Pre-Professional Programs
Students may register with the First Nations University of Canada to take their initial year(s) in a number of pre-professional programs. One or two years may be taken through the First Nations University of Canada; the remainder of the program is to be taken with appropriate University of Regina faculty, or a specific professional school at another university. Refer to the Faculty sections and the Courses section of this Calendar.

Degrees, Diplomas, and Certificates
Degrees, diplomas, and certificates obtained are granted by the University of Regina. Students become alumni of both the First Nations University of Canada and the University of Regina.

Students majoring in Indigenous Studies can choose between the BA and BA Honours degrees. Applications for master’s degree work in Indigenous Studies are considered by the University’s Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. Students applying for the special case Master of Indigenous Social Work program should submit their applications to the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research.

BA and BA Honours degrees in both Cree Linguistics and Saulteaux Linguistics are available. The First Nations University of Canada also offers programs leading to a BA in Indigenous Art, a BA in Fine Arts, a Bachelor of Indigenous Education, Elementary and a Bachelor of Indigenous Education, Secondary; a Certificate in and/or Bachelor of Indigenous Social Work; a Diploma in Indigenous Communication Arts; a Bachelor of Health Studies, and a Certificate in Indigenous Health Studies.

For specific descriptions of the First Nations University of Canada courses, consult UPR Self-Service or the Course Catalogue.

Northern Campus
The First Nations University of Canada, Northern Campus, offers university programming for First Nations peoples through a variety of means: on campus programming in Prince Albert, community-based and distance education programs throughout Saskatchewan and across Canada.

Programs in Partnership with the Centre for Continuing Education
In partnership with the Centre for Continuing Education, the following programs are offered:

- Certificate in Administration Level I and II
- Certificate in Indigenous Management I and II
- Certificate in Hospitality, Tourism and Gaming Entertainment Management
- Certificate of Extended Studies in Aboriginal Education
- Certificate of Extended Studies in First Nations Language
- Certificate in Indigenous Access Transition Education (IATEC)
- First Nations Language Instructor Certificate
- Certificate in Reconciliation Studies
- Certificate in Indigenous Economic Development

Also offered are certificate, diploma, and degree off-campus programs in Arts, Science, Teacher Education, and Social Work.

Science Program
This is a multidisciplinary program that provides pre-professional education for students wishing to pursue careers in disciplines such as nursing, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, medical laboratory technology, or agriculture.

The Science Program offers the following:

- the Bachelor of Science in Indigenous Environmental Science
- the Bachelor of Arts in Resource and Environmental Studies (BARES)
- a program of study leading to a Bachelor of Health Studies, as well as, the Certificate in Indigenous Health Studies (INHS)

The Science Program offers preparatory courses as well as regular university courses including mathematics, biology, computer science and environmental health and science. Specially designed courses in Indigenous Health Studies give students an opportunity to explore areas in the health field from traditional to contemporary medicine. Students may exit the program at several levels to enter specialized programs elsewhere. They may choose to remain and graduate with a science degree (BSc).

Co-operative Education Program
A Co-operative Education Program is available to Administration and Arts students who are enrolled at the First Nations University of Canada. Please contact the University of Regina Indigenous Career Education. For more information about co-op education, refer to the General Information for Students section of this Calendar.
Mature Admissions

Mature admission may be granted to applicants for admission to undergraduate programs who do not meet the standard admission requirements of the faculty to which they are applying and who have completed fewer than 24 credit hours of approved post-secondary courses, are Canadian citizens or permanent residents, and will be at least 21 years of age before the term begins. Mature applicants who do not meet the standard admission criteria for their faculty of choice, may be admitted to the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Education, Indigenous Education Program, Faculty of Media Art and Performance, Faculty of Kinesiology and Health Studies, Faculty of Science (through Science Qualifying), or the Faculty of Social Work to qualify for transfer. See the Admissions section of this Calendar.

Library Services

The First Nations University of Canada Library, Regina Campus, houses approximately 70,000 items, including 66,200 volumes, monographs, periodicals, newspapers, government publications, microform, and AV materials. This collection focuses primarily on the Indigenous Peoples of North, South and Central America, of Indian, Inuit, and Métis ancestry and supplements the courses offered by both the First Nations University and the University of Regina. At the beginning of each term, library orientations are offered upon request through the First Nations University Libraries.

The Saskatoon Campus Library collection supports the courses offered at the FNUniv Saskatoon campus as well as ongoing academic research by faculty, graduate students, and others. The focus of the collection is the Indigenous people of North, South and Central America. Areas of strength include Indigenous studies and social work

The Northern Campus Library, located in Prince Albert, general collection supports the courses offered at the FNUniv Northern Campus as well as the Nursing Education Program. The focus of the collection is the Indigenous people of North, South and Central America. Areas of strength include Indigenous studies and nursing material.

UREAD services are also available to Saskatoon and Northern campus students.

The First Nations University of Canada Libraries are available to all registered students of the First Nations University of Canada as well as students of the University of Regina, Campion College, and Luther College.

Student Services

Student Success Services at the First Nations University of Canada is the main support system for students as they work toward their academic goals.

Elders provide students with personal, cultural, and spiritual guidance. Student Success Services assists students in planning their academic careers and offers a wide range of academic support to ensure students successfully complete their program of study. In addition, tutors are available and writing clinics have been set up for all First Nations University of Canada students.

The First Nations University of Canada Registrar's Office provides the academic regulation function, which is vital to the ongoing registration and convocation of students.

Arts Transition Program (First Nations University of Canada)

The Arts Transition Program (ATP) is a collaborative initiative of the Student Success Centre, UR International, and the Faculty of Arts. The program is designed to assist students transferring to the Faculty of Arts to gain the learning skills needed for academic success. While all transferring students are encouraged to complete the ATP, it is required of any transferring student with a UGPA below the Faculty of Arts' minimum of 60.00%.

The ATP courses, workshops, and sessions are designed to facilitate the development of peer cohorts that will help students obtain the academic, social, and cultural skills that they require to thrive in the Faculty of Arts. In addition, the ATP will serve as an early intervention for students who are on academic probation, before they reach the point where they are required to withdraw from the university.

The ATP for First Nations University students is a two-term program, structured as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term 1</th>
<th>Term 2</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ARTS 099 (0 credit hours)</td>
<td>INDG 104 (3 credit hours)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RDWT 120 (or Arts course) (3 credit hours)</td>
<td>ENGL 100 (3 credit hours)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Faculty of Arts course (3 credit hours)</td>
<td>(optional) Faculty of Arts course (3 credit hours)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Success Workshops</td>
<td>Student Success Workshops</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Student Success Workshops include six hours of equated credit that will be considered as credit hours for funding purposes, as follows:

1. Support workshops: two to three hours weekly (addressing academic skill-building and life skills).
2. Personal professional development: three hours weekly (includes peer support groups, reflective journal, and guided homework time).
3. Academic coaching: two hours weekly (group coaching sessions).
4. Writing lab: one to two hours per week spent in a writing lab.

First Nations University students participating in the program are required to:

- attend all scheduled Student Success Workshop sessions;
- complete weekly reflection journals (such journal entries must meet a minimum standard);
- attain a minimum of 60.00% in each credit course; and,
- receive a P (pass) in ARTS 099.

Program Policies for First Nations University Students

1. Students are charged $900 per term to cover the costs of the ATP. This fee is in addition to any standard registration and course fees.
2. If a student has already passed INDG 104 and/or ENGL 100 another Faculty of Arts course may be substituted.
3. Students who are unsuccessful in the ATP will be allowed to take the Academic Recovery Program (ARP) later.
4. Students who successfully complete the ATP, and have a UGPA of at least 60.00%, have satisfied the conditions of their admission to the Faculty of Arts and will be afforded all the rights and privileges of registration through the Faculty.
5. Students who are on university probation will have their probation period extended while they are in the ATP so that they will be exonerated from a MW (must withdraw) academic action.
6. Students who successfully complete the ATP and still have a UGPA below the minimum standard of 60.00%:
   - will be allowed to continue studies in the Faculty for a further 15 credit hours;
   - will be limited to a maximum of 12 credit hours per term; and,
   - must have a UGPA of 60.00% after the term in which the 15 credit hours are completed.
7. Failure to attain a minimum UGPA of 60.00% after the completion of the ATP and the additional 15 credit hours will result in a mandatory withdrawal of at least three terms.
8. Students who receive a failing grade in a third completed attempt at ENGL 100 must withdraw from the university for two years.
9. Students cannot appeal the requirements of the ATP.
