are safe, secure, reliable and maintainable. Software process models, software project management, requirements engineering, software design, software construction, software verification and validation, software tools and environments, software evolution, software reliability.

 Prerequisite: CS 215 ***

Students cannot receive credit for both CS 320 and ENSE 496AC.

Selected topics courses are used to offer courses in topical material. No more than a total of 6 credit hours of CS 390-395 may be credited towards a major in Computer Science.

CS 401
3-3-0
Advanced Digital Systems Architecture
Advances in computer architecture. Topics will be selected from performance enhancements, digital signal processing architectures, architectures for networks and distributed systems, architectures for mobile devices, and recently proposed architectures.
 Prerequisite: CS 301 ***

CS 405
3-3-0
Computer Graphics
Advanced topics in computer graphics, including special modeling techniques for natural phenomenon, advanced illumination models and rendering algorithms.
 Prerequisite: CS 315 ***

CS 408
3-3-0
Animation Software Design
This course teaches the design and implementation of software for creating animations. Topics include history of animation, technical background, motion control, keyframe-based animation, kinematics, physically based animation, fluid animation, modelling and animating human figures, facial animation, modelling behaviour, and special models for animation.
 Prerequisite: One of CS 315, CS 320, CS 330, or CS 340

CS 409
3-3-0
Interactive Entertainment Software
This course teaches the design and implementation of interactive entertainment software, including computer games. Topics include history of interactive software, social factors, principles of interactive entertainment, hardware platforms, current software development tools, game design, game architecture, game physics, collision detection, game graphics, artificial intelligence for games, audio, game production and business aspects.
Prerequisite: One of CS 315, CS 320, CS 330, or CS 340.

3-3-0
Introduction to Compiler Design
 Prerequisite: CS 310 and 340 ***

3-3-0
Computability and Formal Languages
 Prerequisite: CS 310 ***
Course Catalogue

CS 412
Algorithm Analysis
 Prerequisite: CS 310 and 340 ***

CS 421
Advanced Artificial Intelligence
Advanced Artificial Intelligence approaches to approximate reasoning and machine learning. Decision trees and other selected data-based knowledge models. Topics may include logic programming and PROLOG, LISP, Artificial Intelligence in games, data mining, natural language processing, pattern recognition, and planning.
 Prerequisite: CS 310, 320, and 340 ***

CS 425
Image Processing
Introduction to image processing systems. Image transformation. Image enhancement. Image coding and compression. Feature extraction and image segmentation.
 Prerequisite: CS 340, MATH 111 and 122 ***

CS 427
Introduction to Computer Audio
The purpose of this course is to provide a broad overview of many areas of computer audio, including: Digital representation and compression; Psychoacoustics; Surround Sound; Speech recognition and Music Information Retrieval; MIDI and New interfaces for music; and video game sound. We will also explore modular interactive software environments such as Max/MSP and PD.
Prerequisite: CS 315, or CS 320, or CS 340
Note: Students may not receive credit for more than one of CS 327, CS 427, and CS 490BX

CS 428
Human Computer Communications
This course stresses the importance of good interfaces and the relationship of user interface design to human-computer interaction. Other topics include: interface quality and methods of evaluation; interface design examples; dimensions of interface variability; dialogue genre; dialogue tools and techniques; user-centered design and task analysis; prototyping and the iterative design cycle; user interface implementation; prototyping tools and environments; I/O devices; basic computer graphics; color and sound.
 Prerequisite: CS 315, or CS 320, or CS 340
Note: Students may not receive credit for more than one of CS 305 and CS 428

CS 430
Advanced Topics in Operating Systems
Advanced operating system concepts. Topics include or more of the following: distributed systems, real-time operating systems, intelligent networks, communications protocols, and database process control within a client-server framework.
 Prerequisite: CS 330 ***

CS 435
Cryptography and Network Security
Classical cryptosystems, data encryption standards, advanced encryption algorithms, public key cryptosystems, digital signatures, IP security, and web security.
 Prerequisite: CS 335 ***

CS 437
Information Visualization
Focuses on design, development, and study of interactive visualization techniques for the analysis, exploration, and explanation of abstract information. Topics covered: principles of visual perception, information data types, visual encodings of data, representations of relationships, interaction methods, and evaluation techniques.
Prerequisite: CS 215 and one of CS 205 or CS 315

CS 455
Mobile Computing
Mobile Computing focuses on the design and implementation of software in a networked mobile environment. The primary topics to be covered in the course include software development practices, network computing, graphics programming, and human-computer interaction, all focused on the challenges and opportunities afforded by modern mobile computing devices.
Prerequisite: CS 340 and one of CS 205, CS 315, or CS 335

CS 458
Virtual and Augmented Reality
Design and implementation of software in virtual and augmented reality environments. Development practices, assets and avatars, interaction, locomotion, psychological effects, audio, multiplayer considerations, applications. Limitations and future developments.
Prerequisite: CS 340

CS 461
Advanced Topics in Numerical Analysis
Prerequisite: CS 361 or MATH 361 with a grade of at least 60%

CS 473
Management Support Systems
Strategic and tactical rewards resulting from the effective use of corporate information systems will be presented. Topics include techniques and tools for developing management support systems. Case studies on development and use of the systems will be discussed.
Prerequisite: CS 372

CS 475
Advanced Topics in Database Systems
Advanced database systems concepts. Topics include one or more of the following: in-depth study of topics covered in CS 375; inclusion dependency and semantic data models; object-oriented databases; probabilistic databases; Web databases; data mining.
Prerequisites: CS 375

CS 476
Software Development Project
Software development projects following all the phases of the software process. Project planning and scheduling. Surveys on architectural styles, design patterns and components. Semester-long group projects with real-world applications. Projects will be integrative, require evaluation of potential solutions, and require work on a larger scale than typical course projects.
Prerequisite: CS 372

CS 490
Selected Topics/Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student completes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval prior to registration. **

CS 490AB
User Interfaces for Databases
A course in special topics in which the student makes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration. **

CS 490AD
Parallel Computer Architecture
A course in special topics in which the student makes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration. **
CS 490AJ 3:3-0
User Inter Constru VisualBasic
A course in special topics in which the student makes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department. The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration. **

CS 490AL 3:3-0
Special Topics: Computer Graph
Special topics in computer graphics: 3D viewing transformation and perspective projection, ray-tracing and radiosity rendering techniques, multiresolution surface models, special advanced modelling techniques.

CS 490AP 3:3-0
Emerging User Interface Design
Discover new and emerging principles of UI design. Derive guidelines directly applicable to industrial applications from research in the fields of Psychology, HCI, and Software Engineering Methodologies.

CS 490AT 3:0-0
Adv. Obj. Oriented Prog.in C++
The student will investigate topics related to object oriented programming in C++ and will implement a class hierarchy for several data structures and algorithms. As well, the student will develop several demonstration applications to illustrate the use of the class hierarchy.

CS 490AV 3:0-0
Topics in Data Comm & Network
Topics in Data Communications and Networks: Protocol Concepts, Local Area Networking, Wide Area Networking, Network Programming. Prerequisite: CS 335

CS 490AY 3:3-0
Designing Animation With Flash
Learning the basics of multimedia animation design. Learning how to use Macromedia's Flash software.

CS 490BF 3:3-0
Soc. &Eth. Impl. of Computing
To study the social and ethical implications of computing and telecommunications. Topics include computerization, quality of life, unemployment, personal privacy and freedom.

CS 490BH 3:3-0
Natural Language Processing
Natural Language Processing: Principles of Natural Language Processing, Grammars Language Formalisms, Delcarative Cause Grammars, Project.

CS 490BK 3:0-0
Server-side web applications
Students will study the concepts and competing technologies involved in web-based application development and will use JSP, servlets, HTTP, and JDBC in the development of their own server-side applications. Prerequisite: CS 215

CS 490BO 3:3-0
Advanced Database Design
Review database schema design using FDs. Examine various methods of using MVDs to design acyclic databases. Investigate why these methods fail when using EMVDs. Examine the use of semanttic models in database schema design.

CS 490BQ 3:3-0
Computer Game Programming
Principles of Computer Games. History, Simulation and Modelling, graphics, artificial intelligence, real-time processing, game theory, and web based games. Project.

CS 490BS 3:3-0
Applied Image Processing
Study of basic image processing algorithms. Applications of selected techniques to practical problems. A term project is required.  Written permission of instructor is required to register. **

CS 490BW 3:3-0
Bayesian Networks

CS 490BX 3:3-0
Computer Audio Topics
Representation of audio, compression, spatialization and surround sound, analysis and synthesis, speech, music, temporal and spectral processing.  Written permission of instructor required to register. **

CS 490BY 3:3-0
Principles and Techniques of Augmented Reality and Virtual Reality
In this directed readings course, the goal will be to design Augmented Reality (AR) application in Unity. The main contribution to the project will be the creation of realistic holograms and the incorporation of objectrecognition using libraries such as OpenCV. Feedback from the users will be an important part in the designing process of the app, as it will influence the decisions made about UI design and the features to be implemented. The app will be tested on a Microsoft HoloLens using its Mixed Reality Toolkit for Unity, or on other devices capable of doing AR if they are found to be more suitable for the users. "Note: Permission of the instructor required to register."

CS 490CA 3:3-0
Constraint Processing
Search Techniques. Constraint Satisfaction. Constraint Logic Programming. Constraint Solvers. Applications.  Prerequisite: CS 340 with a min. grade of 70% ***

CS 490CD 3:3-0
Robot Motion Planning
Configuration Space, Cell Decomposition Methods, Roadmap Methods, Manipulation Planning, Multiple Robots, Moving Objects. Non holonomic Constraints, Planning with Uncertainty.  Prerequisite: CS 340 with a minimum grade of 75% ***

CS 490CE 3:3-0
Intro to Rough Set Theory
Classification of knowledge; set approximations; reduction of knowledge; knowledge representation; applications; probabilistics approaches to rough sets.

CS 490CF 3:3-0
Implementing Probabilistic Expert Systems
This course examines the effects on computational efficiency in practice by implementing various techniques for constructing probability distributions in probabilistic expert systems. Topics include Bayesian networks, join tree propagation, and direct computation techniques.  Written permission of the Instructor is required to register. **

CS 490CG 3:3-0
Game Theory
The study of the fundamental concepts and applications of game theory.

CS 490CH 3:3-0
Topics in Rough Sets
The course explores selected topics related to the theory and applications of rough sets. In particular, methods of decision table analysis and rule computation will be explored in the context of machine learning and data mining applications.

CS 490CI 3:3-0
Robot Motion Planning
Configuration space, Cell Decomposition Methods, Roadmap Methods, Manipulation Planning, Multiple Robots, Moving Objects, Non holonomic Constraints, Planning with Uncertainty.

CS 490CJ 3:3-0
Electronic Commerce and Web Applications
This course investigates fundamental and research topics on electronic commerce and Web applications.

CS 490CK 3:3-0
Web Personalization
Investigation on Web personalization, particularly on elearning. Using rough set to study Student Modelling. Develop a prototype system to test and evaluate the model.

2019-2020 University of Regina
Undergraduate Course Catalogue
CS 491AA
Scientific Visualization
A course in special topics in which the student makes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.  The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration. **

CS 491AI
Adv Human Computer Interaction
The student will design a survey and conduct an experiment that involves people testing a website and a prototype software package made for an augmented reality device in Unity. There are two target demographics to design for: elderly people who are cognitively impaired and their caregivers.

CS 491AL
Operating Systems Programming
Study of the UNIX operating system. Topics include virtual memory, threads, context switches, kernels, interrupts, system calls, interprocess communication, coordination, and the interaction between software and hardware. Assignments involve advanced programming in C and x86 assembly to implement enhancements to a small, but fully functional UNIX-like operating system.
Prerequisite: A background in operating systems and computer system architecture comparable to the senior undergraduate level
Permission of the instructor to register

CS 492
Selected Topics/Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student completes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval prior to registration. **

CS 493
Selected Topics/Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student completes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval prior to registration. **

CS 494
Selected Topics/Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student completes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval prior to registration. **

CS 495
Selected Topics/Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student completes an independent study in computer science under the supervision of a faculty member in the department.
 The student and the supervisor must present a detailed outline of the proposed study to the head of the department for approval before registration. **

CS 497
Digital Media Project
To be taken in the final semester of the Digital Content Development program. An individual digital content development project will be completed under the direction of a faculty member.
Written approval of Department Head (or designate) is required to register.

CS 498
Honours Oral
All honours computer science students are required to register for this course in the semester in which they plan to do their oral examination. The course will be graded C (credit) or N (no credit).

CS 499
Honours Seminar
This course is to be taken by all honours computer science students in both semesters of their fourth year. The student is required to attend all seminars and, in addition, to present a topic that will be determined in consultation with a faculty member in Computer Science.

3:3-0
This course investigates the creative use of technology. It explores how computer hardware and software, machinery and gadgets and devices, and networks (including social networks) are used in the production of works of visual art, music, theatre, film and new media; and how creativity shapes new technologies. No prerequisite.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

| CTCH 111 | Creative Technologies Processes |
3:3-0
Creative Technologies Processes
This course investigates the creative uses of technologies and how various technologies are used in the production of visual arts, film, music, theatre and new media and how creativity shapes new technologies. Will include hands on activities
Note: Creative Technologies Core Course.

| CTCH 200 | Selected Topics in Creative Technologies |
0:6-6-6
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

| CTCH 201 | Introduction to Sound Art |
3:2-2
Introduction to Sound Art
This course introduces the artistic practice of sound art. It covers a range of sound art practices including avant-garde sound, Musique Concrète, sound and 1960s art movements, electroacoustic music, sound sculpture, radio art, Acoustic Ecology, community-engaged sound art, sound art in performance, and new media. Includes practical exercises.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

| CTCH 202 | Improvising with Interactive Media |
0:3-2-2
Improvising with Interactive Media
This class critically examines modern mobile devices including phones and tablets, and their creative applications. Students will explore improvised sound and music, performance, projection, and the development of interactive media, and work towards a concert to showcase their work. Music students, computer science students and those interested in experimental performance are encouraged to enroll.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 15 credit hours, or permission of the instructor
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

| CTCH 203 | Introduction to Media and Communication |
3:3-3
Introduction to Media and Communication
Key topics in media and communication such as: theories of media and communication; technology as social practice; digital and interactive media; television and advertising; global media; online media; surveillance; alternative and tactical media; perceptual media.
Note: Students may not receive credit for FA 269AC and CTCH 203
Note: Creative Technologies Core Course

| CTCH 204 | Introduction to Creative Coding |
3:3-0
Introduction to Creative Coding
This course introduces core creative coding methods and strategies for computational art.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 15 hours, or permission of the instructor
Note: Creative Technologies program option.
CTCH 205
Hip Hop Cultures, Politics, Identities
3:3:0
This course is an exploration of local and global hip hop cultures, politics and identities. Students will be expected to engage in both critical analysis and hip hop cultural production.
Note: Students cannot receive credit for CTCH 200AC and CTCH 205.
Note: Creative Technologies program option.

CTCH 206
The Electronic Voice: Beatbox, Looping, Vocal Fx and Soundscapes
3:0:0
This course explores the endless possibilities of the human voice in combination with technology and covers modules in song construction, beatboxing, looping, improvisation, vocal FX and live performance using various electronic equipment.
This course is ideal for students with vocal interest, comfortable with solo singing.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 206 and CTCH 200AE.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 210
Selected Topics in Creative Technologies
1.5-6:6-6
New studio course to be developed to allow for specialized topics/subjects as required for groups of undergraduates students.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

CTCH 210AB
3D Animation: Art, Social Media
3:3-0
An online real-time interactive software intensive course that addresses digital art, design, DE animation and modeling.

CTCH 210AC
Popular Music Performance and Politics in North America Post-World War II
3:0:0
In this course we will explore the diverse popular musics that have dominated popular culture since the mid-1950s, including Country, Blues, Rock ‘n’ Roll, Soul, Motown, Heavy Metal, Disco, Hip-Hop, Rap, and Pop, among others. No previous background in music performance or musicology is required.

CTCH 211
Digital Studio Tools
0:3:3-3
This studio course explores the creative opportunities available when working digitally in the areas of fine art, illustration and graphic design. Throughout this course students will work towards the production of a portfolio of digital works that will include digital painting, digital collage, vector illustrations, typography, layout design and photographic manipulations. Modules will include introductory and intermediate skills in Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, and Adobe InDesign as well as learning how to incorporate scanned artwork or photography into works for both print and screen.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 210AA and CTCH 211
Note: Creative Technologies program option.

CTCH 212
Audio Tools
3:0:0
A basic course including practical guidance in the setup and use of audio and electronic equipment, and in learning to write and perform music using commercial, open-source and DIY audio tools with the computer. Designed to be useful to students regardless of literacy in music reading and notation, this course welcomes students of varied experience and background in music, creative sound and computers.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours or permission of instructor
Note: Creative Technologies program option.

CTCH 213
Branding, Advertising and Design
3:0:0
This course explores design practices for branding and advertising as they are developed in a professional environment. Through experiential learning process, lectures, case studies, and studio projects, students will gain practical and theoretical knowledge to create and understand the visual language underpinning brand identities and advertising campaigns.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 213 and CTCH 200AG.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 214
Visual Communication for the WEB
3:3-0
This course focuses on skills, experience, and critical thinking related to the production of online-related experiences. While investigating case studies and visual communication principles, students will engage with projects including display/mobile advertising, as well as the design of a website.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 214 and CTCH 200AK.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 215
Visual Identity Design
3:3-0
Visual identity is key to make a difference. In this course you will design visual communication for business and non-profit organizations. Through a combination of projects, you will design and publish documents for internal and external publics, connecting with your audience through print and web media products.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 215 and CTCH 200AL.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 220
Selected Topics in Creative Technologies
3:3-0
New lecture course to be developed to allow for specialized topics/subjects as required for groups of undergraduates students.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

CTCH 250
Global Exploration in Creative Technologies
3:6:0-0
Students will critically and experientially engage with creative technologies in global locations.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 250 and CTCH 200AF.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 251
Global Exploration in Creative Technologies -2
3:6-6:0
Students will critically and experientially engage with creative technologies in global locations.
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of CTCH 251 and CTCH 200AH.
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option.

CTCH 300
Selected Topics in Creative Technologies
3:6-6:6
New course to be developed to allow for specialized topics/subjects as required for groups of senior undergraduates. Conceivably could be cross-listed with either CS or FA if required.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 30 credit hours or permission of instructor
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option

CTCH 301
Play: Interactions in New Media
3:3-0
Play is a hands-on studio course exploring participation and interaction in new media art practice. Students will build projects in the areas of interactive installation, data visualization and public intervention.
Prerequisite: CS 207 or CTCH 202 or CTCH 204 or permission of instructor
Note: Creative Technologies Core Course

CTCH 302
Wearables: Art and Body Tech

ECS
Education Core Studies

ECS 101
Education for Justice: Knowledge, Schooling and Society
The course provides an introduction to the foundations of teaching, including politics of education, ethical relationality, teacher identity and professionalism, conceptions of learners and learning, and teaching for justice, equality and equity.
Note: Required classroom based placement of one half day per week for 8 weeks.

ECS 102
Education for Justice: Self and Other
With a vision for social change and moving towards truth and reconciliation, students will examine issues related to eco-justice, multilingualism, racism, sexism, heteronormativity, and ableism in ways that challenge how they have come to view the world and better equip them, as future educators, to help children and youth engage with the precarity and complexity of our shared lives.

ECS 200
Constructions of the Student, the Learner and the School
The child, adolescent, adult, student, learner and school are all social constructions: beliefs about people and public institutions which have varied through history, and which are still influenced by a range of theories and perspectives. This course critically examines those constructions over time.
Note: Normally taken after ECS 100 and ECS 110.

ECS 203

This course is intended to establish both a theoretical base for students to work from and the beginnings of understanding how theory and practice in teaching are linked. As such, this course introduces students to 'big ideas' in curriculum theory, walking through these ideas both philosophically and in historical context. While taking up these ideas, students will also have opportunity to see how these theories might be embodied in classroom practices.

ECS 301

Pedagogy: Theory and Practices – Pre-K to Grade 8 (Elementary and Middle Years)

In this course, pre-service teachers discuss, plan and implement a variety of learning experiences for students. They investigate the complexities of teaching, learning and assessment from different perspectives; deconstruct normalcy and diversity; examine SchoolPLUS and the legal and institutional aspects of education, and use instructional technologies.

Prerequisites: Acceptance into the Elementary Program pre-internship

Note: In order to pass ECS 301 a student must also pass EFLD 310 for Pre-K-5 students and EFLD 317 for Middle Years students

ECS 303

This course is intended to develop teacher candidates understanding of learners, learning, and teaching by drawing on various theoretical understandings of education for social and ecological justice. This course makes explicit the philosophical underpinnings of pedagogy, and the link between curriculum theory and practice.

Note: Required classroom based placement of one day per week for 8 weeks.

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of ECS 303, or ECS 300 and EFLD 310, or ECS 311 and EFLD 317.

ECS 310

Interprofessional Experiences in Teaching (Secondary Program)

This course introduces students to their role in making professional choices about teaching and learning in holistic and integrative ways. Students will continue to critique practices, policies and institutions related to schooling, continue to develop their understanding of the role of law and ethics in education and identify conceptual models and practice skills related to interprofessional collaboration.

Prerequisite: ECS 300

ECS 350

Pedagogy: Theory and Practices II (Secondary Program)

This course continues the work begun in ECS 300. Prospective teachers will confront more complicated and complex issues as they plan, deliver and assess sophisticated instructional strategies in high school classrooms. This course will invoke all they have learned in prior ECS and subject area courses as part of their personal development into competent and socially aware beginning teachers.

Prerequisite: ECS 300

Note: In order to pass ECS 350, a student must also pass the pre-internship field component

Note: Restricted to Bachelor of Education students

ECS 400

Contemporary Perspectives and Challenges in Education

An exploration of current theories and practices in education through critical examination of the beliefs, values and assumptions behind notions of best practice, developmentally appropriate practice and other discourses that influence education. Students will draw upon their own internship experiences to critically (re)form their reflective explorations.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of EFLD 407 or 411.

ECS 401

Critical Perspectives of Assessment

Assessment and evaluation are complex, highly politicized and often divisive issues within and beyond the educational sphere. This course will enable pre-service teachers to explore and critically examine assessment methods/practices and the philosophies and policies, which inform them, reconceptualizing assessment as a transformative pedagogical act.

ECS 450

Community of Practice: Integrating Theory and Practice

This class is designed to augment students' internship experiences. Students will have an opportunity to explore problems of practice as they arise in the field in a collaborative learning community. Topics may include mental health, differentiated instruction, classroom management, and other student-identified areas.

Co-requisite: EFLD 401 or EFLD 406

Note: In order to pass ECS 450 a student must also pass EFLD 401 or EFLD 406
ED Education

ED 215 2:2:8
Integrative Experiences in Elementary Education: Part I
This course provides information and skills related to pertinent issues in field experiences, and guided reflection intended to help students see these experiences in social and cultural context.
 Prerequisite: Admission to elementary pre-internship. ***
 Corequisite: EPS 215 and field experience. ***
* Note: Pass/fail grade. Normally offered in fall only.

ED 225 2:2:8
Integrative Experiences in Elementary Education: Part II
This course follows and builds upon the experience of ED 215, continuing to provide information and skills related to the field experience, and providing more seminar time for guided reflection. The course will allow students to situate critical incidents within their field experiences within a cultural context.
 Prerequisite: Continuing status in elementary pre-internship. ***
 Corequisite: EPS 225 and field experience. ***
* Note: Pass/fail grade. Normally offered in winter only.

ED 350 3:3:5
Integrative Experiences in Secondary Education
This course provides experiences that allow the pre-Intern to integrate theories and approaches to teaching in the secondary school through practical experiences.
Prerequisite: Admission to secondary pre-internship. EPS 350 or EIND 305. Concurrent enrolment is allowed.
* Note: Pass/fail grade. Normally offered in winter only.

EDCS ED Cross Cultural Studies

EDCS 100 3:3-1
Inuit Cultural Studies 100
This course is designed to provide students with the opportunity to develop a better understanding of a variety of items from Inuit material culture to: (1) understand the context surrounding their usage; (2) understand their cultural significance in traditional and contemporary Inuit Society; (3) explore how traditional patterns, construction techniques and usage may have changed over time; and (4) to discuss the importance of these items to cultural identity and explore appropriate means to intergenerational knowledge transfer.

Inuit Cultural Studies 200
This course is designed to give students the opportunity to examine important aspects of traditional Inuit family values, customs and beliefs. Inuit customs, values and beliefs are what ensure social harmony and they are what people avoid and/or survive hardship and conflict. As modern life has changed much of the nomadic camp-life of Inuit, these customs and values are no longer passed to successive generations as they once were. This course will introduce students to research, archival interviews, and northern publications that will begin an exploration into traditional Inuit values, customs, and beliefs.

EDCS 300 3:3-0
An Introduction to Inuit Traditional Stories
This survey course is designed to give students the opportunity to examine and explore Inuit traditional stories. During the course, students will be exposed to several traditional stories and various story themes as well as examine the characteristics and purposes of traditional Inuit stories through (a) detailed study of a representative sample of written work and (b) interviewing/listening to Elders from various regions of Nunavut.

EDRA Drama Education

EDRA 101 3:3-0
Introduction to Drama Education
This course is an introduction to the curriculum theory and practice of group process/contextual drama in the K-12 classroom.
Note: Normally offered in fall only.
EDTC 300
Introduction to Educational Technology and Media
This course examines the use of technology and media in teaching and learning as well as the transformative effects that emerging digital tools/networks have on school and society. The course provides an experiential approach to learning about technology integration while helping students critically reflect on the implications of our digital reality.

Advanced Studies in Educational Technology and Media
This course provides an advanced exploration of technology integration in teaching and learning as well as an in-depth examination of the effects of emerging technologies and media in school and society. Students will engage in critical discussions around technology as it relates to classroom practice in the provincial, national, and global contexts.

EDTA 202
Approaches to Teaching Drama Education
This course involves students in curriculum exploration and development of collective creation as an educational process and a theatrical product. Note: Normally offered in winter only.

EDTA 203
Drama in the Curriculum: I
Curriculum in drama education for prospective teachers. The course will survey existing drama curricula and provide beginning experiences in drama curriculum development for elementary and high schools.

Electrical Circuits
DC circuits, Kirchoff's voltage and current laws, equivalent circuits, introduction to mesh and nodal methods, superposition, maximum power transfer, capacitors, inductors, transient analysis of RL and RC circuits, introduction to AC steady state analysis, introduction to electrical safety in engineering.
Prerequisite: Math 111

ENEL 281
3:3-3
Signals, Circuits, and Systems
The introductory aspects of signals, circuits and systems including: AC circuit analysis, frequency response, resonance, passive and active filters, second order transient analysis, conversion between time domain and frequency domain signals using the Laplace and Fourier Transforms.
Prerequisite: ENEL 217 (concurrent enrolment allowed) and ENEL 280

ENEL 282
3:3-3
Semiconductor Devices
Semiconductor materials and conduction principles. The characteristics of common semiconductor devices, including: PN junction diodes, bipolar and field effect transistors, thyristors and photodiodes. Linear models, circuit analysis and application examples.
 Prerequisite: ENEL 280 ***

ENEL 371
3:3-3
Power and Energy I
Introduction to concepts of power systems including: single and three phase AC power, delta-wye transformations transformers, per-unit system, transmission lines, introduction to synchronous machines, induction motors and safety in electrical systems.
Prerequisite: ENEL 281 and PHYS 201 or Permission of ESE Program Chair.

ENEL 380
3:3-3
Automation and Control
Programmable logic controllers, ladder logic, latches, timers, counters, flow control, and data handling instructions, sensors and actuators, state based design. Open & closed loop systems, mathematical modeling, Laplace transform, block diagrams and signal flow graphs, design and analysis of feedback systems, stability analysis, root locus, PID controllers, frequency domain technique.
Prerequisite: ENIN 233 or ENEL 281 and ENEL 280

3:0-3-3
Analog System Design
Application of electronic components and systems. Topics include load control through active components, operational amplifier applications in amplifier, decision making and filtering applications. Switched mode and linear voltage regulation, power supply components, systems and safety, low frequency amplification. Concepts are presented in a design rich environment.
Prerequisite: ENEL 282 and ENEL 281

3:3-3
Digital Electronics
The introductory aspects of digital electronic circuits, including basic principles of digital systems, logic function and gates, boolean algebra and combinational logic, introduction to VHDL, introduction to FPGAs, combinational logic functions, digital arithmetic and arithmetic circuits, introduction to sequential logic, counters and shift registers, and state machine design.
Prerequisite: ENEL 282

ENEL 387
3:3-3
Microcontroller System Design
Design of microcontroller systems, including interfacing analog and digital circuits, memory and peripheral devices, processor architecture, memory systems, exceptions, interrupt control, and exception programming. Students will build an integrated microcontroller system in their final lab project.

Prerequisite: ENSE 352 and ENEL 384

ENEL 389
Control Systems
This course extends student knowledge of continuous-time domain control systems. Topics include: a detailed examination of system response to various inputs, mechanisms to limit disturbance effects, use of root locus plotting to determine system gains for stability, system design to limit transients (overshoot, rise-time, settling-time), state-space representation of systems, multi-input/multi-output system analysis, state-space based design.

Prerequisite: ENEL 380

ENEL 390
Communication Theory
An introduction to information theory and telecommunication signals and methods. Definition of information, time to frequency relations, application of Fourier series and the Fourier transform, types of modulation, theory of discrete sampling and the Nyquist sampling rate.

Prerequisite: ENEL 281 and MATH 217

ENEL 393
Digital Communications
Error rates, optimum decision levels, statistical decision theory, matched filters, narrowband noise, system performance, optimum binary transmission, M-ary orthogonal signals, Shannon capacity expression, coding for error detection and correction, repeater systems.

Prerequisite: ENEL 390

ENEL 395
Transmission Lines and Antennas
Review of transmission line fundamentals, Smith charts, matching techniques, microstrip transmission lines, plane waves, antenna fundamentals, and RF propagation.

Prerequisite: ENEL 281 and PHYS 201 or Permission of ESE Program Chair

ENEL 400
ESE Project Start-up
The main purpose of this course is to prepare students for their project design course, ENEL 417. Students form design teams. The teams will propose, develop, & present engineering design projects that they will pursue in ENEL 417. In addition, each project group will orally present their proposal to their colleagues. Issues of safety, feasibility, & engineering responsibility, will be considered in this course.

Prerequisite: ENEL 371, ENEL 390, ENEL 380 and ENEL 387 and successful completion of 99 credit hours or permission of ESE Program Chair

Note: This course is for students entering their final year only.

ENEL 417
ESE Design Project
Typically, a functional device or system, incorporating electronic hardware and/or software in a team design, is to be designed, implemented, and tested. A formal written report, a demonstration of the project and an oral presentation of the work are required.

Prerequisite: ENEL 400 and ENEL 387

ENEL 472
Power Systems Fundamentals
Single and three phase machines, induction machine starting and protection circuits, transformer characteristics, fault current determination, per unit system and symmetrical components, industrial and utility protective devices, and introduction to load flow.

Prerequisite: ENEL 371

ENEL 482
Power Systems
Application of concepts to power delivery and industrial use. Topics include power system stability/power quality, power system specification, and analysis/design. Course involves at least one design Project.

Prerequisite: ENEL 472

ENEL 484
Digital Control System Design
This course is an introduction to digital control systems. Topics include: representing digital systems in the s-domain, difference equation representation of discrete-time systems, root locus plotting of discrete-time systems on the z-plane, discrete-time PID control, mapping between continuous-time systems and discrete-time systems, design using transform and state space methods, pure digital design, dead-beat systems.

Prerequisite: ENEL 389

ENEL 487
Embedded and Real-Time Software Systems
Software design practises for resource-constrained targets. Students will design and implement a number of embedded components, culminating by integrating them into a full embedded system involving aspects of feedback control, signal processing, or communications. Topics: Architectures for real-time systems. Fundamentals of real-time operating systems. Software design. Interfacing and communications. Speed, memory, and power performance tradeoffs. Testing. Dependability.

Prerequisite: ENEL 387 and CS 210

ENEL 489
FPGA Design Using VHDL
Introduction to FPGA digital system design. Students will learn a high-level hardware design language (VHDL), the concurrent and sequential statements of VHDL, the principle and practice of combinational circuit design, the principle and practice of sequential circuit design, Finite State Machine, Register Transfer Methodology, the synthesis and implementation of digital design on a FPGA device. Advanced synchronous digital design 3 techniques such as pipelining, parallelism, and caching. Students will develop a design and test it on an FPGA development board.

Prerequisite: ENEL 384

ENEL 492
Design of Computer Networks
Computer network fundamentals, network switching technologies, medium access control protocols, computer networks hierarchical design approaches, routing protocols and their design issues, LAN models and their design, internet technologies, quality of service, network traffic flow control and measurement, network security.

Prerequisite: ENEL 393 and CS 335

ENEL 495
Digital Signal Processing
Representation of signals and systems, Fourier analysis, timefrequency spectrum, sampling and reconstruction of signals, aliasing, linearity and time-invariance, convolution, FIR filters, IIR filters, Z-transform, design and analysis of FIR and IIR filters, spectrum analysis using DFT/FFT, adaptive filters, simulation of DSP concepts using MATLAB/SIMULINK, hardware implementation of DSP applications.

Prerequisite: ENEL 390

ENEL 496
Directed Study in Engineering - an AA-ZZ series.
A course in special topics in which the student may do directed study in engineering under the supervision of a faculty member.

A detailed outline of the proposed study must be approved by the program co-ordinator before registration.

ENEL 496AQ
Power System Fundamentals
Real and reactive power, single and polyphase power fundamentals, Per-Unit systems, L, C & R applied to power systems, transformers, synchronous and induction machines, and supporting circuitry. Protection requirements and devices.

Prerequisite: ENEL 382

ENEL 496AQ
Energy & Power Production Support and Demand Side Management
International work-study course offered in conjunction with SaskPower and PTRC as part of the CUSIP initiative. This course cannot be taken as credit for an undergraduate or graduate degree at the University of Regina.

Prerequisite: Permission of ESE Program Chair

ENEL 496AT
Mobile Communication Systems

2019-2020 University of Regina
Undergraduate Course Catalogue
Overview of the modern trends in mobile communication systems, with emphasis in 4G cellular networks. Cellular technology principles, network architecture nd planning, traffic models, access techniques, resource sharing, spectrum efficiency, and mobility management. Performance evaluation of cellular systems, radio resource management, and discussion of the future of cellular systems.

Prerequisite: ENEL 393

 Prerequisite: ENGV 053 ***
capital projects, sensitivity analysis, balance sheets. Project management concepts, skills, tools and techniques including cost, scope, quality, resources, communication, risk, procurement and stakeholder management.

Prerequisites: STAT 160 or STAT 289 and ECON 201

ENGG 330
Engineering Numerical Methods
Application of numerical methods to engineering problems; topics includes sources and definitions of error, root finding, solutions of linear and non-linear systems of equations, regression, interpolation, numerical integration and differentiation, solution of initial value and boundary value ordinary differential equations. Introduction to finite difference and finite element methods. Applications include solving problems with MATLAB and ANSYS.

Prerequisite: CS 110, MATH 111, MATH 122 and STAT 160 or STAT 289

ENGG 401
Engineering Law and Professionalism
Canadian law and professional engineering legislation topics include: environmental law, tort liability, contracts, tenders, corporations partnerships, patents, industrial design, copyright, trademarks and code of ethics.

Prerequisite: One of ENEL 400, ENEV 400, ENIN 400, ENPE 400, or ENSE 400

ENGG 411
Safety Systems Engineering and Management
Professional engineering responsibility towards safety includes introduction to health and safety programs; workplace incident assessments; risk hazard identification (from various disciplines); risk management fundamentals; engineering-related legislation, regulations, and codes; studies of best practises and safety management. Content involves engineering design, case analysis, development and use various tools.

Prerequisite: STAT 160 or STAT 289 and completion of 75 credit hours

ENGG 495
Directed Study in Engineering - an AA-AZ series
A course in special topics in which the student may do directed study in engineering under the supervision of a faculty member.

Note: A detailed outline of the proposed study and pre/co-requisites must be approved by the program before registration.

ENGL
English

FIRST YEAR COURSES in ENGLISH

Students with no previous University-level credit in English will take ENGL 100. In addition, students in the Faculties of Arts, Science and Media, Art, and Performance, and students who wish to take senior courses in English, must take ENGL 110 (refer also to note 1 following the description of ENGL 110 below).

ENGL 100
Critical Reading and Writing I
This course develops students’ proficiency in critical reading and writing through the study of a wide range of non-literary and literary texts, and the study of composition, with emphasis on connections between modes of reading and writing.

Note: Students who are planning to repeat ENGL 100 should seek academic advising before doing so.

ENGL 110
Critical Reading and Writing II
A study of a special topic in literature, which may include non-literary texts, in conjunction with a continuation of the writing program begun in ENGL 100.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100

* Note 1: Students who have passed former ENGL 100, Literature and Composition (4 credit hours) or former ENGL 120, 130, or 140 may not receive additional credit for ENGL 110.

* Note 2: Every section of ENGL 110 has a different focus. Please consult the Department's Supplementary Calendar or the list of current course offerings on the Departmental website at: http://www.arts.uregina.ca/english.

* Note 3: Students who fail ENGL 110 twice should contact their faculty or their federated college immediately.

ENGL 152
Introduction to Creative Writing
This creative writing course will focus on grammar and syntax basics for writers, and on the skill of reading literature as someone engaged in the craft.

Through the workshop process, the course will help students develop their skills in writing for an audience and editing their work. It may be offered online or face-to-face.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100, or permission of Instructor

ENGL 211
Literature Survey I
A survey of literature in English from the Middle Ages to 1800.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 212
Literature Survey II
A survey of literature in English from 1800 to the present.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 213
Survey of Canadian Literature
A survey of Canadian Literature in English from the pre-twentieth century to the present day.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 214
Survey of Indigenous Canadian Literature
This survey provides students with knowledge of the terms and issues central to an engaged study of Indigenous Canadian literature. Indigenous storytelling traditions are linked with developments in writing in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, focusing on divergences and continuities in the writing. Drama, fiction, and poetry will be considered.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and 9 credit hours

ENGL 221
Poetry
Practice in the analysis of poetry. Through the study of a wide range of poetic genres, this course provides students with a shared vocabulary of literary terms for the critical discussion of formal, stylistic and historical aspects of individual texts and of poetic traditions.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 222
Fiction
Practice in the analysis of fiction. Through the study of a wide range of fictional genres, such as the short story, the novella and the novel, this course provides students with methods and vocabulary for the formal, stylistic, cultural and historical study of both individual texts and traditions of fiction.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 223
Drama
Practice in the analysis of drama. Through the study of dramatic traditions and selected plays (considered both as written texts and as performance), this course provides students with methods and a shared critical vocabulary, to enhance their understanding, enjoyment, and critique of drama as a ritualized mode of cultural experience.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 24 credit hours

ENGL 251
Expository and Persuasive Writing
The theory and practice of expository and persuasive writing. Each student will be expected to write several papers in a variety of modes of writing.

Prerequisite: A combined average of at least 60% in any two English courses numbered 100 or higher, and completion of at least 30 credit hours.

ENGL 252
Creative Writing I
The craft of creative writing, with work in poetry, drama, and prose fiction.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or ENGL 152

ENGL 260
The Structure of Modern English
An introduction to the structure of modern English, with emphasis on speech sounds, sound patterns, word formation, sentence structure, and dialect variation.

ENGL 271
Health Studies and Literature

This course focuses on how knowledge of creativity, and understanding through reading and experiencing literature and culture, can be understood in the context of health studies. Students will learn to better understand how individuals experience, negotiate, and process illness, trauma, loss, dying, aging and suffering.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100

ENGL 275
Literature and Popular Culture

This course focuses on popular culture as manifested in a variety of forms, including mass and social media, music, film, graphic novels, etc. The course aims at exploring the connections between popular culture and literature, and the ways in which popular culture can be analyzed using the tools of literary analysis.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 plus six credit hours

ENGL 276
Literature and Interdisciplinary Contexts

This course engages students in the study of literature in the context of various disciplines (justice, health, psychology, disability studies, science, environmentalism, urban studies, law, etc.). The focus of individual offerings of the course will be determined by the individual instructor in consultation with the Department Head of English.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 plus six credit hours

ENGL 300
Chaucer

A study of some of the major works of Chaucer, including selections from "The Canterbury Tales".

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 301
Shakespeare: Comedies and Romances

A study of five to seven of Shakespeare's comedies and romances.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 302
Shakespeare: Histories and Tragedies

A study of five to seven of Shakespeare's histories and tragedies.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 303
Milton

A study of some of Milton's major works, including "Paradise Lost".

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304
Selected Author - an AA-ZZ series.

Studies of the works of an author to be chosen and announced each semester.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AA
Jane Austen

The novels of Jane Austen.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AC
The Poetry of W.B. Yeats

A study of the poetry of W. B. Yeats.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AH
James Joyce

Irish writer James Joyce was, arguably, the single most influential English-language author of the twentieth century. This course will undertake an intensive study of two of his novels, Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man (1915) and Ulysses (1922).

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AI
William Blake

This course will combine detailed study of selected poetry and prose of William Blake with a study of various critical approaches to that work. It will look at Blake in the context of poststructuralism, contemporary textual theory, and new historicism.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AL
Selected Author: J.K.Rowling

This course treats the Harry Potter series by British author J.K. Rowling from a variety of perspectives. We address significant influences on Rowling's writing, ethical questions raised by the books, the Christian treatment of duty and sacrifice, and the history of the books in the world.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AO
George R.R. Martin

This course will examine George R. R. Martin's unfinished series, A Song of Ice and Fire, adapted for television as Game of Thrones, from a variety of perspectives, including fantasy, adaptation, political philosophy, gender and body theory, and historical contexts. Students are advised to begin reading Martin's series in advance.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 304AP
Comedies of Menace: Pinter

A study of the plays of Harold Pinter. We will study works spanning the career of Nobel Laureate playwright Harold Pinter, master of comedic menace and of the infamous "Pinter Pause."

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 310

Studies of selected texts from North American Indigenous literature, with attention given to historical perspective.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 310AA
Contemp Cdn Aboriginal Fiction

Selected novels and short stories written in English and published by Canadian Aboriginal writers after 1973.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 310AB
American 1st Nation Fiction

Fiction by prominent contemporary American First Nations authors.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 310AC
Residential School Lit

For over 100 years, residential schools were the cornerstone of the Canadian government's policy of assimilation. The last school closed in 1986. Residential schools have had a profound effect on Aboriginal people who attended them and continue to affect Aboriginal people today. This class will study works of Aboriginal literature that use narrative, poetry, and to drama to expose the effects of the school in an effort to heal from them. We will also look briefly at film and visual art.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours

ENGL 310AD
Cultural Conflicts between English Canadians and First Nations Writers
This course examines the opposition between Christian and Aboriginal traditions in English Canadian and First Nations literatures. ENGL 336A0
Reading the Victorian Home
The 20th century scorned the Victorian ideal of the “angel in the house,” but modern critics recognize the importance of the lived experience of domestic life. This course reads the representation and material culture of the Victorian home, through such authors as Hemans, Gaskell, Patmore, Dickens, Oliphant, and Trollope.
Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours.

ENGL 336A1
19th Century: Religion & Literature
Once known as “the age of faith and doubt” and later as a flashpoint for the rise of the scientific understanding and secularization, the 19th century is under scrutiny by critics who no longer take for granted religion’s modern decline. This course examines the robust debates in Victorian culture and literature over religion, modernization, and secularization, as well as the intermecine conflicts in Christianity itself.
Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours.

ENGL 336A2
19th C Political Imagination

Women & Lit in the Middle Ages
A study of the images of women that dominated medieval culture.

ENGL 405AB 3:3-0
Middle English Visionary Lit
Middle English writers cast narratives in the form of personal visions to treat a wide variety of subjects. Using both reader response and narrative theory, the course analyses how these authors construct the fictional audience, as they speak on matters of vital concern.

ENGL 405AC 3:3-0
Medieval/Early Modern Romance
This course explores the construction of masculine gender identity in the literary representations of the institution of chivalry. Focusing on the romance, students will study expressions of chivalric masculinity in martial, social, spiritual, erotic, familial and other contexts, moving from the 12th century texts of Chretien de Troyes to Edmund Spenser's Faerie Queene.
ENGL 415AF
The Body in 17th Century Literature
3:3-0
Using a number of theoretical approaches, we will examine representations of the body and its functions in literary and medical texts from the 17th century. We will consider how these representations reflect cultural values and perpetuate gender, economic, naturalist, and colonialist ideology.
Prerequisite: Engl Honours students only or permission of department head.

ENGL 415AG
Gender and Shrew-Taming Plays
3:3-0
We will explore literary depictions of gender relations and other hierarchies of power by focusing on four shrew-taming plays of the late 16th and 17th centuries: The Taming of A Shrew, The Taming of The Shrew, The Womans Prize, and Saunty the Scot.
 Prerequisites: Must be in the Honours program or permission of the Department Head

ENGL 415AH
Colonialism & Renaissance Lit
3:3-0
We will explore the influence of the 'discovery' of the New World on early modern literature and culture, considering, for example, reactions to new lands, peoples, products (like tobacco), and diseases. We will focus on English texts from the seventeenth century, including traveling writing, religious tracts, poetry, and drama.
 Prerequisite: Must be an English Honours student or have permission of the Department Head

ENGL 420
Studies in Restoration and 18th-Century Literature - an AA-ZZ series.
3:0-3
 Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register. **

ENGL 420AA
Jonathan Swift
3:3-0
The major works of Jonathan Swift.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours of courses and have an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 420AB
She-Tragedy
3:3-0
This course examines the phenomenon of the female scapegoat, who is intended to serve both as a cure and an indictment for society's sexual double standard, in representative male-authored tragic drama of the 17th and 18th centuries, and culminates in an examination of Richardson's novel Clarissa.

ENGL 420AC
18 Century Women's Fiction
3:3-0
This course will examine a selection of fiction written by women between 1668 and 1798 using several theoretical approaches.

ENGL 420AD
Sex/Text Trans Baroc/Augus Lit
3:3-0
This course examines the ways that seventeenth- and eighteenth century writers transgress social, political and religious conventions. The course will focus especially on the way sexual transgression acts as a metaphor for literary transgression.

ENGL 420AE
Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Drama
3:0-3
This course will sample some of the plays written between 1660 and 1700. Although the primary focus of the plays will be on comedy, the selections will include a broad sample of genres, including heroic tragedy, tragedy, experimental farce, and ballad opera.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours with an average of 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 420AF
Melancholy/Madness 18th-Century
3:3-0
This course explores the under-belly of the so-called "Age of Reason" by examining a range of literary and medical representations of melancholy and madness. We will supplement our investigations with a series of critical texts, and topics of discussion will centre around the relationship between 18th-century mental illness and gender, genius, culture, and creativity.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 420AH
18th Century Other Worlds: Women's Writing and Exploration
3:3-0
In this class, advanced English students will enter closely into a study of important trends in 18th century women's writing and into the ways that those authors contribute exploration of new worlds, whether fictional, actual, or through travel and first-hand experience.
Note: This course is intended for ENGL honours students

ENGL 420AP
Eighteenth Century Sexualities
3:3-0
This seminar will explore issues of gender and sexuality in Eighteenth Century culture, including literature, artwork, music, and fashion.

ENGL 420AQ
The Golden Age of Piracy and its Contexts
3:0-0
This course will explore a selection of fiction written by women between 1660 and 1700, generally known as the final phase of the Golden Age of Piracy (roughly 1680 to 1730). During this period, the British government undertook to eradicate pirate activity in the Caribbean, installing Woodes Rogers as governor of The Bahamas, and charging him with waging a “war on piracy” that successfully drove piracy out of North America by 1726. This course will consider the literature about pirates that emerged during this period.

ENGL 425
Studies in Romantic Literature - an AA-ZZ series.
3:0-3
 Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register. **

ENGL 425AB
The Romantic Lyric
3:3-0

ENGL 425AE
Knowing Feeling: Romantic Affects
3:0-0
Romanticism is typically—almost stereotypically—concerned with feeling. What did the Romantics think about the role of feeling? Why and how did feeling become so important? To explore these questions we will read literary, scientific, and philosophical texts in the context of contemporary affect theory. Assessment: seminar, précis, essay, exam
Note: This course is intended for ENGL honours students.

ENGL 425AF
Representations of Judaism from Romanticism to Modernity
3:0-0
Beginning with literary contexts from the Bible, Jewish mythology, and Shakespeare, this course ultimately focuses on British representations of Judaism from the mid 18th to the late 19th century. The aim is to investigate how "Judaism," as imagined by various artists, complicates narratives of historical and national identity in England.
Prerequisites: ENGL 100 & 110.

Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.

ENGL 425AG
Shelley's Monsters: Mary Shelley's Life and Art
3:3-0

Holocaust Literature
This is a course on the study of Holocaust Literature written in English. We will study a range of genres, including memoir, novel, short fiction, poetry, drama, and other media to seek to understand the complexity of Holocaust representation in literature.

 Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register. **

ENGL 435AM 3:0-0
Evelyn Waugh
Literary iconoclast/cultural conservative, ruthless satirist/devout Catholic: Evelyn Waugh seems a contradiction. Yet he is widely hailed, even by those unsympathetic to his values, as one of the great stylists of his century. This course offers a comprehensive measure of Waugh’s diverse achievements over 37 years as a writer.

ENGL 435AN 3:0-0
Modernism & Problem of History
This course examines how the acceleration of contemporary life brought about by new technologies posed for modernists a problem of representation they met with formal innovation, and how history’s morally troubling character spurred the forging of new myths to account for the repeated return of past strife and oppressions.

Note: Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.

Holocaust Lit. & Ethics
This course uses Kant’s ethical and aesthetic theory as a helpful way of understanding how inmates experienced a perversion of normality in Auschwitz-Birkenau. If Kant saw beauty as a means of creating community and the categorical imperative as a unifying mode of ethical action, writers such as Charlotte Delbo and Primo Levi describe experiences that cannot be contained by Kant’s thinking.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and either ENGL 110 or completion of 48 credit hours.

ENGL 440 3:0-3
Studies in Canadian Literature - an AA-ZZ series.

ENGL 445AE 3:3-0
Louise Erdrich & Influences
Louise Erdrich is the most prolific and critically-acclaimed Native American writer. This course examines two fundamental lines of influence—the written and the oral—on Erdrich’s work.

ENGL 445AH 3:3-0
American Poetic Traditions: Whitman and Dickinson
In this course, we will study two powerful voices in American poetry, nineteenth-century poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson. The contrast between them is striking, yet paradoxically their poetry shows many similarities in the bold experimental style and personal subject matter. We will also consider their departure from their predecessors as well as their response to Ralph Waldo Emerson’s “The Poet.”

ENGL 445AJ 3:3-0
Cormac McCarthy
An intensive study of an extraordinary novelist and stylist, tracing his development through five decades and several genres. Beginning with his gothic explorations of the American South, we follow him to the Southwest, and backwards and forwards in time, as he reworks the Western, the thriller, and apocalyptic dystopia.

Prerequisite: ENGL 100 and ENGL 110

Permission of the Department Head is required to register

ENGL 445AK 3:0-0
Emily Dickinson’s Art of Consolation
Emily Dickinson is a poet who pressed at the limits of perception and described in compact, memorable language extremes of both anguish and ecstasy. We will examine how she used her writing and her own acquaintance with pain to reach out consolingly to readers.

Note: This course is intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.
ENGL 455 3:3:0

ENGL 465 3:0:3
 Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register. **

ENGL 465AA 3:0:0
Writing Fixed-Form Poetry
This advanced poetry course involves the study of ways in which contemporary poets innovate, subvert, or reject inherited fixed forms. Students will analytically "frame" and lead one workshop for the creative writers in the class, and will themselves workshop a comprehensive research paper.
Note: This course is intended for ENGL honours students

ENGL 465AB 3:3:0
Writing the Lyric Self
This course is an intensive workshop in the craft and practice of creative writing with detailed instruction in genre-based criticism. Students are invited to consider the contemporary lyric poetic voice in relation to poles of literary impersonality and confession, and in relation to various strategies of music, prose and drama.
 Prerequisite: ENGL 100 & 110 ***
* Note: Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the department head to register *

ENGL 465CA 3:0:0
CW:Writing Fixed-Form Poetry
In this advanced creative writing course, experienced student poets will experiment with traditional poetic forms and study ways in which contemporary poets innovate, subvert or reject fixed form. The course aims to develop students’ reflective relationship to formalism in their personal poetics, even if they choose to write free verse.
Note: This course is intended for ENGL honours students.

ENGL 475 3:0:3
Special Studies in Genre - an AA-ZZ series.
 Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register. **

ENGL 475AC 3:3:0
Augustan Mock Satires
A favourite satiric method of the 'Long' 18th Century was to create burlesque versions of well-known genres, both as a means of literary criticism and as a vehicle for satire of non-literary concerns. Analysis of a wide range of such parodic works will emphasize the close connection between literature and social issues in the years between 1660 and 1800.

ENGL 475AD 3:3:0
Gothic Fiction
This course examines English Gothic fiction - from its beginnings with Radcliffe, through its Romantic, Victorian and Modernist manifestations, to its contemporary forms - as a repository of the cultural and social ideals and anxieties of the periods in which it is written.

ENGL 475AF 3:3:0
Utopian Literature
Study of a number of works significant in the Utopian tradition, with attention to: Historical and cultural contexts; themes such as politics, education, the arts, and gender roles; literary features of the genre; and related issues such as the intentional community and city planning.  Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 475AH 3:3:0
Theory/Practice:GenreCriticism
This course examines and tests the hypothesis that genre is a - if not the - fundamental concept in literary criticism. It will review contemporary adaptation theory, note its links to the practice of the moment, and explore the possibilities of the genre in the light of the recent survey of genre theory. After a brief survey of genre theory from classical times to the 19th century, we study the dominant theories of genre from the early 20th century to the present.

ENGL 475AI 3:3:0
Science Fiction Adaptation
This course examines science fiction novel-to-film adaptations in the light of recent adaptation theory. It begins with classic scientific romances by H.G. Wells and then moves to recent adaptations including 2001: A Space Odyssey (Clarke/Kubrick), Solaris (Lem/Tarkovsky), and Blade Runner (Dick/Scott).

ENGL 475AJ 3:3:0
Advanced Studies in Children's Literature and Theory
This course examines the genre of children's literature, focusing particularly on books targeting 9-12 year-old boys and girls published from 1910 through 1950. It also explores a variety of critical and theoretical approaches: psychoanalytical, genre theory, structuralist and post-structuralist theory, and gender analysis
Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head ***

ENGL 475AK 3:3:0
Ideas of the University
Special Studies in Genre: Ideas of the University - study of literature about, and set in, universities, with focus on issues such as "pure" versus commercial research, the university as a community and the "town gown" relationship.  Prerequisite: As for base class Eng 475, ***

ENGL 475AL 3:3:0
Creative Non-Fiction: The Experimental Memoir
This course is a study of creative non-fiction (the memoir and lyric essay), and how this kind of writing differs from the novel. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

ENGL 475AM 3:0:0
Indigenous Science Fiction and Speculative Storytelling
This course examines the relatively untapped genre of Indigenous Science Fiction and Speculative Storytelling. We will cover nearly all of the available Indigenous science fiction literature from Canada and the U.S.A.
Prerequisites: ENGL 100 & ENGL 110 ***
Note: This course is restricted to ENGL Honours Students.

ENGL 475AN 3:3:0
Special Studies in Genre: Screening the Text: Modes of Fidelity in Film Adaptation+
This is a genre course focusing on the film adaptations of a variety of source texts. It will review contemporary adaptation theory, note its links to the classic problems of literary interpretation, and pursue a critical discourse based on modes of fidelity and infidelity in the text.  Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.

<tr>
<td>ENGL 475AO</td>
<td>Classic and Contemporary Fairy Tales</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course will study a wide selection of fairy tales, both traditional and modern, paying attention to the relationship between the folk and literary traditions, the thematic content of canonical tales and their variants, and the nature of the tales' implied audience.  Prerequisite: Must be in the Honours program or permission of the department head.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 475AU</td>
<td>Fantasy Literature</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This seminar will examine the development of fantasy literature, from its early medieval roots to the work of contemporary writers such as Guy Gavriel Kay. Students will trace connections between the chivalric tradition and contemporary fantasy, while reading critical materials on the genre.  “intended for Honours students. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 475AY</td>
<td>Histories of Childhood</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course examines childhood as a historical concept, a literary representation, and a media phenomenon. We’ll look at experiences of Medieval children, examine Shakespeare’s treatment of adolescence (along with queer/non-traditional adaptations), the development of children’s literature during the 19C, &amp; a variety of children’s/YA texts that engage with ecology and dystopia.  Prerequisites: ENGL 100 &amp; 110.  Note: Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 475AZ</td>
<td>The Making of Modern Fantasy: 1700 - 1950</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course studies the shifts in fantasy literature as both genre and mode from the 18th century, when it emerges as a recognizable genre, to The Lord of the Rings, the keystone text of modern fantasy. It takes up, also, the shifts and changes in the theory of fantasy, from 19th century considerations of the novel and the romance to Todorov, Shippey, Clute, Mendelsohn, and Attebery.  Prerequisites: ENGL 100 &amp; 110  Note: Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 475BA</td>
<td>Mourning and Memorial in North American Literature</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>Focusing primarily on the period post-1950, this course examines how the literary culture of North America responds to literary traditions of mourning and memorializing in a period that poses serious challenges to the efficacy of remembrance. Theoretical and literary works form the focus of the readings.  Note: Intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.  Note: Students may only receive credit for one of ENGL 475BA and ENGL 8155A.</td>

<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AA</td>
<td>Poetics of Culture</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>Aspects of the historical development of culture, centred in works of cultural theory from Matthew Arnold and T.S. Eliot to Raymond Williams and James Clifford. Topics will include the relation of class to culture, ethnographic translation of other cultures, nationalism, gender identity, and the relationship between technology and culture.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AC</td>
<td>Canons Culture Interp Practice</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course looks at the afterlife of certain well-known novels, investigating their modern incarnations as well as shifts in their critical fortunes. We consider the rules and conventions of reproduced texts and what these conventions tell us about interpretive practice.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AD</td>
<td>After Theory:Politics &amp; Theory</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>Theory and practice often become the opposition between theory and politics where theory is reproached for not being sufficiently political. This course looks at the political relevance of efficacy of theory. It examines the reasons for theoretical resistance, and studies the emergence of Cultural Studies.  Prerequisite: Min. of 60 credit hours with min. average of 70%.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AF</td>
<td>“The Age of Poets”*: Philosophy and Poetry in the Twentieth Century</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course examines Heidegger’s proposition that “The thinker says Being. The poet names the holy.” Our focus is on Heidegger and Hölderlin, then turns to Jacques Derrida and Paul Celan. We will conclude with Alain Badiou’s pronouncement that the “Age of Poets,” Heidegger’s “suture” of philosophy to poetry, is over.  Prerequisite: ENGL 100 &amp; 110  “The Age of Poets”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AG</td>
<td>Philosophical Ethics and the Zombies</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>Embodying contemporary anxieties of apocalyptic disaster, zombies summon fundamental ethical questions. This course examines the zombie in literature, film, the graphic novel, and the TV series The Walking Dead through the lens of bioethical theory and philosophers such as Kant, Nietzsche, Jonas, Arendt and Levinas.  Note: Must be an ENGL honours major or permission required.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ENGL 480AH</td>
<td>Rhetoric of Apology in Canada</td>
<td>3:0</td>
<td>This course examines the rhetoric of government apologies in Canada as national mythologies or narratives of forgiving and forgetting government policies that defined, “who belongs and who does not belong to the nation.” We will examine the ideological underpinnings of apologies and attempts at reconciliation through Canadian tragedies.  Prerequisite: ENGL 100 &amp; 110  “intended for Honours or prospective Honours students only. Acts of Faith in Literature
Religious writing possesses a poetic, or literary quality, and literature often thematizes religious issues. This course examines the different ways in which literature gives an experience of what Jacques Derrida calls "religion without religion," an experience of religion without the traditional, Judeo-Christian dogma.

ENGL 485AF
Narrative and Trauma
3:3-0

This course examines texts that use narratives as a response to trauma. These texts focus on particular lives, but also on larger events that have caused cultural trauma: Korean comfort women, Treblinka extermination camp, slavery, and the Holocaust.

ENGL 485AG
Medieval/Renaiss Paleography
3:3-0

This course studies the development of handwriting from Anglo-Saxon times to the seventeenth century. Students will be given lectures on the history of handwriting and will be expected to learn to read, transcribe, and edit sample pages from manuscripts.  Prerequisite: Prospective honours students only. For admission to the course, students must have completed a min. of 60 credit hours and have an average of at least 70% both overall and in ENGL courses.   Must request a permit override from the faculty. **

ENGL 485AI
Arthurian Literature
3:3-0

This course studies the major works of Arthurian-themed literature from the medieval period to the twentieth century. After considering the historical origins of the figure of King Arthur, we study a variety of fictional iterations of the Arthurian court, from Chrétien de Troyes to T.H. White.  Prerequisite: 60 credit hours of courses and an average of at least 70% overall and in English courses. Request for a Permit Override is required. ***

ENGL 485AJ
Literary London
3:3-0

This course examines the historical and contemporary representation of London in a number of literary genres. Students will prepare a conference paper for the July 2007 Literary London conference in the UK. Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 485AK
Advanced Studies in Genre/Creative Writing
3:3-0

This course is an intensive workshop in the craft and practice of creative writing with detailed instruction in genre-based criticism. It aims to elucidate connections between the student's own writing and the literary and critical traditions that they seek to join.  Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours of courses and have an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 485AL
Advanced Creative Writing: Poetry
3:0-3

This course is an intensive workshop in creative writing with detailed instruction in poetry. The main focus of the course is to develop a manuscript of poems examining a central topic.  Prerequisite: A minimum of 60 credit hours and an average of at least 70% overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 485AM
Literature and Ethics
3:3-0

This course will explore the ethical dimensions of literature from several perspectives: the positive effects of reading literary texts the representation of ethical relationships within texts, and the role of authors as ethical actors and public intellectuals within society.  Prerequisite: Intended for Honors or prospective Honors students only. Students who are not English Honors majors require permission of the Department Head to register.

ENGL 485AO
Advanced Creative Writing
3:3-0

This course is an intensive workshop in the craft and practice of creative writing. It will focus on creative non-fiction, short fiction, and poetry. Students will also learn the rudiments of editing as they work with one another's manuscripts.

ENGL 485AQ
Poeotics: Theory and Practice
3:3-0

Starting with Aristotle's Poetics, this class will turn to a variety of twentieth-century authors (John Ashbery, Etty Hillesum, Robert Hass, Rainer Maria Rilke, and Anne Simpson) to examine how these writers have broadened Aristotle's treatments of poetics to include, among other things: ekphrasis, ethics in the face of atrocity, existential experience, and how a poetics might be devised that responds to the cultural changes and political events set in motion during the twentieth century.  Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENGL 485AS
Advanced Studies in Writing Fiction: Writing the Body
3:3-0

This is an advanced creative writing course in the art of fiction. Students will complete instructive exercises as well as a weighty, self-designed project around the broadly inclusive theme of "writing the body." This theme invites consideration of our material lives with an emphasis on the body as a site of knowledge and experience. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.  Prerequisite: ENGL 100 & 110.

ENGL 485AT
Canadian Aboriginal Literature
3:3-0

This course examines what makes Aboriginal literature distinct within the context of Canadian culture and history by exploring a variety of Canadian Aboriginal story telling forms including oral traditions, fiction, drama, and film on a range of topics including post colonialism, relations to the land, spiritual traditions, popular culture, identity, and empowerment.

ENGL 485AV
You Are Here: The Power of Place in Creative Writing
3:3-0

This seminar explores the significance of place and world-building in creative writing. Whether you're describing a fantastic city, or simply one's own room, the imaginative language of place is vital. Through a series of workshops on both fiction and creative non-fiction, this class will converse about the landscape of writing. Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses.

ENGL 485AW
Ekphrasis: Theory & Practice
3:0-0

This class discusses the theory of ekphrasis, examines a series of ekphrastic texts, and gives students practice in ekphrastic writing. The bulk of the class is devoted to student workshops in which their ekphrastic writing - poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, or scholarly analysis - will be analyzed by the class. Intended for Honors or prospective Honours students only. Students who are not English Honours majors require permission of the Department Head to register.

ENGL 485AX
Sensing Place in Great Plains Literature
3:0-0

This course looks to fiction and creative nonfiction about the Great Plains region. Readings by eccentrics, cultural geographers, ethnographers, and philosophers will "ground" us as we explore conceptions of place; how we engage in place-making; and how we might ethically navigate the divide between nonhuman "natural" places and human culture.

ENGL 485CW
CW: Ekphrasis: Theory & Practice
3:3-0

Creative Writing Section This class discusses the theory of ekphrasis, examines a series of ekphrastic texts, and gives students practice in ekphrastic writing. The bulk of the class is devoted to student workshops in which their ekphrastic writing - poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, or scholarly analysis - will be analyzed by the class. Prerequisite: ENGL 100 & 110

ENGL 485CX
CW: Sensing Place in Great Plains Literature
3:3-0

This course looks to fiction and creative nonfiction about the Great Plains region. Readings by eccentrics, cultural geographers, ethnographers, and philosophers will "ground" us as we explore conceptions of place; how we engage in place-making; and how we might ethically navigate the divide between nonhuman "natural" places and human culture.
ENGL 490 3:0-3
Honours Essay I
Work towards an Honours Essay. Students will be expected to submit a draft or preliminary work. As an alternative to a scholarly treatise, the essay may take the form of a creative work with a critical introduction.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 90 credit hours ***
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register **

ENGL 491 3:0-3
Honours Essay II
Completion of an Honours Essay, which will be graded by the supervisor in consultation with another member of the faculty. As an alternative to a scholarly treatise, the essay may take the form of a creative work with a critical introduction.
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **

ENGL 499 3:3-0
Bibliography and Methods of Research
The goal of this course is to teach techniques of literary research, the process of textual transmission, the editing process, and physical composition of books. Students will have the opportunity to research manuscript documents and variants.
 Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, and an average of at least 70% both overall and in English courses. ***

ENHS 101 3:3-0
Health Promotion and Administration
Students will be introduced to the fundamentals of health promotion and will examine health determinants from a variety of perspectives. Health promotion strategies which integrate community development principles, health education models and social marketing will also be explored. Historical and contemporary administrative concepts for public health professionals will be discussed.

ENHS 110 3:3-0
Introduction to Environmental Health
This course offers an overview of environmental health addressing fundamental topics and exploring applications. Core topics include disease agents, environmental epidemiology, toxicology, exposure assessment, risk assessment/management, water and air quality, food safety and environmental health policy and regulation.

ENHS 250 3:3-0
Communicable Disease Control
Public health strategies in the prevention and control of communicable diseases are discussed. Topics covered include medical terminology, disease transmission, surveillance, immunization, infection control measures, emerging pathogens and antibiotic-resistant organisms.

ENHS 310 3:3-3
Food Hygiene and Protection
An introduction to the composition and structure of food. Topics include an overview of human nutrition, comparative nutritional value of foods, additives, contamination, spoilage, and preservation of food, with a focus on foods such as meat, fish, milk, and milk products. The course emphasizes examples from First Nations settings.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 101 and CHEM 104 or enrolled in ENHS After Degree. ***

ENHS 311 3:3-3
Food Hygiene and Protection II
An examination of health protection in the manufacture, preparation, and serving of food in commercial and domestic situations. The course reviews relevant legislation regarding food and food facilities, inspection techniques, hazard analysis, and control strategies. Examples of food handling situations in First Nations settings are provided.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 310 ***

ENHS 320 3:3-0
Community Health and Epidemiology
Introduces the basic principles and methods of epidemiology in environmental health practice including outbreak investigations, the principles and methods of epidemiologic study design, analysis of data and interpretation of results. Examples of communicable and non-communicable disease epidemiology in First Nations are included.
 Prerequisite: STAT 100 and ENHS 250 or enrolled in ENHS After Degree. ***

ENHS 340 3:3-3
Human Impacts on Environments
This course will describe human impact on environments. Topics include air and water quality, climate change, water/wastewater treatment and solid waste management. First Nations examples will be discussed.
 Prerequisite: BIOL 101 and CHEM 104 or enrolled in ENHS After Degree. ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both ENHS 340 and ENEV 223.

ENHS 350 3:3-3
Land-Use Management
A comprehensive study of land use, land reclamation, development, planning, and reviews. Special attention will be given to issues of importance of First Nations communities.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 340 or may be taken concurrently. ***

ENHS 360 3:3-0
Health Risk Assessment
This course provides an understanding of the concepts, principles and methods of analyzing and mitigating the risk of disease or adverse health effects that may be attributed to the natural and built environments. Foundations of health impact assessment as a decision support tool will also be examined.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 350. ***

ENHS 380 3:3-3
Environmental Health Research Project
An introduction to research design and methods including critical appraisal of environmental health and science research. Students will gain an understanding of ethical and practical considerations of conducting research particularly in reference to First Nations. Includes practical experience in research project development and data analysis.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 320 or may be taken concurrently. ***

ENHS 400 3:3-3
Applied Environmental Science and Management
The study of the biological and chemical effects of human activities on the environment, including topics such as environmental pollution, water quality and treatment, water sources and resources, wastewater management and other public health concerns. Where possible, the course emphasizes aspects relevant to First Nations. Note: Students may not receive credit for both ENHS 400 and ENEV 321.

ENHS 401 3:3-0
Water and Wastewater Management
Introduction to the theory and design of water treatment and distribution systems, wells, cisterns, surface water systems, wastewater treatment and the principles of hydrology and hydraulics. Special attention is given to safe water supply designs for First Nations.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 340 or may be taken concurrently. ***

ENHS 420 3:3-0
Environmental Health Law and Ethics
Provides knowledge about the main types of legislation encountered by environmental health personnel including enforcement, evidence collection, appropriate use of regulatory tools, development of prosecution beliefs, and police and courtroom procedures. Special attention is given to the current status of and the development of appropriate health regulations for First Nations.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 110 or may be taken concurrently. ***

ENHS 422 3:3-0
Shelter Environment
Introduction to basic principles of modern shelter and building codes emphasizing plumbing, heating, ventilation, lighting, and chemical and biological hazards associated with dwellings, hospitals, schools, offices, nursing homes, campgrounds, and daycares. Land-use planning and environmental health in emergency situations are reviewed. Issues are placed in a First Nations context.
 Prerequisite: ENHS 350 or may be taken concurrently. ***
ENHS 430 3:3-0
Health Concerns in the Workplace Environment
Health and safety hazards found in the workplace environment are studied with special emphasis placed on common occupational health hazards in First Nations. Explores common workplace hazards, their causes and effects, and prevention measures; reviews risk assessment including probability of failure, hazard analysis, human reliability, and risk-based decision making. Prerequisite: CHEM 140 or enrolled in ENHS After Degree.

ENHS 440 3:3-0
Environmental Toxicology
An introduction to the basic principles of environmental toxicology, the chemistry and source of toxic substances, and the human exposure and dose-response relationships. The methodologies, data sources, uncertainties and procedures for risk assessment are covered. The course emphasizes environmental toxins of concern to First Nations. Prerequisite: ENHS 140 or enrolled in the ENHS After Degree.

ENHS 468 3:3-0
Environmental Health Methodology and Practice I
This course will give students an understanding of how public health inspectors apply knowledge and skills in actual practice. Topics include: recreational water quality, swimming pool operation, emergency preparedness, risk-based inspections and report writing. Equipment, technology and calculations commonly used in public health inspection will be also be explored. Prerequisite: ENHS 420 or may be taken concurrently.

ENHS 470 3:3-3
Environmental Health Methodology & Practice II
This course is a continuation of ENHS 468. Prerequisite: ENHS 468.

ENHS 490 9:9-0
Community-Based Practicum
Students will have the opportunity to apply knowledge and practice skills gained during their core ENHS courses. The practicum placement will be supervised in a professional setting. Students will receive feedback about performances in the field. This course is Pass/Fail. Prerequisites: 10 ENHS courses including ENHS 250, 311, 350, 420, 422 and 470.

Industrial Systems Engineering

ENIN 233 3:3-2
System Dynamics
Lumped parameter linear analysis methods for mechanical, electrical, fluid and thermal systems. Linear differential equations to analyze system response to step and sinusoidal forcing functions. Analogous nature of these systems. Prerequisite: MATH 217 ***

ENIN 241 3:3-3
Mechanics of Deformable Solids
Introductory mechanics of materials, stresses and strains in two dimensions, torsion, indeterminate systems, beams - stresses and deflection, combined stresses, thin shells, columns, and Mohr's circle for stress and strain. Prerequisites: ENGG 240 or ENGG 141 and MATH 111

ENIN 253 3:3-2
Engineering Thermodynamics
Fundamental laws of thermodynamics and their application to various engineering systems. Ideal and actual processes, power and refrigeration cycles. Prerequisite: PHYS 119 ***

ENIN 331 3:3-3
Simulation of Industrial Systems
Engineering approaches to model building and simulation of continuous and discrete systems. Simulation languages. Numerical methods in continuous systems modeling. Case studies in discrete systems simulation. Prerequisite: STAT 160 or STAT 289

ENIN 340 3:3-2
Human Factors Engineering
Anatomical, physiological, and psychological aspects of people in their work environment. Sensory processes and motor function, health, and morale. Social factors, stress, and psychosomatic effects. Work standards, safety, and schedules. Prerequisite: ENIN 233 and ENIN 241

ENIN 343 3:3-3
Manufacturing Processes and Machinery
Manufacturing processes, methods, and related equipment. Foundry, heat treatment, and welding. Operational characteristics of manufacturing and manufacturing support machinery and equipment. Basic structure and properties of metals.  Prerequisite: ENIN 241 ***

ENIN 349 3:3-3
Industrial Machine Design
Machine design problems using analysis and codes. Machines components and meshing components to achieve machine function. Elementary stress analysis of equipment configuration. Tolerances and allowances. Design drawings. Prerequisites: ENIN 241 and ENIN 343

ENIN 350 3:3-2
Chemical Manufacturing Process
Mass and energy balances in chemical process industries. Applications including the petrochemical, pulp and paper, and mining industries. Environmental problems, thermodynamics, stoichiometry, chemical reactions, and computer applications.  Prerequisite: CHEM 104 and ENIN 253 (concurrent enrolment is allowed) ***

ENIN 355 3:3-4
Heat Mass and Momentum Transfer
Differential equations of momentum, heat and mass transfer; dimensional analysis; heat conduction and convection; boiling and condensation; molecular diffusion; convective mass transfer; and, analogies between momentum, heat and mass transfer. Prerequisite: ENEV 261 and ENIN 350

ENIN 370 3:3-3
Introduction to Mechatronics
Introduction to mechatronics; sensors and transducers, signal conditioning, mechanical and electrical actuation systems. Control of DC/servo motors using Pulse Width Modulation; system modeling, dynamic response of systems, closed-loop controllers, microcontrollers, digital logic, and programmable logic controllers. Prerequisite: ENEL 280 and ENEL 380

ENIN 400 1:1-3
ISE Project Start-up
Students form design teams and select a project topic and faculty supervisor. Each team develops a project proposal, which is presented both orally and in written form. Prerequisites: ENIN 453, ENIN 349 (concurrent enrolment allowed) and successful completion of 99 credit hours or permission of the Program Chair

Note: This course is for students entering their final year only.

ENIN 413 3:1-0
ISE Team Design Project and Communications
Student’s team design project is to be completed, written in acceptable report form and presented. Instruction will be given on the preparation and presentation of engineering reports in various audio/visual media. Prerequisite: ENIN 400 (taken within same academic year)

ENIN 430 3:3-2
Systems Management
Approaches to management and optimization through problem identification, formulation, and qualitative and quantitative solutions. Prerequisite: ENIN 331 or completion of at least 66 credit hours or permission of the Program Chair

Computer-Aided Engineering
Computerized design aids, finite element analysis, design verification, simulation and testing. Control fundamentals as applied to numerical control machine systems. Specification, design, implementation and documentation of a design system. Robotics.
Prerequisite: CS 110 and ENIN 349. Concurrent enrolment allowed in ENIN 349.

ENIN 445 3:3-3
Computer Integrated Manufacturing
 Prerequisite: ENIN 343 ***

ENIN 448 3:3-3
Facilities Planning and Design
Approaches to establishing location and layout of space, equipment, and services for industrial facilities. Criteria and data for generating alternatives. Material handling, flow, and balance. Environmental, human, and cost consideration.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 343 ***

ENIN 453 3:3-3
Mechanical Systems Equipment
Design, operation, and application characteristics of service equipment commonly used in manufacturing and process plant operations and facilities. Topics include compressors, pumps, piping systems, valves, hydraulic systems, fans, and heat exchangers.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 253 and ENEV 261 ***

ENIN 455 3:3-2
Energy Systems
Examination of a variety of existing and potential systems involving production, consumption, and environmental impact of chemical, electrical, and mechanical energy. Energy systems. Heat transfer and thermodynamic analysis. Economic analysis.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 253 ***

ENIN 456 3:3-3
Process Unit Operations and Design
Principles and equipment design for momentum, heat, and mass transfer operations in industries such as petrochemical and refining, mining and mineral processing, pulp and paper, and food processing.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 355 ***

ENIN 463 3:3-3
Heating, Ventilating and Air Conditioning Systems
An introduction of heating, ventilating and air conditioning (HVAC) principles, technologies, and applications. Course topics include basic principles of HVAC in buildings, psychometric principle, indoor air quality, heat transmission for buildings, heating & cooling load analysis, space air diffusion, and design & application of HVAC equipment and systems.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 453 (with a minimum of 60%)

ENIN 495 3:6-5-3
Directed Reading in Engineering - an AA-ZZ series
A special topics course in which the student may do directed study in industrial systems engineering under the supervision of a faculty member.
A detailed outline of the proposal study must be approved by the Program Chair before registration.

ENIN 495AB 3:0-3:0
Mechanics and Control of Quadcopters
In this course students will learn about structural design, dynamic modeling, and control of Quadcopters. Basics of Inertial Measurement Units (IMUs) including the gyrosopes, accelerometers, and magnetometers, GPS-based waypoint tracking, and autopilot programming will be covered through lectures and labs. The course includes simulation- and hands-on experimental labs on constructing and controlling a quadcopter.

ENIN 495AC 3:0-0
Human Factors Engineering
The course introduces students to design considerations and evaluation techniques that promote productive interaction between people and computers/machines. Analysis and design of systems considering human characteristics, capabilities and limitations by examining pertinent human physiology and psychology, the structure and operation of machines. Covers interface design, usability testing, basic experimental design, and lifecycle design.

ENIN 495AD 3:3-0
Safety Systems Engineering and Management
Professional engineering responsibility towards safety includes introduction to health and safety programs; workplace incident assessment; risk hazard identification (from various disciplines); risk management fundamentals; engineering-related legislation, regulations, and codes; studies of best practises and safety management. Content involves engineering design, case analysis, development and use various tools.

ENIN 495AG 3:3-3
Industrial Machine Design
A special topics course in which the student may do directed study industrial systems engineering under the supervision of a faculty member.
 Prerequisite: ENIN 241 and ENIN 343
Permission of the instructor is required to register
Students can only receive credit for one of ENIN 349 and ENIN 495AG.

ENPE Petroleum Systems Engineering

ENPE 241 3:3-3
Introduction to Petroleum Engineering
Exposure to various disciplines within petroleum engineering including drilling, production, and reservoir engineering; professionalism and ethics in petroleum engineering.
 Corequisite: GEOL 102 ***

ENPE 251 3:3-2
Reservoir Fluid Properties
Qualitative and quantitative phase behavior of petroleum reservoir fluids through the algebraic and numerical application of thermodynamic theory, equations of state, and empirical correlations; determination of engineering PVT parameters; and, phase behaviour of hydrocarbon systems.
 Prerequisite: MATH 217 (concurrent enrolment allowed) ***

ENPE 300 3:3-3
Fundamentals of Reservoir Engineering
Relationship of geology, basic reservoir properties, surface and interfacial phenomena, and the flow of fluids through porous media; general material balance, steady state, and transient models; classification of petroleum reservoirs, displacement of oil and gas, and reservoir estimation principles.
 Prerequisite: ENPE 241 and 251 ***

ENPE 302 3:3-0
Applied Reservoir Engineering
Analysis and prediction of reservoir performance by use of material balance. Reservoir performance by use of decline curves. Pressure maintenance, oil trapping, capillary number correlations, fluid displacement, fractional flow, displacement efficiency, areal and vertical sweep efficiencies, waterflooding design, and gas injections.
 Prerequisite: ENPE 300 ***

ENPE 340 3:0-0
Rock Mechanics
Stress and strain tensors, rock elasticity, mechanical properties of rocks, effective stress concept, anisotropy, time-dependent effects, constitutive modeling of rocks, failure mechanics, rock properties from laboratory experiments, rock properties from field data.
Prerequisite: ENGG 240 and ENPE 300
ENPE 360 3:3-3
Drilling Engineering
Drilling fluids, rotary drilling, drilling hydraulics, formation pore pressure and fracture resistance, casing design, directional drilling, horizontal drilling and drilling waste disposal. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 and ENEV 261 (concurrent enrollment allowed for both)

ENPE 370 3:3-3
Petroleum Production Operations
Principles of oil and gas production. Artificial lift, inflow performance relationships, introduction to well stimulation, and production system design. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 and ENEV 261 **

ENPE 380 3:3-3
Petroleum Treating Operations
Petroleum treating processes. Multiphase separation equipment design and operations; hydrocyclones, desalination, dehydration, hydration, prevention, emulsion treatment, and viscosity altering processes. Prerequisite: ENIN 355 **

ENPE 400 1:1-0
PSE Project Start-up
Definition of petroleum engineering design problems; identification of project topics, partners, and supervisors; proposal writing for engineering projects; approaches for carrying out the research and design; and, approaches for communicating research and design results. Prerequisite: Completion of all the required 200 and 300 level ENPE courses and successful completion of 99 credit hours

ENPE 410 3:3-3
Enhanced Oil Recovery Methods
Displacement processes for recovering additional hydrocarbons. Waterflooding, gas flooding, solvent flooding, and thermal recovery processes. Development of design techniques. Prerequisite: ENPE 302 **

ENPE 419 3:1-0
PSE Design Project and Communications
Student's team design project is to be completed in an acceptable written and oral report form. Instructions will be given on the preparation and presentation of the engineering report related to the petroleum industry. Prerequisite: ENPE 400 **

ENPE 435 3:3-3
Reservoir Stimulation
Formation damage mechanisms, introduction to reservoir stimulation techniques, matrix acidizing operation design, sandstone acidizing, carbonate acidizing, placement and diversion methods, introduction to rock mechanics, acid fracturing operations, hydraulic fracturing operations, fracture treatment design, treatment analysis and post-treatment evaluation. Prerequisite: ENPE 370

ENPE 440 3:3-3
Well Logging and Formation Evaluation
Fundamentals of well logging for the determination of petrophysical properties in the near bore region, types of well logging devices, and applications of well logs for petroleum system management. Prerequisite: ENPE 241 and ENPE 360 (may be taken concurrently)

ENPE 448 3:0-0
Reservoir Characterization
Review petroleum reservoir geology, geological depositional environments, petrophysical and geostatistical analysis, and reserves estimation based on static and dynamic reservoir information. Emphasis on data analysis and integration for a model suitable for reservoir simulation. Prerequisite: ENPE 440 (may be taken concurrently)

ENPE 450 3:3-3
Well Testing
Basic principles of well testing and interpretation for oil and gas production, pressure transient theory, principles of superposition, and application of well testing to homogeneous and heterogeneous reservoirs. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 and ENPE 360 (may be taken concurrently)

ENPE 470 3:3-0
Reservoir Modelling
Fundamentals of modeling in petroleum engineering. Simulation methods as applied to specific problems in petroleum reservoir behavior; examples will be drawn from primary, secondary, and tertiary recovery phases of petroleum production. Prerequisite: ENPE 410 (concurrent enrollment is allowed) and ENGG 330

ENPE 475 3:3-3
Evaluation of Oil and Gas Properties
General business skills related to the understanding of oil field cash flow projections, rate of return, royalties, taxes and other factors in measuring value creation as it relates to the petroleum industry. Prerequisite: ENPE 302, ENPE 440 and ENGG 303

ENPE 481 3:3-3
Natural Gas Engineering
Determination of gas properties; estimation of reserves, material balance equation, decline curve analysis, and deliverability of individual gas wells. Single and multiphase flow in pipes, gas-condensate reservoirs; design of production facilities, metering, compression, gas storage, transmission and pipeline transportation. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 (concurrent enrollment allowed)

ENPE 486 3:3-3
Heavy Oil Recovery
Thermal Recovery Methods, theory and practice of thermal recovery methods; steam drive, cyclic steam injections, and in situ combustion. Models of combined mass energy transport. Estimates of heated reservoir volume and oil recovery performance. Wellbore heat losses and recovery production. Prerequisite: ENPE 302, 370 and ENIN 355

ENPE 490 3:3-3
Petroleum Waste Management
Prevention and mitigation techniques in pipeline and oil field spills. Downhole disposal of waste fluids, surface disposal of oil field wastes, fire and other hazards, H2S and other toxic gases, and safety standards. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 or ENEV 320 or ENEV 223

ENPE 491 3:0-0
Carbon Capture, Utilization and Geo-sequestration
This course will cover global climate change impacts, sources of greenhouse gas emissions, as well as the benefits and applications of carbon capture technologies for the petroleum industry, sequestration in oil and gas reservoirs and deep saline aquifers. Additionally, CCS policies and regulatory development will be explored. Prerequisite: ENPE 300 and ENIN 355

ENPE 492 3:0-0
Introduction to Petroleum Refinery
In this course students will become familiar with the basic principles of petroleum refinery operations. Composition of crude oils, related laboratory tests and refinery feedstocks and products will be discussed. Evaluation of crude oil properties and design of distillation columns, furnace, thermal and catalytic cracking, catalytic reforming, hydrotreating, hydrocracking, isomerization, alkylation and polymerization will be introduced. Prerequisite: ENIN 355

ENPE 495 3:6-6-3
Directed Study in Engineering - an AA-ZZ series.
A special topics course in which the student may do directed study in petroleum engineering under the supervision of a faculty member. A detailed outline of the proposal study must be approved by the Program Chair before registration.

ENPE 495AA 3:3-0
Enhanced Oil Recovery
A course in special topics in which the student may do directed study in petroleum engineering under the supervision of a faculty member. A detailed outline of the proposed study must be approved by the Program Chair before registration.

ENPE 495AC 3:3-0
Science Without Borders Research Placement
Science Without Borders Research Placement

ENPE 495AD 3:3-0
Rock mechanics
Stress and strain tensors, Rock elasticity, Mechanical properties of rocks, Effective stress concept, Anisotropy, Time-dependent effects, Constitutive modeling of rocks, Failure mechanics, Rock properties from laboratory experiments, Rock properties from field data.
Prerequisite: ENGG 240 and ENPE 300

ENPE 495AE
Fundamentals of Piping Design
3:3-3
An introductory course for piping design and mainly focuses on introducing the necessary fundamental for designing piping systems used in various industries for liquid and gas transportation. Topics will include; Pipe design codes and standards, Mechanical design of piping systems, Stress calculation and analysis, piping system layouts, and pipe inspection methods.
Prerequisite: ENGG 140 and ENGG 141

ENPE 495AF
Piping Materials and Failure
3:3-3
This course mainly focuses on piping materials, the effect of corrosion and erosion in pipes and piping failure. Topics will include: understanding the relationship between material structures and their properties. The fundamentals of heat-treatment and their importance in modifying the material structures and their properties for improving corrosion behaviour in pipes. The application of non-metallic materials, such as polymers, composites and their types will be introduced to align with piping requirements. The piping failure in accordance with various loading conditions will be introduced along with the selection of materials for piping systems.
Prerequisite: ENPE 495AE

ENSE 350
Software Systems Engineering
3:3-3

ENSE 350
Mathematical Programming for Software Engineers
Fundamental concepts of discrete mathematics (definitions, proofs, sets), discrete structures (graphs, state machines, modular arithmetic), algorithmic complexity models, and numerical methods in engineering.
Prerequisite: Math 110, 122 and CS 210

ENSE 352
Fundamentals of Computer Systems Architecture
3:3-3
The course aims at providing the basic understanding of computer architecture. Topics include handheld device architecture, operating systems, component software design, and concurrent processing. Students are introduced to software concepts such as threading, remote procedure calls, multitasking, deadlocks, and concurrency.
Prerequisite: CS 210 and ENEL 384 (concurrent enrollment is allowed)

ENSE 353
Software Design and Architecture
3:3-3
Prerequisites: CS 215

ENSE 374
Software Engineering Management
0:3-3-3
Principles of software engineering: requirements, design and testing. Review of principles of object orientation. Object oriented analysis using UML. Frameworks and APIs. Introduction to the client-server architecture. Analysis, design and programming of simple servers and clients. Introduction to user interface technology.
Prerequisites: CS 210 ***

ENSE 400
Project Start-up
1:1:0
Students are given the opportunity to propose, develop and present engineering design projects which they are expected to further pursue in ENSE 477. Issues of safety, feasibility, and engineering responsibility are discussed. Student form design teams in this class and are expected to write a project plan document, compose a preliminary design document, and present their project to their fellow students.
Prerequisite: ENSE 470 and successful completion of 99 credit hours
Note: This course is for students entering their final year only.

ENSE 470
Software Systems Design
3:3-3
Detailed software design and construction in depth. In-depth coverage of design patterns and refactoring. Introduction to formal approaches to design. Analysis of designs based on internal quality criteria. Performance and maintainability improvement. Reverse engineering. Disciplined approaches to design change.
Prerequisites: ENSE 374

ENSE 471
User Interface Programming
3:3-3
Prerequisites: ENSE 374

ENSE 472
Digital Networks
3:3-3
Introduction to information theory; network architectures and LAN implementation/configuration; network administration principles; communication protocols (i.e. TCP/IP stack); internet applications, wireless networks, physical lines (i.e. fibre, twisted pair, coax), network performance, troubleshooting and system security.
Prerequisites: CS 215

ENSE 474
Software Process Management
0:3-3-3
Software processes; standards, implementation, and assurance. Project management with a focus on requirements management and long-term evolution: Eliciting and prioritizing requirements, cost estimation, planning and tracking projects, risk analysis, project control, change management.
Prerequisite: ENSE 374

ENSE 475
Software Testing and Validation
3:0
Testing techniques and principles, types of defects, testing strategies, state based testing; configuration testing; compatibility testing; web site testing. Developing test plans. Managing the testing process. Problem reporting, tracking, validation and analysis.
Prerequisite: ENSE 374

ENSE 477
Software Systems Engineering Design Project
3:8-0
Development of significant software system, employing knowledge gained from courses throughout the program. This includes development of requirements, design, implementation, and quality assurance. Students follow a suitable process model and manage the project themselves, following appropriate project management techniques.
Prerequisites: ENSE 400 and ENSE 470

ENSE 479
Engineering Concepts in Sound Art
3:3-3
This course introduces the artistic practice and engineering design concepts within sound art. It covers a range of sound art practices including avant-garde sound, Musique Concrète, sound and 1960s art movements, acoustic ecology, community-engaged sound art, sound art in performance, and engineering design concepts of new media.
 Prerequisite: Successful completion of 30 credit hours or permission of Program Chair ***

ENSE 480
Knowledge Base and Information Systems
3:3-3
This course analyzes the fundamentals of industrial knowledge management. Students will learn how to analyze a company and how to produce an information system. Topics include the fundamentals of Knowledge Base Management Information Systems and their impact on the business process, engineering an information system, Workflow Management Design, and reengineering for change management.
Prerequisite: ENSE 353 or completion of 81 SSE program related credit hours or permission of Program Chair
ENSE 481 3:3-3
Embedded Systems and Co-design
Embedded systems are increasingly common in modern systems design. This course will teach students how to take advantage of embedded systems technology in their system designs. Topics include: advanced microcontroller real-time design, co-design, embedded systems design issues, power considerations, and wireless considerations.
Prerequisite: ENEL 387 and ENEL 487

ENSE 482 3:3-3
New Media Technology
This course aims to provide a basic level of understanding to make it possible for engineers to work with designers and understand some of the constraints within New Media design. Topics include: definition of New Media, New Media narratives, multimedia, integration, intermediary, the basic tools, and New Media design.
Prerequisite: ENSE 374

ENSE 483 3:3-3
Digital Wireless Systems
This course provides the skills necessary to understand and use systems from the point of view of protocol, bandwidth, and spectrum allocation. Topics include spectrum allocation, digital modulation, spread-spectrum communications fundamentals, digital radio protocols for modern wireless systems, working with GSM, Bluetooth, and IEE 802.11a/b, interference and collision.
Prerequisite: ENSE 374

ENSE 496 3:0-6-3
Directed Study in Engineering - an AA-ZZ series
A course in special topics in which the student may do directed study in engineering under the supervision of a faculty member. A detailed outline of the proposed study must be approved by the Program Chair before registration.

ENSE 496AA 3:3-3
Topics in Digital Networks and Security
Course focus on modern digital communication in a seminar format. Students are expected to have background in digital networks protocols and algorithms. Students will be researching, presenting, and writing reports on modern network technologies, known security mechanisms, and network architectural solutions.

ENSE 496AB 3:0-0
Social Software Systems Design
In this course students will explore topics in designing systems for computer supported collaborative work (CSCW). A major component of the course will be a group project focused on the design, development, and evaluation of an open source, industry-focused software product in support of facilitating real-world solutions for CSCW.
Prerequisite: ENSE 470

ENSE 496AC 3:0-3
Artificial Intelligence
This course introduces the basic concepts in search and knowledge representation as well as to a number of sub-areas of artificial intelligence. Intelligent agents; uninformed/blind search; informed/heuristic search; local search; adversarial search; constraint satisfaction problems; Markov decision processes; Bayesian inference; machine learning.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 90 credit hours or permission of Program Chair
Students cannot receive credit for both ENSE 496AC and CS 320

ENSE 496AD 3:3-3
Machine Learning
Machine Learning is concerned with computer programs that automatically improve their performance through experience (e.g., programs that learn to recognize human faces, recommend music and movies, and drive autonomous robots). This course covers the theory and practical algorithms for machine learning from a variety of perspectives.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 90 credit hours or permission of Program Chair

ENSE 496AE 3:3-0
Advanced Topics in Digital Security
Lectures are focused on advanced digital security that illustrate characteristics of common threats. Topics like cryptography will be covered in general terms. The course presents key exchange mechanisms and issues relevant to mobile security such as containerization and chain of trust. The course leaves freedom to cover issues of relevance to the latest threats. Students are expected to extend their knowledge through comprehensive survey on defined topics and to present on advanced topics following their independent research. This course prepares students for research on areas relevant to networking and mobile computing.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 100 credit hours or permission of Program Chair

ENST 3:3-0
Environmental Studies

ENST 200 3:3-0
Introduction to Environmental Studies
This course focuses on environmental issues studied from a geographical perspective. It introduces students to the philosophical, socio-economic, physical, and technological foundations underlying contemporary environmental issues.
Prerequisite: GEOG 120 and 121 or permission of the Department Head
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ENST 200 or GEOG 226

ENST 400 3:3-0
Environmental Impact Assessment
This course gives students an opportunity to develop their skills in effectively analyzing, managing, and resolving natural resource conflicts. Students will be required to carry out a substantial piece of research work independently, develop knowledge of special interests, and build upon the experience gained.
Prerequisite: ENST 200 and any two of GEOG 325, PSYC 340, SOC 330.

ENVS 3:3-0
Indigenous Environmental Science

ENVS 100 3:3-0
Introduction to Indigenous Environmental Science
This course will introduce students to the conceptual framework of the environment by examining its physical, biological, and social components with Indigenous perspectives. General topics will include: ecological principles and the responses of ecosystems to disturbance, population growth, biodiversity and conservation, and environmental sustainability.

ENVS 200 3:3-0
Indigenous Environmental Law
This course provides students with a comprehensive overview of environmental law, regulation and policy at the provincial and federal levels. Students will also be introduced to land use and environmental protection, natural resource development, rights associated with hunting, fishing and gathering, and approaches to Indigenous lands and resources.
Prerequisite: 15 credit hours

EOE 3:3-0
Outdoor Education

EOE 224 3:3-0
Introduction to Outdoor Education
A foundational course utilizing an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the nature and scope of outdoor education, its potential in the education process; techniques of conducting outdoor learning experiences.
Prerequisite: Second-year standing in the Faculty of Education.
Note: Normally offered in fall semester only.

EOE 338 3:3-3
Utilization of the Winter Environment for Outdoor Education
A developmental course in outdoor education using an interdisciplinary approach to the acquisition of personal skills, knowledge, and attitudes related to the winter outdoor environment.
Prerequisite: EOE 224 or permission of health and physical education subject area.
Note: Normally offered in winter semester only.

A systematic and regional geography of Canada. Elements of the natural environment; the human response in terms of territorial evolution, settlement and economic activity. Regions, regional identities, and regionalism.

 Prerequisite: Any 100 Level GEOG course or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 218
3:3-0
United States of America
A systematic and regional approach to the geography of the United States, emphasizing population movements and distribution, the natural environment, economic geography, and regional studies.

Prerequisite: any 100-level GEOG course or permission of Department Head

Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 318. Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 218 or 318.

GEOG 222
3:3-0
Global Economies, Local Lives
An introduction to economic geography, tracing the processes of economic globalization and localization. Emphasis on the development of the global economy as it plays out in local places with particular histories and cultures. Focus on the crisis of Fordism and the restructuring of resource industries, manufacturing, services and finance.

Prerequisite: GEOG 100 or GEOG 120 or permission of Department Head

Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 322. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 222 and GEOG 322.

GEOG 232
3:3-0
Geography of Recreation and Tourism
Employing multiple analytical approaches, this course examines the economic, social, cultural, and environmental factors and processes of recreation and tourism, and their implications on the environment, space, and place, at a variety of geographical and temporal scales.

Prerequisite: GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head

Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 332. Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 232 and GEOG 332.

GEOG 246
3:3-0
Urban Geography
The course examines cities as systems viewed at global, national, and local levels. Economic and social patterns and linkages are stressed. Special emphasis is placed on the Canadian urban system and the urban geography of Regina.

Prerequisite: GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of the Department Head

Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 324. Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 246 or 324.
Geomatics Project 1
A combination of intellectual study and technical production commensurate with the course level. Projects require a review of the literature that highlights the main theme(s) or issue(s) being addressed, a discussion of the rationale for the selected data and analysis methods, detailed documentation of the applied analyses, and superior cartographic products.
Prerequisite: For B.GISc students only.

GEOG 297
Selected Topics in Physical Geography - an AA-ZZ series
Courses, typically in physical geography, designed as required for undergraduate students.

GEOG 297AA
From Terrains to Taverns: The Geographies of Alcohol
An analysis of the Geographies of alcohol, including the interplay of cultural and physical forces which shape the production, distribution and consumption of alcohol at the global, regional and local scale.

GEOG 303
Geographical Information Systems and Science
Concepts and theories behind spatial data analysis using geographic information systems (GIS). Topics include: spatial models, solving spatial issues using raster and vector analysis methods, geostatistics, and geovisualization.
 Prerequisite: GEOG 203, or permission of Department Head
* Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 405. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 303 and GEOG 405.*

GEOG 307
Digital Cartography
Introduction to digital map making: map projections, scale and generalization, methods of representing objects by symbols, map compilation, and planning of legends.
 Prerequisite: GEOG 207 or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 309
Introduction to Remote Sensing in Geography
Basic concepts of remote sensing, a review of sensors and their images, emphasis on image interpretation and analysis, and introduction to application areas in geographic studies.
Prerequisite: GEOG 203 or permission of Department Head. GEOG 207 is strongly recommended
* Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 331. Students may only receive credit for one of GEOG 309, GEOG 331, and GEOG 391AB.*

GEOG 316
Geography of the Third World
The so-called "Third World" is examined from a spatial perspective. Topics of investigation include imperialism, population growth, political boundaries, and economic transition.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 321
Meteorology
The basic principles of meteorology with special attention to weather conditions on the Canadian prairies.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 323
Geomorphology
The study of landforms and the processes which create and modify them. Emphasis on the mechanics of geomorphic processes and how they relate to properties of earth materials.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 325
Biogeography
An examination of the geographic distributions of plants and animals and the historical, geologic, and contemporary processes underlying those distributions. The course will include study of the influence of climate change, continental drift, and human activity on spatial distribution of flora/fauna.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 326
Environment and Resource Management
A systematic analysis of geographical aspects of theory and methods of natural resource management. Focus is on the geographer's role in resource analysis and policy decisions with examples from agriculture, forestry, wildlife, energy, and parks.
 Prerequisite: ENST 200, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 327
Hydrology
Basic principles of hydrology and the geography of water. Emphasis on the surface components of the hydrological cycle, and on the collection and analysis of hydrometric data.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 328
Population Geography
The course examines the dynamics of population change, population theories, and population forecasting. The demographic experiences of different world regions are contrasted. Particular reference is made to the demography of Saskatchewan's population.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 329
Soil Geography
Introduction to the properties, and classification of soil. The geography of soil at local, regional, and global scales. Relationship of soil to geomorphology, climate, water, vegetation, and environmental change.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***
* Note: Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 329 or GEOL 329. *

GEOG 330
Political Geography
The effect of political action on present-day geography, and of geography on political problems.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 333
Natural Hazards
Characteristics and human impacts of selected natural hazards. Risk evaluation and responses. General and case study approaches, with emphasis on atmospheric and geomorphic hazards in Canada and the developing world.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 120 or GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 336
Cultural Geography
A survey of the sub-field of cultural geography, and its evolution over the last century. Core themes include the interpretation of cultural landscapes, representation, expressions of culture, and cultural politics. Emphasis is placed on works written after the "cultural turn" of the late 20th century.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours, including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 338
Geography of Identities and Power
An examination and comparison of the female use and perception of space and place by time-period, and culture, age, gender, race, ethnicity, class and sexuality: in homes, neighbourhoods, cities, rural areas, recreation, travel, environment, and politics, race, education and ethnicity.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours, including GEOG 100 or 9 credit hours in GEOG, including GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head ***
* Note: Cross-listed with WGST 362. Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 338 or WGST 362 *
GEOG 344 Aboriginal Geographies of Canada
The first half of this course focuses on the cultural ecologies of the precontact period and then moves on to study geographical relationships between Native peoples and the French, British and Canadian governments. The second half emphasizes decolonization strategies and the contemporary geographies of aboriginal peoples across the country.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head
*Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 396AG. Students may receive credit for only one of GEOG 396AG or GEOG 344

GEOG 346 Urban Planning
This course examines the classical roots of modern urban planning, the core concepts of planning theory, and the land-use plan. Emphasis is placed on urban planning in Canada and especially in Regina. Prerequisite: GEOG 100 or GEOG 120 or permission of Department Head
Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 424. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 346 and GEOG 424.

GEOG 355 Geomatics Project 2
A combination of intellectual study and technical production commensurate with the course level. Projects require a review of the literature that highlights the main theme(s) or issue(s) being addressed, a discussion of the rationale for the selected data and analysis methods, detailed documentation of the applied analyses, and superior cartographic products. The topic for this project must be distinct from the project completed in Geog 255.
Prerequisite: Geog 255. For B.G.Isic students only.

GEOG 390 Directed Reading and Research - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed, typically in human geography, for individual students.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 391 Directed Reading and Research - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed, typically in physical geography, for individual students.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some course offerings. **

GEOG 391AA Environmental and Applied Geomorphology
The course is designed around a series of field techniques and lab exercises. Particular emphasis is placed on the influence of varying environmental conditions on landscape development. Techniques for surveying, mapping, and interpretation of environmental conditions and landforms will be introduced.
Prerequisite: GEOG 121, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 391AB Environmental Remote Sensing
An introduction to remote sensing with an emphasis on environmental applications. Application examples will be reinforced with practical analysis exercises using imagery from dominant remote sensing systems.
Prerequisite: GEOG 203; GEOG 207 is strongly recommended. Permission of the Department Head is required to register
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of GEOG 391AB and GEOG 309.

GEOG 396 Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in human geography, designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 396AF Meteorological Instrumentation
The gathering and manipulation of meteorological data are examined. Theory and practice in designing and operating instruments is addressed. Climatic dataset manipulation and analysis is included.

GEOG 396AH Population Geography
This course examines the dynamics of population change, population theories, and population forecasting. The demographic experiences of different world regions are contrasted. Particular reference is made to the demography of Saskatchewan's population.
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register **

GEOG 396AI Geographies of Mining and Extraction
Description: Examination of environmental, social, political and economic aspects of mining and resource extraction in particular sites and transnational spaces. Issues considered include: How does extraction shape local communities and environments? How have indigenous claims and resistance influenced corporate strategies and vice versa? Is resource wealth a blessing or a curse?
Prerequisites: Geog 120 or 100 and 30 credit hours

GEOG 396AJ Global and Local Environmental Struggles
This course examines key current global environmental issues and debates such as struggles over the production and disposal of toxic waste; the promises and limitations of the green economy; climate justice; global land grabbing; sustainable use of forests, water and land resources; global environmental agreements; and efforts to reclaim the global commons.
Prerequisites: Any 100-level GEOG course and 30 credit hours. ***

GEOG 396AK Borders and Borderlands
During the late 20th century, many held the belief that a world without borders had arrived. However, the events of the recent past have led to the rejection of the idea of a borderless world. Borders matter; they always have and they always will. This course is designed to help students develop a critical understanding of both borders and borderlands, particularly in the context of Canadian-American relations.
Prerequisite: GEOG 100, or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 396AL Geographies of Development
Geographies of Development expands the disciplinary conversations of critical development, from the basic tenets of classical, neoclassical, Keynesian, and neoliberal development theories to the new and context-specific case analysis of development offered through emerging radical/critical works - including Marxist, socialist, poststructuralist, feminist, and autonomist works.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 396AM Climate Change Policy
This course will explore questions such as, what policy options are available to address climate change? What climate change policies have been introduced in Canada and around the world? How do we evaluate whether climate change policy has succeeded?
Prerequisite: ENST 200

GEOG 396AN The Place of Craft Beer
Is craft beer a sustainable practice for building local community? Topics include the geography of craft beer, environmental impacts, economic development, labour market, gender, and relationships to the local.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours including GEOG 100 or GEOG 120, or permission from the Department Head

GEOG 396AT (De)constructing Berlin: An Exploration of Urban Place and Time
This course offers a multidisciplinary approach to the history and human/urban geography of Berlin, Germany. Emphasis is placed on selected themes in the physical, historical, cultural, political, and economic development of the city. The course includes a field trip to Berlin, Germany.
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department Head is required to register

GEOG 397 Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in physical geography, designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **
GEOG 397AA
Energy and Environment
This course explores the environmental, technological, geographic, and socio-economic implications of energy production and use. As part of the course content, students will be taught skills for calculating energy production/demand, environmental impacts, as well as financial costs using the life cycle assessment method and basic models in Microsoft Excel.
Prerequisite: GEOG121 and a minimum of 30 credits

GEOG 409
Advanced Spatial Analysis and Visualization (GIS)
Advanced topics in geomatics exploring the coupling and integration of computer-assisted cartography, geostatistics and analysis, GIS, and remote sensing. Students will work in small groups to design geomatics solutions addressing selected planning, environmental management or research problems.
 Prerequisite: GEOG 303, 307, and 309, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 411
Field Techniques in Physical Geography
Techniques for the acquisition and analysis of field data used in physical geographical research.
Prerequisite: GEOG 121, and one of GEOG 321, 323, 325, 327 or 333 or permission of the Department Head

Europe
A systematic approach to the geography of Europe. Emphasis is placed on selected themes in the physical, historical, cultural, political, and economic geography of the area. Regional study will be limited to five or six selected countries and will help to illustrate the rapid changes taking place in Europe.
 Prerequisite: ENST 200 and any two of GEOG 323, 325, 328, 329, 330 or 336 or permission of Department Head.

GEOG 421
Topics in Climatology and Meteorology
 Prerequisite: GEOG 321 or permission of Department Head ***

GEOG 423
Advanced Geomorphology
An advanced course in landforms and the processes that create and modify them. Topics include glacial, periglacial, and theoretical geomorphology, and the relationship between geomorphology and environmental change.
 Prerequisite: GEOG 323 or permission of Department Head ***
* Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 423AB. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 423 and 423AB.

GEOG 429
Glacial and Periglacial Geomorphology
An advanced course relating to cold environments and their geomorphic processes. Topics cover glacial and periglacial processes and their resulting landforms. Special attention will be paid to the Canadian Arctic environment and the history of glaciation in Canada, particularly during the last glacial episode during the Wisconsin advance and retreat.
Prerequisite: GEOG 323 or permission of Department Head
* Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 423AA. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 429, GEOG 423AA or GEOL 429.*

GEOG 431
Climate Change Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability
This course focuses on the impacts of climate change on biophysical and social systems, and the adjustments to policies and practices that will be required to minimize the negative impacts. It is intended for advanced undergraduates and graduate students with an interest in this emerging and important field of study.  Prerequisite: GEOG 120 and 121 ***

GEOG 440
Geography of the Caribbean
The course surveys the physical and human geography of the Caribbean basin. Particular focus is placed on environmental management and economic development issues. Detailed case studies are drawn from the geography of Jamaica. Note: The course includes a 14-day field trip to Jamaica conducted during the February mid-term break.
 Prerequisite: ENST 200 and any two of GEOG 316, 322, 323, 325, 327, 332, or permission of Department Head ***
* Note: Formerly numbered GEOG 496AA. Students may not receive credit for both GEOG 440 and GEOG 496AA.*

Geomatics Project 3
A combination of intellectual study and technical production commensurate with the course level. Projects require a review of the literature that highlights the main theme(s) or issue(s) being addressed, a discussion of the rationale for the selected data and analysis methods, detailed documentation of the applied analyses, and superior cartographic products. The topic for this project must be distinct from the project completed in GeoG 255 and GeoG 355.
 Prerequisite: GeoG 355. For B.GISc students only. ***

GEOG 490
Directed Reading and Research - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in human geography, designed for individual students.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 490AM
Geography of sub-Saharan Africa
This course explores the factors and processes that have shaped and continue to shape the 47-country region called "sub-Saharan Africa" from geographical, historical, thematic, and development perspectives.

GEOG 490AN
Urban Development: The Suburbs
This course explores urban development since the 19th century, with an emphasis on the suburbs. Topics include land use planning, decentralization, growth and decline, urban form, placelessness, and urban sprawl.
Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head is required to register.

GEOG 490AO
Applied Geographic Information Science Project
A combination of intellectual study and technical production of an applied GIS project. The project requires a review of the literature that highlights the main theme(s) being addressed, a discussion of the rationale for the selected data and analysis methods, detailed documentation of the applied analyses, and superior cartographic products.
GEOG 490AO is equivalent to the combination of GEOG 255, GEOG 355, and GEOG 455. Students may not receive credit for GEOG 255, GEOG 355, GEOG 455 and GEOG 490AO.
*Note: For B.GISc students only. Permission of Department Head is required to register.

GEOG 491
Directed Reading and Research - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in physical geography, designed for individual students.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 491AD
Advanced Hydrology
A survey of advanced topics in hydrology, the study of water, with a specific focus on the surface water balance of the prairies and the impacts of climate change and variability.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

GEOG 491AE
Environmental Geomorphology
Presentation of up-to-date research findings and the latest theories from geomorphology and environmental change researchers. The role of geomorphological research in real world applications using case studies and data sets.  Prerequisite: GEOG 305 and GEOG 323 ***
GEOG 491AF Hydrology II: Surface Water 3:3-0
The course explores the physical processes of lakes and rivers and associated landforms. The lakes and rivers of Saskatchewan, and of Canada more generally, are emphasized. This course builds on GEOG327: Hydrology.
 Prerequisite: GEOG327 or permission of the Department Head ***

GEOG 496 1-3:3-0
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in human geography, designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 496AC 3:3-0
Aotearoa/New Zealand
This course provides a broad survey of the geography of Aotearoa/New Zealand. Major themes in physical and human geography including geomorphology, climate, settlement and economic activity are examined.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.  * Note: A field trip is linked to the course and is planned for late April 2005. The field trip is self-funded by participating students. *

GEOG 496AE 3:3-0
Urban Heritage
This course examines the construction of heritage in Canadian urban settings. Focus is placed on the goals and objectives of the various stakeholders involved in the process of heritage management, and the tensions that can ensue.
Prerequisite: GEOG 246 or GEOG 346, or permission of Department Head

GEOG 496AF 1-3:3-0
Political Ecology
The focus is on understanding and explaining the causes and consequences of "environmental problems" and the politics of managing them. Access, use, control, and management of resources are understood as inherently political. Topics include climate change, oil sands exploitation, agriculture and food security, deforestation, population-environment relations, and gender and environment.
Prerequisites: GEOG 222, or GEOG 330, or ENST 200, or permission of the Department Head.

GEOG 497 1-3:3-0
Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses, typically in physical geography, designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
 Permission of the Department Head may be required to register in some offerings. **

GEOG 497AA 3:3-0
Watershed Hydrology
This course provides an introduction to watershed hydrology. It is a research-oriented course intended to provide students with an overview of hillslope hydrology from a process perspective.
Prerequisite: GEOG 323 and permission of the Department Head
Note: Students can receive credit for either GEOL 490AL or GEOG 497AA but not both.

GEOG 497AB 3:3-0
Field Methods in Remote Sensing
An introduction to the methods used to collect field data in support of remote sensing observations. Topics could include: field sampling strategies, field spectroscopy, and measurements of soil an vegetation characteristics. This course combines both classroom and field experience.
Prerequisites: GEOG 303 and GEOG 309
Permission of the Instructor is required to register

GEOG 499 6:0-0
An exposition of a topic approved by the department. The thesis should draw some original conclusions on the topic concerned.
Permission of the Department Head is required to register.
Note: The required 6 hours may be taken in one semester (GEOG 499AC) or spread equally over two consecutive semesters (GEOG 499AA and GEOG 499AB).

GEOG 499AA 3:3-0
Honours Thesis - First Half
An exposition of a topic approved by the department. The thesis should draw some original conclusions on the topic concerned.
 Permission of the department head is required to register. **

GEOG 499AB 3:3-0
Honours Thesis - Second Half
An exposition of a topic approved by the department. The thesis should draw some original conclusions on the topic concerned.
 Permission of the department head is required to register. **

GEOG 499AC 6:3-0
Honours Thesis
An exposition of a topic approved by the department. The thesis should draw some original conclusions on the topic concerned.
 Permission of department head is required to register. **

GEOL Geology

GEOL 051 0:0-0
Geology Co-op Work Term 1
Four month Co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.

GEOL 052 0:0-0
Geology Co-op Work Term 2
Four month Co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.
Prerequisite: GEOL 051

GEOL 053 0:0-0
Geology Co-op Work Term 3
Four month Co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.
Prerequisite: GEOL 052

GEOL 054 0:0-0
Geology Co-op Work Term 4
Four month Co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.
Prerequisite: GEOL 053

GEOL 102 3:3-1.5
Environmental Geology
The nature of the earth. Plate tectonics and the geological time scale. Earthquakes, volcanism and surface processes with reference to their effect on the human environment. Earth resources, waste disposal, and pollution in a geological context.

GEOL 201 3:3-3
Internal Processes of the Earth
Internal earth processes and materials composing the earth. The geological time scale. Deformation and structures of earth materials. Plate tectonics, continental drift and mountain building. Earth resources.
 Prerequisite: Students must pass GEOL 102 with a minimum grade of 60%. ***

GEOL 210 3:3-3
Mineralogy I
Crystal structure and symmetry, Chemistry and occurrence of minerals. Mineral optics.
Prerequisite: GEOL 201 with a minimum grade of 65%
Note: GEOL 201 may be taken concurrently with a minimum grade of 75% in GEOL 102.

GEOL 211 3:3-3
Mineralogy II
Prerequisite: GEOL 201 and GEOL 210
GEOL 240  3:3-3
Earth System History
Inter-connected evolution of atmosphere-biosphere-hydrosphere-lithosphere over the course of geologic time; its forcing mechanisms, interactions, and feedbacks. Major physical and biological global events emphasizing North America and Western Canada.
Prerequisite: GEOL 102

GEOL 241  0-3:3-3
Paleontology
Classification, morphology, evolution, paleoecology, and stratigraphic distribution of the main groups of fossils.
Prerequisite: GEOL 240
Note: GEOL 241 is a Winter only course.

GEOL 270  3:3-3
Earth Resources and the Environment
An intermediate course focused on origin, global distribution, use and environmental impact of earth resources, metallic minerals, energy resources, industrial minerals, and the social, economic and political implications of mineral resources.
Prerequisite: GEOL 102
* Note: GEOL 270 may not be taken by students who have passed GEOL 472 and/or GEOL 470. *

GEOL 307  3:3-3
Geochemistry
Principles of crystal, aqueous, and isotopic geochemistry, and applications to igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks, and geochemical exploration. Principles of radiometric dating of rocks. Practical problem solving in applied geochemistry.
Prerequisite: CHEM 105 and GEOL 211

GEOL 313  3:3-3
Igneous Petrology
Classification and genesis of igneous rocks. Introduction to the common igneous rock suites and associations. Study of hand specimens and thin sections.
Prerequisite: GEOL 211 and GEOL 307 which may be taken concurrently, CHEM 250 is recommended

GEOL 314  3:3-3
Sedimentology
Classification, genesis, and petrology of sedimentary rocks. Sediment transport and deposition processes. Sedimentary environments.
Prerequisite: GEOL 201 and 211

GEOL 315  3:3-3
Metamorphic Petrology
Prerequisite: GEOL 211 and GEOL 307 (GEOL 307 may be taken concurrently).

GEOL 329  3:3-3
Soils and Sediment Analysis
Introduction to the analysis, properties and classification of soils and sediments. Includes an understanding of the distribution of soil types at local, regional and global scales due to environmental indices like climate, geology, water, and vegetation. This course uses experiential learning where students conduct a field and laboratory study of their own field site, using basic measurements of soils and sediments.
Prerequisite: GEOG 121
Note: Students may not receive credit for both GEOL 329 and GEOG 329 or GEOL 494AD

GEOL 340  3:3-3
Stratigraphy
Prerequisite: GEOL 220 or 241, 240 and 314. GEOL 314 may be taken concurrently

GEOL 353  3:3-3
Structural Geology I
Primary structural features. Geometry of structural features including simple folds and faults. Relationship between structural features and land forms. Geological maps and air photos.
Prerequisite: GEOL 201 and GEOL 211

GEOL 396  3:3-3
Geology Field Camp I
Geological study and mapping in an area of sedimentary rocks. Supervised study for several days during the Spring/Summer semester. An additional charge will be assessed to cover accommodation and meals.
Prerequisite: Six courses (18 credit hours) in Geology.
* Note: Students must advise the Geology Department of their intent to register prior to February 15.*

GEOL 400  6:0-0
Undergraduate Thesis in Geology
Original investigation under the supervision of a faculty member. A thesis describing the research is written and presented, and defended.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 314, 315, 340, 453 and 396, a minimum grade point average of 70%
* Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **
Note: This course may be taken in one semester (as GEOL 400AC or two consecutive semesters (as GEOL 400AA and GEOL 400AB).

GEOL 400AA  3:3-0
Undergraduate Thesis in Geology - First Half
Original investigation under the supervision of a faculty member. A thesis describing the research is written and presented, and defended.
* Note: This is the first half of GEOL 400 Thesis, and should be taken prior to GEOL 400AB*
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 314, 315, 340, 453, 396

GEOL 400AB  3:3-0
Thesis - Second Half
Original investigation under the supervision of a faculty member. A thesis describing the research is written and presented, and defended.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 314, 315, 340, 453, 396 & a minimum GPA of 70%
Note: This is the second half of GEOL 400 Thesis, and should be taken after GEOL 400AA.

GEOL 400AC  6:6-0
Undergraduate Thesis in Geology
Original investigation under the supervision of a faculty member. A thesis describing the research is written and presented, and defended.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 314, 315, 340, 453, 396 & a minimum GPA of 70%
*Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

GEOL 413  3:3-3
Igneous Petrogenesis and Processes
Advanced study of the processes of magma formation and crystallization. Characteristics and genesis of igneous rock suites and associations. Study of igneous rock suites in hand specimen and thin section.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313 ***
* Note: Not offered every year. *

GEOL 414  3:3-3
Geology of Siliciclastic Rocks
Depositional models using modern sedimentary analogues to interpret ancient environments.
Prerequisite: GEOL 314 and GEOL 340

GEOL 416  3:3-3
Geology of Carbonate Rocks
Modern and ancient depositional environments of limestone and dolomite. Diagenetic processes affecting carbonate rocks.
Prerequisite: GEOL 307 and 314, GEOL 307 may be taken concurrently
GEOL 429 3:3:3
Glacial and Periglacial Geoscience
An advanced course relating to cold environments and physical processes. Topics cover the physics of glaciers, glacial and periglacial processes and resulting erosional and depositional landforms and landscapes. Special attention will be paid to the Canadian Arctic environment and the history of glaciation in North America. Lab time is used to conduct short experiments, measure the snow pack and examine glacial sediments to add to our understanding of glacial processes.
Prerequisite: GEOG 323
Note: Students may not receive credit for both GEOL 429 and GEOG 429 or GEOG 423AA

GEOL 430 3:3:0
Quaternary Environments and the Anthropocene
This course covers general aspects of the Quaternary Period with emphasis on the Holocene and Anthropocene. It includes the main methods employed to reconstruct Quaternary environments, main climatic oscillations, environmental change and impacts by human activities. It emphasizes the importance of paleo-environmental reconstructions in the conservation and management of present ecosystems.
Prerequisite: Two 300 level courses in Geology or Geography and/or permission from the Department Head.
Note: Students with credit for GEOL490AK cannot take GEOL 430 for credit.

GEOL 451 3:3:3
Geology of North America
Geology and geological history of North America, with emphasis on Canada. The nature of continental assembly, crustal evolution and geodynamics through time, and comparative studies of lithostratigraphy and magmatism in relation to geotectonic environment. Phanerozoic sedimentary basins.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 315, 340, and GEOL 453 or 350 ***
Note: Not offered every year.

GEOL 453 3:3:3
Structural Geology II
Morphology, nomenclature and classification of large and small scale structures in the earth's crust. Natural stress-strain relations and structural analysis and interpretation. Major tectonic features of the earth.
Prerequisite: GEOL 353 and PHYS 109 ***

GEOL 454 0-3:3-3
Global Tectonics and Earth History
Internal structure and processes of the earth, formation and evolution in the context of the solar system, mantle and crustal processes through time, plate tectonics and orogenic activity, supercontinent cycles, case studies of orogenic belts.
Prerequisite: GEOL 453 (may be taken concurrently).
Note: Not offered every year.
Note: Credit cannot be held for both GEOL 452 and GEOL 454.

GEOL 460 3:3-3
Applied Exploration Geophysics
Introduction to geophysical methods including seismic, magnetics, gravity, electromagnetics, IP, radiometrics, and remote sensing. Application to finding and developing petroleum pools and mineral deposits.
Prerequisite: MATH 110, PHYS 112 or PHYS 119 and GEOL 201 or permission of the Department Head

GEOL 470 3:3-3
Metallic Mineral Deposits
Geologic characteristics and genesis of metallic mineral deposits. Basic concept of mineral exploration. Ore mineralogy and petrology.
Prerequisite: GEOL 313, 314, and 353.

GEOL 472 3:3-3
Petroleum Geology
Origin, accumulation, and occurrence of petroleum. Reservoir rocks, fluids and traps. Reservoir conditions and mechanics. Mechanical logs and subsurface methods. Application to finding and developing petroleum pools.
Prerequisite: GEOL 340 or permission of Department Head

GEOL 473 3:3-3
Petroleum Geochemistry
Corequisite: GEOL 472 or permission of Department Head ***
Note: Not offered every year.

GEOL 474 3:3-3
Environmental Hydrogeology
Water chemistry, water quality and contamination, discussion of remediation (clean-up) of soil and water, and computer modeling of various hydrogeological problems.
Prerequisite: GEOL 307
Note: Not offered every year

GEOL 476 3:3-3
Principles of Groundwater Flow
Principles of groundwater flow, properties of aquifers, geology of groundwater occurrence, and regional groundwater flow with examples from the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin.
Prerequisite: GEOL 314 and MATH 110 or permission of the Department Head

GEOL 490 3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 490A-B 3:3-0
Petrographic and Geochemical Methods in the Study of Carbonate Diagenesis
Petrographic (staining, transmitted light microscopy, cathodoluminescence, florescence), fluid inclusion, and C-O-Sr isotopic studies of carbonate diagenesis.
Prerequisite: GEOL 314 ***

GEOL 490AC 3:3-0
Petroleum Geology of the Ukraine
An examination of exploration methodologies utilized by Ukrainian petroleum exploration geologists. An overview of the geology of the Ukraine and oil/gas fields of the Ukraine.
Prerequisite: GEOL 472 ***

GEOL 490AD 3:3-0
Geology of Columbia
Geology of Colombia is a field based course. The topics covered in this course include: igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic petrology, tectonics, geomorphology, sedimentology, stratigraphy, volcanology and natural hazards.
 Prerequisites: Geol 250, Geol 313, Geol 314, Geol 315, Geol 340 and Geol 396 ***
Note: Students will find it beneficial to have also taken Geol 496

GEOL 490AF 3:3-0
Fluid Inclusion Studies
Identification and classification of fluid inclusions. Microthermometric measurements. Interpretation and application to solve geologic problems.
Prerequisite: GEOL 471 ***

GEOL 490AG 3:3-0
Geothermometers and Paleo-geothermal Gradients
Principles of three geothermometers (fluid inclusions, vitrinite reflectance, and raman spectroscopy of carbonaceous matter). Application of these methods to reconstruct paleo-geothermal gradients.

GEOL 490AH 3:3-0
Remote Sensing and GIS Application in Geological and Geophysical Mapping
Cover the use of remote sensing and GIS techniques in geological and geophysical mapping. An integrated geological mapping approach is followed in which geological maps are digitized and re-interpreted in a GIS environment on the basis of aerial photographs, satellite imagery and airborne geophysical data. The main subjects in this course are airborne geophysics, geological remote sensing, integrated image interpretation and geological mapping methodology.

GEOL 490AI 3:3-3
Paleoenvironmental micropaleontology
 Prerequisites: Geol 241, Geol 340 *
GEOL 490AJ
Geomodelling Applied to Mineral Exploration
This course will cover the use of geomodelling techniques in geological sciences. It will provide a practical hands-on approach to spatial database design and spatial data analysis with geomodelling as applied to the mineral exploration. Though this course involves the use of software in a digital environment, the focus of the course will be on concepts and strategies rather than specific software tools. The content will be organized around the topic mineral exploration (exploration, alteration and structural mapping, exploration geochemistry and geophysics, spectral remote sensing, mineral prospectively modeling). Thus, advanced material in analysis, statistics and modeling will be covered.
Prerequisite: Geol 313, Geol 314, Geol 315, Geol 353

GEOL 490AL
Watershed Hydrology
This course provides an introduction to watershed hydrology including extreme runoff events recorded in the sedimentary record. It is a research-oriented course intended to provide students with an overview of hillslope hydrology and sediment transport accumulation from a process perspective.
Prerequisite: GEOG 323 or permission of the Geology Department Head

GEOL 491
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 492
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 492AB
Geochemistry
Introduction to geochemistry: The elements, analytical techniques, isotope geology and geochronology, exploration geochemistry, aspects of the geochemistry of igneous, sedimentary and metamorphic rocks.
 Prerequisite: CHEM 230 and two of either GEOL 313, 314, or 315, or permission of Department Head ***

GEOL 492AC
Igneous processes and volcanism
Directed readings and discussions in the general areas of igneous petrology, the origins and evolution of magma, and volcanic phenomena. Registration for this course requires special approval from the instructor.
Prerequisite: GEOLE210, GEOLE211, GEOL 307 and GEOL313

GEOL 493
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 493AA
Applied Petroleum Geochemistry

GEOL 494
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 494AB
Carbonate Reservoir Geology
The course is intended to give the participant practical experience in observing and describing carbonate rocks, and to use pertinent literature to interpret their dispositional environments. The student will also identify processes that have changed the original character of the rocks and have influenced their hydrocarbon-bearing potential.

GEOL 494AD
Soil Science
Introduction to the properties, and classification of soil. The geography of soil at local, regional, and global scales. Relationship of soil to geomorphology, climate, water, vegetation, and environmental change.
 Prerequisite: GEOG 221 ***

GEOL 495
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students.

GEOL 495AB
Quaternary Geology
A survey of the Quaternary Geology of the Earth, with particular emphasis on the history and record of glacial advance and retreat in North America. Critical review of driving mechanisms.
 Prerequisites: GEOG 323 or GEO 429 or GEOG 429 with minimum grades of 60%. Concurrent enrolment allowed. Or permission of instructor. ***

GEOL 495AC
Late Cretaceous to recent Marine Paleocology and Sedimentology
An advanced course that addresses the paleocology and associated sedimentary environment of ancient seas. An examination of the marine ecosystems in selected time periods from the Late Cretaceous (75 mya) to the present. Emphases are placed on the changes in invertebrate assemblages and accompanying marine vertebrates over vast periods of time. The topic includes an understanding of fossil preservation and the conditions and environments conducive to preservation in marine systems.

Advanced structural analysis with application to mineral deposit exploration
Theoretical and practical analysis/interpretation of rock structures as a guide to mineral exploration. This course will be largely assignment-based with assignments/projects involving map analysis of structures complemented by stereographic analysis and cross-section construction in an effort to determine the structural controls of mineral deposits in a variety of settings.
Pre-requisite: Geol 493 and permission of instructor and Dept. Head.

GEOL 495AE
Directed Study in Glacial Geoscience
An advanced course relating to Glacial Geoscience, in which the student conducts a directed study in glacial processes and cold environments under the supervision of a faculty member. Topics include glacial and periglacial processes and an exploration fo the current theories and controversies on the formation of glacial landforms and landscapes. Special attention will be paid to North America, and the Canadian Arctic environments, and the history of glaciations in Canada during the Quaternary period.
Prerequisite GEOG 323

GEOL 496
Geology Field Camp II
Geological mapping and study in an area of crystalline rock. Supervised study for several days during the Spring/Summer semester. An additional charge will be assessed to cover accommodation and meals.
Prerequisites: GEOL 396, 353, 313, 314, and 315.

Note: students must advise the Geology Department of their intent to register prior to May 15.

GEOL 497
International Field Course
A supervised field course for several days at an international location to be determined. This course involves the observation, measurement, analysis and interpretation of geological sites, to expand geological knowledge and familiarise the student with the geology of other places outside of Canada.
Prerequisites: 70% UGPA, min 24 credits in Geology/Environmental Geoscience, full-time student in the previous two terms and/or permission of the Department Head.

Note: An additional charge will be assessed to cover costs of the course.

<tr>
<td>GER 390AI</td>
<td>Regional Culture in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland</td>
<td>3:3:0</td>
<td>This course examines the cultures of several cities and regions of German-speaking countries, while providing a consolidation of grammar at the intermediate level. Authentic material, including radio reports, magazine and news articles, interviews, and literary texts enable students to differentiate various types of text in written and spoken German. Prerequisite: GER 212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GER 390AK</td>
<td>Expressionism - The Dusk or Dawn of Humanity?</td>
<td>3:3:0</td>
<td>German literary Expressionism is often associated with the term &quot;Menschheitsdämmerung,&quot; &quot;dusk&quot; or &quot;dawn&quot; of humanity. Using examples from poetry and drama, this course examines a movement that at once expresses the decline and the renewal of early 20th century German society. Prerequisite: GER 311</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GER 390AL</td>
<td>Beyond Enlightenment: German Literature in Context after 1750</td>
<td>3:3:0</td>
<td>This course offers a survey of German literature from the Enlightenment to modern day. Literary works are discussed in the context of history and culture. Prerequisite: GER 311 or permission of the department head.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GER 390AM</td>
<td>In Pursuit of Meaning: Translation Theory and Practice</td>
<td>1:3:3:0</td>
<td>We explore translation as both an academic pursuit and a practical professional activity. Students learn about &quot;equivalence&quot; (textual, grammatical, pragmatic), a concept central to translation, as well as the ethics and morality relating to the profession. We also put theory into practice by translating from a German novel into English. Prerequisite: GER 311 or permission of the instructor*</td>

<td>GER 396</td>
<td>Selected Topics - an AA-ZZ series</td>
<td>0:6:6:0</td>
<td>Note: Permission of the department head may be required to register in some offerings.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GER 396AA</td>
<td>Berlin: Narratives of a City</td>
<td>6:0:0</td>
<td>This course offers a multidisciplinary approach to the literary/filmic culture and human/urban geography of Berlin, Germany. Emphasis is placed on selected themes including migration, urbanisation, alienation, and cultural memory as they contribute to the developing narratives of Berlin. The course includes a field trip to Berlin. Permission of the department is required to register Note: Students may only receive credit for one of GEOG 396AT and GER 396AA.</td>

GER 411  3-3-1
Advanced Idiomatic Usage and Review II
Continuation of GER 312. Strengthening oral and written fluency, review and extension of complex idiomatic usage and syntax. Text-type, style and register recognition and production. Also included is an examination of events of the day as reported through the media; print, radio, television, and internet. Discussions, essay-writing and presentations in German.
 Prerequisite: GER 312 ***
* Note: This course prepares students for further studies in culture, linguistics and literature, and/for a period of study abroad in any area of study at a German-language university. Students who complete this course may qualify to take an examination leading to the internationally recognised Zertifikat Deutsch als Fremdsprache. *
* Note: Formerly numbered GER 400. Students may receive credit for only one of GER 400 or 411.*

HIST 113  3-3-0
Issues in Canadian History
An exploration of major themes, periods and events in Canadian History, this course introduces students to the methods and sources of historical study and familiarizes them with significant historical developments from the Canadian past.
* Note: Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 101, 102, 103 or 113.*

HIST 114  3-3-0
Issues in the History of the Americas
An exploration of major themes, periods and events in the history of the Americas; this course introduces students to the methods and sources of historical study, familiarizes them with significant developments in the history of the Americas and encourages them to compare the historical experiences of various American peoples.
* Note: Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 104, 112 or 114*

HIST 115  3-3-0
Issues in European History
An exploration of major themes, periods and events in European history, this course introduces students to the methods and sources of historical study, familiarizes them with significant developments in the history of Europe and places that history in a global context.
* Note: Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 106, 107, 108 or 115.*

HIST 116  3-3-0
Issues in World History
An exploration of major themes, periods and events in World History, this course introduces students to the methods and sources of historical study, familiarizes them with significant historical developments in global history, and encourages them to make comparisons between civilizations.
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of HIST 116, HIST 107, or HIST 105.*

HIST 150  3-3-0
Today’s World: Historical Perspectives
This course explores the influence of the past on the world in which we live. Topics addressed will be taken from today’s headlines and will reflect a wide variety of periods and geographical areas. Topics may include terrorism, environmentalism, war, demonstrations, popular culture, the welfare state, and global crises.

HIST 200  3-3-0
Canada from the Age of Exploration to Confederation
An investigation of the meeting, transformation and development of societies in Canada between European landfall and the achievement of substantial self-government in 1867. Areas of interest: government, politics, economy, society and conflict in la Nouvelle France and British North America.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 203 and HIST 204. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 200 and either of HIST 203 or HIST 204. *

HIST 201  3-3-0
Canada From Confederation to World War II
A survey of Canadian history from Confederation to the outbreak of World War II, including such topics as John A. Macdonald's National Policy, western settlement, the rise of urban, industrial Canada, the impact of World War I, society and politics during the 1920s and the Great Depression.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History Course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 205 and HIST 206. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 201 and either of HIST 205 or HIST 206. *

HIST 202  3-3-0
Canada from World War II to the Present
A survey of the making of modern Canada since 1939, including such topics as the building of the welfare state, Canadian foreign policy, the military in war and peacekeeping, Quebec separatism, the women's movement, Aboriginal rights, the new constitution and Charter of Rights, the economy and free trade.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 207. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 202 and HIST 207.

HIST 224  3-3-0
English History 1216-1485
A survey of the history of England and its relations with Wales, Scotland and France in the later Middle Ages. Topics will include: the development of parliament; art and architecture; heresy; the Black Death; the Hundred Years' War; civil unrest and political strife; life in towns, cities, and the countryside.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 220 and HIST 221. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 224 and either of HIST 220 and HIST 221.

HIST 225  3-3-0
Tudor and Stuart Britain
Topics include the Tudors, the Protestant Reformation, the growing power of parliament and its changing relationship with the king, the role of religion in early modern society, popular belief and the Civil War. We will also look at the Revolution of 1688 and its implications for the constitution.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 221 and HIST 222. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 225 and either of HIST 221 and HIST 222.

HIST 226  3-3-0
The Powerful versus the Poor: the Evolution of Modern Britain
Topics include the slave trade and the rise of the abolitionist movement, the loss of the American colonies and Britain's response (both radical and conservative) to the French Revolution, the Industrial Revolution, the Reform Act of 1832, the Irish Potato Famine, and Britain's experience in the two world wars.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
* Note: Formerly numbered HIST 223. Students may not receive credit for both HIST 226 and HIST 223.

HIST 231  3-3-0
The American Colonies and the United States before 1865
Examination of such topics as colonial life; Anglo-Native relations; the Revolutionary era; economy, politics, religion, reform, and society in the early republic; antebellum America; slavery and race relations; gender and family issues; westward expansion, war, and diplomacy and the American Civil War.
 Prerequisite: One 100 level History or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 232  3-3-0
African American History Since 1878
Examines modern African American history, analyzing culture, gender and social relations throughout the nineteenth/twentieth century United States. Areas of study include events leading up to the Civil War and its aftermath; early struggles for civic equality; the emergence of a modern civil rights movement and the radicalization of social protest.
Prerequisite: One 100-level History course or completion of 15 credit hours
HIST 234  3:3:0
The United States, 1865-1941
Topics covered include Western expansion and development; growth of the urban industrial order; immigration/ethnicity; African Americans; gender issues; society and culture; regionalism; politics; emergence of the United States as a world power from the end of the Civil War to the beginning of U.S. involvement in World War II.  Prerequisite: One 100 Level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours. ***

HIST 235  3:3:0
The United States Since 1941
Topics covered include America as a global power; domestic impact of the Cold War; politics; economic transformation; regionalism; African Americans; ethnic America; gender issues; social movements; society and culture.  Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 239  3:3:0
A History of the Cowboy
The cowboy has served as a central masculine archetype in the Americas since horses were introduced. Not only of historical significance empirically in Argentina, Mexico, and the United States, culturally the cowboy's influence has reached from Hollywood to the White House, the Pampas to Chihuahua. This course explores why.  Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST course or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 250  3:3:0
Modern Dragons: Revolutionary China and Japan
This course aims to impart an understanding of modernization processes in East Asia from the nineteenth century to the 1980s. Attention is focused on how China and Japan addressed the western-led challenge of modernization. Emphasis is also placed on social and economic change. Prerequisite: 100-level History course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
Note: Formerly numbered HIST 105. Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 105 or 250.

HIST 252  3:3:0
Late Imperial China: Social and Economic History
Focuses on the Ming dynasty (1368-1644) and the Qing dynasty (1644-1912), when the traditional political, social, and economic institutions of China reached their fullest development. Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours

Japan of the Samurai
Examines Japan from medieval times up to the middle of the nineteenth century. Discussion will cover the political, social, economic as well as cultural developments of each period with emphasis on the means by which groups and individuals acquired and attempted to maintain their influence over others.  Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 256  3:3:0
History of Modern Japan
Examines the search for a new national identity in modern Japan through an analysis of political, social, economic and cultural changes from 1868 to the 1970s.  Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 260  3:3:0
Earliest Civilizations
An introduction, emphasizing the use of archaeological data, to the rise and development of the oldest civilizations in the Eastern Hemisphere, particularly those of Mesopotamia and Egypt.  Prerequisite: One 100 level HIST or completion of 15 credit hours ***

HIST 261  3:3:0
Introduction to Ancient Greece
This course introduces students to the history of ancient Greece. The emphasis is on social, political, cultural and military themes, from the Bronze Age through to the Hellenistic Period.  Prerequisite: One 100-level HIST course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 261 or 264

HIST 262  3:3:0
Introduction to Ancient Rome
This course introduces students to the history of ancient Rome. The emphasis is on social, political, cultural and military themes, from the Regnal Period (c. 750-510 BC) through to the Principate (c. 31 BC-AD 300).  Prerequisite: One 100-level HIST course or completion of 15 credit hours ***
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of HIST 262 or 264

HIST 265  3:3:0
Early Middle Ages 300-1100

The study and practice of effective performance in rhythms and dance. Through theoretical and practical environments, students will learn the application of Basic Movement Variables, Basic Movement Patterns, Performance Cues, appropriate methods of analysis, and instruction in rhythms and dance.
 Prerequisite: KHS 139 ***
* Note: Cannot take for credit if completed KHS 108 and/or KHS 109, unless prior permission received from Program Chair/Associate Dean. Normally offered in winter semester only.*

KHS 233 Developmental Games and Sports
The study and practice of educational and developmental appropriate experiences to learning and teaching games and sports. Through theoretical and practical experiences students will learn the application of Basic Movement Patterns, Basic Movement Variables, Performance Cues, appropriate methods of analysis, and instruction in developmental games and sports.
 Prerequisite: KHS 139 ***
* Note: Cannot take for credit if completed KHS 103, KHS 104, KHS 106, and/or KHS 112, unless prior permission received from Program Chair/Associate Dean. Normally offered in fall semester only.*

KHS 300 Pre-Fieldwork Seminar
This non-credit mandatory pre-fieldwork seminar will provide the student with an in-depth overview of the Fieldwork Program within Kinesiology and Health Studies. Students will gain an understanding of the policies, procedures, rules, and responsibilities of the student, faculty, and agency.
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours

KHS 325 Interprofessional Collaboration for Health, Justice and Learning
In this course students will explore, in an interprofessional context, complex issues related to health and learning. A primary objective will be to engage in opportunities to develop knowledge, skills and attitudes related to collaborative competencies and promote interprofessional learning to foster interprofessional practice.

KHS 400 Fieldwork
Students will be given the opportunity to apply their knowledge in a specific professional role related to their major. The Fieldwork experience will be undertaken by the student under supervision of a mentor/host professional and the fieldwork coordinator. The placement is a minimum of 14 weeks full time. This component is Pass/Fail, and must be taken concurrently with KHS 405 (Fieldwork Project).
 Prerequisite: KHS 300, completion of 75 credit hours within the program; completion of required major courses; a minimum 80% PGPA; and, a minimum 65% major GPA. ***

KIN 101 Writing and Discourse for Academia
The course introduces students to the University of Regina and Faculty of KHS community, culture, services, and opportunities. The course focuses on current challenges facing Indigenous people in North America using sport and health as its central themes. The course provides a survey of topics from prehistory to current events. Another focus is the participation of students in Indigenous cultural events.

KIN 105 Indigenous Health and Sport in Historical Perspective
This course introduces students to current challenges facing Indigenous people in North America using sport and health as its central themes. The course provides a survey of topics from prehistory to current events. Another focus is the participation of students in Indigenous cultural events.

KIN 110 Sociology of Sport, Recreation and Physical Activity
This course examines selected topics related to the sociology of sport and physical activity. The emphasis of the course is on understanding the construction and organization of sport in modern societies and the social and cultural influences on sport and physical activity, particularly in Canadian society.

KIN 115 Introduction to Sport and Exercise Psychology
An introduction to the theoretical and practical understanding of the behavioural aspects of physical activity from a sport and exercise psychology perspective.

KIN 120 Rec - Persons with Disabilities
This course will broadly introduce the student to the diagnosis, associated characteristics, and shifting sociocultural paradigms that influence the experiences of persons with physical, intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. Using an active living approach to situate theoretical and practical learning, this course requires the student to exercise the application of adapted physical activity principles to engage children, youth, and young adults in physical activities that are safe, challenging, and self-determined with a focus on success.
This course is crosslisted with SRS 120

KIN 170 Lifestyle, Health and Wellness
The factors which affect and individual's health will be examined and the potential role of lifestyle choices in the maintenance of health will be discussed. This course will enable the student to become an informed, responsible, active participant in one's own health. * Note: Students will not receive credit for both KIN 170 (KHS 170) and KIN 171 (KHS 171).

KIN 180 Lifespan Growth and Motor Development
This course provides a general introduction to the analysis of motor development across the life span. It presents students with the opportunity to investigate the principles, research and applied practice of motor development from infancy to older adult. Current topics in motor development are presented using a unifying constraints model approach. This approach takes into account the individual as well as the environmental and task factors that potentially affect human growth and motor development.
KIN 181 3-15:15-15
Special Topics in Kinesiology
Courses numbered KIN 181AA-ZZ are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

KIN 205 3-3-3
Applied Philosophy in Kinesiology and Health
Application of philosophical theories and concepts to kinesiology and health. Prerequisite: Completion of 15 credit hours, including ENGL 100 or KIN 101.

KIN 220 3-3-1
Research Methods in Kinesiology and Health Studies
Focus on various research methods and statistical analyses used in Kinesiology and Health Studies. Emphasis on ability to read and understand published research. Course focuses on basic research methods, experimental and non-experimental designs, and basic statistical analyses students will encounter in most Kinesiology and Health Studies research. Emphasis is placed on becoming a critical consumer (read, understand and critique) of research. Students are expected to design their own research project to answer a relevant research question for their own area of interest. Prerequisite: One of SOST 201, STAT 100 or STAT 160, and one of ENGL 100 or KIN 101.

KIN 240 3-3-1
Physical Activity and Aging
This course provides the student with a basis for examining the effects of the aging process and the relationship amongst physical activity, sport, recreation, leisure and therapeutic recreation and aging. The course will also explore aspects of fitness assessments and adaptation of physical activity programs to meet the needs of the whole continuum of fit to frail older adults. Prerequisite: KIN 170 and KIN 120.

KIN 241 3-3-0
Social Construction of Disability
This course will enable the student to critically explore the traditional and contemporary understanding of disability, as a social construction, from a variety of perspectives: educational, socio-psychological, historical, socio-political, gender and community. Through this course, students will be able to contextualize disability within a broader social context. Prerequisite: KIN 120.

KIN 260 3-3-1.5
Human Anatomy
The study of human anatomy and the application of this knowledge to movement and physical activity. Although the course will focus on muscular and skeletal anatomy, basic anatomy of all systems will be covered.

KIN 261 0-3-3-3
Human Anatomy and Physiology I
An introduction to the anatomy and normal functioning of the human body. The course content includes levels of organization of the human body, cells, tissues, and the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, cardiovascular and respiratory systems. The course takes a holistic approach to understanding and integrating anatomy and physiology in both lecture and laboratory components.
Note: Students will not receive credit for both KIN 261 and BIOL 110; Further, students who have credit for KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOL 110 and BIOL 111, cannot take for credit KIN 260, KIN 267 or KIN 268

KIN 262 0-3-3-3
Human Anatomy and Physiology II
A continuation of KIN 261. Further study of the anatomy and normal functioning of the remaining systems (systems involved with integration, control, absorption, excretion and reproduction), integrating anatomy and physiology in both lecture and laboratory components. Prerequisite: KIN 261.
Note: Students will not receive credit for both KIN 261 and BIOL 110; Further, students who have credit for KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOL 110 and BIOL 111, cannot take for credit KIN 260, KIN 267 or KIN 268

KIN 267 3-3-3
Human Physiology I
An introductory class that deals with cellular mechanisms and some of the functions and interactions between major physiological systems of the human body.
Prerequisite: KIN 260
Note: Students with KIN 260, KIN 267 and KIN 268 cannot take for credit KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOL 110 and BIOL 111

KIN 268 3-3-0
Human Physiology II
An advanced class in the major physiological systems that are involved in the preservation of homeostasis in the human body.
Prerequisite/Corequisite: KIN 267
Note: Students with KIN 260, KIN 267 and KIN 268 cannot take for credit KIN 261 and KIN 262, or BIOL 110 and BIOL 111

KIN 269 3-3-2
Exercise Physiology
This course introduces the physiological mechanisms involved during physical activity. The course covers the physiological effects of acute and chronic exercise on the metabolic, neuromuscular, respiratory, and cardiovascular systems.
Prerequisite: KIN 267.

KIN 275 3-3-0
Introduction to Nutrition
This course will provide an introduction to the macro and micro nutrients vital to health and well-being with specific reference to the Dietary Reference Intakes and the Canada’s Food Guide to Healthy Eating. Emphasis will be on their functions, metabolism and dietary sources.

KIN 278 3-3-3
Introduction to Health Promotion
This course will introduce students to health promotion across lifespan. Specific emphasis will be on population health principles and approaches across lifespan.
Prerequisite: KIN 170 or KIN 171.

KIN 280 3-3-1.5
Motor Learning and Control
This course provides a general introduction to the analysis of motor performance in human movement and sport, with specific application of the neuromuscular, biomechanical and psychological factors that affect motor skill acquisition and performance. Prerequisite: KIN 260.

KIN 281 3-15:15-15
Special Topics in Kinesiology
Courses numbered KIN 281AA-ZZ are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

KIN 285 3-3-2
Biomechanics
This course provides a general introduction to the fundamental human movement science discipline of biomechanics, a core discipline in many fields such as kinesiology, biomedical engineering, physical and occupational therapy, orthopaedics, ergonomics, etc. This course provides a basis for understanding both qualitative and quantitative human movement analysis techniques, with specific emphasis and application of functional anatomy, motion capture and classical mechanics (kinematics and kinetics).
Prerequisite: KIN 260.

KIN 308 3-3-0
International Experience Course
An intensive course offering will be delivered in an international location.

KIN 318 3-3-0
Speciality Discipline Course
This course will be delivered in an intensive format by a visiting scholar. Topics are variable.
KIN 321 3:3-0
Principles of Epidemiology
This course will provide a broad overview of the fundamentals of Epidemiology, and the methods involved in researching the distribution and determinants of health and disease in human populations. Basic principles as well as core measurements (rates, standardization, association) and interpretation (bias, confounding, interaction chance) issues will be covered. The course will also examine epidemiological approaches to study design including descriptive (cross-sectional and ecological), observational (cohort, case-control), and experimental (randomized controlled trials, community trials) approaches.
Prerequisite: One of STAT 100, STAT 160, SOST 201 or PSYC 305, or equivalent
Note: Research methods course or research experience is recommended.
Students can only receive credit for one of KIN 381AA or KIN 321.

Physical Disability and Well Being
This course will enable the student to further examine issues facing persons with a physical disability through the understanding of assessment and diversity of functioning. Using theory and practical application, students will critically examine the sociocultural, psychological, and functional aspects of physical disability and their implications on quality of life and well being.
Prerequisite: KIN 241

KIN 342 3:3-0
Developmental Disability and Well Being
This course will enable the student to further examine issues facing persons with a physical disability through the understanding of assessment and diversity of functioning. Using theory and practical application, students will critically examine the sociocultural, psychological, and functional aspects of developmental disability and their implications on quality of life and well being.
Prerequisite: KIN 241

KIN 350 3:3-1.5
Fitness Appraisal and Exercise Leadership
The scientific basis of physical fitness appraisal and exercise counselling will be examined, as will the administration of standardized tests of fitness and program leadership. Students will have the opportunity to write the Certified Personal Trainer exam through the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology.
Prerequisite: KIN 170 and KIN 269

KIN 355 0-3:3-1.5
Training and Conditioning
This course provides an intensive examination of the scientific and methodological theories, techniques, and planning methods utilized in training and conditioning.Prerequisite: KIN 269 and KIN 285

KIN 369 3:3-1.5
Advanced Topics in Exercise Physiology
This course examines current methods of appraising performance and prescribing exercise in diverse population ranging from the general population to athletes and individuals involved with physically demanding occupations.
Prerequisite: KIN 269 and KIN 285

KIN 370 3:3-0
Health Psychology
To provide exposure to various social psychological theories and models designed specifically in an attempt to understand health and exercise behaviours.
Prerequisite: KIN 115 and KIN 220; Bachelor of Health Studies Students: PSYC 101 and PSYC 102

KIN 373 3:3-0
Sport Psychology
A study of the psychological theories and concepts used in coaching individual and team sports and the factors related to their implementation. Special emphasis will be given to the theoretical models of anxiety, aggression, and activation.
Prerequisite: KIN 115

KIN 375 3:3-1.5
Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
An examination of the causes, symptoms, and appropriate treatment of athletic injuries and an opportunity to practice taping and other techniques used in the treatment and prevention of such injuries.
Prerequisite: KIN 260

KIN 378 3:3-0
Advanced Health and Wellness Promotion
An in-depth examination of health and wellness at the population levels in the context of health and health care trends. The course will also examine the development evidence-based health programs from needs assessment, program plan/implementation and evaluation.
Prerequisite: KIN 278

KIN 380 3:3-0
Advanced Topics in Motor Behaviour
Theories underlying skill acquisition and control of goal-directed movements will be discussed, with specific emphasis on the practical application these theoretical concepts. Current methods and experimental paradigms will be examined through advanced research topics. Our current understanding of motor behaviour will be guided by the structure and functional organization of the central nervous system.
Prerequisite: KIN 280 and KIN 285
Prerequisite/Corequisite: KIN 220

KIN 381 3:15-15-15
Special Topics in Kinesiology
Courses numbered KIN 381AA-ZZ are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

KIN 385 3:3-0
Clinical Biomechanics
This course will apply the basic principles of biomechanics to the understanding and assessment of musculoskeletal injury and movement related disorders. It will focus on clinical application and will demonstrate the relationship between biomechanical theory, assessment strategy and pathomechanics in the successful application of knowledge for treatment intervention. It will also encourage and promote independent research and inquiry in the field of biomechanics.
Prerequisite: KIN 285 and KIN 267

KIN 420 3:3-1
Diversity Issues in Kinesiology, Health, Sport and Recreation
This course examines the relationship between the diversity of the Canadian population and involvement in sport, recreation, exercise and/or physical activity. Specific areas of focus might include gender, race, ethnicity, sexuality, age, ability, social class, body type, and religion. Current issues will be used for discussion and illustration.
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours, including KIN 110, and KIN 120.

KIN 447 3:3-0
Seminar in Adapted Movement Science
A critical examination of historical and contemporary trends and assumptions concerning activity for persons with disabilities.
Prerequisite: Completion of 75 credit hours which includes KIN 241 and one of KIN 341 or KIN 342

KIN 450 3:3-1
Advanced Fitness Appraisal (CEP Preparation)
This course will examine advanced issues involving the physiological assessment, response, and adaptations from different exercise modalities. Topics include musculoskeletal morphology, exercise fatigue, cardiovascular kinetics, and endocrinology. This is a preparatory course for the Canadian Society for Exercise Physiology- Certified Exercise Physiologist (CEP), the highest exercise designation in Canada.
Prerequisite: KIN 350

KIN 475 3:3-0
Sport Nutrition and Exercise Metabolism
This course examines the basic principles of nutrition, including Dietary Reference Intakes, macro and micro nutrients and the important role that nutrition plays in sport, recreation, and athletic performance. The role of ergogenic aids, exercise metabolism and sports nutrition will also be examined.
Prerequisite: KIN 170, KIN 275 and KIN 269.
KIN 478 3:3-0
Health Promotion for Diverse Populations
This course will focus on health promotion principles across diverse populations within and outside Canada.
Prerequisite/Corequisite: KIN 378

KIN 481 3:15:15
Special Topics in Kinesiology
Courses numbered KIN 481AA-ZZ are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

KIN 485 3:3-0
Pathophysiology of Human Movement
Capacities for movement will be examined relative to structural and functional changes as a result of aging and/or progression of disease among individuals with specific cardiovascular, physical, and/or neuromuscular impairments.
Prerequisite: KIN 220 and KIN 260
Prerequisite/Corequisite: KIN 350

KIN 491 3:3-0
Variable Topic/Directed Reading an AA-ZZ series
An opportunity for senior students to pursue an in-depth analysis of a topic related to their area of interest/ major area of study. This must be supervised by a faculty member and approved by the Associate Dean (Undergraduate), or designate.
Prerequisite: Minimum 70.00% PGPA

KIN 491AA 3:3-0
Effects of Intense Exercise on Cerebral & Muscle Oxygenation: Interaction of Cardiac Autoregulation
This course will focus on readings in the field of exercise physiology as it relates to the effects of intense exercise in the heat on autonomic nervous system function and control. This course is also a practical application of the theory related to data collection: i.e., pilot work will be collected on participants exercising in the heat using electrocardiography (ECG) and heart rate variability.

KIN 491AB 3:3-0
Pathophysiology Mechanisms of Post-Concussion Syndrome
This Directed Readings Course will focus on readings related to the effects of concussion on autonomic nervous system function and control. This course will also include the analyses of research data (electrocardiogram [ECG], and heart rate variability [HRV]) collected on participants that have sustained a mild traumatic brain injury (mTBI) or concussion.

KIN 491AC 3:3-0
Pathophysiology of Concussion
This course will focus on readings related to the effects of concussion or mild traumatic brain injury (mTBI) on cerebral blood flow velocity (CBF) and mean arterial blood pressure (MAP) regulation. A research proposal and a comprehensive review of the literature will be developed with respect to age, gender, fitness levels and concussion history.

KIN 491AD 3:3-0
Cerebrovascular and Blood Pressure Alterations Following Concussion
This Directed Studies Course will focus on data analysis of previously collected traumatic brain injury (mTBI) or concussion research data. In particular, cerebral blood flow velocity (CBF), and mean arterial blood pressure (MAP) data will be analysed to determine the effects of concussion on these variables. This data will be analysed with respect to age, gender, fitness levels and concussion history.

KIN 491AE 3:3-0
Exercise Physiology and Metabolism
This course is comprised of advanced topics in exercise physiology and metabolism. The major goal of this course is for the student to better understand, critically examine and have an advanced understanding of exercise physiology and metabolism.

KIN 498 3:0-0
Honours Proposal
Supervised directed study and research leading to the development of a formal undergraduate thesis proposal for work to be conducted in KIN 499 (Honours Thesis).
 Prerequisite: KIN 220 ***

KIN 499 3:3-0
Honours Thesis
A thesis based on research previously proposed in KIN 498 (Honours Proposal). Formal approval of the research topic is given by attaining a minimum grade of 70% in KIN 498 (Honours Proposal). The thesis will be presented orally in an open forum.
Prerequisite: KIN 498
LING 100
Introductory Linguistics
An introduction to the main subdisciplines of linguistic inquiry: phonetics (speech sounds), phonology (sound patterns), morphology (word structure), syntax (sentence structure) and semantics (meaning).
Note: Students who have completed ENGL 260 or FR 226 are not permitted to enrol in this course.

LING 210
Phonetics & Phonology
The identification and production of speech sounds. Phonetic transcription. Study of the sound patterns of various languages.
Prerequisite: One of LING 100, CREE 206, ENGL 260, FR 226, NAK 206 or SAUL 206

LING 211
Morphology
Word formation in languages, grammatical categories and morphological typologies. Inflectional and derivational categories. Morphology in selected theoretical frameworks.
Prerequisite: One of LING 100, CREE 206, ENGL 260, FR 226, NAK 206 or SAUL 206

LING 212
Semantics
The study of meaning in language. Morpheme and word meaning, text meaning. Semantic components, domains/fields, and roles. Predictable variants of meaning, contexts, dictionaries, metaphors, cognition, Pragmatics, logic.
Prerequisite: One of LING 100, CREE 206, ENGL 260, FR 226, NAK 206 or SAUL 206

LING 213
Syntax
An introduction to grammatical analysis and syntactic variation cross-linguistically. Application to the analysis of grammatical structure of various languages.
Prerequisite: One of LING 100, CREE 206, ENGL 260, FR 226, NAK 206 or SAUL 206

LING 220
Interdisciplinary Linguistics
Basic introduction to historical linguistics, language acquisition, writing systems, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics, and other interdisciplinary areas of language study.
Prerequisite: One of LING 100, CREE 206, ENGL 260, FR 226, NAK 206 or SAUL 206

LING 230
Indigenous Languages of Turtle Island
Introduction to the classification of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas, with specific focus on Turtle Island (i.e. Mexico, the United States and Canada). Topics will include language in its social and cultural contexts, genetic and areal classification, selected linguistics structures and semantic systems, written and non-verbal communication systems.
Prerequisite: completion of 30 credit hours of University study or permission of the Department Head
Note: Formerly numbered LING 175. Students may receive credit for only one of LING 175 or 230.

LING 270
Sociolinguistics
The study of language from the perspective of linguistics. Topics may include: linguistic variation in space and time; language and social class, gender, and identity; diglossia, multilingualism and code switching; language birth and death, language revitalization and maintenance; language(s) in Canada and language policies.
Prerequisite: completion of 30 credit hours of University study.

LING 280
Language Documentation
This course will provide an introduction to the tools and techniques of language documentation. Focus will be given to the practical recording, preparation and presentation of linguistic data from the Indigenous Languages of the Americas.
Prerequisite: LING 100 or completion of the Arts Language Requirement.

LING 320
Historical Linguistics
Investigation of the ways in which languages change over time. Reconstruction of the older stages of a language through comparison with related languages. Reconstruction of the common ancestor language of related languages.
Prerequisite: LING 210 and 211, and one of CLAS 110, LING 212, LING 213, or LING 220

LING 325
First Language Acquisition
The course will provide information about how children acquire language from their initial, prenatal speech perception abilities until they can comprehend and produce complex sentences. The core areas of phonological, lexical, morphological and syntactic acquisition will be surveyed.
Prerequisite: LING 220 or permission of the Department Head
It is recommended that students take LING 210 in preparation for this course.

LING 327
Evaluation of Language Learning Processes
The cognitive and social aspects of second language mastery, and the processes of bilingual/bicultural development. Strategies for enhancing second language learning and acquisition with particular reference to First Nations languages.
Prerequisite: LING 220 or an introductory course in the teaching of English or French as a second language

LING 360
Applied Linguistics
An introduction to the use of Linguistics in the teaching and learning of First Nations languages. A survey of topics including communication and structure, cross-linguistic influence, teaching pronunciation, morphology, syntax and semantics, applications to orthography and literacy, etc.
Prerequisite: One of CREE 206, NAK 206, SAUL 206, or LING 100, and two 300-level CREE or SAUL courses or two 200-level LING courses.

LING 380
Research Methods of Linguistics
Prerequisite: LING 210 and LING 211

LING 410
Seminar in Phonology
Prerequisite: LING 210 or permission of the Department Head of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Cultures.

LING 411
Seminar in Morphology
Prerequisite: LING 211 or permission of the Department Head of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Cultures.

LING 412
Seminar in Semantics
Prerequisite: One of LING 212, CREE 312, or SAUL 312
LING 413  3:3-0
Seminar in Syntax
Contemporary syntactic theory. An examination of competing frameworks for syntactic analysis: relational grammar, transformational grammar, typological approaches, Natural syntax.
Prerequisite: One of LING 213, CREE 313, or SAUL 313

LING 480  3:3-0
Linguistic Fieldwork
Practical application of field methods and interview techniques to the study of First Nations and other indigenous languages. Formulation of alternative hypotheses pertaining to data gathered in interviews. Hypothesis testing and use of argumentation in hypothesis assessment. Data analysis and presentation.
Prerequisite: LING 380 and permission of the Department Head

LING 485  3:3-0
Structure of a Selected Language - an AA-ZZ series.
The major grammatical structures of a selected language or language family in typological, areal, and genetic contexts. Contributions to current issues in theoretical linguistics.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 485AA  3:3-0
Central Amer Indian Lng Struct
This course will explore the linguistic research done on Central American Indian languages, especially those of Mexico and Guatemala. Topics may include work in phonology, morphology, syntax, historical linguistics, areal linguistics, and linguistic relativity.
Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts, and Culture.

LING 485AB  3:3-0
Structure of the Cree Language
The major grammatical structures of the Cree language will be surveyed, including its Phonology, Morphology, Syntax and Semantics. The place of Cree linguistics structure within general linguistic theory will also be explored.
Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Language, Arts, and Culture.

LING 485AC  0-3:3-0
Structure of Dene Language
Investigation of the Dene Suline, Athapaskan: Phonology, Morphology, Syntax.
Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Language, Arts, and Culture.

LING 485AD  3:0-0
Structure of Dakota and Nakota Languages
Investigation of the Dakota, Nakota and Siouan Languages: Phonology, Morphology, Syntax.
Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Language, Arts, and Culture.

LING 490  3:3-0
Directed Individual Research in Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for senior undergraduates.
Prerequisite: One of LING 410-413
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 495  3:3-0
Directed Individual Research in Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for senior undergraduates.
Prerequisite: One of LING 410-413
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 496  3:3-0
Topics in Descriptive, Theoretical, or Applied Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 497  3:3-0
Topics in Descriptive, Theoretical, or Applied Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 497AA  3:3-0
Neurolinguistics
This course explores the neurological basis of our ability to speak, understand speech, learn languages, and read and write. Interest in the information that makes these processes possible, how it is acquired and how it is represented in the cerebral cortex.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 497AB  1-3:3-0
Pediatric Neurolinguistics
This course is about language and the brain, especially in relation to children. Topics include Acquisition and Use of Language beginning at birth (and even before), as well as "abnormal" situations including injury and disease and other developmental disorders.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 497AC  3:3-0
Adolescent Neurolinguistics
This course is about language and the brain, especially in relation to adolescence. Topics include the normally developing brain and use of language, including language acquisition, beginning at puberty. As well, abnormal situations, including injury and disease and other harmful effects on the brain, will be studied. Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 498  3:3-0
Topics in Descriptive, Theoretical, or Applied Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 499  3:3-0
Topics in Descriptive, Theoretical, or Applied Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.

LING 499AA  3:3-0
Topics in Descriptive, Theoretical, or Applied Linguistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
Note: Permission of the Coordinator of Linguistics or Head, Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Culture is required to register.
MAP Media, Art, and Performance

MAP 001 0:2:0

Strategies for Success

A non-credit introductory seminar to the University and the Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance. Students will be introduced to the variety of resources and services available to them and their roles and responsibilities as members of the university and fine arts communities. The seminar will also provide students with degree and career possibilities. This required course must be completed within the completion of 30 credit hours of study. Students who are placed on academic probation before completing 60 credit hours of study or who have received a Must Withdraw academic action on their transcript must repeat this course.

Note: Normally offered in the fall semester only

Note: Indian Fine Arts students taking or who have taken INDG 104 are not required to take this course

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of FA 001 and MAP 001

MAP 100 3:3:0

Selected Topics

Selected topics in interdisciplinary studies in Media, Art, and Performance at the 100 level.

Explore Regina

The experiential course aims to introduce students to the numerous arts and culture activities taking place in the City of Regina. The goal of this course is to expose students to local cultural events and provide a deeper understanding of art and performance management.

MAP 101 3:3:0

Introduction to Pop Culture

This course will begin to map the terrain that is Pop Culture. The changing ground of pop culture has been mapped by different theoretical and methodological approaches in ways that are not historically fixed. This course provides an introduction to the theories, practices and evolving legacy of pop culture.

MAP 102 3:1:0

Exploring Cultural Regina

This course focuses on experiential learning. Students will visit a wide variety of cultural institutions across the city, exploring and critically interacting with many of Regina’s creative organizations.

Note: Students cannot receive credit for both MAP 102 and MAP 212

Note: Pop Culture Option

Note: Cannot be taken after a student has completed more than 60 credit hours in residency at the University of Regina.

MAP 200 3:3:0

Selected Topics

Selected topics in interdisciplinary studies in Media, Art, and Performance at the 200 level.

MAP 200AB 3:0:0

Puppetry & Design: Animating Objects

This course teaches students the basic concepts of puppetry including - the animation of objects, puppetry construction and history. Emphasis on the importance for puppeteers to have a foundation in both construction and performance in order to succeed in the art form.

Examining the Construction of Identity through the Lens of Costume and Popular Culture

This class examines how and why we construct and define our identity by our dress. It is a historiographic survey of popular culture and dressing thru the lens of the subject matters of gender dressing, dress in subcultures, the history of fashion, and the influence of the media on dress.

Post-Punk: Style & Sound

From their origins and legacies to their visual style and sound, this course examines a diverse range of popular music genres - both mainstream and marginal, including EDM, new wave, goth, noise, industrial - that developed since the late 1970s and fall under the umbrella "post-punk."

MAP 200AE 3:3:0

The Story of the Imaginary Indian in North America

The “Indian” is work of colonial imagination, conjuring up a variety of racist and sexist characteristics. This course explores the creation and subsequent history of such constructions in Mexico, the United States, and Canada since 1492.

MAP 200AF 3:3:0

Visual Imaging: Looking Through the Lens

This course focuses on visual literacy through the “reading” of and creation of images. This course challenges students to think more critically about the images we see daily. Students will gain visual literacy in “reading” and creating images as seen through the “lens” of the viewer, the literal photographic lens, and the lens of society, critically engaging with fine art, commercial, and industry produced images.

Animals in Pop Culture

This course will begin to critically map the proliferation of animal lives and representations within 20th and 21st century popular culture. From Walt Disney’s ‘Mickey Mouse’, to ‘nature documentary’ television series, to the current ‘Pepe the Frog’ meme—and beyond—this course will study the multivalent appearances and agencies of animals in a range of popular media forms. Through considering ways in which animal lives are mediated by human cultural theories and practices, this course aims to contribute to understandings of popular culture’s aesthetic, biopolitical, ethical and ecological dimensions.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of 24 credit hours or permission of the instructor.

MAP 200AH 3:0:0

Meditation and Art

This course focuses on developing contemplative or meditative tools (deep listening, improvisation) as part of the artistic and creative process.

From the Underworld: Puppets and Myths

This course will explore the historically parallel roles of puppetry and myth in illuminating the shadow and the unconscious through a variety of puppet-making techniques in studio, puppeteering training, mythology storytelling and discourse, and the collective creation and public presentation of a short puppet performance based on a traditional myth.

Prerequisite: THAC 260 or a 200-level VART course or permission of the Instructor or Department Head.

MAP 201 3:3:0

Global Migrations

Globalization is an issue that traverses political, cultural and representational forms today. This course explores multiple interdisciplinary topics of importance to thinking globalization including: "wonder" of the new world; Africa the "dark continent"; voyages of "discovery"; colonial villages at early World Fairs; global terrorism; and contemporary art of "migration".

MAP 202 3:3:0

Indigenous Issues in the Arts

This course provides an overview of both pre-contact and contemporary issues related to Indigenous arts--visual, performance, music, film, theatre and storytelling. Further, the course will explore issues such as treaties, colonial issues, stereotypical representation and how artists and scholars have responded to such issues in the arts.

Prerequisite: 24 credit hours or permission of the instructor

MAP 203 3:3:0

Musicals on Stage and Screen

This course examines the similarities and radical differences in the development of the spectacles of the American musical and the American movie musical. It places emphasis on issues of identity and social commentary as evidenced in some of the most important musicals of the past century. This course is NOT performance based.

Prerequisities: completion of 24 credit hours or permission of instructor.

NOTE: Students may only receive credit for one of MAP 203, FA 203 or FA 300 AL

MAP 204 3:3:0

Prairie Gothic

This course will explore themes and tropes of prairie gothic across a variety of visual, performative and written texts.Note: Pop Culture Option
MAP 205

Fashion and Hollywood

From the earliest days of movie making Hollywood positioned itself as the epitome of style. This course examines the connections between fashion and Hollywood and how with the rise of mass entertainment Hollywood became the runway of the people.

Note: Pop Culture Option

MAP 206

Shoes: The Power of the Heel

From foot binding to platform heels to the bird inspired stilettos of Alexander McQueen and Cinderella's glass slipper, this course examines the meaning of shoes as an outward signifier of personal identity and as social construct.

Note: Pop Culture Option

MAP 207

Underwear and Social Meaning

From corsets and crinolines to thongs and briefs, underwear has played a major role in the construction of personal and social identity. This course will examine major trends in the development of underwear with a special focus on its historic role as framing, exploiting and containing sexual and gender roles.

Note: Pop Culture Option

MAP 208

The Business of Fashion

Who decides what we are wearing next season? How do the products arrive in stores? What happens to unsold stock and how to plan stock levels? Why some retailers are successful and others are not? The course introduces students to the fundamentals of the fashion cycle: marketing, merchandising and buying.

Note: Students may receive credit for one of MAP 200 AA or MAP 208.

MAP 212

Engaging Cultural Regina

This course focuses on experiential learning. Students will visit a wide variety of cultural institutions across the city. Students will explore, respond, and critically engage with a number of Regina’s creative/cultural organizations.

Prerequisite: Completion of 30 credit hours

Note: Pop Culture Option

Note: Students cannot receive credit for MAP 212 and MAP 102

MAP 299

Community Engaged Practice

This course gives students the opportunity to work in collaboration with the Michele Sereda Artist in Residence on an artistic/cultural project focused on social and community engagement.

Prerequisites: Completion of 30 credit hours or permission of Associate Dean [Undergraduate]

MAP 299AA

Socially Engaged Practice

This course examines socially-engaged art including community-based, activist, applied and relational practices. It focuses on social-engagement in visual art, performance and creative technologies in local, national and international contexts. It considers professional, ethical, aesthetic, and practical issues. Includes options for creative projects or final essays.

Prerequisite: Completion of 15 credit hours or the permission of the instructor(s)

MAP 300

Selected Interdisciplinary Topics in Fine Arts - an AA-ZZ series.

Interdisciplinary courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of MAP 300 XX and FA 300XX

MAP 300AO

Collaboration and Spontaneity Across Disciplines

Explores collaboration and improvisation across artistic and other disciplinary boundaries. Examines histories of improvised and interdisciplinary art forms, informed by key theories in the area of critical studies in improvisation. Classes and assignments will include studio work and discussion seminars, students may choose to work on essays or practical assignments.

MAP 300AP

Marking the Land: Nature + Site + Histories

In this unique course site-specific and responsive studio projects will inform a national Landmarks project organized by Fine Arts Deans at universities across Canada to consider Canada's sesquicentennial celebration in June 2017. In this hybrid course, students will be introduced to concepts and methods focused on understanding, contextualizing, and responding to the human and animal act of creating and imaging landmarks.

MAP 300AQ

Engaging Climate Change: Creativity, Community, Intervention

This multidisciplinary course explores climate change and environmental concerns, with a focus on resilience, community, Indigenous worldviews, science, artist engagements, local/global projects, and thinking outside the box in the face of change. Assignments will be applied and/or artistic explorations of course themes. Students from all university disciplines are welcome.

Prerequisite: 60 credit hours or permission of instructor.

MAP 300AR

City of York Study Tour

Founded by the Romans in 71 AD and conquered by the Vikings in 960 AD York has been the site of several important moments in England's cultural history: The York Mystery Plays, The Academy of St. Olave's, it is the birthplace of Guy Fawkes, the centre of early British photography, home to the York Shakespeare Project, and is the city most identified with Richard III. The two weeks of study in York, England is hosted by York St. John University with a focus on performance, literature and history.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of 30 credit hours with a minimum UGPA of 70% or successful completion of 30 credit hours with a UGPA of 67- 69.9% and a letter of permission from Department Head (or equivalent)

Note: In addition to University of Regina tuition, students are responsible for air fare and out of pocket expenses. The York St. John Program fee covers accommodation, breakfast & lunch, and all admissions; students will have this fee covered with a Global Education Scholarship from UR International.

MAP 301

Mapping Illness

What does it mean to represent the diseased body? What are the relations between health, illness, Other-ness and deviance in representation? As several interdisciplinary investigations of the body in crisis this course will look at how illness has been represented from the sixteenth century to the present.

Prerequisite: Completion of 30 credit hours

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of FA 301 and MAP 301

MAP 302

Queer: Cultures and Theories

An interdisciplinary investigation of contemporary queer theory and ideas. Partially based upon guest presentations from specialists in their fields, this course provides students with a critical framework for thinking about queer issues today. Topics: GLBTQ histories and theories; issues of representation; queer art, cinema, literature; queer issues in cross-cultural perspectives.

Prerequisite: Completion of 30 credit hours

Note: Students may only receive credit for one of FA 302 and MAP 302

MAP 303

The Politics and Performance of Food: Spectacle / Revenge / Abstinence

This course examines historic and current uses of food in performance, film and art - as an affective element of spectacle and as potent signifier. Students will approach this investigation through critical texts, the work of key artists in this area and through creative projects.

Note: Pop Culture Option

Note: Students cannot receive credit for both FA 300 AM and MAP 303.

MAP 400

Selected Topics in Media, Art, and Performance

Interdisciplinary courses designed as required for groups of senior undergraduates.
MAP 400AA
Studies in Art, Materials, and Techniques
This seminar course addresses thematic research strengths in the Faculty in order to provide students with a deeper exploration into topics within Media, Art, and Performance. Thematic seminar topics will relate to Popular and Visual Culture, Gender, Sexuality, and Culture; Social and Community Engagement, Indigenous Arts and Culture, or Curatorial Studies and Cultures Display.
Prerequisite: 84 credit hours.

MAP 400AB
Adv Sem - Cultural Studies I
Seminar exploring the fundamental themes and issues of cultural studies including the history, theory and aesthetics of modernity, the effect of mass society on social movements and personal identity; and the influence of capital on cultural production.

MAP 400AC
International Arts Management
With a focus on global perspectives and initiatives this experiential course gives students a foundation in innovation, entrepreneurship and creativity in relation to the management of cultural organizations. There is no travel connected to this course.
Prerequisite: Successful completion of 45 credit hours

MAP 400AD
Engaging Climate Change: Creativity, Community, Intervention
This multidisciplinary course explores climate change and environmental concerns, with a focus on resilience, community, Indigenous worldviews, science, artist engagements, local/global projects, and thinking outside the box in the face of change. Assignments will be applied and/or artistic explorations of course themes. Students from all university disciplines are welcome.
Prerequisite: 60 credit hours or permission of instructor.
*Note: Students cannot receive credit for both MAP 300AQ and MAP 400AD.

MAP 401
Arts Administration
This course will introduce students to basic concepts in arts administration, including the process of managing and marketing an arts organization, and examining models for funding arts organizations. The course will use a case-based approach to examine how film, music, theatre and visual arts organizations are run.
Prerequisites: 60 credit hours, BUS 260 and one of BUS 210, BUS 250, BUS 285

Theory and Photo-Based Practices
This seminar uses photography to develop familiarity with foundational social, philosophical, and ideological theories of representation and interpretation that have influenced fine arts practices since 1839. The seminar will inquire into the distinctive uses of photography as art and photography, highlighting the diversity of image practices within the fine arts.
Prerequisites: 60 credit hours or permission of the Instructor
Note: Art History Program Option
Note: Creative Technologies Program Option
Note: Cultures of Display Program Option

Professional Placement
The Professional Placement option is an experiential learning course giving students the opportunity to further their knowledge and skill set(s) within an institution related to their major. Typically the field work is done off campus. The project or terms of the placement will be developed through consultation between the home department, the student and the institution. Supervision is jointly undertaken by the host institution and a faculty member from the student's home department. Can be taken as a P/F only.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of 60 credit hours and permission of Department Head.

MAP 499BY
Professional Placement
Upon successful application and acceptance the student, through observation, analysis, research and participation, will be immersed in activities related to their field of study in a cultural or other organization approved by the Faculty.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of 60 credit hours and permission of Department Head.

MATH 051
Mathematics Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.

MATH 052
Mathematics Co-op Work Term
Four-month co-op work term #2 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: MATH 051 ***

MATH 053
Mathematics Co-op Work Term
Four month co-op work term #3 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: MATH 052 ***

MATH 054
Mathematics Co-op Work Term
Four month co-op work term #4 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: MATH 053 ***

MATH 101
Introductory Finite Mathematics I
This is an introductory course intended to familiarize the students with the basic concepts of arithmetic, number theory, set theory, symbolic logic, and finite mathematics. Topics include logic, sets, numeration systems, arithmetic in non-decimal systems, system of integers, elementary number theory and modular arithmetic. There will be a strong emphasis on critical thinking, problem solving, understanding concepts and their applications.
Prerequisite: University Admission.
Note: Students who have received credit for any mathematical course (other than MATH 108) cannot take this class for credit, unless it is explicitly required in their program or they have received consent from the Head of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

MATH 102
Mathematical Modelling and Precalculus
A course in problem solving through the use of mathematical models involving algebraic, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions and their graphs. The purpose of this course is to enhance students' abilities to express, visualize, and model real-world problems through an understanding of common functions and their graphs.
Prerequisite: Any one of the following: Foundations of Mathematics 30, Precalculus 20, Math B30, Math C30, or AMTH 092
Note: Students who have received credit in Math 103 or 110 cannot take Math 102 for credit

MATH 103
Applied Calculus I
Differentiation of algebraic, exponential, and logarithmic functions. Optimization, curve sketching, and integration by substitution.
Prerequisite: Precalculus 30 or Mathematics B30 with a grade of at least 65%, or PMTH 092 with a grade of at least 70%, or Math102
*Note: Although Math 103 leads to Math 112, students who require three or more calculus-based courses should take Math 110 instead of Math 103. Students will only receive credit for one of MATH 103 or 110.
MATH 108  Mathematical Problems, Ideas and Personalities  3:3:0
This course explores some of the most significant and enduring ideas in mathematics: the great theorems, discoveries of beauty and insight that stand today as monuments to the human intellect.
 Prerequisite: Precalculus 20 or Foundations of Math 20 or Math A30 or AMTH 092
* Note: This course is designed mainly for students in arts or education who wish some exposure to mathematical ideas. It satisfies the critical thinking requirement in the Faculty of Arts.

MATH 110  Calculus I  3:3:1
An introductory class in the theory and techniques of differentiation and integration of algebraic and trigonometric functions. Topics include limits, optimization, curve sketching, and areas.
Prerequisite: Precalculus 30 with at least 75%, or Calculus 30 or Mathematics B30 and C30 with a grade of at least 65% in each or Math 102
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 103 or 110

MATH 111  Calculus II  3:3:1
Differentiation and integration of exponential and logarithmic functions; methods of integration and applications; indeterminate forms, L'Hospital’s rule and improper integrals; sequences, series, power series and Taylor series.
Prerequisite: MATH 110, or MATH 103 with a grade of at least 80%

MATH 112  Applied Calculus II  3:3:1
An introduction to calculus in two and three variables, first-order differential equations, infinite series, and calculus of trigonometric functions.
Prerequisites: MATH 103 and Precalculus 30, or MATH 110
Note: MATH 112 is a terminal course and is not intended for students who require further calculus courses. Students will receive credit for only one of MATH 111 and 112

MATH 116  Mathematics of Finance I  3:3:0
This course provides a basis of financial mathematics. Topics include measurement of interest, basic and general annuities, yield rates, amortization schedules, and sinking funds.
Prerequisite: MATH 103 or 110
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 116 and ACSC 116

MATH 122  Linear Algebra I  0:3:3-1
A course intended to introduce students to elementary linear algebra, particularly at a computational and applied level. Topics include matrices and systems of equations, inversion, determinants, vectors, inner products, eigenvectors and eigenvalues.
Prerequisite: Precalculus 30, Mathematics B30 and C30, or Math 102.

MATH 124  The Art and Science of Secret Writing  3:3:0
The course examines methods of message encryption and cryptoanalysis. Attention will be given to the history of cryptography and the public-policy questions raised by its use in conjunction with the Internet. However, the focus will be on the mathematical tools needed to develop and analyze encryption algorithms.
 Prerequisites: Foundations of Math 30 or Precalculus 20 or Math B30 or AMTH 092 ***

MATH 127  Introductory Finite Mathematics II  3:3:0
Elementary linear programming, counting methods involving permutations and combinations, probability, statistics, regression, and consumer mathematics including interest calculations, annuities and amortizations.
Prerequisite: Foundations of Math 20 or Precalculus 20 or Math B30 or AMTH 092 or MATH 101
Note: Mathematics 127 is not algebra, nor pre-calculus, nor calculus. It satisfies the critical thinking requirement in the Faculty of Arts.

MATH 213  Vector Calculus  3:3-1
A study of vector functions and functions of several variables and their derivatives; Applied maximum and minimum problems, Lagrange multipliers, multiple integration, integration in polar, cylindrical and spherical coordinates; Green's, Stokes' and the Divergence Theorem.
Prerequisite: MATH 111 and 122

MATH 216  Mathematics of Finance II  3:3:0
This course is a continuation of Mathematics of Finance I and covers more advanced topics ranging from the theory of interest to principles of corporate finance. Specific topics include bonds, securities, analysis of risk and basic principles of pricing theory.
Prerequisite: MATH 116 or ACSC 116
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of Math 216 and ACSC 216

MATH 217  Differential Equations I  3:3:0
Prerequisite: MATH 111 and MATH 122

MATH 221  Introduction to Proofs and Problem Solving  3:3:0
An introductory course intended to familiarize students with mathematical reasoning and proof techniques, including direct reasoning, indirect reasoning, and mathematical induction. Topics include elementary number theory, logic, sets, functions, and relations.
Prerequisite: Two university math courses beyond MATH 102.

MATH 222  Linear Algebra II  3:3:0
A second course in linear algebra. There will be some emphasis on proofs. Topics include matrices, abstract vector spaces, subspaces, bases, inner product spaces, linear transformations, matrix factorizations, symmetric matrices, quadratic forms, and applications of linear algebra.
Prerequisite: MATH 122, and one of MATH 103 or 110.

MATH 223  Introduction to Abstract Algebra  3:3:0
An introductory course in abstract algebra. Topics include number systems and an introduction to groups, and some other mathematical structures.
Prerequisite: MATH 221.

MATH 231  Euclidean Geometry  3:3:0
This course is intended to familiarize the student with Euclidean geometry. Topics include the postulates and theorems of both classical and modern Euclidean geometry.
Prerequisite: MATH 221
Note: This course is designed for students without a strong background in Euclidean geometry. Students with a mark of at least 70% in either Mathematics C30 or Precalculus 30 should register in MATH 231

MATH 251  Introduction to Probability  3:3-0
Basic notions of probability; discrete and continuous random variables; expectation; moment generating functions; joint discrete random variables.
Prerequisites: MATH 111 or MATH 112 and one of STAT 160 or STAT 200
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 251 and Stat 251

MATH 261  Methods of Numerical Analysis  3:3-2
Number systems and errors, solutions of polynomial and other nonlinear equations, interpolation, numerical differentiation and integration, the cubic spline.
 Prerequisite: MATH 111, MATH 122, and CS 110 ***
* Note: Students will receive credit for only one of CS 261, CS 345 or MATH 261. *

MATH 300  Introduction to Set Theory  3:3-0
Prerequisite: MATH 221.

<td>This course is an introduction to the structure of finite dimensional complex semisimple Lie algebras, via root systems, as well as their finite dimensional irreducible representations, through highest weight modules. Prerequisites: MATH 222 and 329 Note: Students can only receive credit for one of MATH 418, 495AD, and MATH 818.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 420</td>
<td>Introduction To Commutative Algebra</td>
<td>0-3:3-0</td>
<td>A first course in commutative algebra. Topics include prime and maximal ideal, radicals, Nakayama's Lemma, exact sequences, tensor products, localization, Noetherian and Artinian rings. Additional topics may vary. This class is designed for advanced students in disciplines such as Mathematics and Computer Science who want to learn some commutative algebra. Prerequisite: MATH 222 and MATH 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 421</td>
<td>Number Theory II</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>This course is a second course in number theory. Topics include quadratic reciprocity, arithmetic functions, distribution of primes, and the prime number theorem. Prerequisite: MATH 321, 305, and 312.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 422</td>
<td>Abstract Linear Algebra</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>A course which presents linear algebra in a theoretical setting. Topics include vector spaces, dual spaces, linear transformations, Jordan canonical form, the spectral theorem, and selected topics. Prerequisite: MATH 222 and MATH 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 423</td>
<td>Modern Algebra II</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Continuation of Modern Algebra I with further study of rings, groups and fields. Prerequisite: MATH 323.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 424</td>
<td>Applied Algebra</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>This is a course in applications of algebra to a selection of topics concerning enumeration, coding, finite state machines and cryptography. Prerequisite: MATH 223.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 426</td>
<td>Combinatorial Matrix Theory</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>A survey of some of the topics from combinatorial matrix theory including: spectral graph theory and algebraic graph theory. Prerequisite MATH 222 and 327.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 427</td>
<td>Graph Theory</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>This course is a survey of topics in graph theory. Topics may include the following: matchings and factorizations, connectivity, colouring, isomorphisms, homomorphisms, automorphism groups and transitive graphs, extremal problems, adjacency matrices, spectral graph theory, strongly regular graphs, Cayley graphs, Ramsey theory and random graphs Prerequisite: MATH 222 and 327.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 431</td>
<td>Differential Geometry I</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Differential invariants of curves and surfaces in Euclidean three-space. Prerequisite: MATH 217.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 432</td>
<td>Differential Geometry II</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Continuation of topics covered in Differential Geometry I. Prerequisite: MATH 431.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 438</td>
<td>Associative Algebras, Groups, and Representation Theory</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>An introductory course on the fundamental results concerning associative algebras, groups, and the representation theory of groups and algebras. Prerequisite: MATH 222 and MATH 323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 441</td>
<td>General Topology</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>An introduction to point set topology including separation axioms, compactness, connectedness, continuous functions and metric spaces. Prerequisite: MATH 305.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 442</td>
<td>Algebraic Topology</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>A first course in commutative algebra. Topics include, homotopy type, more detailed information on the fundamental group, and the homology and cohomology of topological spaces. Prerequisite MATH 441, or approval of the department chair.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 461</td>
<td>Numerical Analysis II</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Numerical solutions of ordinary differential equations; numerical solutions of partial differential equations; linear and non-linear problems. Prerequisite: MATH 361 or CS 361.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 481</td>
<td>Partial Differential Equations</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Classification and basic properties of equations, separation of variables, Fourier series, Sturm-Liouville theory, Fourier and Laplace transforms. Prerequisite: MATH 381.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 482</td>
<td>Laplace Transforms</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Properties of the Laplace Transform, Convolutions. The inversion integral. Applications to solutions of differential equations. Prerequisite: MATH 217 and 312.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MATH 485</td>
<td>Introduction to Functional Analysis</td>
<td>3:3-0</td>
<td>Metric, normed linear and inner-product spaces, linear operators and fixed point theorems. Spectral decompositions the Stone-Weierstrass theorem, applications. Prerequisite: MATH 312 and 313.</td>
</tr>

MATH 495
Directed Reading in Mathematics - an AA-ZZ series
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **

MATH 495AB
Toplogy II
Toplogy II consists of Tietze extension theorem, Urysohn metrization theorem, tychonoff theorem, compact metric spaces.

MATH 495AC
Introduction to Continuum Mechanics his course is an introduction to the physical concepts and mathematical methods of continuum mechanics with the aim of preparing the student for further studies and research in fluid dynamics.
Prerequisite: MATH 381

MATH 495AE
Introduction to von Neumann algebras
In this course we introduce von Neumann algebras and we emphasize connections with ergodic&group theory. We present constructions of von Neumann algebras from groups & actions; explain how group theoretical aspects (e.g. amenability) and orbit equivalence are connected to von Neumann algebras. We assume no background except basic knowledge of real analysis.

MATH 496
Directed Reading in Mathematics - an AA-ZZ series
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.
 Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **

MATH 497
Honours Seminar I
This is the first of two honours seminars. This course must be taken by all honours students in their fourth year. Students are required to attend all seminars and to present a seminar on a topic determined in consultation with the Department Head.
* Note: This seminar is restricted to honours standing students in mathematics. *

MATH 498
Honours Seminar II
This is the second of two honours seminars. This course must be taken by all honours students in their fourth year. Students are required to attend all seminars and to present a seminar on a topic determined in consultation with the Department Head.
* Note: This seminar is for honours standing students in mathematics. *

MU 100
Introduction to Music
What would life be without music? This broad survey course explores the changing role of music within society across time and disciplines, with emphasis on developing critical listening skills.
* Note: Not available for credit in BMus or BMusEd programs. *

MU 101
Introduction to Basic Music Skills
Enjoy a heightened musical experience through class participation, tutorials and computer-assisted instruction in ear-training, music theory, score-reading and keyboard skills, at introductory levels; for students with little or no musical training.
* Not available in the BMus or BMusEd. *

MU 122
Ear Training II
A continuation of MU 121, also including recognition of chord types and harmonic progressions.
 Prerequisite: MU 121 ***

MU 199
Selected Topics in Music: An AA-ZZ series
Courses covering selected topics in music.

MU 204
Jazz Appreciation
An overview of the history and development of jazz music, tracing the performers and style periods in the genre from its 19th-century African-American origins through to the present. Students also study the social and historical factors that affected the development of jazz. Emphasis is placed on developing listening skills.
* Note: Not available for credit in BMusEd program*
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of MUHI 204, MU 204, and MU 110 *

MU 205
Themes in Popular Music: An AA-ZZ series
Selected topics from the rich variety of popular music genres, from the Beatles to Lady Gaga, rap, and hip hop. Several approaches are used, including race, gender, means of production and technology. Music-reading ability not required.
* Note: Students may only receive credit for one of MU 205, MU 320AG or MUHI 205 *

MU 299
Selected Topics in Music: An AA-ZZ series
Courses covering selected topics in music.

MU 299AA
Film Soundtracks: How Sound impacts Story
How does sound--a combination of music, sound effects and ambient sound--impact story in a motion picture? Students will learn the language and tools necessary for answering this question and acquire a greater awareness of how the the unfolding of a film's story is influenced by its soundtrack.
* Note: Music reading ability is an asset but is not required. *

MU 299AB
Music is Everywhere
We are surrounded by music all day long, but why, when and how do we listen? This course provides students with tools necessary to listen to, and think critically about various musical styles of the past and present. A “listening journal” term project will replace the final exam.

MU 299AD
Cuba: Music, History, Language, Culture
This course is for students embarking on the University Choirs tour to Cuba. We will study Cuban music, history, language, and culture, and perform Cuban choral music.
* Note: Class and rehearsal times will be scheduled to accommodate participants and will begin late April to the end of the trip, June 3.*

MU 319
Music Cultures of the World
An inclusive survey of classical, popular and folk music traditions from around the world. As well as expanding their listening skills, students study music in culture and music as culture and, in the process, develop fresh approaches to their own musical traditions. Music-reading ability not required.
Prerequisite: completion of 15 credit hours
* Note: Students cannot receive credit for both MU 319 and MUHI 319*

MU 349
Piano Pedagogy
This course is designed to introduce students to a select variety of topics in the field of piano pedagogy, ranging from beginning to late-intermediate levels. Students will be introduced to various methods and pedagogy texts, and will observe and assist in private and group lessons.
Prerequisite: Permission of the department head needed to register

MU 370
The Business of Music
This course provides students with skills necessary to establish oneself post-degree individually in the field of music/music pedagogy "grantsmanship," establishing a studio, taxation issues, adjudicating, touring, stage presence, advertising, etc.
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours

MU 399
Selected Topics in Music: An AA-ZZ series
Courses covering selected topics in music.
MU 399AA
Creating Music with Technology
Learn to write and perform music using commercial, open-source and DIY audio tools with the computer. This course is designed to be useful to students regardless of literacy in music reading and notation, and welcomes students of varied experience and background in music, creative sound and computers.

MU 399AB
Music Technology in the Classroom
Practical Music Technology
A course, covering instruction of technology in the band, choir, and music classrooms. Practical issues such as the setup and use of audio equipment, microphone selection and techniques, mixing boards, music notation and theory software, recording systems and use in the classroom, and phone apps that aid students and teachers.

MU 399AC
Music Technology in the Classroom
This course is designed for the musician in the classroom that needs technology in the classroom to teach and help deliver a successful music program.

MU 499
Selected Topics in Music: An AA-ZZ series
Courses covering selected topics in music.

MU 499AA
Introduction to Schenkerian Analysis
An introduction to Schenkerian analysis via readings, score study, listening and weekly analysis assignments.
Prerequisite: MU 325 or MUTH 421.

MUCO 217
The Art of Music Composition
An introduction to composing music in a variety of styles in use since c.1800. Students will write their own short pieces and hear them rehearsed and performed by the Students' New Music Ensemble.
 Prerequisite: Music reading ability ***
Note: Students who have taken MUCO 317 or MUCO 318 cannot receive credit for MUCO 317.
3:3-0

MUCO 320
Living Music: Acoustic Instrument Studies
Study of acoustic instruments, and of the compositional techniques that have been used to write music for these 13 instruments from the Classical period to the present day. This course will enhance your ability to appreciate instrumental repertoire, and to write musical arrangements for a variety of instrumental ensembles.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours and music reading ability. ***
Note: Students cannot receive credit for MUCO 340 and MUCO 320 or MUCO 440 and MUCO 320.
3:3-0

MUCO 341
Introduction to Digital Music Software
Taught in an electronic studio environment, this course has two complementary parts: a historical survey of electronic music up to the present and practical guidance and experience in the use of current compositional software used in music notation, editing, sound production and recording, such as Sibelius, Pro Tools and Max/MSP.
 Prerequisite: 30 credit hours or permission of instructor. ***
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of MUCO 326, MUCO 327, or MUCO 341
3:3-0

MUCO 417
Composition I
Individual projects. Intended for students in the BMus program with a concentration in composition, who are preparing to compose for different instrumental and vocal combinations ranging from solo to orchestra.
 Prerequisite: MUTH 212, MUCL 241 and MUCO 320 ***
Note: Students may only receive one of MU 417 and MUCO 417.

MUEN 101
University Concert Band
A non-auditioned ensemble open to all students and community members. This ensemble focuses on performing exciting and dynamic repertoire.

Note: a $100 materials fee will be charged to students registered in section 003.

MUEN 103
University Jazz Ensemble
Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall.

Note: a $100 materials fee will be charged to students registered in section 003.

MUEN 105
Vocal Jazz Ensemble
Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall

MUEN 107
University Wind Ensemble
An auditioned ensemble open to all students, including non-music majors. This ensemble performs challenging standard and contemporary wind band repertoire and boasts guest conductors and soloists as part of its concert series.

Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall

MUEN 123
New Music Ensemble
An open instrumentation ensemble that studies and performs works of the 20th and 21st century music. This ensemble performs exciting and dynamic repertoire and boast guest conductors and soloists as part of the concert series.

MUEN 131
University Concert Choir
All are welcome to sing in the University Concert Choir! A dynamic ensemble of approximately 75 singers, its programming spans a wide range of genres and styles with regular performances with orchestra. All are required to meet with the instructor in the first weeks of school for a voice placement hearing.

Note: a $100 materials fee will be charged to students registered in section 003.

MUEN 135
University Chamber Singers
University Chamber Singers is an elite multi-award winning 28-voice ensemble focusing on a cappella choral repertoire. Entrance is by audition only with heavy emphasis on sight-singing ability. Please contact the instructor for audition times. Singers must prepare an art song or an aria for the audition.

Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall

Note: a $100 materials fee will be charged to students registered in section 003.

Collegium Musicum
Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall

MUEN 157
Miscellaneous Ensemble - an AA-ZZ series.
Permission from the instructor required to register in the fall.

MUEN 157AA
 Saxophone Ensemble
Students will participate in a saxophone ensemble which is part of the Group II ensembles.

MUEN 157AB
Jazz Combo
Students will participate in a jazz combo which is part of the Group II ensembles.

MUEN 157AC
Trumpet Ensemble
Students will participate in a trumpet ensemble which is part of the Group II ensembles.

MUEN 157AD
Piano Trio
Students will participate in a piano trio which is part of the Group II ensembles.

MUEN 157AE
Brass Quintet

MUEN 157AF
Trio for Clarinet, Cello and Piano
Student soloists are responsible for learning their parts in selected works, or movements, from the repertoire for clarinet, cello and piano, and for participating in regular coaching sessions as a trio. The instructor will choose whether students should participate in an end-of-semester exam or public performance(s).

Permission of the Department Head is required to register

MUEN 157AG
Jazz Ensemble II
An auditioned ensemble open to all students. This group will play a variety of jazz styles.

MUEN 159
Percussion Ensemble
Permission of the instructor is required to register in the fall

MUEN 171
University Orchestra
A high-level ensemble open to musicians from the Music Department, the university and the wider community (audition may be required). The University Orchestra performs challenging works in a wide range of styles and eras. Each semester it presents a full concert in the University Theatre.

Permission from the instructor is required to register in the fall.

Note: a $100 materials fee will be charged to students registered in section 003.

This course in political phenomenology will consist of lectures and seminars through which we will approach democracy as it is lived by persons, rather than as a set of institutions or processes. It will rely on student input and participation to encourage reflection on contemporary experiences of democracy. Prerequisite: One 200-level PHIL course or permission of department head.

PHIL 370AL 3:3-0
Knowledge, Truth and Power
This course considers some of the complex relationships between knowledge, truth, power and society. Some questions that will be discussed include: Are knowledge and truth relative to a culture or society? How do unequal distributions of power serve to validate certain understandings of the world while marginalizing others? Prerequisite: One 200-level PHIL course or permission of department head.

PHIL 371 3:3-0
Advanced Social and Political Philosophy
A study of recent theorizing about problems in the realm of social and political philosophy. Prerequisite: One 200-level PHIL course or permission of Department Head.

PHIL 372 3:3-0
Studies in Ethical Theory - an AA-ZZ series.
A critical examination of particular ethical topics, points of view, or movements. Prerequisite: One 200-level PHIL course or permission of Department Head.

PHIL 372AI 3:3-0
Hegel's Philosophy of Right
This course is a seminar class that involves an intensive examination of Hegel's "Philosophy of Right". This text is a profound and important work of political philosophy with both historical and contemporary significance. Difficult and challenging, "The Philosophy of Right" nonetheless offers rewarding insights into important questions around freedom, individualism, rationality, community and the state. Prerequisite: One 200-level Philosophy course, or permission of the department head.

PHIL 379 3:3-0
Marx
A careful examination of key philosophical issues and concepts in the work of Karl Marx, including alienation, the materialist theory of history and the critique of capitalism. While the ideas of other Marxian thinkers could from time to time be considered, the primary focus is on Marx's own writings. Prerequisite: One 200-level philosophy course, or permission of Department Head.

PHIL 410 3:3-0
A seminar in a particular philosopher or a philosophical movement.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register. **

PHIL 410A 3:3-0
Plato
A study of key dialogues and major themes in the works of Plato.  Permission of the department head is required to register. **

PHIL 410AC 3:3-0
Hegel
A study of the works of Georg Hegel.  Permission of the department head is required to register. **
PHIL 410AJ
Socrates
This course explores Plato's Socrates, as well as ancient and modern critiques of Socrates, from Aristophanes' CLOUDs to Socrates' place in the philosophies of Hegel, Kierkegaard and Nietzsche. We will conclude with Kierkegaard's contrast between Socrates and Christ, and with Nietzsche's contrast between Socrates and Dionysus. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 410AL
Heidegger
This course discusses one of the most intriguing and philosophically important books of the 20th century, Heidegger's Being and Time. We will be addressing some of the most fundamental philosophical questions concerning the meaning of being, human existence, death and temporality. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 410AN
Philosophy of Thomas Aquinas
Through a textual analysis of St. Thomas Aquinas's major philosophical work the Summa Contra Gentiles, this course will consider the existence of God, his nature and his relation to both the spiritual and the material aspects of reality. The overarching concern is to come to some understanding of the relationship between faith and reason.

PHIL 410AO
Being Human: The Philosophy of Simone de Beauvoir
This course is an historical reading of Beauvoir's philosophical work from Pyrrhus and Cineas to The Second Sex. Our focus will be her theories of human ambiguity, the tension between human freedom and responsibilty, the relationship between metaphysics and literature.

Permission of the Department Head is required to register

PHIL 412
Aristotle's Ethics II
An advanced seminar on topics related to Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics. Prerequisite: Permission of the Department Head.

PHIL 413
Advanced Topics in Continental Philosophy
A critical examination of developments in French and German philosophy from the early twentieth century to the present. Figures to be studied may include Husserl, Heidegger, Gadamer, Derrida, Levinas, Irigaray, and Ricoeur. Permission of the department head is required to register.

PHIL 420
Honours Tutorial
An intensive reading and writing course on selected topics in philosophy. Prerequisite: Available to Honours students only, by permission of the Department Head

PHIL 428
Advanced Topics on Kant - an AA-ZZ series.
A seminar on Kant. An intensive study of one or more aspects of Kant's philosophy. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 428AA
Kant's Critique of Pure Reason
A Philosophical investigation of Kant and the Critique of Pure Reason. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 429
Kant's Ethics II
An advanced study of the moral philosophy of Immanuel Kant and its impact from the time of his contemporaries to the present. Prerequisite: Permission of the Department Head.

PHIL 432
Classics of 20th Century Analytic Philosophy
A critical examination of the main movements of 20th century analytic philosophy. - Philosophers discussed will be selected from the following: Russell, Frege, Moore, Wittgenstein, Ayer, Ryle, Hampshire, Carnap, Quine, Davidson, and others. Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head.

Note: Formerly numbered PHIL 215. Students may receive credit for only one of PHIL 432 or 215.

PHIL 435
Advanced Topics in Philosophy - an AA-ZZ series.
A seminar in a particular philosophical problem. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 435AD
Self-Deception

PHIL 435AG
Problems in Philosophy of Hist
Collingwood and Epistemological problems in knowledge of the past. Nietzsche & Foucault - the use and abuse of History. Permission of the department head is required to register.

PHIL 435AP
Consciousness
An examination of recent work on consciousness, with a particular emphasis on intentional or representational theories of consciousness. Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head

PHIL 435AS
Philosophy, Literature, and the Good Life
A critical investigation of the significance of literary works for philosophy in general and for ethics in particular. Authors to be discussed include Stanley Cavell, Alasdair MacIntyre, Iris Murdoch, Martha Nussbaum, and Onora O'Neill. Prerequisite: permission of the department head is required to register

PHIL 435BB
Philosophy of Language
Attention will be given to theories of meaning, the relation of language to language in use, empiricist criteria of meaningfulness, and particular problems such as vagueness, open texture, and metaphor. Permission of Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 435BC
Philosophy of Mind
Philosophy of mind. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 435CE
Biological Agency
A philosophical analysis of contemporary cognitive ethology biological agency. The course will investigate the theoretical aspects of modern comparative, evolutionary, and ecological studies of human and non-human thought processes, beliefs, rationality, information processing, agency and consciousness. Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 435CF
Philosophy for Cyborgs: Technology in Peculiar Places II
This is an advanced course in philosophy of technology and techno-politics. The root of "technology" is techne -- the combining of human reason and judgment with the material world. In this course, we look for technologies in peculiar places, including practices of care, eugenics, making race and disability, and philosophy. Reading works in philosophy, literature, and STS, we'll theorize technologies and discover that we are always already "cyborgs." Prerequisite: Permission of Phil Department Head.

PHIL 435CG
C.B. MacPherson
This course examines work of C.B. Macpherson, one of Canada's most prominent and important political thinkers. It covers a wide range of topics including Macpherson's theory of possessive individualism; his account of human nature; his relation to Marx and Marxism; his theory of democracy; and his critique of the social sciences. Prerequisite: Permission of department head.

PHIL 436
Epistemology II
Seminar on selected topics in epistemology. Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head.

Note: The next expected offering of this course will be Winter 2013.
PHIL 437  3:3:0
Metaphysics II
A seminar on selected topics in Metaphysics.  Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head.

PHIL 444  3:3:0
Philosophy of Mind II
Seminar on Selected Topics in Philosophy of Mind.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.  This course is equivalent to PHIL 344 and PHIL 435B. Students may hold credit for only one of PHIL 330, PHIL 435B or PHIL 444.

PHIL 445  3:3:0
Philosophy of Language II
Seminar on selected topics in Philosophy of Language.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.  This course is equivalent to PHIL 435BB. Students may not hold credit for both PHIL 435BB and 445.

PHIL 446  3:3:0
Philosophy of Action II
Seminar on selected topics in Philosophy of Action.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.  This course is equivalent to PHIL 440. Students may not hold credit for both PHIL 440 and 446.

PHIL 470  3:3:0
Ethics - an AA-ZZ series.
Seminar on selected topics within moral philosophy.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 470AB  3:3:0
Ethical Theory & Moral Character
Advanced Topics in Ethics: Ethical Theory and Moral Character.  Permission of the department head is required to register.

PHIL 470AC  3:3:0
Technology, Privacy & Ethics
Technology, privacy and ethics.  Prerequisite: One 200-Level PHIL course or Permission of the department head

PHIL 470AD  3:3:0
Issues in Consequential Ethics
This course will examine some of the following issues: the nature of well-being, the relationship between utilitarianism and rights, consequentialism and integrity, or direct and indirect consequentialism.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 470AE  3:3:0
Topics in Environmental Ethics
An advanced study of ethical issues regarding the relationship between human beings and nonhuman nature. Topics include the moral status of animals and other living things, intergenerational justice regarding pollution and conservation of natural resources, and the value of wilderness protection.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHIL 470AF  3:3:0
Environmental Ethics and Public Policy
An examination of ways in which environmental ethics can be relevant to public policy decision-makers through specific policy areas (e.g., cost-benefit analysis, sustainability, biodiversity). Key concepts and principles of environmental ethics will be explored in relation to possible understandings of public policy (including its normative dimensions).  Prerequisite: Permission of Department Head.

PHIL 470AG  3:3:0
Freedom and Responsibility
Advanced Ethics - an AA-ZZ Series. A study of recent theorizing about problems in the realm of moral philosophy.  Prerequisite: One 200-level philosophy course ir permission of Department Head

PHIL 470AH  3:3:0
Metaethics II
Metaethics studies the nature and foundation of moral claims. In this course, various forms of scepticism will be considered (nihilism, subjectivism, relativism). The naturalism/non-naturalism, realism/anti-realism debates will also be considered.  Permission of the Department Head is required to register.
PHYS 052
Physics Co-op Work Term #2
Four-month co-op work term #2 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 051 ***

PHYS 053
Physics Co-op Work Term #3
Four-month co-op work term #3 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 052 ***

PHYS 054
Physics Co-op Work Term #4
Four-month co-op work term #4 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 053 ***

PHYS 055
Physics Co-op Work Term #5
Four-month Co-op work term #5 approved by the department and arranged by the Co-op coordinator.

PHYS 103
Essential Physics: Ideas and Applications
This is an introductory course about the fundamental and modern ideas in physics and their applications in technological developments. The essential mathematical skills will be developed and applied to everyday physics in an interactive and conceptual learning environment.

PHYS 109
General Physics I
General algebra-based physics, including classical mechanics and geometrical optics.
Prerequisite: Pre-Calculus 30 or Calculus 30 or Math B30 and C30 or Math 102.
* Note: May not be taken for credit if a student has previously received credit for PHYS 109 or a higher number physics course.*

PHYS 111
Mechanics
Kinematics in one, two and three dimensions, dynamics of particles and rigid bodies, including work, energy, and rotational kinematics and dynamics.
 Prerequisite: Physics 30 and MATH 110. Concurrent enrolment allowed.

PHYS 112
Waves and Optics
A course dealing with oscillations, wave motion, sound and geometrical and physical optics.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 111 (recommended) or 109 or 119, and MATH 110 (may be taken concurrently) ***

PHYS 119
General Physics II
A continuation of PHYS 109: Fluid mechanics, heat and thermodynamics, waves, sound, radiation, electrostatics and electric current.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 109 or ENGG 140 ***
* Note: Phys 119 may not be taken for credit if a student has previously received credit for Phys 111 or Phys 112*.

PHYS 140
Physics of Energy and the Environment
An exploration of the energy used in a wide variety of systems including cars and homes. Physical concepts will be applied to various energy production schemes and usages found in our lives. We will discuss today's dominant energy sources and the alternative energy sources of tomorrow. This semi quantitative course will provide a scientific foundation for the energy issues facing society. No physics background is required.

PHYS 142
From Quarks to the Cosmos
A conceptual approach will be used in this course which is directed towards liberal arts students. The aim is to understand the physical world, from the microscopic (building blocks of nature), through the macroscopic (everyday phenomena), to the galactic (universe). Only simple algebra will be employed.
* Note: Physics majors may not take this course for credit*

PHYS 201
Electricity and Magnetism
An introduction to electricity and magnetism for science and engineering students, covering the topics of electrostatics, D.C. circuits, magnetism, and electromagnetic induction.
 Prerequisite: MATH 213 and one of PHYS 111, 112 or 119. Math 213 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 202
Classical Mechanics I
A course in intermediate mechanics for physics majors and honours students as well as engineering students. Topics include motion of systems of particles and rigid bodies, accelerated reference frames, and central forces.
 Prerequisite: MATH 213 and one of PHYS 111, 112 or 119. MATH 213 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 219
Introductory Radiation Science and Biophysics
Radioactivity exists naturally in the soil, water, and air in variety of forms. Beneficial uses of manmade radiation include energy production, medical diagnoses and treatments, transportation safety, precision industrial measurements. This course covers the principles of radiation science and explores safe uses of radiation for betterment of our lives.
Prerequisite: PHYS 109 or PHYS 111

PHYS 240
Technological and Engineering Applications of Modern Physics
This class takes you on a tour of how the power of special relativity, quantum and subatomic physics is harnessed to create technological and engineering developments, such as nuclear reactors, lasers, integrated circuits, superconductors, liquid crystal displays, quantum encryption, GPS, medical imaging devices and photonics.
Prerequisite: PHYS 119

PHYS 242
Introduction to Modern Physics
Special theory of relativity, introduction to wave mechanics, early quantum physics, Bohr atom, radioactivity, and nuclear reactions.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 201 ***

PHYS 251
Mathematical Physics I
Curvilinear co-ordinates, partial differential equations, boundary value and initial value problems with special emphasis on physical systems, series solutions and special functions.
 Prerequisite: MATH 213 and 217.

PHYS 261
Heat and Thermodynamics
An introduction to the concepts of temperature and thermometry, the laws of thermodynamics and applications, kinetic theory.
 Prerequisite: MATH 111 and one of PHYS 111 or PHYS 112.
NOTE: PHYS 119 may be substituted for PHYS 112, with permission of the Department Head.

PHYS 301
Classical Mechanics II
The mechanics of rigid bodies, Hamilton and Lagrange equations of motion and their applications, oscillations and normal co-ordinates.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 202, MATH 213 and 217. MATH 217 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 311
Electromagnetism I
Maxwell's equations, dielectric and magnetic properties of matter, and multipoles.
 Prerequisite: PHYS 201, MATH 213 and 217. MATH 217 may be taken concurrently.
PHYS 319  3:3-0
Health Physics
A course on radiation, its effects and protection of biological systems. Interaction of radiation with matter. Radiation detection and measurement. Introduction to dosimetry and dose calculations. Health instrumentation and risk management.  Prerequisite: PHYS 242 or PHYS 219

PHYS 322  3:3-0
Physical Optics and Electromagnetic (E/M) Radiation
Maxwell's equations and E/M waves, the E/M spectrum, energy of an E/M wave, the Poynting vector, optics of planar surfaces, interference, coherence, polarization, Rayleigh scattering, Cerenkov radiation, and applications including waveguides and antennas.  Prerequisite: PHYS 311

PHYS 342  3:3-0
Atomic Physics
Operator formalism of modern quantum mechanics, commutation relations, the Schrödinger equation and its applications for the harmonic oscillator and one-dimensional potentials, central fields, the hydrogen atom and complex atoms.  Prerequisite: PHYS 112, 242 and 251. PHYS 251 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 352  3:3-0
Mathematical Physics II
Tensor calculus, group theory, integral transforms, and Green's functions.  Prerequisite: MATH 312 and PHYS 251

PHYS 362  3:3-0
Statistical Mechanics
The theory of classical and quantum statistical mechanics and applications to systems of physical interest including lasers and atomic lasers.  Prerequisite: PHYS 261 and 342. PHYS 342 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 372  3:0-6
Modern Experimental Physics
An intermediate laboratory course, normally taken by physics majors and honours students in their third year, from subject matter covered in third-year courses.  Prerequisite: PHYS 201, 202, 242, and 261

PHYS 377  3:2-4
Introductory Electronics
Ever wondered what makes all the electronic gadgetry around you tick? Want to learn how to read schematics, solder, program and build circuits, but unsure where to begin? This introductory course on the theory and operation of basic analogue and digital electronics, circuit design, implementation and application is for you.  Prerequisite: PHYS 201

PHYS 392  3:3-1.5
Physics of Continuous Media
An introduction to elasticity and elastic moduli, fracture, fluid flow, viscoelastic effects, compressible flow ideal fluid flow and applications.  Prerequisite: PHYS 202, MATH 213, and MATH 217. With permission of the Department Head, all courses may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 401  3:3-0
Quantum Mechanics I
Axiomatic formulation, representations, angular momentum and spin, perturbation theory, systems of identical particles, and matrix mechanics.  Prerequisite: PHYS 301 and 342

PHYS 411  3:3-0
Advanced Classical Mechanics
Hamilton-Lagrange equations, Hamilton-Jacobi theory and applications, transformation theory, and special relativity.  Prerequisite: PHYS 251 and PHYS 301

PHYS 421  3:3-0
Solid State Physics
Physics of crystalline solids, binding, energy bands, lattice vibrations, and electronic properties.  Prerequisite: PHYS 342

PHYS 430  3:3-0
Introduction to General Relativity
Law of universal gravitation, the equivalence of inertial and gravitational mass, Riemannian geometry, Einstein's field equations, Schwarzschild solution, black holes and gravitational collapse, cosmology.  Prerequisite: PHYS 411

PHYS 432  3:3-0
Nuclear Physics
Radioactive decay mechanisms, interactions of nuclear radiation with matter, spectroscopy, nuclear models, and applications to medicine, material science, and engineering.  Prerequisite: PHYS 342 and 401. PHYS 401 may be taken concurrently.

PHYS 442  3:3-0
Introduction to Elementary Particle Physics
Classification of particles, particle detectors and accelerators, invariance and conservation laws, hadron-hadron interactions, weak interactions, quark model and group theory, and Introduction to QCD.  Prerequisite: PHYS 401

PHYS 471  3:0-6
Modern Experimental Physics II
Fourth-year lab combining modern experimental techniques together with material from 400-level courses.  Prerequisite: PHYS 301, 311, 342, and 372

PHYS 491  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 491A A  3:3-0
Quantum Mechanics II
Aspects of approximation methods in quantum mechanics with applications to physical processes, Unitary transformations and vector addition coefficients. An introduction to path integral formalism in quantum mechanics.  Prerequisite: PHYS 401

PHYS 492  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 492AA  3:3-0
Stellar Structure and Evolution
The physics of stellar interiors and stellar evolution will be reviewed. The course will look at the development of the equations of stellar structure and the methods by which they can be solved. The evolution of our Sun, from formation through to its white dwarf stage will be investigated.

PHYS 493  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 494  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 495  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 496  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.

PHYS 497  1-3:3-0
Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed to meet the specific needs of individual students. These courses are restricted to students in an honour program.
PHYS 498 0:1:0
Senior Research
This course must be taken by all honours physics students, and by applied physics cooperative students in one semester of their final year of study. Students are required to attend all seminars and to present an oral presentation and written report on a topic determined in consultation with the PHYS 498/499 coordinator.
Prerequisite: Completion of 90 credit hours.
Note: Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PHYS 499 3:1:0
Honours Thesis
This course must be taken by all honours physics students. Students are required to attend all seminars and to present an oral presentation and written report on a topic determined in consultation with the PHYS 498/499 coordinator.
Prerequisite: PHYS 498.
Note: Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

PMTH 091 3:3-2
Intermediate Algebra I
An introduction to algebra, this course is the first of two courses that meet the algebra requirement of courses at the University of Regina.
Prerequisite: University Admission to any Faculty
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of PMTH 091 and AMTH 091.

PMTH 092 3:3-2
Intermediate Algebra II
A continuation of Intermediate Algebra I, this course meets the algebra requirement of courses at the University of Regina.
Prerequisites: Foundations of Math 20 or Precalculus 20 or AMTH 091 or AMTH 092
Note: Students may only receive credit for one of PMTH 092 and AMTH 092.

PPE 200 3:3-0
Foundations of PPE
This interdisciplinary course will focus on a particular issue (e.g. health care) and examine how that topic would be approached by each of the three disciplines of philosophy, politics, and economics. Emphasis will be placed on the differences between these approaches, and on understandings that emerge only through combining them.

PPE 400 3:3-0
Capstone Seminar in PPE
This course examines topics at the intersection of Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (e.g. justice, power, and choice), each in significant depth. The precise topics examined will vary to some extent, based on the expertise of the particular instructor and the research topics pursued by students in any given year.
Prerequisite: PPE 200 and have completed 60 credit hours.

PR 100 3:3-0
Foundations of Public Relations
This survey course will introduce students to the theoretical and practical foundations of public relations/communications. Students will examine key theories, models and ethical principles that underpin the profession; the nature and composition of public relations as a career; and the major steps in the strategic public relations process.

PR 101 3:3-0
Writing and Editing for Public Relations
This course will introduce students to the conventions and formats of writing for public relations, as distinguished from other forms of business writing. Students will develop an awareness of audience, objectives and key messages when planning their writing before moving on to practice with several common public relations formats.

PR 200 3:3-0
Strategic Communication Planning
Students will learn to apply strategic planning principles to the development of effective communication programs. The course will emphasize the use of research, analysis, goals, objectives, audience and issue analysis and measurement of results.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***

PR 201 3:3-0
Communications Tools and Techniques
An effective approach to Public Relations involves the activities of planning, implementing, and evaluating. The tools and techniques are how Public Relations is implemented. This course will outline the Public Relations tool kit and provide an understanding of which techniques are appropriate in specific situations.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***

PR 202 3:3-0
Research and Evaluation: Measuring Effectiveness and Success
How do you demonstrate the value of a communications strategy against ROI, education and behaviour change and your value as a communicator? Students will learn the importance of research and evaluation for measuring and demonstrating the effectiveness of communication activities.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both PR 202 and PR 37

PR 203 3:3-0
Media Relations
Students will learn how to navigate all contemporary forms of media and the complexities around traditional, social and online media. This course also provides a comprehensive analysis of the media and the development of skills to accommodate the needs of different media and stakeholders.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both PR 203 and PR 39

PR 204 3:3-0
Organizational Communications in Public Relations
This course examines the nature and function of communications in organizations, both internal and external, with an emphasis on concepts, tools, and skills to enhance effective communications. The course will include discussion of communicating change, cultural diversity, employee engagement and branding.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***

PR 205 3:3-0
Social Responsibility and Ethics
This course will provide an understanding of current ethical questions and professional codes of ethics when performing public relations tasks for media, the public, and other constituencies. Case studies and current literature will be used to explore applications of ethical practice in crisis situations. Issues related to corporate social responsibility will be emphasized, including the PR professional’s role in managing and reflecting an organization’s corporate culture.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***
Note: Students may not receive credit for both PR 205 and PR 38

PR 290 3:3-0
Public Relations Trends and Special Topics
Courses designed to cover current trends and selected topics in public relations/communications.
 Prerequisite: PR 100 ***

PSCI 100 3:3-0
People, Power and Politics: An Introduction
An introduction to the issues, concepts and institutions of contemporary politics in both Canadian and international contexts, inviting critical thinking on subjects such as power, citizenship, democracy, diversity, feminism and colonialism. It links these topics to current world political events and issues. The objectives of the course are to introduce concepts and approaches in political studies; and to cultivate civic education.

SOC 400 Honours Seminar
A weekly seminar devoted to the discussion of special issues in sociology, the reports of research projects, and to the presentation of papers by both students and faculty.
Permission of the Department Head is required to register

SOC 401 Honours Seminar
A weekly seminar devoted to the discussion of special issues in sociology, to reports of research projects, and to the presentation of papers by both students and faculty.
Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

SOC 404 Honours Research
A senior undergraduate research methods seminar with special focus on controversies in social science methodology.
Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

SOC 418 Classical Social Theories
This course provides an overview of the emergence and development of sociological theories in the 19th and early 20th centuries.
Prerequisite: SOC 285 or 295 and one 300-level SOC course or permission of the Department Head.
Note: Formerly numbered SOC 318. Students may receive credit for only one of SOC 318 or 418.

SOC 419 Contemporary Social Theories
The course provides an overview of the development of sociological theories through the 20th century into the 21st century.
Prerequisite: SOC 285 or 295 and one 300-level SOC course or permission of the Department Head.
Note: Formerly numbered SOC 319. Students may receive credit for only one of SOC 319 or 419.

SOC 460 Theoretical Perspectives on Development and the Environment
This senior seminar analyzes and reflects upon the major theoretical issues in development and the environment.
Prerequisite: One 300-level course from the Development and the Environment area and completion of 45 credit hours, or permission of Department Head

SOC 480 Issues in Social Theory
This senior seminar analyzes and reflects upon the major issues in the development of social theory.
Prerequisite: One 300-level course from the development of theory foundation and 45 credit hours, or permission of Department Head

SOC 485 Sociological Imagination
This senior seminar is the capstone class for sociology majors and is to be taken in the final year of the program. Students reflect upon and analyze the major theoretical issues in sociology.
Prerequisite: A declared major in Sociology and completion of 75 credit hours or permission of the Department Head

SOC 490 Directed Readings - an AA-ZZ series.
Courses designed for individual students.
Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

SOC 499 Honours Paper
Candidates for the Honours degree work with a committee to prepare an honours paper in accordance with the department's guidelines.
Prerequisite: SOC 404.
*Permission of the Department Head is required to register.

SOST Social Studies

SOST 110 Introduction to Mass Media
This course introduces students to analyses of the mass media of communication in modern societies.

SOST 201 Statistics and Software for the Social Sciences
This course introduces students to the basic methods of statistics with applications in the social sciences and the use of computer software for data management, manipulation and (univariate and bivariate) statistical analysis.
Prerequisite: Completion of 12 credit hours or SOC 100 or permission of the Department Head
Note: It is recommended that sociology majors take SOST 201 and 203 concurrently in the Fall semester.

SOST 203 Introduction to Social Research Methods
An introduction to the social research process and the ethical dilemmas faced by social scientists. A survey of the essential procedures for investigating social research problems, including writing literature reviews, stating testable hypotheses, specifying conceptual and operational definitions for relevant concepts, sampling, and selecting appropriate methods for data collection.
Prerequisite: 12 credit hours or permission of the Department Head
Note: It is recommended that sociology majors take SOST 201 and 203 in the Fall semester.

SOST 306 Applied Methods: Quantitative Approaches
In this course, students will produce and analyze quantitative data, using a survey and other methods. Students will be introduced to computer programs and use these to assist in writing reports and papers that analyze the data. This class is for sociology majors.
Prerequisite: SOST 201 and SOST 203, or permission of department head
Note: This class is intended for sociology majors

SOST 307 Applied Methods: Qualitative Approaches
This course is a practical exploration of the principles and methods of qualitative analysis, including interviews, focus groups, participant observation, content analysis, and discourse and media analysis. Students will design and conduct a research project.
Prerequisite: One 200- or 300-level sociology course and SOST 203, or permission of Department Head.

SPAN Spanish

SPAN 111 Introductory Spanish I
Focuses on the acquisition of basic skills of pronunciation, reading, writing, and conversation, for students with little or no Spanish experience. Includes instruction in basic grammar, syntax, and vocabulary for culturally appropriate interaction.
Prerequisite: No previous background in Spanish. Refer to the Department of International Languages Section of the Undergraduate Calendar (How to Choose a Language) for details.
Note: Students may not receive credit for both SPAN 111 and SPAN 110.
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 100. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 100 or 111.
SPAN 112
Introductory Spanish II
A continuation of the skill development started in SPAN 111. Emphasis on a variety of verb tenses and moods, as well as expansion of basic vocabulary.
Prerequisite: SPAN 111 or Grade 12 Spanish, or permission of Department
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 112 and SPAN 113 or SPAN 110
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 101. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 101 or 112

SPAN 113
Introductory Spanish: Accelerated
Accelerated coverage of introductory Spanish for students with some Spanish knowledge, but insufficient mastery to enter SPAN 211, eg, high school classes, family background (without reading or writing experience), or poor results in a long gap after, SPAN 111 and 112.
Prerequisite: Placement test and permission of the Department
Note: Students may earn credit for only one of SPAN 112 or 113, or 110
Formerly numbered SPAN 290AD. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 290AD or SPAN 113

SPAN 211
Intermediate Spanish I
Further development of oral and written skills through the intensive review and expansion of basic grammatical concepts and the expansion of vocabulary and culturally appropriate communication through oral activities, readings and compositions.
Prerequisite: SPAN 112, 113, or 110 or permission of the Department
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 200. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 200 or 211

SPAN 212
Intermediate Spanish II
A continuation of Spanish 211.
Prerequisite: SPAN 211 or permission of the Department
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 201. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 201 or 212

SPAN 214
Spanish Skills Development Through Reading, Writing and Conversation
Complementary to the grammar-focused courses, the main goal of this course is to increase vocabulary and understanding of grammar concepts through reading, discussion and written exercises based on a variety of short stories and articles at the intermediate level. Development of both written and oral comprehension and expression.
Prerequisite: SPAN 211 (can also be taken concurrently) or permission of the Department
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 290AC. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 290AC or SPAN 214
Note: Students who have completed, or are, concurrently registered in SPAN 311 or who have been assessed as having a level of Spanish ability well above that expected in SPAN 214 should see the Spanish Coordinator for permission to register in SPAN 314

SPAN 215
Introduction to Hispanic Culture
Expands on the cultural knowledge acquired in the Spanish language courses. An introduction to the Spanish-speaking regions of the world, and the study of some traditional distinctive features of Hispanic societies.
 Prerequisite: SPAN 211, or permission of the department ***

SPAN 290
Selected Topics in Hispanic Studies - an AA-ZZ series.
Study of a selected topic or topics in Hispanic literature or culture.
Prerequisite: Depends on specific offering, SPAN 112 minimum. Consult Department Head and Spanish Coordinator for more information.
Permission of the Department may be required to register in some offerings.

SPAN 311
Advanced Spanish I
Continued development of oral and written communication. Emphasis is on the study of problematic points of grammar and idiomatic usages, as well as vocabulary expansion, through readings, compositions, presentations and class discussions.
Prerequisite: SPAN 212, 214 and 215 or permission of the department
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 300. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 300 or 311

SPAN 312
Advanced Spanish II
A continuation of Spanish 311.
Prerequisite: SPAN 311 or permission of the department.
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 301. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 301 or 312.

SPAN 314
Spanish Skills Development Through Reading, Writing and Conversation: Advanced
Complementary to the grammar-focused courses, the goal of this course is to increase vocabulary, grammar mastery, and Spanish expression through reading, writing and discussion, based on a variety of readings. Directed to students with a high-intermediate level of Spanish comprehension and expression. Assignments tailored to individual student needs.
Prerequisite: SPAN 311, taken prior or concurrently, or permission of the Department, based on language assessment
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 314, 214, 290AC or 390AD

SPAN 320
Spanish American Civilization
This course examines the historical bases and cultural movements that formed the identity of Spanish Americans. Students are invited to amplify their language and analytical skills through an interdisciplinary study of the civilizations of Spanish Americans and the role they play in the community of nations.
Prerequisites: SPAN 212, 214, and 215, or permission of Department
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 315. Students may not receive credit for both SPAN 320 and SPAN 315.

SPAN 390
These courses are designed to increase students' skills in reading, writing, comprehension and communication.
Permission of the Department may be required to register in some offerings
Prerequisite: Depends on specific offering, SPAN 212 minimum. Consult Department Head and Spanish Coordinator for more information

SPAN 390AC
Spanish-Language Cinema for Oral Communication
This cinema-based course will present a wide variety of themes, genres and ethnic groups from different Hispanic countries. Through movies, students will be exposed to authentic language and gain insights into their social, historic and cultural context. It is designed to stimulate students' oral communication skills, with some reading and writing components.
 Prerequisite: SPAN 212 or Permission of Department Head ***

SPAN 390AE
Advanced Spanish Language (Reading Class)
Advanced reading, writing and oral work in Spanish. Will be offered only on an independent-study basis to students near or in their final year of study who have taken or are taking all Spanish classes and approved electives offered and who require another class in order to complete their Spanish Major.
Prerequisite: SPAN 311, taken prior or concurrently
Permission of the instructor is required to register

SPAN 411
Selected Topics in Spanish Language
Emphasis on study of advanced points of grammar, stylistics and idiomatic usage through reading, writing, translation and discussion.
Prerequisite: SPAN 312 or permission of the department.
Note: Formerly numbered SPAN 400. Students may receive credit for only one of SPAN 400 or 411.
SPAN 415  3:3-0
Hispanic Culture III
Study of current issues in Hispanic culture, including cultural and political trends, and topics of controversy, such as economic development, gender and ethnic relations, the influence of globalization, etc.
Prerequisite: SPAN 312 and 320 or permission of the department

SPAN 420  3:3-0
Spanish American Literature
A study of the main literary trends and authors of Spanish America from the pre-Columbian period to the present through an exploration of their social, historical, ideological and aesthetic contexts. It is designed to encourage students’ critical reading and further develop their language skills.
 Prerequisite: SPAN 311, or permission of Department ***
* Note: Previously numbered SPAN 416. Students may not receive credit for both SPAN 420 and SPAN 416. *

SPAN 421  3:3-0
Spanish Literature
A study of the main literary trends and authors of Spain through an exploration of their social, historical, ideological and aesthetic contexts. It is develop language skills.
 Prerequisite: SPAN 311, or permission of Department ***

</table>
An introduction to the administration of recreation and sport at the local, provincial, and national level.

| SRS 110  | 3:3-0  |
| Recreation and Leisure Theory |
Focus on the role of leisure and recreation in society emphasizing an understanding of the delivery system and the leisure phenomenon.

| SRS 115  | 3:3-1  |
| Leadership |
This course will provide the student with an in-depth theoretical and practical exploration of the concepts associated with leadership and human motivation in the organizational environments associated with kinesiology, health, recreation, and sport.

| SRS 120  | 3:3-1  |
| Introduction to Recreation for Persons with Disabilities |
This course will broadly introduce the student to the diagnosis, associated characteristics, and shifting sociocultural paradigms that influence the experiences of persons with physical, intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. Using an active living approach to situate theoretical and practical learning, this course requires the student to exercise the application of adapted physical activity principles to engage children, youth, and young adults in physical activities that are safe, challenging, and self-determined with a focus on success.
This course is crosslisted with KIN 120

| SRS 130  | 3:0-0  |
| Junior Practicum in Sport and Recreation Management |
An introductory practicum experience that will introduce students to professional targets within sport and recreation management. Students will engage in work related experiences on campus for an average of 9 hours per week over the course of the semester.

| SRS 132  | 3:2-3  |
| Live Event Production and Sport Communication |
This practicum-based course is designed to provide hands on experiences introducing students to professional roles in the production of live sporting events and sport information management. Focus includes live media development and production as well as the generation of content for publishing via social media outlets and/or webcasts. Over the course of the semester students will develop skills in interviewing, camera operation, direction, and production of replays and highlight packages.
Note: Students can only receive credit for one of SRS 181AA or SRS 132.

| SRS 181  | 3:1:15-15  |
| Special Topics in Sport and Recreation Studies |
Courses numbered SRS 181AA-22 are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Studies degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

| SRS 215  | 3:3-0  |
| Volunteer Management |
The focus of this course is the management of volunteer/ non-profit sport or recreation organizations. The management of key resources, including volunteers and finances, will be covered. Additionally, the current context of these organizations will be discussed.
 Prerequisite: SRS 105 (KHS 140) and SRS 115 (KHS 156) ***

| SRS 220  | 3:3-0  |
| Program Delivery and Management |
An examination of the planning process and various program applications in the sport, recreation, and physical activity delivery systems.
 Prerequisite: SRS 105 (KHS 140)

| SRS 230  | 3:3-0  |
| Venue and Event Management |
Examination of venue and event management processes with a focus on developing skills and gaining knowledge to critically assess events and facilities in terms of current management best practices. It will also examine the nature and importance of and relationship between venues and events in sport and recreation. The course may also touch on issues related to legal, ethical, and socially responsible management as it relates to facilities and events.Prerequisite: SRS 105 (KHS 140) and SRS 115 (KHS 156)
Prerequisite/Corequisite: SRS 220 (KHS 243)

| SRS 241  | 3:3-0  |
| Social Construction of Disability |
This course will enable the student to critically explore the traditional and contemporary understanding of disability, as a social construction, from a variety of perspectives: educational, socio-psychological, historical, socio-political, gender and community. Through this course, students will be able to contextualize disability within a broader social context.
Prerequisite: KIN 120 ***
* Note: This course is crosslisted with KIN 241

| SRS 281  | 3:15:15-15  |
| Special Topics in Sport and Recreation Studies |
Courses numbered SRS 281AA-22 are special topics courses with in the Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Studies degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

| SRS 308  | 3:3-0  |
| International Experience Course |
An intensive course offering will be delivered in an international location.

| SRS 318  | 3:3-0  |
| Specialty Discipline Course |
This course will be delivered in an intensive format by a visiting scholar.
Topics are variable.

| SRS 318AA  | 3:3-0  |
| Advanced Topics in Fan Behavior and Sport Related Tourism |
Seminar style course examines topics and issues concerning consumptive behaviour in sport, leisure, recreation and tourism. An intensive course delivered by a visiting scholar.
SRS 318 AB
Data Analytics in Sport
Data-driven decision making is a key feature of successful sporting teams and businesses as data is becoming more readily available through advancements in technology. The course is designed to equip students with the analytical skills and knowledge required to manage and analyze datasets related to high-performance sport, with the aim of providing enhanced insights to coaches, players and other stakeholders.
Prerequisite: Completion of 60 credit hours

SRS 320
Current Issues in Kinesiology, Sport, Recreation and Leisure
This course is designed to allow students to identify, discuss, and address current sociological, organizational, economic, ethical, philosophical or cultural issues related to the fields of kinesiology, sport, recreation and leisure.
Prerequisite: KIN 110 (KHS 154); SRS 105 (KHS 140), SRS 110 (KHS 141), SRS 115 (KHS 156)

SRS 340
Governance and Legal Issues in Third Sector Organizations
This course is designed to investigate the legal issues and management of risk in the sport and recreation delivery systems. This course will provide a basic understanding of the governmental systems and governing bodies that influence the delivery of recreation services and legal issues will likely encounter in their future professions.
Prerequisite: 60 credit hours

SRS 351
Sport, Recreation and Leisure Tourism
The course examines sport, recreation and leisure tourism from a multidisciplinary perspective (economic, social, cultural, environmental, organizational, managerial). The course explores multiple outcomes and implications of tourism.
Prerequisite: SRS 220 or permission of the Associate Dean (Undergraduate) or designate
Note: Primary mode of delivery will be online

SRS 360
Outdoor Recreation Skill Development and Wilderness Experience
This experientially based course enables students to develop proficiencies in camping, canoeing, and orienteering through both theory and practice. Active participation in a one-week field trip in northern Saskatchewan is mandatory for all students.
Note: Materials fee $65. This course is cross-listed with EOE 339; credit may only be received for one of these courses.

SRS 381
Special Topics in Sport and Recreation Studies
Courses numbered SRS 381AA-ZZ are special topics courses with the Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Studies degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

SRS 381 AB
Advanced Topics in Fan Behavior and Sport Related Tourism
EXPERIMENTAL COURSE: Seminar style course examines topics and issues concerning consumptive behaviour in sport, leisure, recreation and tourism. Course will be offered in September of 2010 at the University of Regina and will require the completion of a collaborative group project with students from the University of Bayreuth, Germany.

SRS 381 AC
Tourism & Leisure Behavior
This course introduces undergraduate students to the intricate global phenomenon that is tourism, analyzing its economic, social, and cultural importance and significance for guests (tourists), hosts (local communities), business providers and tourism organizations. The role of tourism as a powerful agent of change is particularly emphasized.

SRS 440
Applied Sport and Marketing and Sponsorship Development
This course is an examination of (a) the fundamental principles used in the marketing and sponsorship of sport and recreation organizations and events, and (b) the centrality of service quality in the marketing of sport and recreation organizations and events.
Prerequisite: SRS 110, SRS 220 and BUS 210

SRS 450
Sport and Recreation Management Consulting Experience
This course is designed to develop professional practice skills in sport and recreation management through the development and implementation of community-based projects.
Prerequisite: Minimum 60 credit hours completed, including all required SRM major courses, KIN 220, and minimum 70.00% major GPA

SRS 460
Outdoor Recreation Resource Management
Historical antecedents and current issues and practices in the use and management of parks, forests, wilderness areas, and other North American outdoor resources for recreation activity.
 Prerequisite: SRS 220 (KHS 243)

SRS 465
Commercial Recreation Management
An investigation of commercial recreation, sport organizations, and facilities including their philosophy, history, and personnel requirements.
 Prerequisite: SRS 220 (KHS 243)

SRS 481
Special Topics in Sport and Recreation Studies
Courses numbered SRS 481 AA-ZZ are special topics courses with the Bachelor of Sport and Recreation Studies degree. Special topics courses are those requiring pilot offerings prior to finalization of course content.

SRS 491
Variable Topic/Directed Reading an AA-ZZ series.
An opportunity for senior students to pursue an in-depth analysis of a topic related to their area of interest/ major area of study. This must be supervised by a faculty member and approved by the Associate Dean (Undergraduate), or designate.
Prerequisite: Minimum 70.00% PGPA

SRS 491 AA
Economic Impact of Sport Tourism
The purpose of this independent study is to develop an in-depth understanding of the current state of research on the economic impact of sport tourism.

SRS 491 AB
Outdoor Adventure Program Planning
This course is designed to introduce students to the planning process and various program applications in the sport, recreation, and physical activity delivery systems. This course is designed to provide practical skills and applicable knowledge related to program planning and implementation.

SRS 491 AC
Socio-Cultural Trends in Sport and Recreation
The purpose of this independent study class is to develop a theoretical and applied understanding of socio-cultural trends in the sport and recreation industry. In this course, the student determines both the trend (e.g., diversity, inclusion, feminism, multiculturalism, indigenization) and the context in which to study the trend.

SRS 498
Honour Proposal
Supervised directed study and research leading to the development of a formal undergraduate thesis proposal for work to be conducted in SRS 499 (Honours Thesis).
 Prerequisite: KIN 220 ***

SRS 499
Honours Thesis
A thesis based on research previously proposed in SRS 498 (Honours Proposal). Formal approval of the research topic is given by attaining a minimum grade of 70% in SRS 498 (Honours Proposal). The thesis will be presented orally in an open forum.
 Prerequisite: SRS 498

STAT 054 Statistics Co-op Work Term #4
Four-month co-op work term #4 approved by the department and arranged by the co-op coordinator.
 Prerequisite: STAT 053 ***

STAT 100 Elementary Statistics for Applications
An introduction to statistical methods; descriptive statistics; the normal distribution; basic techniques of statistical inference; confidence intervals and hypothesis tests for population means and proportions; simple linear regression; and one-way analysis of variance.
Prerequisite: Foundations of Math 20 or Precalculus 20 or Apprenticeship & Workplace Math 30 or MATH A30 or AMTH 091 or MATH 101
Note: STAT 100 and STAT 200 are designed to provide a year-long introduction to statistical methodology with a view towards applications and are not intended for majors in statistics, actuarial science, or any other program requiring a detailed knowledge of statistics. Students who receive credit for STAT 100 may not receive credit for STAT 160

STAT 160 Introductory Statistics
A comprehensive introduction to probability, probability distributions, sampling distributions, basic techniques of statistical inference, analysis of variance, linear regression, inference for categorical variables, and nonparametric statistics. Prerequisite: Precalculus 30, or MATH B30 and MATH C30, or MATH 122
Note: STAT 160 is designed to provide a comprehensive single semester introduction to statistical techniques and is intended for students majoring in statistics, actuarial science, or any other program requiring a detailed knowledge of statistics. Students who receive credit for STAT 160 may not receive credit for STAT 100 or STAT 200

STAT 200 Intermediate Statistics for Applications
A continuation of STAT 100; inference for two categorical variables; basic multiple linear regression; two-way analysis of variance; introduction to nonparametric methods; statistical process control; introduction to survey design.
Prerequisite: STAT 100
Note: STAT 100 and STAT 200 are designed to provide a year-long introduction to statistical methodology with a view towards applications and are not intended for majors in statistics, actuarial science, or any other program requiring a detailed knowledge of statistics. Students who receive credit for STAT 200 may not receive credit for STAT 160

STAT 217 Introduction to Actuarial Mathematics
Topics include: economics of insurance, applications of probability to problems of life insurance, life annuities, and life tables.
Prerequisite: ACSC 116 or MATH 116, and STAT 251
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 217 or STAT 217

STAT 251 Introduction to Probability
Basic notions of probability; discrete and continuous random variables; expectation; moment generating functions; joint discrete random variables.
Prerequisites: MATH 111 or MATH 112 and one of STAT 160 or STAT 200
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of Math 251 and Stat 251

STAT 252 Introduction to Statistical Inference
Sampling distribution theory and the Central Limit Theorem; large sample theory; methods of estimation and hypothesis testing including maximum likelihood estimation, likelihood ratio testing, and confidence interval construction.
Prerequisite: STAT 251

STAT 289 Statistics for Engineers
Topics include probability, discrete and continuous distributions, the central limit theorem, confidence intervals and hypothesis tests for one and two samples, linear regression and correlation.
Prerequisite: MATH 111
Note: Designed for engineering students. Students who received credit for STAT 289 may not receive credit for STAT 100, 160, or 200.

STAT 300 Statistical Learning and Predictive Modeling
Selected topics and techniques in statistical learning and predictive modeling, including linear models, logistic regression models, regression trees, classification models, and statistical software.
Prerequisite: MATH 122, STAT 252, and CS 110
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of ACSC 300 and STAT 300

STAT 316 Mathematics of Finance III
This course covers the theory and pricing of financial derivatives such as Puts and Calls, with particular emphasis on the Black-Scholes model.
Prerequisite: ACSC 216 or MATH 216, and STAT 251
Note: Students can receive credit for only one of MATH 316, STAT 316 and ACSC 316

STAT 317 Actuarial Models I
Probabilistic and deterministic contingency mathematics in life insurance and pensions. Topics include: benefit premiums, benefit reserves, multiple life functions, and multiple decrement models.
Prerequisite: ACSC 217 or STAT 217
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 317 or STAT 317

STAT 318 Actuarial Models II
This course introduces collective risk models over an extended period. Stochastic processes are introduced, followed by definition and application of Markov chains. Introductory loss model material is also presented.
Prerequisite: ACSC 317 or STAT 317
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 318 or STAT 318

STAT 342 Biostatistics
This course will present relevant, up-to-date coverage of research methodology using careful explanations of basic statistics and how they are used to address practical problems that arise in the medical and public health settings. Through this course, students will learn to interpret and examine data by applying common statistical tools to the biostatistical, medical, and public health fields.
Prerequisite: STAT 160 or STAT 200
Note: Students with credit in BIOL 341 cannot take STAT 342 for credit.

STAT 351 Intermediate Probability
Multivariate random variables; conditioning; order statistics; the multivariate normal distribution; the Poisson process.
Prerequisite: MATH 213 and STAT 251

STAT 354 Linear Statistical Methods
Simple linear regression; multiple linear regression; diagnostics and remedial measures for regression models; remedial measures and alternative regression techniques; multicollinearity diagnostics.
Prerequisite: STAT 252 and CS 110 and MATH 122

STAT 357 Sampling Theory
Simple random sampling; systematic sampling; stratified and cluster sampling; ratio and regression estimators.
Prerequisite: STAT 252 and CS 110

STAT 362 Bayesian Statistics
An introduction to Bayesian methods; Bayesian inference for discrete random variables, binomial proportions, and normal means; comparisons between Bayesian and frequentist inferences; robust Bayesian methods.
Prerequisite: STAT 252 and CS 110
STAT 384 3:3:1
Categorical Data Analysis
Odds ratio; two-way and higher-way contingency tables; Chi-squared tests of independence; log-linear and logit models; multinomial response models; models for matched pairs.
Prerequisite: STAT 252 and CS 110.
Note: It is suggested that students register for STAT 354 concurrently if possible.

STAT 386 3:3:1
Nonparametric Statistical Methods
Nonparametric statistics for data analysis including rank-based methods, bootstrap methods, and permutation tests; one-sample and two-sample methods; paired comparisons and blocked designs; tests for trends and association; smoothing methods and robust model fitting.
Prerequisite: STAT 252 and CS 110.

STAT 418 3:3:1
Time Series Analysis and Forecasting
This course aims to introduce various statistical models for time series and cover the main methods for analysis and forecasting. Topics include: Deterministic time series: Trends and Seasonality; Random walk models; Stationary time series: White noise processes, Autoregressive (AR), Moving Average (MA), Autoregressive Moving Average (ARMA) models; Estimation, Diagnosis and Forecasting with various time series models; computer programming for Time Series Analysis.
Prerequisite: STAT 354
Note: Students may receive credit for only one of ACSC 418 or STAT 418

STAT 426 3:3:0
Survival Analysis
Life tables; survival distributions; types of censoring; estimation of and interface for basic survival quantities; proportional hazards regression model; planning and design of clinical trials.
Prerequisite: STAT 351.

STAT 441 3:3:0
Stochastic Calculus with Applications to Finance
Processes derived from Brownian motion; the Itô integral and Itô's formula; applications of Itô's formula in financial modelling, especially within the context of the Black-Scholes option pricing model.
Prerequisite: STAT 351.

STAT 451 3:3:0
Advanced Probability
Probability measures; distribution functions; sequences of random variables; characteristic functions; modes of convergence; convergence theorems; weak and strong laws of large numbers; Central Limit Theorem.
Prerequisite: STAT 351.

STAT 452 3:3:0
Advanced Statistical Inference
Detailed theoretical development of statistical inference; statistical models; exponential families; sufficiency; completeness; properties of point estimation; testing hypotheses and confidence regions; asymptotic properties of estimators. Prerequisite: STAT 351 and STAT 252.

STAT 454 3:3:1
Applied Multivariate Analysis
Review of multivariate normal distribution; inferences about a mean vector; multivariate linear regression analysis; principal components; factor analysis; canonical correlation analysis.
Prerequisite: STAT 351 and STAT 354.

STAT 456 3:3:0
Applied Stochastic Processes
An introduction to stochastic processes; Markov chains; Poisson processes; renewal processes; Brownian motion; simulation.
Prerequisite: STAT 351.
Note: Credit can be earned for only one of STAT 456 and ACSC 456.

STAT 470 3:0:0
Bootstrap Methods
A first course in Bootstrap techniques. Topics include bootstrap and jackknife procedures, confidence intervals, hypothesis testing, standard errors, regression models. Additional topics may vary.
Prerequisite: STAT 351 and STAT 354.
Note: Credit cannot be received for both STAT 470 and STAT 870.

STAT 485 3:3:1
Design and Analysis of Experiments
Theory and application of analysis of variance for standard experimental designs including blocked, nested, factorial, Latin square, and split-plot designs; fixed and random effects; multiple comparisons; analysis of covariance.
Prerequisite: STAT 354

STAT 495 1:3:3:0
Directed Reading in Statistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.

STAT 495AC 3:3:0
Readings in Mathematical Finance
This course presents a selection of readings in the theory of mathematical finance, as chosen by the instructor.
Prerequisite: STAT 351 with a minimum grade of 80%

STAT 495AD 3:3:0
Topics in Probability Theory
In depth study of selected topics in probability theory.
Prerequisite: STAT 451

STAT 495AE 3:3:0
Large Sample Methods
Asymptotic behavior of estimators and test statistics, asymptotic relative efficiency, large sample theory for regression models.

STAT 496 1:3:3:0
Directed Reading in Statistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.

STAT 497 1:3:3:0
Directed Reading in Statistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.

STAT 498 1:3:3:0
Directed Reading in Statistics - an AA-ZZ series.
Prior to the registration of the student(s), the instructor must present to the department head a detailed outline of the material to be covered, the method of delivery, and the method of evaluation.

SW 001 Social Work

SW 001 0:0:0
Student Wellness Initiative Toward Community Health
Students will work as a team under the supervision of professional mentors to provide after hours primary health care services, with measures in place to ensure continuity of care and health promotion.

SW 100 3:3:0
Foundations in Social Work
This course explores social issues confronting the state, social welfare agencies and social workers in addressing and responding to societal inequalities and human need. Students will also be introduced to the roles and fields of practice in social work in Canada and the values and ethics that guide the profession.
SW 100 should be taken as the first Social Work course.

SW 200 3:3:0
Introduction to Social Work
(Yukon College only) This course provides an overview of both First Nations and western social work models, historical development, and current practice issues. Students are introduced to a critical analysis of the social work profession, and exposed to a range of social work theories and models.

SW 202 3:3:0
Critical Issues/Critical Thought
This course examines the foundations of critical thinking with application to social work issues in such areas as oppression, poverty, health, child welfare and violence.
Note: It is recommended that SW 100 be taken prior to SW 202

SW Practicum II - p/t2nd sem.
Students, with support of agency supervision, will become directly involved in social work services and systems within the community, and experience professional practice. Seminars assist in the integration of theory and practice through sharing of experience and knowledge.
Prerequisite: SW 448AA
Note: Practicum placement is equivalent to 16 weeks part-time during the next term. Arrangements for completion of assignments and seminars will be made with the course instructor. Graded on a pass/fail basis. No midterm break.
Note: All students must have a minimum GPA of 70% on the social work portion of the BSW.

SW 450
3:3-0
Advanced Practice with Communities
This course examines the historic role of social work in community development/ community activism. Principles, models and skills in working in community development are explored with consideration of geographical location and personal and collective identities. Emphasis is placed on mobilizing communities for equality and social justice.

SW 451
3:3-0
Social Work Research
This course focuses on the contributions of research to effective social work practice and social policy. Emphasis is placed on understanding and critically assessing social work research, and on how to employ a variety of quantitative, qualitative, and community-based research methodologies to advance social work knowledge and practice.
Prerequisite: Completion of SW 100 and SW 202

SW 452
3:3-0
Management Practice in Social Work
Social Administration is one of the recognized areas of social work practice in a generalist framework. This course provides the introductory knowledge and skills to participate in the administration and management of human service organizations. Topics include leadership, supervision, organizational planning, financial planning and team building.
Note: Formerly numbered SW 480AB. Student may not receive credit for both SW 452 and SW 480AB.

SW 455
3:3-0
Developing Community through Field Experience
This class focuses on social work skills in an international context. Students examine and practice social work involvement with the people they serve in movements to overcome root causes of injustice and oppression. Social work values and methods concerning an identified social issue are put into a field setting.
Prerequisite: SW 355 ***
* Note: Formerly numbered SW 480AK. Student may not receive credit for both SW 455 and SW 480AK *

SW 460

Program Development and Evaluation
This course focuses on approaches and skills used in assessing community needs, planning and developing services, and evaluating programs in Social Work and related human service agencies.

SW 468
3:3-0
History of Social Welfare and Social Work in Canada
This course examines aspects of the history and philosophy of social welfare with a focus on the legacy of the poor law as reflected in early Canadian health and welfare systems. The values and ethical base of social services and the profession of social work is discussed.

SW 469
3:3-0
Social Policy
This course examines the dimensions and practical implications of social policy in the lives of Canadians. Political, economic, and cultural influences over social policy are explored, as well as the skills needed to develop social policy and its relationship with the profession of social work.
SW 480AI  3:3:0
Social Work and Residential Schools
This course is intended to prepare social work students to better understand the legacy of the residential school experience on Aboriginal peoples and to help social workers respond to the current realities of Aboriginal individuals, families, and communities.

SW 480AJ  3:3:0
Developing Community through Investigation and Structural Transformation
This class will focus upon an examination of social work values and methods in relationship to social issues. A specific societal reality will be identified leading to examining social worker involvement with the people they serve in movements to overcome the issue’s root causes of injustice and oppression.
Prerequisite: Registered in the BSW program

SW 480AK  3:3:0
Developing Community through Field Experience
This class focuses on social work skills in an international context. Students examine and practice social work involvement with the people they serve in movements to overcome root causes of injustice and oppression. Social work values and methods concerning an identified social issue are put into a field setting.
Prerequisite: Registered in the BSW program

SW 480AM  3:0:0
Social Problem and Social Work Practice Seminar: Crisis Intervention
Crisis Intervention course is an examination of the origins and theoretical foundations of crisis theory that creates a base from which students can then further develop their abilities to effectively assess, and appropriately intervene, in a number of critical clinical areas.
Prerequisite: Completion 30 credit hours

SW 480AN  3:0:0
Addiction and Child and Family Service Practice
The focus of this course is to increase the student's knowledge about addictions as well as to develop student's skills for intervention with families affected by addiction within the context of child and family services. Emphasis is on experiential learning of knowledge, process and techniques.
Prerequisite: Completion 30 credit hours

SW 480AQ  3:3:0
FASD and Child Welfare
The purpose of this course is to prepare social work students to understand the distinct needs of children and youth with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) and their families in child welfare practice. The needs of children with FASD are distinct due to the disabilities associated with FASD. FASD will be examined in this course through a disability lens.

SW 480AR  3:3:0
Social Work and the Environment: Theory and Practice
This course explores emerging theoretical perspectives and skills necessary for critical ecological social work practice. Links between environmental, social, structural and justice issues will be made through critiques of western industrialization and consumerism. Implications for direct practice will occur through reflection, dialogue and the development of holistic practice frameworks.
Prerequisite: successful completion of 30 credit hours

SW 480AS  3:3:0
Animals, Social Work & Society
An introduction to the theoretical and practical applications of animals and social work. This course offers a perspective on why and how animals ought to be important to social work. It will explore applications across the lifespan and include attention upon the welfare of animals in and of themselves.

SW 480AT  3:3:0
Practice With Refugee Children
Focusing on Canada’s proclaimed commitment to children’s rights and their well-being, as well as the country’s treatment of migrants and refugees, this course examines refugee children with a primary focus on North America. Using case studies, research and official reports, films, news accounts students learn how capitalism in its present stage creates war, migration, child labor, ethnic and/or religious discrimination which result in childhood displacement. They also investigate how displacement influences refugee children’s overall development, sense of belonging and identity and how these factors impact the human services sector in the countries that receive them. Students also develop skills for writing and speaking about children’s issues, and more specifically, they develop skills in child advocacy, whether it be hands-on in the field or through political action and education.

SW 482  3:3:0
International Themes in Social Work and Social Welfare
This course will examine the historical development of international social welfare using a comparative analysis. It will critically examine issues from local and global perspectives in the context of globalization, development and international social work.

SW 484  3:3:0
Community Practice Project
This course is designed to develop community organizing skills through the development and implementation of a short community project. The course integrates theory and skill development using a teamwork approach.

SW 485  3:3:0
Selected Topics in Research - an AA-ZZ series.
This course offers individual or group practice in developing viable research proposals, analyzing specific problems in social work, and carrying through library and/or field research projects.

SW 485AA  3:3:0
HIV/AIDS Research - Focus on Bug Seekers
This directed reading course focuses on "bug seekers" - people who intend to get infected with HIV/AIDS.

SW 486  3:3:0
Selected Topics in Research - an AA-ZZ series.
This course offers individual or group practice in developing viable research proposals, analyzing specific problems in social work and carrying through library and/or field research projects.

SW 486AA  3:3:0
Social Work Research Project
In this course, each student will work on a social work research project and complete the research on campus. He/she will develop a research question, proposal, collect and analyze data and write a final report.
Prerequisite: SW 451

SW 487  3:3:0
Selected Topics in Research - an AA-ZZ series.
This course offers individual or group practice in developing viable research proposals, analyzing specific problems in social work and carrying through library and/or field research projects.

SW 488  3:3:0
Selected Topics in Research - an AA-ZZ series.
This course offers individual or group practice in developing viable research proposals, analyzing specific problems in social work and carrying through library and/or field research projects.

SW 490  3:3:0
Selected Topics in Research - an AA-ZZ series.
This course offers individual or group practice in developing viable research proposals, analyzing specific problems in social work and carrying through library and/or field research projects.
SW 495
Individual and Group Inquiries
This course offers tutorials, directed readings, "learning contracts", and other agreements stipulating specified objectives negotiated between an instructor and individual students or groups of students.

SW 496
Individual and Group Inquiries
This course offers tutorials, directed readings, "learning contracts" and other agreements stipulating specified objectives negotiated between an instructor and individual students or groups of students.

SW 497
Individual & Group Inquiries
Tutorials, directed readings, "learning contracts" and other agreements stipulating specified objectives negotiated between an instructor and individual students or groups of students.

SW 498
Individual & Group Inquiries
Tutorials, directed readings, "learning contracts" and other agreements stipulating specified objectives negotiated between an instructor and individual students or groups of students.

SW 499
Individual & Group Inquiries
Tutorials, directed readings, "learning contracts" and other agreements stipulating specified objectives negotiated between an instructor and individual students or groups of students.

THAC
Theatre Acting

THAC 160
Introduction to Acting
A course in the basic exploration of simple acting concepts through theatre games, character study, and ensemble playing.
Note: Student cannot receive credit for THEA 160 and THAC 160.

THAC 165
Selected Topics in Elementary Acting
Selected topics in elementary acting.
A studio course in the basic exploration of specific acting concepts, exercises or problems. Only offered in special circumstances and in collaboration with specific partners (such as UR Accelerated or CCE) and cannot be taken if a student has credit from THAC level 200 or above.

THAC 165A
Performance Through Improvising and Devising.
This course focuses on acting theory and practice but uses the model of new play creation through improvised and devised methods as a means of exploring and expanding the creative role of the actor on stage.

THAC 260
Acting Theory and Practice
An introduction to the fundamental methods practiced by professional actors in mainstream North American theatre and film.
Note: Student cannot receive credit for THEA 260 and THAC 260.

THAC 270
Selected Topics in Voice - an AA-ZZ series
Selected topics and areas of vocal training and techniques as required for groups of junior undergraduate students.

THAC 271
Selected Topics in Movement - an AA-ZZ series
Selected topics and areas of movement training and techniques as required for groups of junior undergraduate students.

THAC 290
Selected Topics in Acting
An AA to ZZ series at the 200 level.

THAC 360
Selected Topics in Acting - an AA-ZZ series
Special topics or areas of selected acting training and techniques as required for groups of undergraduate students.
Prerequisite: THAC 260 or Permission of the Instructor

THAC 360AD
Performance Through Improvising and Devising
This course focuses on acting theory and practice but uses the model of new play creation through improvised and devised methods as a means of exploring and expanding the creative role of the actor on stage.
Prerequisite: THAC 260 or permission of the instructor.

THAC 360AE
Community-based Performance
This course aims to prepare educators and theatre artists for professional performance practice working in community contexts. Methods of resistance and empowerment embedded in autobiography are examined as we develop strategies for change.
Prerequisite: 30 credit hours or permission of instructor ***

WGST 380AR
Intergenerational Learning of Textile Arts in Indigenous Communities
Intergenerational learning as a form of Indigenous knowledge translation is commonly understood in Aboriginal Communities. This course will explore how such learning informs and challenges textile art production, such as beading and weaving, within Indigenous Communities. As a way of knowing, blood memory asserts that extended kinship passes on teachings and cultural practices, including rituals and ceremonies, from generation to generation (Youngblood Henderson, 2000). Memory thus engages with a profound breadth of Indigenous knowledge, one that relates to intergenerational learning through storytelling. Byu linking such ideas to the work that sustains cultures and communities, the course will explore how Indigenous peoples identify, represent, and engage through creative approaches. Prerequisite: WGST 100 or permission of Coordinator
