

Faculty of ARTS

Areas of Study

- Anthropology
- Economics
- English
- French (offered by La Cité)
- Geography and Environmental Studies
- Health Studies
- History
- Indigenous Studies and Languages
- International Languages
- Journalism (After Degree)
- Justice Studies
- Linguistics
- Philosophy and Classics
- Politics and International Studies
- Psychology
- Sociology and Social Studies
- Women's and Gender Studies

Program Options

Depending on area of study:
Bachelor of Arts
Bachelor of Arts Honours
Diploma
Certificate
Cooperative Education options

Additional Major and Minor Options

Students completing an Arts program may have the option of completing a second major or minor in the areas of study offered by the Faculty of Science or the Faculty of Media, Art and Performance

Transfer or Post Degree Programs

Education	Medicine
Law	Nursing

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Critical thinking and analysis
- Verbal communication
- Research
- Creativity
- Knowledge of the human experience
- Global perspective
- Interpersonal abilities
- Creative problem solving
- Adaptability
- Writing skills
- Presentation skills
- Ability to provide well-directed, constructive criticism

Career Opportunities

Arts, Culture, and Heritage
Business and Industry (Marketing, Communication, HR)
Communications and Public Relations
Community Development (Non-profit Sector)
Educational Services
Public Service/Government (Public Administration)
Research

For more details, visit: <http://www.uregina.ca/arts/areas-study/index.html>

Graduate Program Opportunities

An Arts Degree is a foundation for many professional and graduate programs, including, but not limited to:

Your major area of study
Education
Business and Leadership
Public Policy
Public Administration
Professional Communication Management