

Faculty of BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Program Information

Four Year Degree

Two Year Diploma

Certificate in Administration options available through Centre for Continuing Education

Must complete qualifying courses to be eligible for degree or diploma program

Co-operative Education options available

Some Majors can lead to Professional Designations

Optional Bachelor of Business Administration Majors:

- Accounting
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance
- Human Resource Management
- International Business
- Marketing
- Management

For more details, visit:

<http://www.uregina.ca/business/hill/prospective-students/hill-programs.html>

Proficiencies and Knowledge

- Conceptual, technical and interpersonal knowledge and skills
- Problem solving and conflict management
- Team work, communication and critical thinking
- Project management
- Change management
- Negotiation
- Strategy
- Labour and employment relations
- Learning and development
- Workforce planning and talent management
- Corporate finance, tax and treasury
- Investor relations
- Transactional and operational finance and accounting
- Marketing analysis
- Strategic marketing
- Marketing performance measurement
- Small business management
- Managing a diverse workforce

Career Options

Accountant
Business Assurance Manager
Business Owner
Chief Executive Officer
Chief Financial Officer
Communications Consultant
Compensation Analyst
Consumer Behaviour
Controller

Financial Planner
Foreign Currency Investment Advisor
Foreign Trade Management
Health and Safety
Human Resources
Industrial Relations
Information Management
Internal Auditor
International Quality Control Auditor

Internet Marketing
Market Researcher
Organizational Development Consultant
Payroll
Pension and Benefits
Risk Manager
Trade Development Officer
Training and Development