

Faculty of MEDIA, ART, AND PERFORMANCE

Program Information

- Three, Four and Five Year Degree Programs

Programs offered in:

- Creative Technologies
- Indian Fine Arts (Indian Art, Indian Art History)
- Film (Film Production, Film Studies)
- Music (Performance, Composition or History, Music Education)
- Theatre (Acting or Design and Stage Management)
- Visual Arts (Art History, Studio Art)
- Interdisciplinary Studies Programs:
 - Arts Administration
 - Creative Technologies
 - General Minor in Fine Arts
 - Photography

For more details, visit: <http://www.uregina.ca/mediaartperformance/areas-study/index.html>

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Think analytically, critically and creatively
- Conceptualize and develop art projects in film and new media
- Operate production equipment
- Shoot and edit film
- Manipulate sound
- Play analysis and writing
- History, theory and criticism of theatre
- Music theory and music history
- Ear training and sight reading
- Evaluate music critically
- Understand Indian Art and culture from a First Nations perspective
- Investigate indigenous aesthetics
- The intersection of fine arts and technology to produce creative works in visual arts, sound, music and theatre

Career Options

Acting
Animator
Arts Administration
Band Director
Broadcast Technician
Community Arts Coordinator
Curator
Editor (film, sound)
Fashion/Fabric Designer

Film & Video Distribution
Host (radio & television)
Gallery Administrator
Graphic Design
Librarian
Lighting Designer
Museum/Gallery Educator
Music Teacher
Music Therapist

Performer
Public Relations
Researcher
Scenic Designer
Songwriter
Sound/Production Mixer
Teacher/Professor
Theatre/Film Critic
Writer

FACULTY OF MEDIA+ART+ PERFORMANCE

Student Success Centre

University of Regina