

CAMPION COLLEGE

Campion College is a federated Liberal Arts college offering courses in the Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Media, Art, and Performance. It is a Roman Catholic College administered by the Jesuit Fathers of Saskatchewan and its Board of Regents. The College is a fully accredited member of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada and its graduates receive the degrees of the University of Regina.

The College was established in December of 1917, with its first students arriving in September of 1918. Campion was affiliated with the University of Saskatchewan in 1924 and federated with the University of Saskatchewan Regina Campus in 1964; it came on campus in 1966.

As members of a federated college, Campion students take advantage of all the programs and services the College offers as well as the extensive resources and course offerings of the University of Regina.

A smaller student body allows Campion faculty and administrative staff to offer students extraordinary attention in areas of academic, personal and spiritual counselling, registration and other student services. All Campion faculty are members of the University of Regina Council and all Campion students are fully accredited students of the University of Regina.
