

Faculty of NURSING

Program Information

- Offered in collaboration with University of Regina and Saskatchewan Polytechnic
- Competitive, direct entry
- After Degree Program (ADNP)*
(*first intake Sept 2017)

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Ability to support and advocate for people to achieve and maintain health, or a comfortable end of life through holistic nursing care
- Communicate effectively with people of diverse backgrounds and needs
- Critically analyze complex needs and issues
- Collaborate within inter-professional teams to develop potential solutions
- Apply Primary Health Care principles and approaches to health needs and issues
- Develop information literacy and utilize nursing informatics for achieving best practices in health care

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Human anatomy and physiology
- Normal growth and development and alterations in health (acute and chronic) across the lifespan
- Aboriginal health
- Pharmacology
- Microbiology
- Palliative care
- Informatics and information literacy
- Research
- Advanced health assessment, patient safety, and patient-centered care
- Primary health care and education for health
- Health promotion and disease prevention for individuals, families, groups, communities, and populations, including global health issues
- Leadership and management, and the social, political and economic perspectives in nursing

For more details, visit: <http://www.sasknursingdegree.ca/>

Career Options - Opportunities in urban, rural and northern settings

Hospitals (Specializations including):

Cardiology
Emergency Rooms
Oncology
Gerontology
Maternal and Newborn
Medicine
Neurology

Neurosurgery
Respiratory
Orthopedics
Pediatric & Adolescent
Psychiatry

Community:

Rehabilitation
Hospices
Surgery
Palliative Care
Women's Health
Extended care & integrated care facilities
Long-term care facilities

Other Areas:

Community Development
Correctional Health Services
First Nations and Inuit Health
Population Health Services
Primary Health Care Youth Services
School Health