

Faculty of SOCIAL WORK

Program Information

- Bachelor of Social Work
- Bachelor of Indigenous Social Work
- Certificate in Indigenous Social Work

Competitive Entry
Pre-Social Work
(30 credit hours)

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Assess client needs and intervene appropriately
- Counsel individuals and facilitate groups
- Analyze and evaluate social programs and policy
- Develop and administer social programs
- Empower community groups
- Apply the CASW Code of Ethics & Guidelines for Ethical Practice
- Critically analyze complex issues from multiple perspectives
- Conduct social research and write organized reports
- Apply awareness of intercultural diversity and anti-oppressive practice
- Manage stress and conflict
- Generate and implement problem solving strategies

Proficiencies & Knowledge

- Human behaviour in the social environment
- Theories used in social work
- Social programs and policy
- Social justice and social change
- Counselling and interventions
- Professional values and ethics

Practice in diverse fields including:

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| Aboriginal Peoples | Correctional Services | Multiculturalism |
| Abuse | Disabilities | Palliative Care |
| Addictions | Education | Rural Communities |
| Administration | Environment | Pension Programs |
| Advocacy & Law | Family | Sexuality |
| Aging | Gender | Social research & policy |
| Child & Youth | Health | Social planning |
| Child Protection | International Development | Work & unemployment |
| Community Services | Mental Health | Financial assistance |

Career Options

- | | | |
|--------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Family counselling | Mental health and addictions | Activism, advocacy and empowerment |
| Child welfare | Policy analysis and research | Education |
| Newcomer support | Community development | Criminal justice |
| Healthcare | | |

For more details, visit: <http://www.uregina.ca/socialwork/programs/index.html>

Student Success Centre

